CLOTHING (WATERPROOF GARMENTS).

(Registered 26th October, 1928.)

No. 24 of 1928.

THIS Agreement, made in pursuance of "The Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1925," the first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, between The Aqua Proofing Co. and Goode, Durrant & Co., Limited (hereinafter called the employers), of the one part, and The Western Australian Clothing and Allied Trades Industrial Union of Workers, Perth (hereinafter called the Union), of the other part, witnesseth, that for the considerations hereinafter appearing the parties hereto mutually covenant and agree the one with the other as follows:—

1.—Scope.

This Agreement shall apply to all workers engaged in the manufacture of waterproof garments of all descriptions.

2.—Hours and Overtime.

(a) The ordinary working hours shall be forty-four in any week, and such hours shall be worked between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. on week days, except Saturdays or other days on which the half-holiday is usually observed, when such hours shall be worked between 8 a.m. and 1 p.m.

(b) Any worker who is employed in excess of the hours fixed for any one day, or in excess of forty-four hours for any one week, shall be paid at the rate of time and a half. Each day shall stand alone, with a minimum overtime of one shilling for each day on which overtime is worked, and one shilling tea money shall be paid in addition on each day on which overtime is worked beyond 6 p.m.

3.—Distribution of Work.

The employer shall, in slack times, observe turns for all workers (including outdoor workers) in each section of the industry; provided that journeymen and journeywomen having apprentices shall be allowed, on their turn, extra work equivalent to the wages of the apprentice during the time the turn system is in operation. The employer shall keep in the workroom a true record of every turn, which shall be open to the inspection of the workers.

4.—Outdoor Work.

All work shall be done in the workshop provided and controlled by the employer, except as hereinafter provided:—

(1) Should an employer desire to employ, or a worker desire to be employed outside the factory, he or she may, for such purpose, make application to the Chief Inspector of Factories for a permit;

(2) On receipt of any such application the Chief Inspector of Factories shall send a copy thereof by registered letter to the Secretary of the Union;

(3) If the Chief Inspector of Factories is satisfied that—

(a) the person to whom it is proposed to give such work cannot work on employer's premises owing to old age, infirmity, or domestic ties; or

(b) the accommodation in the employer's factory is fully occupied, he may grant such permit. Provided that no employer shall be allowed to employ more than one such worker to every ten or fraction of ten indoor workers, and except for the reasons set forth in Subclauses (a) and (b) no permit shall be issued.

A worker shall be deemed to have "domestic ties" if he has at least one person wholly dependent upon him.

(4) Persons doing outdoor work shall not employ labour, except members of their family resident with them.

(5) Such outdoor work shall be paid for at the piecework rates provided by this Agreement.

(6) Outdoor workers shall be provided free of charge with cotton, silk, thread, and all other sewings and trimmings used in the manufacture of garments.

5.—Wages.

Basic wage.—(a) Males, £4 5s. per week; (b) Females, £2 5s. 11d. per week.

The minimum rate of wages payable to adult workers under this Agreement shall be as follows:—

	Margin.	Minimum per week,
		£	s. d.
Males:
(a) Dippers and proofers ..	17 0	5	2 0
(b) Cutters	17 0	5	2 0
Females:
(a) Makers	14 1	3	0 0
(b) Machinists (coat and buttonhole)	5 9	2	11 8
(c) Machinists (other) ..	4 3	2	10 2
(d) Other Female Workers ..	2 9	2	8 8

Notwithstanding anything herein contained, females over twenty-one years of age (not being apprentices or probationers) without previous experience at the trade may, subject to agreement in writing between the Union and the employer, be employed at the following rates:—

	Per week.
	£	s. d.
The first six months	1	11 6
The second six months	1	16 0
The third six months	2	0 0
The fourth six months	2	5 0

And thereafter at the minimum adult rate.

6.—Piecework.

(a) The employer, in conjunction with his employees, shall be at liberty to fix his own piecework rates; provided that such rates shall be such as to enable a worker to earn not less than the minimum weekly wage in his respective class. The same piecework rates shall be paid to all pieceworkers doing the same operation in the factory, whether they be junior workers or fully paid workers. In the event of any dispute regarding piecework rates occurring and remaining unsettled between the employer and his employees, the employer or the Secretary of the Union may refer such dispute to the Board of Reference hereinafter referred to, and the decision of such Board of Reference shall be final and binding on the parties to the dispute.

(b) The employer shall supply to each worker employed on piecework before the work is put in hand a docket containing the particulars of and rate to be paid for such work.

(c) In cases where an employer requires from a time worker a minimum quantity of work in return for a specified rate of pay, the following conditions shall be observed:—

1. The employer shall supply the worker with a docket showing the quantity of work required and the rate at which such work is calculated; or

2. The like particulars shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the factory;

3. The rate shall not be less than the recognised piecework rate for similar work; or

4. If there be no recognised piecework rate, the rate for the required output shall be such as would enable the worker to earn not less than the minimum wage fixed for a time worker working at similar work under like conditions.

7.—Respite.

Where females are employed for more than four hours continuously they shall be allowed an interval of ten minutes during such period without deduction from the wage, and such interval shall be computed as part of the working time.

8.—Junior Workers.

(a) "Junior Worker" means a worker over the age of fifteen years and under the age of twenty-one years.

(b) Proportions: The number of junior workers which an employer may employ shall be according to the following:—

Junior Males:

Dippers and Proofers: One junior to every three fully paid workers, howsoever employed.

Junior Females:

(1) Makers: Three juniors to every one fully paid worker.

(2) All Machinists:

2 Juniors where only 1 fully paid worker is employed.

5 Juniors where only 2 fully paid workers are employed.

7 Juniors where only 3 fully paid workers are employed.

10 Juniors where only 4 fully paid workers are employed.

12 Juniors where only 5 fully paid workers are employed.

Where more than five fully paid workers are employed the foregoing shall be utilised to determine the number of junior workers to be allowed.

(c) For the purpose of determining from time to time whether a junior worker proposed to be taken by an employer is within the number of junior workers allowed to such employer, the following provisions shall have effect:—

The calendar year shall be divided into quarters, and the first days of January, April, July, and October shall be the quarter days. The average number of fully paid workers employed by an employer on all working days of the six months immediately preceding any quarter day shall, for the purpose of this subclause, be taken as and be deemed to be the number of fully paid workers who are employed on such quarter day, and the number of junior workers who may be taken on by an employer at any time shall be based upon the number of fully paid workers as deemed to be employed by such employer on the then last preceding quarter day. Fully paid workers shall mean time workers who are receiving not less than the minimum wage and pieceworkers who are earning for a full day's work not less than the minimum wage for the class of work which they are doing.

(d) The minimum rate of wages payable to junior workers shall be as follows:—

	Males per week.			Females per week.			Other Females per week.
	Dippers and Proofers.			Makers.

And thereafter the minimum rate of wage.

Provided that, where a junior worker attains the age of 21 years and has not completed the full term of a junior worker, by arrangement in writing between the employer and the Union, the said junior worker may be retained in the employ of the employer and be paid in accordance with the scale of wages laid down herein, but so that such a worker, having attained the age of 21 years and continuing in employment until attaining the age of 22 years, shall not receive less than £1 11s. 6d. per week.

9.—Under-rate Workers.

Any worker who by reason of old age or infirmity is unable to earn the minimum wage may be paid such lesser wage as may from time to time be agreed upon in writing between the Union and the employer, and in default of such agreement within twenty-four hours after such worker shall have applied in writing to the Secretary of the Union stating his or her desire that such wage should be agreed upon, such wage as shall be fixed by the most convenient Resident or Police Magistrate, upon the application of such worker after twenty-four hours' notice in writing shall have been given by him or her to the said Secretary who shall, if he so desires, be heard by the Magistrate upon such application. After having given notice to the Secretary, and after lodging the application mentioned, and pending the Magistrate's decision thereon, the worker shall be entitled to work for and be employed at the proposed lesser rate. The determination of the Magistrate shall have effect for the period of six calendar months from the date thereof, and, after the expiration of the said period, until the wage shall have been again fixed at the instance of the said Secretary in the manner prescribed. The Secretary of the Union may by writing under his hand appoint an agent or substitute to represent the Union at the hearing of the application before the Magistrate.

10.—Record Book.

A time and wages book shall be kept by each employer, in which book shall be entered the name of each worker paid by time, the nature of the work he or she is doing, the hours worked each day, and the amount of wages received by him or her each week. The employer shall be responsible for the proper posting of the book each week. The said book shall be open to the inspection of the Secretary or organiser of the Union during working hours.

11.

Nothing in this Agreement shall in itself operate to reduce the wages of any worker below the rate actually received by him or her at the date hereof.

12.—Higher Duties.

A worker engaged in any one day for more than half of such day at work in a higher class than that which he or she is usually engaged in, shall be paid for the full day at the highest rate payable for any such work, but if engaged for less than half a day shall be paid at the rate fixed for work he or she actually performs. Where a worker is responsible for the work of three or more persons, such worker shall receive at least one shilling per day above the minimum wage.

13.—Terminating Employment.

Where the employer gives two working days' notice of any day or days on which the services of a worker (other than a casual worker) will not be required, he shall not be liable to pay any wage for that day or days. No worker shall, without just cause, be absent from his or her place of employment during the prescribed hours whilst there is work ready to be done by such worker, and where weekly wages are fixed the employee to be entitled to the sum so fixed must be available and ready and willing to do the work on days and during the hours fixed by agreement.

The employer shall be entitled to deduct payment for every day or part thereof upon which the worker cannot be usefully employed through any breakdown of the employer's machinery or power supplying such machinery or through fire.

Any worker who is employed for a period of less than five consecutive working days, exclusive of hours of overtime work, shall be classed as a casual employee, and one hour's notice on either side shall be sufficient to terminate the employment, but this provision shall not apply in respect of an employee re-entering the service of an employer within one year of the termination of employment under such provision.

14.—Posting Agreement.

A copy of this Agreement shall be posted by the employer in a prominent place in the workroom.

15.—Normal Average Output.

Where there is a normal average output by a weekly worker, and such worker makes more than that amount in the ordinary working hours of any one week, such worker shall be entitled to additional wages for such work for such extra work proportionate to the extra work done in comparison with the normal average output.

16.—Visiting Workshops.

In each factory or workshop the Secretary or other representative of the Union shall be allowed during lunch time to interview workers in the luncheon room (if one be provided by the employer), and to post notices relating to union matters.

17.—Holidays.

The following holidays shall be observed and paid for as they occur, namely:—New Year's Day, Anniversary Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Anzac Day, Foundation Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day; and three days between the twenty-sixth and thirty-first day of December inclusive; provided that, if it be considered inconvenient by the employer to grant such three days between the dates recited, he shall notify the Union in writing on or before December the eleventh, and the employer and the Union shall thereupon mutually agree upon the dates that such three days shall be taken. Provided further, that the dates agreed upon shall be such as to enable the worker to take the three days due by the last day of February following.

Provided that, where an employee's employment is terminated during the course of a calendar year, his employer shall pay to him one day's wages for each calendar month of his service in lieu of the holidays to which he would be entitled under this clause, and has not received. In the event of an employee being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled to such holidays on full pay as are proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such holidays are not equal to the holidays given to the other employees, he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other employees of such employer are on holidays on full pay. Where any specified holiday falls on Sunday the following Monday shall be observed in lieu thereof.

18.—Board of Reference.

(a) For the purpose of this Agreement there shall be a Board of Reference, consisting of two representatives of the employers and two representatives of the Union, and a chairman to be mutually agreed upon by such representatives, or in default of such agreement, to be nominated by the Clerk of the Court.

(b) Either party may at any time vary its representatives and fill any vacancies.

(c) If any dispute or question arise in the carrying out of this Agreement between the Union and the employers or any of them, it may be referred by either party concerned to the Board, and the decision of the Board, or a majority thereof, shall be final and conclusive. Provided that nothing herein contained shall empower the Board to vary or amend the rates of wages or any other term or condition set out in this Agreement.

(d) On any matter being referred to the Board as aforesaid, or at the request of any two members of the Board, the Chairman shall convene a meeting of the Board, to be held at such place and time as he shall appoint, such meeting to be held in any case not later than fourteen days from the date of such reference or request.

(e) The Chairman shall determine whether any question or dispute properly comes within the province and function of the Board.

(f) Any costs or charges attending sittings of the Board may be awarded by the Chairman against the unsuccessful party.

19.—Area.

This Agreement shall apply over the area comprised within a radius of twenty-five miles from the General Post Office, Perth.

20.—Term.

This Agreement shall operate as from the day of the date hereof, and shall continue in force for a period of three years, subject to the right of either party at any time after the expiration of twelve months upon giving one month's notice in writing to the other party to determine the Agreement and (a) to amend the same by mutual consent, or (b) to apply to the Court of Arbitration for an Award.

21.—Certificate of Employment to Junior Workers.

Every employer shall issue a certificate to each Junior Worker leaving his employ, such certificate to contain the following particulars:—
