3. The Minister may from time to time, by notice in the Government Gazette, specify the districts, mining centres, mines, or groups of mines for which he is willing to appoint Workmen's Inspectors.

4. The Workmen's Inspectors' duties will be limited to those mines which are employing not less than ten men underground as wages men, contractors or tributers.

5. The rates of payment for Workmen's Inspectors shall be £7 5s. per week. No district or other allowance shall be paid to Workmen's Inspectors beyond travelling allowance and expenses for conveyance when necessary and approved by the District Inspector.

6. Every Workmen's Inspector shall be under the control and direction of the District Inspector of the district for which the said Workmen's Inspector has been appointed, and shall make all his reports to the District Inspector. He shall also forward a copy of all his reports to the Industrial Unions having members concerned.

7. The Minister may from time to time direct that an election of Workmen's Inspectors be held in each of such districts, on such dates and at such times and places as he may appoint, and for the carrying out of such election the following conditions shall be observed, viz.:—

- (a) The District Inspector of Mines, or a deputy appointed by him, shall act as Returning Officer at such election, and shall be empowered to make all necessary arrangements.
- (b) Every candidate for appointment shall be nominated in writing by not less than six persons who are actually employed in mines in the districts in question at the date of signing such nomination, and shall forward his nomination paper so as to reach the office of the District Inspector of Mines on or before the date fixed by the Minister for receipt of such nominations, accompanied with an application from himself for employment in the desired position, any testimonials or other evidence which he may desire to submit in support thereof, and a statutory declaration, signed by himself, under "The Evidence Act, 1906," declaring his name in full, occupation, place of abode, age, place and date of birth, nationality, the nature and extent of his mining experience, and that he is in good health and physically fit for the work of the position.
- (c) All nominations received shall be transmitted forthwith to the Minister, who may require further information about any candidate, and proof of any of the facts contained in the declaration accompanying his application, including a medical certificate of health and physical fitness, and a statutory declaration from not less than two respectable persons that they are well acquainted with the candidate and know him to be of sober habits and good character. The Minister may disapprove of any candidate at his discretion, and the nomination of such candidate shall thereupon become void.
- (d) If only one nomination is received for each position vacant and is approved by the Minister, the candidate so nominated and approved may be appointed by the Minister without further election, or the Minister may call for fresh nominations,

(e) If more nominations than one for each position vacant are received and approved by the Minister, he shall fix the dates, times, and places at which elections shall be held for each such position, and the District Inspector, as Returning Officer, shall thereupon cause the names and addresses of the duly nominated and approved candidates to be posted up at two or more conspicuous places within each district for which a Workmen's Inspector is to be appointed, and to be advertised not less than twice in a newspaper circulating in such district, and such notices and advertisements shall state the dates, times, and places at which votes may be cast for election of such Workmen's Inspector.

(f) The Returning Officer shall arrange for voting papers to be given out and ballot boxes to be provided to receive them when duly marked, at such of the principal mines in each district for which a Workmen's Inspector is to be appointed, and/or at such other convenient places as the Minister may direct, and every person voting shall appear personally at one of such places to cast his vote.

(g) No person shall be entitled to vote who is not employed in a mine in the district for which the election is held, or who, being out of employment at the time of the election, was not last employed in a mine in the said district within a month of the date of the election, but any person who may be out of employment through illness or other cause, and who would be debarred from voting under this clause, may apply to the Inspector of Mines to be allowed to vote, and may be permitted to vote if the said Inspector is satisfied that such person has been previously last employed in a mine in the said district, and is not still so employed for good and sufficient reasons beyond his own personal control.

(h) Before receiving his voting paper from the Returning Officer or his deputy, each voter shall satisfy such officer or deputy by a certificate from the office of the mine at which he is employed, or by personal identification by an officer of the said mine, or by such other evidence as may seem to the Returning Officer to be sufficient, that he is entitled to vote at the election. In any case in which the Returning Officer or his deputy is not fully satisfied, he may require the voter to make a statutory declaration showing the grounds on which he claims to be entitled to vote.

(i) No person shall vote more than once at the same election, and the Returning Officer or his deputy may require any voter, before a voting paper is given to him, to make a statutory declaration that he has not voted previously at the same election.

(j) No person shall be eligible to vote who is not a natural born or naturalised British subject. The Returning Officer or his deputy may require any person claiming a voting paper to make a statutory declaration that he is a natural born or naturalised British subject.

(k) Each candidate may scrutinise all evidence submitted to the Returning Officer or his deputy in support of claims to vote, and may have the assistance of one scrutineer appointed by himself at each voting place in doing so and in scrutinising the subsequent counting of the votes.

8. The method of marking the voting papers shall be on the optional preferential system, as follows:—

- (a) In the case of the election of one Workmen's Inspector, the voter shall mark his vote on the voting paper by placing the numeral 1 opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes as his first preference, and he may, if he so desires, give contingent votes for the remaining candidates, or any of them, by placing numerals 2, 3, 4 and so on opposite their names.
- (b) In the case of the election of two Workmen's Inspectors the voter shall mark his vote on the voting paper by placing the numerals 1 and 2 opposite the names of the candidates for whom he votes as his first and second preferences, and he may, if he so desires, give contingent votes for the remaining candidates, or any of them, by placing numerals 3, 4, 5 and so on opposite their names.

The counting of votes shall be on the preferential system as employed in election for the State Parliament, so far as it is applicable, provided that a voting paper shall not be informal if it be marked in accordance with paragraphs (a) and (b) of this clause.

The Minister may authorise alterations in detail as may be deemed necessary by him.

9. When the votes have been counted the District Inspector shall publicly announce the result and post it in writing in a conspicuous place, and shall report it forthwith to the Minister.

10. Any person voting who is not entitled to vote, or voting more than once at the same election, shall be guilty of a breach of the Regulations, and shall be liable to a penalty of not more than Ten pounds for each offence.

11. The Minister may from time to time, by notice in the Government Gazette, extend the boundaries of the district of a Workmen's Inspector to include other mining centres, mines, or groups of mines than those for which he was elected, without an election for the districts so extended, but such extensions shall participate in the next subsequent election.
