LAND OPEN FOR SELECTION.

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that the areas scheduled hereunder are available for selection under and subject to "The Land Act, 1898," and its amendments, including such further amendments as may be made by Parliament during the current year.

All approvals shall be subject to the residence conditions as prescribed by Section 55 of the said Act.

The areas marked "A" shall be open for selection by the special classes of selectors hereinafter named in the following order of preference:—

- (1) Under "The Discharged Soldiers' Settlement Act, 1918," by "Discharged Soldiers" within the meaning of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of the interpretation of the term in Section 3 of that Act, and "Dependants" within the meaning of that term in the said section.
- (2) Under "The Land Act, 1898," by ex-British Soldiers who were on active service in the late war.
- (3) Under "The Land Act, 1898," by Munition Workers in the late war.
- (4) Under "The Land Act, 1898," by ordinary selectors.

(In the event of an applicant other than a Discharged Soldier under subparagraph (1) obtaining a block within a Repurchased Estate, the term of the lease and conditions of payment will be subject to re-adjustment in accordance with the provisions of "The Agricultural Lands Purchase Act, 1909.")

The areas marked "B" are not subject to such order of preference.

Applications must be lodged at the Local Land Office for the district in which the land is situated, not later than the date specified, but may be lodged before such date if so desired.

All applications lodged on or before such date will be treated as having been received on the closing day, and if there are more applicants than one for any block, the application to be granted will be determined by the Land Board, except in cases where it is already determined by the order of preference set out above under "A." Should any lands remain unselected such will continue available until applied for or otherwise dealt with.

If a Land Board sitting becomes necessary, the applicants for the blocks will be duly notified of the date, time, and place of the meeting of the Board, and there shall be an interval of at least three days between the closing date and the sitting of the Board.

If an applicant wishes to appear before the Land Board in person he may apply to the Head Office or to the Clerk in Charge of any of the District or Branch Land Offices for a certificate to the Railway Department, which, on presentation at the nearest Railway Station, will entitle him to a Return Ticket, at Excursion Rates, to the place where the Board will sit, available for seven days from the date of issue.

The selector of a Homestead Farm from any location available under Part VIII. must take the balance thereof, if any, under Conditional Purchase.

The prices quoted hereunder (exclusive of the value of improvements, if any, and survey fees, and land acquired by the Crown under "The Agricultural Lands Purchase Act, 1909," or otherwise for settlement) are reduced by one-half to Discharged A.I.F. Soldiers only.

No. 236 of 1929.

In the matter of an Award made on the 26th day of September, 1923, between the Minister for Works, Colonial Secretary (as Minister for the State Steamship Service), and Fremantle Harbour Trust, and the Coastal Dock, River, and Harbour Works Union of Workers, and in the matter of an application by the abovenamed Union for the Court to amend the said Award.

UPON hearing Mr. William Glasson, on behalf of the Applicant Union, and by consent of the Respondents, the above Award, as amended on the 10th day of December, 1926, is hereby further amended in pursuance of the powers contained in Section 90 of "The Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1925," in accordance with the terms of an Agreement dated the 29th day of August, 1929, between the Minister for Works, the Chief Secretary (as Minister for the State Shipping Service), and the Commissioners of the Fremantle Harbour Trust, of the one part, and Coastal Dock, River, and Harbour Works' Union of Workers, Fremantle, of the other part, and the Award as so amended is hereby published:—

Award No. 26 of 1922.

Orders No. 513 of 1926 and No. 511 of 1926.

Minister for Works, Chief Secretary (as Minister for State Steamship Service), and Fremantle Harbour Trust, Applicants, and the Coastal Dock, River, and Harbour Works' Union of Workers, Respondent.

The Court of Arbitration of Western Australia doth hereby make the following Award in connection with the industrial dispute between the abovementioned parties:—

AWARD.

1.—Interpretation.

"Minister for Public Works" means the Minister for Public Works in the capacity of Minister controlling the Harbours and Rivers Branch of the Public Works Department.

"The Chief Secretary" means the Minister controlling the State Shipping Service.

2.—Hours of Duty.

Except in regard to watchmen 44 hours shall represent a week's work. The ordinary working hours shall not exceed eight hours on the first five days of the week and four hours on Saturdays: Provided that in special circumstances, if considered advisable by the Minister, the 44 hours shall be worked in five days. Watchmen shall work seven shifts of eight hours each per week as at present: Provided, they shall be allowed two days' special leave on pay at the completion of each month of continuous service as watchmen. Such leave shall not be allowed to accumulate.

3.—Overtime.

(a) All time worked outside of or in excess of the usual hours shall be paid for the first four hours after the usual stopping time at the rate of time and a half, and thereafter double time: Provided that employees called to start work within an hour and a half of the usual starting time shall be paid at the rate of time and a half until the usual starting time: Provided also that if a worker is called out for duty at or after 10.30 p.m. and before an hour and a half of the usual starting time on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday, he shall be paid double rates until the usual starting time: Provided further, that workers called out for duty at or after 5 p.m. on Saturdays shall be paid double rates.

(b) If the Minister requires an employee to work on Sundays, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, and New Year's Day, he shall be paid at double time, except in the case of watchmen, who shall take such days as ordinary days.

(c) Provided, that it may be mutually agreed between the Union and the employer that any worker may work at ordinary rates on any or all of the days above specified to facilitate arrangement under Clause 4 (a).

4.—Holidays.

(a) Subject to Subclause (b) hereunder two weeks' leave per annum shall be granted to each employee: Provided always, that the following days:—Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, and New Year's Day, shall be taken as they come as portion of the holidays; the balance of one week to be granted as annual leave, at the convenience of the Department.

(b) Employees employed for a period of less than twelve months' continuous service shall, after one month's continuous service, be entitled to the proportion of two weeks' leave as the length of service is to the full period of 12 months.

(c) Approved periods of absence owing to sickness shall not be considered breaks in continuity of service, but such periods shall not qualify for holidays.

(d) Approved periods of absence from work through accident sustained in the course of the Department's employment, up to a maximum of one month in any one period, shall not break continuity of service for the purpose of computing holidays. For approved periods of absence exceeding one month the provisions of Subclause (c) shall apply.

(e) Holiday pay shall be at the rate the worker is in receipt of at or immediately prior to the holidays being taken.

5.—Travelling Time.

(a) Travelling time shall be calculated on the ordinary rates paid at place of departure.

(b) A worker travelling to work away from, or returning to, his usual place of employment, shall be paid for the actual travelling time in his ordinary working hours, and in addition thereto his actual travelling time outside his ordinary working hours shall be paid at ordinary rates up to a maximum of eight hours in one day.

(c) Sunday travelling time shall be paid for at the same rates and on the same conditions as on week days.

(d) In respect of a worker who is provided with a sleeping berth, travelling time shall not count between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m.: Provided that this shall not operate to reduce the travelling time when paid for below eight hours in any one day.

6.—Wet Work.

Any worker working in water shall be paid an extra allowance of one shilling per day or part of a day. Workers called upon to work overtime in water shall receive an extra 1s. per eight hours or portion thereof of overtime worked, and wet work allowance shall be treated as a portion of the wage for the calculation of overtime. For all other purposes the extra payment shall be deemed an allowance.

7.—Payment of Wages.

(a) Workers inside the Metropolitan Area shall be paid weekly.

(b) All men dismissed from employment shall be paid within four office hours from the time of dismissal. If this period is exceeded they shall be paid at ordinary rates from the time of dismissal until payment.

(c) When an employee leaves his employment before the usual pay day he shall, on giving notice of his intention to leave not later than starting time, be paid his full wages on the day he leaves.

8.—Higher Duties.

Any worker carrying out work classified at a higher minimum than his ordinary rate for two hours in any shift shall be paid at the minimum rate for such work for the whole of that shift: Provided that such minimum is not lower than such worker's regular rate of pay. If he be employed for less than two hours at work classified at a higher minimum than his ordinary rate, he shall be paid his ordinary rate for the whole shift.

9.—Away from Home Allowance.

When an employee is instructed to proceed on duty from the place where he is then or is usually employed to any place where he cannot return to his own abode at night, the employer shall pay all fares and an allowance at 6s. for each 24 hours, or reasonable expenses or provide board and lodging.

10.—Conveyance of Men.

Any employee called on to work on the side of the river opposite to the usual place of work shall be ferried across or his fare refunded by the employer.

11.—Special Places.

Special places shall mean ballast tanks, fresh water tanks, oil tanks, airtight compartments, refrigerating chambers (when under power), bunkers, boilers, under boilers and between boilers and ship's side, tunnels, masts, funnels, bilges, chain lockers, peaks and caissons, and shall include chipping work done inside the far pot used for dipping piles, and work done in closed or confined hoppers on bucket dredges.

12.—Gangers.

Any employee placed in charge of four or more men shall be classed as a ganger, and shall receive the rate of pay as hereinafter set out for gangers.

13.—Meal Hours.

(a) For all work performed during meal hours, time and a half shall be paid, time a half to be continuous until men are knocked off for meals.

(b) Breakfast, the hour preceding the ordinary starting time.

(c) Dinner, between the hour of 12 noon and 1 p.m.: Provided that, for employees when working on the slipway the meal hour may be at any time between 12 noon and 2 p.m.

(d) Tea hour, between 5 p.m. and 6.30 p.m.

(e) When employees are ordered back to work after tea without being notified the previous day they shall be allowed 1s. 6d. for a meal, if it is proved that the employee had not sufficient time to go home for a meal.

(f) Employees required to work after tea shall be paid a minimum of two hours.

14.—Casual Employees.

A casual worker is one for whom work over a period of 12 consecutive working days, not including holidays, is not provided by the employer, and shall be entitled to an increase of 10 per cent. over his ordinary wage.

15.—Change Room.

A change room shall be provided on any job, where it is reasonably required, for the convenience of the workers.

16.—Rates of Pay.

The following workers shall be paid at the margins shown against their respective items. The daily rate for eight hours to be adjusted to the nearest penny:—

(84) Workers employed at Geraldton and within a distance of twenty miles thereof shall be paid a district allowance of threepence per day (1s. 6d. per week) above the wages prescribed in this clause.

(85) It is also agreed:—

(a) That the rate of pay is fixed on a weekly basis, subject to the following condition, namely: That if in the case of any employee for any reason whatever during any portion of the working hours of any week no work is available or performed, the employee will only be paid for the time actually worked at the rate of pay as above prescribed (per week of 44 hours) apportioned to the time actually worked during the week; and

(b) That notwithstanding the rate of pay is fixed on a weekly basis, there shall be no obligation on the part of the Minister or the employee to give a week's or any other notice to determine the employment, the position being in this respect the same as if the employee were employed at an hourly wage.

17.—No Reduction.

In the case of any employee who is being paid above the minimum rate applicable under previous Award or arrangement to other workers doing the same class of work, such employees shall not suffer, by reason of this Award only, any reduction of the additional sum so paid over and above the above-mentioned minimum rate.

18.—Broken Time.

Should any employee not be notified before leaving work that his services will not be required next day, he shall be paid for that day if he duly presents himself for work at the appointed time, unless he cannot be employed on account of causes beyond the control of the management, in which case he shall be notified of the cause why he cannot be employed, and shall be entitled to two hours' pay.

19.—Walking Time.

(a) Owing to the remote location of the Rocky Bay Quarry, and the fact that the Quarry does not work continuously, workers employed at the Quarry or Robb's Jetty, who walk from the nearest tram or railway station shall be allowed, as a special allowance, half an hour per day.

(b) Men working on the Breakwater at Geraldton shall be allowed walking time one way only, at the rate of 20 minutes to the mile, from the shore end of the viaduct to wherever they may be required to work.

20.—Dirt Money.

Fitters' assistants shall be paid the same dirt money allowance as fitters whilst engaged on any work in respect of which fitters receive such allowance.

21.—Oilskins.

The Minister will supply oilskins free of charge to employees required by the Department to work in the rain.

22.—Board of Reference.

The Board of Reference shall consist of a chairman and two other representatives nominated by the parties.

There are assigned to such Board, in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to the Award, the functions of:—

- (i) classifying and fixing wages, rates and conditions for any machine, occupation or calling not specifically mentioned in the Award;
- (ii) adjusting any matters of difference which may arise between the parties from time to time, except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of the Award or any of them;
- (iii) deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to the Board from time to time.

23.—Area and Scope.

This Award shall apply only to workers employed by the Minister for Public Works, the Chief Secretary as Minister for State Shipping Service, and the Commissioners of the Fremantle Harbour Trust, and shall operate over the coastline of the State from a point 20 miles North of Geraldton to a point 20 miles East of Esperance, and for a distance of 15 miles inland therefrom.

24.—Term.

The currency of this Award shall be three years: Providing that, at any time after the expiration of twelve months from its date, the Court may alter or amend the Award on application of any party or persons affected by its provision.

In witness whereof this Award has been signed by the President of the Court and the seal of the Court has been hereto affixed this 5th day of September, 1929.
