THE PRISONS ACT, 1903-18.

Chief Secretary's Department,
Perth, 18th December, 1928.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Council has been pleased to amend Regulation 82 of the Regulations under "The Prisons Act, 1903-18," published in the Gazette on the 19th day of January, 1923—

(1) By adding to the offences therein mentioned the following further offences, viz.:—

"Any other act or omission which is declared to be a breach of or an offence under the Act or these regulations."

"Any other disgraceful or improper conduct as an officer."

"Any other disgraceful or improper conduct otherwise than as an officer by reason whereof an officer ceases to be a fit and proper person to continue in his employment as an officer."

(2) By adding after the offences in the said regulations a proviso as follows:—

"Provided that if the Superintendent of the Fremantle Prison, or the Officer-in-Charge of any prison other than Fremantle is of the opinion that any offence brought under his notice is of such a nature, or has been committed under such circumstances as to call only for a caution or reprimand, such Superintendent or Officer-in-Charge may caution or reprimand the offending officer, but shall report having done so, with full particulars relating to the offence to the Comptroller General."

(3) To approve of an additional regulation—

"82. (a) If any officer is on an indictment convicted of any offence he shall be deemed to have forfeited his office, and shall thereupon cease to perform his duties, or receive his salary."

(4) And to cancel Regulations 88 to 91 inclusive of the beforementioned Regulations, and to substitute in lieu thereof the annexed regulations.

H. C. TRETOWAN,
Under Secretary.

THE PRISONS ACT, 1903-18.

Cancellation of Regulations 88 to 91, inclusive, and substitution of the following Regulations in lieu thereof.

Inquiries, etc.

88. For the purpose of inquiries against officers pursuant to the provisions of Regulation 82, the following rules shall apply, namely:—

(1) Charges against an officer may be made by any officer having authority and control over such officer.

(2) Charges shall be made on the officers' charge sheet, and, at Fremantle Prison and penal outstations thereof, shall be forwarded to the Superintendent, and at other prisons shall be forwarded to the Comptroller General.

(3) Charges shall be made and forwarded as provided as soon as possible after the alleged offence has been committed.

(4) An officer charged with an offence shall be furnished forthwith with a statement in writing of the charge made against him, signed by the officer making the charge, and bearing the date when such charge is made. Upon receipt of such statement the officer charged shall forthwith state in writing to the Comptroller General, Superintendent, or other officer having authority or control over the officer charged, as the case may be, whether he admits or denies the truth of such charge, and he may with such statement or at any time thereafter before an inquiry is held, give any written explanation relating to the alleged offence.

(5) If the charge is admitted no inquiry shall be necessary, and the Comptroller General or the Superintendent, as the case may be, shall deal with the matter and impose such penalty as a person holding an inquiry as hereafter provided may do at the conclusion of an inquiry held by him. In such case it shall be necessary only to record sufficient evidence to show the nature and gravity of the offence and the statement (if any) by the officer charged.

(6) If the offence with which an officer is charged is so serious or of such a nature as in the opinion of the Superintendent or officer in charge of the prison where the officer charged is employed to render it inadvisable that the officer charged shall continue to carry out his duties pending the dealing with the charge where the same is admitted or the inquiry into the charge where the same is denied, such Superintendent or officer in charge of prison may suspend the officer charged from duty, but he shall report such suspension forthwith to the Comptroller General who may upon receipt of such report either confirm such suspension or direct the removal thereof as he may think fit.

(7) If the charge is not admitted, and the officer charged is employed at Fremantle Prison or any penal outstation thereof, an inquiry shall be held by the Superintendent of Fremantle Prison or by the person for the time being occupying that office, but otherwise an inquiry shall be held by the officer in charge of the prison in which the officer charged is employed: Provided always that if the officer charged is an officer in charge of a prison the inquiry shall be held by the Comptroller General.

(8) Inquiries shall be held as soon as conveniently may be; not less than three days' notice in writing of the date, time and place appointed for the holding of an inquiry shall be given to the officer charged; and he shall attend personally at such inquiry. If the officer charged shall fail to attend the inquiry, then upon proof being given that the officer charged has received such notice, the inquiry may be held in his absence or may be adjourned as the person holding the inquiry shall think fit.

(9) Witnesses may attend the inquiry and may be examined, cross-examined, and re-examined by the officer conducting the case in support of the charge, and by the officer charged in answer thereto, in accordance with the practice of courts of law on the trial of an action, and the officer conducting the case in support of the charge, and the officer charged may address the person holding the inquiry in the same manner and in the same order as counsel may address the Court on the trial of an action: Provided that any informality in the conduct of the inquiry shall not invalidate the finding.

(10) The person holding the inquiry may admit any evidence both oral and documentary as may in his opinion be material and relevant to the charge and may reject any evidence which in his opinion is not so material and relevant. He shall take and record in writing in a narrative form any oral evidence admitted by him; he shall read the same over to the witness giving such evidence, correct any errors therein, and then obtain the signature of the witness upon the record of his evidence.

(11) When the cases against and for the officer charged have been concluded the person holding the inquiry shall as soon as conveniently may be consider the evidence and (subject to paragraph 15 hereof) shall make his decision thereon and fix the penalty (if any) imposed by him. When such decision has been made and penalty (if any) imposed, he shall forthwith record the same and communicate the same to the officer charged.

(12) If the person holding an inquiry is the Superintendent of Fremantle Prison or the person for the time being occupying that office, and he finds the charge to have been proved but is of opinion that the offence committed is of such a nature or was committed in such circumstances as to be sufficiently dealt with by a caution, reprimand or small fine, he may caution or reprimand or impose a fine not exceeding one pound for each offence upon the officer charged, but shall report forthwith in writing to the Comptroller General what he has done in the matter.

(13) If the person holding an inquiry is the Superintendent of Fremantle Prison or the person for the time being occupying that office, and he finds the charge to have been proved and is of opinion that the offence committed is so serious or of such an aggravated nature as to justify a substantial fine or dismissal, he shall suspend or continue the suspension from duty of the officer charged and forthwith forward to the Comptroller General the full and original notes of the inquiry, and the Comptroller General may deal with the matter in the manner hereinafter provided as he shall think fit.

(14) If the person holding an inquiry is an officer in charge of a prison other than Fremantle Prison and penal outstations thereof, he shall forward to the Comptroller General the full and original notes of the inquiry together with a report of his finding and a recommendation as to the punishment (if any) which in his opinion should be imposed, and the Comptroller General may deal with the matter in the manner hereinafter provided as he shall think fit.

(15) In all cases referred to the Comptroller General by the persons holding inquiries under this regulation and upon inquiries held by the Comptroller General as provided herein, the Comptroller General shall consider the notes of the inquiry sent to or taken by him, and decide whether or not in his opinion the charge has been proved. If he decides that the charge has not been proved, he shall dismiss the charge, and thereupon any suspension from duty shall be removed, and the officer shall receive his salary in full for the period of his suspension; but if he decides that the charge has been proved then the Comptroller General may do any one or more of the following things:—

- (a) reprimand the offender;
- (b) impose a fine upon the offender;
- (c) deprive the offender of any leave within a specified period;
- (d) reduce the offender to a lower rank or salary;
- (e) if the offender is an officer other than an officer in charge of a prison, dismiss the offender from his employment;
- (f) if the offender is an officer in charge of a prison, make a recommendation to the Governor that the offender be dismissed from his employment.

89. For the purposes of Regulation 88, paragraph 15, sub-paragraph (e), the Governor shall be deemed by this regulation to have delegated to the Comptroller General the dismissal of prison officers under the provisions of Section 15, Subsection 3, of "The Prisons Act, 1903-1918."

90. If an officer is dismissed by the Comptroller General in accordance with these regulations, then subject to such dismissal being set aside on appeal as hereinafter provided in these regulations, such officer shall not be entitled to any salary in respect of any period during which he may have been suspended.

91. (1) If the Comptroller General shall make a recommendation to the Governor that an officer in charge of a prison be dismissed from his employment, such officer shall have a right of appeal against such recommendation under Regulation 92 hereof, and such recommendation shall not be submitted to the Governor until the appeal has been heard and dismissed, or the time for such appeal has expired.

(2) If upon the due submission of such recommendation to the Governor such officer is dismissed from his employment by the Governor, there shall not be any appeal against such dismissal, and the officer in charge shall not receive any salary in respect of any period during which he may have been suspended unless the Governor otherwise directs.

(3) Upon the due submission of such recommendation to the Governor, the Governor may, instead of dismissing the officer in accordance with such recommendation, refer the matter back to the Comptroller General with a direction that he impose upon the offender any of the punishments other than dismissal provided in Regulation 88, paragraph 15, and upon receipt of such direction the Comptroller General shall impose punishment upon the offender accordingly, and there shall not be any appeal against the same.
