(Sgd.) JAMES GARDINER,
Colonial Treasurer.

1. The system of accounting (including the necessary books) in each Trading Concern shall be submitted to the Colonial Treasurer, through the Under Treasurer and Controller General of Accounts, for approval, and no fundamental variation of a system or books of account shall be made without the written authority of the Under Treasurer.

RECEIPT AND DISBURSEMENT OF MONEYS.

Receipts.

2. The Accountant will be responsible for the proper accounting and recording of moneys, preparation of returns, balance sheet, etc., and the appointment of collectors where necessary, but such appointments shall apply to Head Office only.

3. Except as otherwise provided, all moneys received shall, where banking facilities exist, be banked daily, or when so required by the Colonial Treasurer, to credit of the Colonial Treasurer's General Account with the Commonwealth Bank. Where banking facilities do not exist, upon such conditions as the Colonial Treasurer may approve in writing.

4. When paying his collections into the Bank, the Accountant shall obtain a duplicate bank receipt (Form No. 1) therefor, which receipt shall be forwarded to the Treasury accompanied by a voucher as per Form 2, crediting the "Banking Account."

5. Commission and/or disbursements payable to or by an agent may be deducted from his collections, provided approval has been obtained from the Colonial Treasurer and the nett amount only brought to account.

6. Deposits on contracts lodged with a Trading Concern shall be paid into a separate Trust Account in the Treasury Books, and may be invested as directed by the Colonial Treasurer.

7. Manuscript receipts of acknowledgments for money shall in no case be issued, but printed forms of acknowledgment taken from books with duplicates and machine-numbered shall be used. A record of such books shall be kept by the Accountant, and a copy supplied to the Auditor General from time to time, as required by him. In cases where it becomes necessary to cancel a receipt, the cancelled form shall not be destroyed but left attached to the duplicates.

Disbursements.

8. Payment to public creditors may be made by order drawn on the Minister through the Commonwealth Bank, or in such other manner as the Colonial Treasurer may approve; orders are to be collected daily by the Accountant of each Trading Concern, and an Imprest Form No. 3 forwarded to the Treasury, debiting the "Banking Account" with the amount of the orders required.

9. All orders on the Minister and all cheques drawn shall be signed and counter-signed by officers duly appointed by the Minister.

10. Payment may be made to a creditor in any of the following ways:—

- (a) To the claimant in person.
- (b) To the credit of the claimant at the bank.
- (c) At the claimant's usual place of business.

- (e) To the legally constituted representative of the claimant.
- (f) To any person as may be especially directed by the creditor in writing.
- (g) Payment of salaries and wages must be made to principals only, excepting under exceptional circumstances, when they may be paid to the order of the creditor; such order shall before acceptance be initialled by the principal officer available at the time.
- (h) To credit of an account in the Treasury books to be styled the "Crown Law Payments-in-Suspense" in the case of moneys payable on contract, the purchase of the resumption of land, the satisfaction of judgments and awards, the settlement of actions and costs therein, and all similar matters requiring settlement by the Law Officers of the Crown.

(i) Upon such other conditions as the Treasurer may, in any individual case, sanction in writing.

(j) Receipts may be accepted for the payment of moneys in the various forms as are customary between commercial houses or by the endorsement on the orders or cheques where such orders or cheques are made payable to the creditors' order.

11. The Banking Account at the Treasury may be drawn upon for advances to be made to managers and other officers for the purpose of conducting the operations of the Trading Concern, also for deposits on contracts. All advances of £50 or over exceeding for the purpose of change, shall, where banking facilities exist, be paid to an official account with the Commonwealth Bank or one of its agencies.

12. If it is found imperative, at any time or place, to provide money for the purpose of change, the Minister shall direct that such moneys may be drawn from the Banking Account and treated as an advance, but all such advances must be refunded or accounted for at the close of the financial year.

13. Any officer holding an advance shall not draw cheques in anticipation of re-imburement, nor shall he over-draw his bank account—such advances shall on the 30th June be accounted for either by a certificate from a banking institution, or by a certificate of some person authorised by the Minister.

14. In preparing accounts for salaries and allowances, Forms 4 and 4a respectively shall be used, or other forms as may be approved by the Colonial Treasurer. One month's pay at an annual rate is to be calculated at one twelfth part of such annual rate; payment may be made twice-monthly, viz.:—mid-monthly and at the end of the month, the mid-monthly payment being of even pounds. Salary for a portion of the month is to be computed by multiplying the amount of the salary for the month by a number of days comprised in the period for which payment is to be made, and dividing by the number of days in the month.

15. The rendition of accounts for "Contingencies" claims rendered by Public Creditors on their ordinary business forms, giving full particulars of services rendered, may be accepted, provided the following certificates are affixed thereon. (A rubber stamp may be used):—

.....For Payment.

Where Government account forms are used, similar certificates shall be affixed, in lieu of those printed on the form.

16. Duplicate accounts must not be passed for payment except when the original account has been lost or mislaid. If it is necessary to pay a duplicate account, the Accountant shall certify on the back thereof that the original has not been paid. Such account shall have the words "Duplicate, see endorsement" written across the face of it.

17. Petty Expenditure, such as Cab Hire, Railway Fares, etc., should, as far as possible, be included in one Account (Form 5) when not exceeding 5s. in any one payment, which may be paid without acquittance under the signature of the Manager or Accountant.

18. Interest on the daily balance of money provided out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, and interest in respect of such portion of the General Loan Fund or other money used as Capital Expenditure in the Trading Concern shall be debited to the "Banking Account" in the books of the Treasury and credited to the Consolidated Revenue Fund half-yearly. A certificate of the amount to be so debited shall be issued by the Under Treasurer and Controller General of Accounts to the Minister of each Concern.

19. Contributions to the Sinking Fund in respect of such portion of the General Loan Fund, or any money used as Capital Expenditure in the Trading Concern shall be paid half-yearly, on the 30th June and 31st December in each year.

21. Salaries and Wages Sheets and Public Creditors' Claims shall be retained in the office of the Accountant of each Trading Concern.

22. Each Trading Concern shall make necessary provision for Marine, Fire, and Accident Fidelity Insurance, as may be applicable, in such manner as the Minister may approve.

GENERAL.

23. The profit or loss of each Trading Concern for each year, when ascertained, shall be treated in such manner as the Colonial Treasurer shall direct, but any estimated profit available in cash, during the course of the financial year, and not required in the Trading Concern, may be paid to credit of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, when directed by the Colonial Treasurer, but should unforeseen circumstances arise that any portion or all of such money so carried to Consolidated Revenue Fund be required by the Concern, the amount so required shall be re-transferred to the Banking Account.

24. The Colonial Treasurer shall determine the amount of the depreciation of the assets of any Trading Concern, such depreciation being a working expense shall be debited in the Profit and Loss Account, and where a cash profit is shown equivalent to the depreciation charge such amount shall be carried to a Depreciation Fund Account in the Treasury Books and invested to provide for the replacement of the assets of the Trading Concern.

25. Notwithstanding anything in these regulations, the Minister may appoint any agent to collect moneys on behalf of a Trading Concern, give them directions thereon, and fix the remuneration to be paid.

26. The proceeds of the sale of any Fixed Capital Assets of a Trading Concern shall be applied, in the books of the Trading Concern, in reduction of the capital, and in the books of the Treasury shall be credited to Government Property Sales Fund, and Interest and Sinking Fund contributions shall cease to be charged against the Trading Concern thereafter.

27. The Working Capital shall be deemed to be the amount required to meet the expenditure over and above the receipts of any Trading Concern. The amount so required to make good the deficiency shall be provided from the appropriation out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund or General Loan Fund by the annual Estimates for Working Capital, but if sufficient funds have not been provided to meet requirements, the deficiency may be provided from the Appropriation "Advance to Treasurer."

28. In cases where the Working Capital of any Trading Concern is not required, the same may be refunded and credited to the Government Property Sales Fund, if drawn in any previous financial year, but if refunded during the currency of the financial year in which the amount was drawn from the Working Capital shall be credited to the Vote provided on the Consolidated Revenue Fund or General Loan Fund Estimates, as the case may be, and interest shall thereafter be charged on the reduced Working Capital.

29. The Votes of Parliament provided for each Trading Concern on the Estimates of the Consolidated Revenue Fund or General Loan Fund shall be drawn upon in the following manner:—

- (a) The Minister controlling each Trading Concern shall, when necessary, make application on Form 6 through the Under Treasurer and Controller General of Accounts to the Colonial Treasurer for the amount required to meet the Capital or Working Expenses of each Trading Concern for a period of not more than three months and not less than one month.
- (b) The Colonial Treasurer on approving of such application shall issue a certificate to the Under Treasurer and Controller General of Accounts directing that the Vote of the Trading Concern be debited with the amount approved.
- (c) The Under Treasurer and Controller General of Accounts or an officer appointed by him shall certify that the amount has been treated in accordance with the certificate of the Colonial Treasurer. Form 6 shall be forwarded to the Auditor General in support of the Treasury Cash Account.
