No. 26.]

PERTH : FRIDAY, MAY 23.

[1930.]

AT a meeting of the Executive Council held in the Executive Council Chambers, at Perth, this 14th day of May, 1930, the following Orders in Council were authorised to be issued:—

The Water Boards Act, 1904.

Wagin Water Board.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

P.W.W.S. 970/29.

WHEREAS by "The Water Boards Act, 1904," it is provided that, before undertaking the construction of works, the Board shall submit plans, descriptions, books of reference, and estimates of the proposed works to the Governor for approval, and if they are approved the Governor may forthwith by Order in Council empower the Wagin Water Board to undertake the construction of the proposed works: Now, therefore, His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, hereby approves of the works in the Wagin Water Area, as described in Items 1, 2, and 4, and published in the Government Gazette on the 22nd November, 1929, which were duly submitted for approval, and hereby empowers the Wagin Water Board to undertake the construction of such works.

(Sgd.) L. E. SHAPCOTT,
Clerk of the Council.

The Metropolitan Water Supply, Sewerage and Drainage Act, 1909.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

M.W.S. 140/30.

WHEREAS by "The Metropolitan Water Supply, Sewerage, and Drainage Act, 1909," it is provided that subject to the provisions of the Act, the Minister for Water Supply, Sewerage, and Drainage shall, with the approval of the Governor, have power to construct and extend water works, sewerage works, and stormwater drainage works: And whereas it is further provided that the Governor may exempt reticulation works from certain Sections of this Act: Now, therefore, His Excellency the Lieut.-Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, hereby approves of the construction and extension by the Minister for Water Supply, Sewerage, and Drainage of the following works under the said Act, and does hereby exempt such works from the operations of Sections 20, 21, 22, and 23 of the said Act.

Description and Location of Reticulation Works approved and exempted—Metropolitan Reticulation Main Extension, Armadale-Kemscott Road District:—Proposed four-inch diameter cast-iron water main commencing at the existing four-inch diameter main at the intersection of Ninth Avenue and Fifth Road and proceeding thence in a north-westerly direction along Fifth Road to a point opposite Lot 38 (length about eighteen chains).

The above main to be complete with valves, hydrants, and all necessary apparatus, as shown in red on Plan M.W.S.S., and D.D., W.A. No. 5058

This Order in Council shall take effect from the 23rd day of May, 1930.

L. E. SHAPCOTT,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Alteration of Boundaries of Greenmount Health District under the provisions of "The Health Act, 1911-19."

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

Ex. Co. No. 1300; M.H.D. 189/30.

WHEREAS it is enacted by Section 19 of "The Health Act, 1911-19," that the Governor may alter the boundaries of any Health District constituted by the Governor under the said Act; and whereas it is desired to alter the boundaries of the Greenmount Health District which was so constituted: Now, therefore, His Excellency the Lieut.-Governor of Western Australia, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, does hereby alter the boundaries of the said Health District in manner following, that is to say:—By deleting therefrom all that land, being Irwin Street on the West, Globe Street on the East, Wilkins Street on the North, and prolongation of line from South-East corner of Irwin Street in an Easterly direction on a Southerly prolongation to the South-West corner of Globe Street and prolonging North to Wilkins Street.

Clerk of the Executive Council.

Alteration of Boundaries of Midland Junction Health District under the provisions of "The Health Act, 1911-19."

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

Ex. Co. No. 1299; M.H.D. 236/29.

WHEREAS it is enacted by Section 19 of "The Health Act, 1911-19," that the Governor may alter the boundaries of any Health District constituted by the Governor under the said Act; and whereas it is desired to alter the boundaries of the Midland Junction Health District which was so constituted: Now, therefore, His Excellency the Lieut.-Governor of Western Australia, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, does hereby alter the boundaries of the said Health District in manner following, that is to say:—The addition of all that piece of land being Irwin Street on the West, Globe Street on the East, Wilkins Street on the North and prolongation of line from South-East corner Irwin Street in an Easterly direction on a Southerly prolongation to the South-West corner of Globe Street and prolonging North to Wilkins Street.

L. E. SHAPCOTT,

IN THE MATTER OF THE LICENSING ACT, 1911, (CONSOLIDATED) and in the matter of a Petition for authority to grant a New License.

To His Excellency Colonel Sir William Robert Campion, K.C.M.G., Governor of the State of Western Australia.

THE humble Petition of the undersigned sheweth as follows:—

1. That your Petitioners are a majority in number of the Electors living in an area comprised within a circle having a radius of forty chains from the centre of all that piece of land situate at the corner of Preston Street and Labouchere Road, Como (South Perth), and being Swan Location 40, and being Lot No. 192 on deposited Plan numbered 2800.
2. That there has been an increase in population of such area and that such increase is likely to be permanent.
3. That there are no licensed premises within such area.
4. That the said land is a suitable place for such a license.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that the Licensing Court may, pursuant to the powers in that behalf contained in "The Licensing Act, 1911" (Consolidated), have authority to grant a Gallon License for premises erected on the said land.

And your Petitioners will ever pray, etc.

That area of unsurveyed land, containing about 8,736 acres, being F. & C. Leeds' forfeited Pastoral Lease No. 3770/96.

C. G. MORRIS,
Under Secretary for Lands.

LAND OPEN FOR SELECTION.

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that the areas scheduled hereunder are available for selection under and subject to "The Land Act, 1898," and its amendments.

The areas marked "A" shall be open for selection by the special classes of selectors hereinafter named in the following order of preference:—

- (1) Under "The Discharged Soldiers' Settlement Act, 1918," by "Discharged Soldiers" within the meaning of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of the interpretation of the term in Section 3 of that Act, and "Dependants" within the meaning of that term in the said section.
- (2) Under "The Land Act, 1898," by ex-British Soldiers who were on active service in the late war.
- (3) Under "The Land Act, 1898," by Munition Workers in the late war.
- (4) Under "The Land Act, 1898," by ordinary selectors.

(In the event of an applicant other than a Discharged Soldier under subparagraph (1) obtaining a block within a Repurchased Estate, the term of the lease and conditions of payment will be subject to re-adjustment in accordance with the provisions of "The Agricultural Lands Purchase Act, 1909.")

The areas marked "B" are not subject to such order of preference.

Applications must be lodged at the Local Land Office for the district in which the land is situated, not later than the date specified, but may be lodged before such date if so desired.

All applications lodged on or before such date will be treated as having been received on the closing day, and if there are more applicants than one for any block, the application to be granted will be determined by the Land Board, except in cases where it is already determined by the order of preference set out above under "A." Should any lands remain unselected such will continue available until applied for or otherwise dealt with.

If a Land Board sitting becomes necessary, the applicants for the blocks will be duly notified of the date, time, and place of the meeting of the Board, and there shall be an interval of at least three days between the closing date and the sitting of the Board.

If an applicant wishes to appear before the Land Board in person he may apply to the Head Office or to the Clerk in Charge of any of the District or Branch Land Offices for a certificate to the Railway Department, which, on presentation at the nearest Railway Station, will entitle him to a Return Ticket, at Excursion Rates, to the place where the Board will sit, available for seven days from the date of issue.

The selector of a Homestead Farm from any location available under Part VIII. must take the balance thereof, if any, under Conditional Purchase.

The prices quoted hereunder (exclusive of the value of improvements, if any, and survey fees, and land acquired by the Crown under "The Agricultural Lands Purchase Act, 1909," or otherwise for settlement) are reduced by one-half to Discharged A.I.F. Soldiers only.

ENGINEERS, BOILERMAKERS, AND MOULDERS' AGREEMENT (MIDLAND RAILWAY CO.).

(Registered 8th May, 1930.)

No. 5 of 1930.

THIS Agreement, made in pursuance of "The Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1925," this first day of May, One thousand nine hundred and thirty, between the Coastal District Committee Amalgamated Engineering Union Association of Workers, Australasian Society of Engineers' Industrial Union of Workers, Coastal District, W.A.; Federated Society of Boilermakers and Structural Iron and Steel Workers' Union of Workers; Coastal Districts, W.A., Federated Moulders' (Metals) Union of Workers, Perth; and the Midland Railway Company of Western Australia, Limited, whereby it is mutually agreed by and between the parties hereto as follows:—

1.—Term of Agreement.

The currency of this Agreement shall be three years from the first day of July, 1928.

2.—Area and Scope of Agreement.

This Agreement shall apply only to workers employed by the General Manager in and about the working and maintenance of the Midland Railway, and shall be binding upon the abovenamed parties, and shall operate over the whole of the Midland Railway and the Workshops used in connection therewith.

3.—Interpretation.

"Union" means each of the Unions quoted in the preamble.

"Company" means the Midland Railway Company of Western Australia, Limited.

"General Manager" means the General Manager of the Midland Railway Company of Western Australia, Limited.

"Casual hand" means a worker employed for less than one week continuously, but does not include a worker who, when work is available, leaves his employment before the expiration of one week.

"Attended Barracks" means any building attended to by whole or part-time caretaker appointed for that purpose, which is provided with bed, clean bedding, cooking utensils, lighting facilities, water, and fuel.

"Unattended Barracks" means any van used as a barracks, provided with the accommodation mentioned in the previous definition and any building which, whilst provided with the accommodation mentioned therein is wholly unattended.

"Wireman" is a worker engaged in installing electric light, meters, bells, or telephones, or running wires for heating or power purposes, or repairing them.

"Lineman" means a worker engaged in erecting poles for electric wires, or erecting electric wires or cables on poles, or over buildings, or tying it or them to insulators, or joining or insulating it or them, or doing any work on electric poles off the ground, but no lineman shall be allowed to work on electric light wires carrying a pressure of over 110 volts without an assistant.

"Married man" includes a single man who has a parent or child solely dependent on him and resident in the State of Western Australia, but does not include a married man whose wife and family are neither resident with nor dependent upon him.

"Market towns"—The following shall be approved market towns:—Midland Junction, Moora, Walkaway.

4.—Workers performing Higher Duties.

(a) Should any worker be required to perform duties in a lower grade his wages shall not be reduced whilst so employed in such capacity.

(b) Any worker called upon to perform work carrying a higher minimum than his regular rate of pay shall be paid such higher minimum for the time actually engaged upon such higher work, and the conditions applicable to such work shall apply: Provided that acting time less than 20 minutes in any one shift shall not be counted.

5.—Promotion

(a) A worker promoted to a higher position, the minimum pay for which is less than he received in the position vacated, shall be paid his former rate.

(b) A junior worker, on attaining the age of twenty-one years, shall be entitled to preference of employment as a senior in the Branch in which he has been working should a vacancy exist in such Branch.

(c) Before any promotion to a vacancy is made other than by selection of the senior man, application for the vacancy shall, in the case of vacancies in the Workshops, be invited by notices posted on the recognised Notice Boards, and in respect of other vacancies, by notification by wire or circular: Provided that this subclause shall not apply in any case where it is necessary to fill a position without the delay involved by the calling of applications.

(d) In the case of promotion, the selection of a worker for the higher position shall be governed by relative ability, suitability, record and experience. All other qualifications being equal, the senior man shall be selected.

(e) In the case of a married worker refusing promotion owing to lack of accommodation at the place where the vacancy exists, he shall not be penalised because of his refusal to accept such promotion.

(f) Subject to Subclause (c) hereof, after six months' continuous service in a higher grade, a worker shall be appointed to the position in which he is working if there is a vacancy therein.

6.—Retirement.

(a) No worker, after six months' continuous service, shall leave the Company until the expiration of fourteen days' written notice of his intention to do so, without the approval of the General Manager.

(b) Except in cases of summary dismissal for misconduct, fourteen days' written notice shall be given by the General Manager to any such worker whose services are no longer required, and the reason for dismissal shall be stated in such notice.

7.—Absence from Duty.

Any worker losing time through sickness or special leave shall be reduced in wages only to the extent of the time actually lost through sickness or actually granted as special leave.

8.—Holidays.

(a) Every worker shall, after twelve months' continuous service, be entitled to two weeks' leave on full pay each year, the whole of which shall, except by agreement between the General Manager and the Union to the contrary, be taken at one time in each year: Provided always, that with the consent of the General Manager, holidays may be allowed to accumulate for two years.

(b) Workers shall be paid for holidays at the rate of pay they are drawing at or immediately before the time such holidays are taken.

(c) Every worker, after one months' continuous service, shall be entitled to the foregoing two weeks' holidays in proportion as the length of service is to the full number of holidays in the twelve months.

(d) No deduction shall be made from the annual holidays for the period any worker is off duty through sickness, unless the absence exceeds three calendar months.

(e) At depots and stations where it can be conveniently done, a Roster shall be posted showing the approximate dates on which each worker will go on his annual leave and resume duty. Such Roster will be subject to alteration to meet the exigencies of the service: Provided always that, with the approval of the Head of the Branch, any worker may change dates with another.

(f) When work is closed down over Christmas and New Year for the purpose of annual holidays, workers with less than a full year's holiday due will only be entitled to payment during such period for the number of days holidays due to them.

(g) Any worker who may resign or be dismissed from the service for any cause other than for peculation or theft shall be entitled to receive payment for any holidays which may have been due up to the time of leaving the service: Provided always, that if the worker has been dismissed for peculation or theft, no claim for holidays shall be recognised. Misconduct herein referred to shall not affect accumulated holidays or payment therefor.

(h) Unless at his own request, no employee shall be booked off duty for a holiday at a foreign station.

(i) If an employee is booked off for annual leave when away from his permanent home station, he shall be allowed travelling time to and from the place he is working at and such home station. The leave to count as starting and finishing at his permanent home station.

9.—Apprentices.

(a) The employment of apprentices shall be governed by the provisions of the Schedule annexed to Agreement No. 2 of 1930.

(b) Apprentices shall be allowed to the following trades:—1, boilermaker; 2, blacksmith; 3, coppersmith; 4, electro-plater; 5, fitter; 6, iron machinist; 7, pattern-maker; 8, turner; 9, moulder.

10.—No New Designation.

No new designation shall be introduced during the currency of this Agreement so as to reduce the status of any worker covered thereby.

11.—Under-rate Workers.

A worker who is unable to earn the minimum rate hereby prescribed may be employed at a lower rate, which shall be agreed upon in writing between the worker and the Secretary of the worker's Union. If within seven days after being notified of the worker's desire to work at a lower rate of wage than that prescribed, the said Secretary and the worker are unable to agree upon a lower rate, then the worker may apply in writing to the nearest Resident or Police Magistrate to fix such lower rate of wage. The worker shall give such Secretary two days' notice in writing of his intention to apply to the Magistrate, and the said Secretary or his agent may attend and oppose the application. The Magistrate may fix the rate of wage, and his decision shall be final.

Any worker whose wage shall have been so fixed may work for and be employed by an employer for such wage for the period of six calendar months thereafter, and, after the expiration of the said period, until fourteen days' notice in writing shall have been given him by the Secretary of the Union requiring his wage to be again fixed in the manner prescribed by this clause.

12.—Shop Steward.

Subject to the recognition of properly constituted authority, Shop Stewards, to be appointed by the Union, shall be recognised by the General Manager.

13.—Hours of Duty.

(a) Forty-four hours, exclusive of Sunday work, shall constitute a week's work. No day's work shall exceed eight hours forty-eight minutes. The week's work may extend over five or six days, at the option of the General Manager.

(b) Any worker brought on duty for any purpose outside his ordinary working hours shall be paid a minimum of two hours, or at overtime rates, whichever is the greater; provided such work, exclusive of meal time, is not continuous with his shift, and provided that the worker shall not be obliged to work for the two hours if the job for which he has been brought on has been completed in less time.

14.—Guaranteed Week.

(a) The General Manager shall guarantee to each worker, other than a casual, a full week's work, exclusive of Sunday time, except during such period as by reason of any action on the part of any section of his employees, or for any other cause beyond his control, he is unable wholly or partially to carry on the running of the trains or workshops. Each week shall stand by itself.

(b) The guaranteed period may be reduced as follows:—

- (i) In respect of Christmas Day, Good Friday, and Labour Day—one day for each in the weekly period in which the holiday occurs.
- (ii) In respect of Easter Monday and Anzac Day—one day for each in the weekly period in which the holiday occurs, should the adult workers concerned decide by vote that a holiday should be observed. This vote shall be taken not more than four weeks and not less than two weeks before the holiday occurs. Returned soldiers shall not be entitled to vote in respect of Anzac Day.
- (iii) In respect of any worker under suspension: Provided that any worker suspended on a charge which is not sustained shall be entitled to the benefit of the guarantee during the period of his suspension.
- (iv) In respect of any day when, as the result of a vote taken by the workers concerned with the consent of the General Manager, or by agreement between the Union and the General Manager, a holiday is taken.

15.—Overtime, Sunday Time and Holiday Time.

(a) (i) All time worked in excess of or outside of the usual working hours in any one day shall be paid for at the rate of time and a-quarter for the first two hours, and time and a-half for the next two hours, and thereafter double time.

(ii) Extra rates shall be computed at the rate applicable to the day on which the time is worked: provided that double time (i.e., twice the ordinary rates) shall be the maximum.

(iii) Double time shall be paid for overtime on all work other than work for the Company.

(b) Subject to Subclause (a) (ii) all time worked on Sunday, Good Friday, Labour Day, and Christmas Day shall be paid for at the rate of time and a-half.

(c) All time worked during the usual meal time shall be paid for at overtime rates, and such rate shall continue until the worker knocks off for his meal.

(d) Travelling time shall not be construed time worked within the meaning of this clause.

(e) Junior workers under 18 years of age shall not be required to work overtime without their consent.

(f) Workers, when called on to do duty on any Sunday or holiday, shall be paid for not less than four hours at the rate applicable to that day; provided that the worker shall not be obliged to work more than four hours if the job for which he was brought on has been completed in less time: provided further, that in the case of Good Friday, Christmas Day, and Labour Day, the workers shall be paid, when called on for duty, for not less than eight hours at ordinary rates, and shall not be obliged to work for such hours if their work has been completed in less time.

16.—Shift Work.

(a) When shift work is required, all shifts except day shift shall be paid for at the rate of time and a-quarter.

(b) Work other than day shift shall not be recognised as night shift unless five consecutive nights are worked, but shall be deemed to be overtime: provided that, where a shift is not worked on account of a holiday, such shift shall, for the purpose of this clause, be counted as if it had been worked.

(c) Overtime on night shift shall be calculated on the basis of the rate paid for night shift.

(d) For the purpose of this clause day shift shall be construed to mean the ordinary working shift ending at or before 6 p.m. on Mondays to Fridays and 1 p.m. on Saturdays.

17.—Away-from-home and Meal Allowances.

(a) The following allowances shall be granted to workers temporarily lodging away from their home station:—

(i) For the first twenty-four hours or part thereof—Where attended barracks are used—6s. 0d.; where unattended barracks are used—6s. 6d.; where barracks are not used—8s. 0d.

(ii) After the first 24 hours—4d. per hour.

(iii) After the first 24 hours a charge of one shilling (1s.) per night, with a maximum of five shillings (5s.) per week shall be made where accommodation of barracks other than a van is provided, and a charge of sixpence (6d.) per night, with a maximum of two shillings and sixpence (2s. 6d.) per week, shall be made where barracks in the shape of van or tent, bed, and blankets are provided.

(iv) Married workers temporarily transferred for a period exceeding three months, but which is not expected to exceed six months, and not moving their permanent homes, will be paid an allowance of twenty-five shillings (25s.) per week in lieu of transfer or lodging allowance to cover the excess cost of living away from their homes: provided that, should any other lodging allowance become due to a worker whilst transferred, such allowance, together with the allowance provided for in the foregoing paragraph, shall in no case exceed the allowance payable under the foregoing paragraphs of this clause.

(b) It will be optional for the workers to use the Barracks, and/or the General Manager to allow them to do so. If used, after the first twenty-four hours a charge of one shilling (1s.) per night, with a maximum of five shillings (5s.) per week, shall be made for attended Barracks, and a charge of sixpence (6d.) per night, with a maximum of two shillings and sixpence (2s. 6d.) per week, for unattended Barracks.

(c) In addition to the allowance provided for in Subclause (a) a worker booked off or temporarily lodging in a district carrying an allowance shall be granted such allowance or, if already in receipt of a District Allowance, shall be granted the difference between such allowance and any higher allowance applicable to the district in which he is booked off or lodging. A day's allowance to be granted for the first twenty-four hours or any part thereof, and each subsequent twenty-four hours or part thereof; time to be calculated from time of departure from home station to time of departure from foreign station.

(d) The General Manager may in his discretion make any allowance in addition to those provided in the foregoing subclauses, and the Head of the Branch shall also have discretion to make any such additional allowances not exceeding seven shillings and sixpence (7s. 6d.) per day.

(e) The allowance shall be calculated from the time of leaving to the time of return to home station.

(f) A worker absent from his home station on duty (not being a worker temporarily lodging away from his home station) shall be paid two shillings (2s.) for his second and each succeeding meal: provided that any worker who in fact incurs expense in procuring his first meal shall be entitled to be paid two shillings (2s.) in respect thereof.

(g) A worker, when travelling by coastal boat, shall be entitled to first-class accommodation on the boat and to one-fourth only of the usual away-from-home allowance, and travelling time shall be paid at ordinary rates: provided that not more than eight hours shall be paid for as travelling time in any one period of twenty-four hours.

(h) The foregoing allowances will not be paid—

(i) During any period of absence from duty without pay, unless such absence is due to sickness of the worker and does not exceed one week.

(ii) During any period of annual leave: provided that the General Manager provides means for the worker to return to his home station.

18.—Payment for Travelling Time.

(a) A worker travelling as a passenger going to work away from or returning to his home station shall be paid at ordinary rates for the actual travelling time or waiting time in his ordinary working hours and, in addition thereto, his actual travelling time or waiting time, outside his ordinary working hours, shall be paid for at ordinary rates up to a maximum of eight hours in one day, but if the waiting time exceeds four hours and suitable accommodation is available, the worker shall be deemed to be booked off at the end of the four hours, and shall not be entitled to payment for the time he is booked off, unless in the special circumstances of any particular case the General Manager is willing so to do.

(b) Sunday travelling time shall be paid for at the same rates and on the same conditions as on week days.

(c) In respect of a worker who is provided with a sleeping berth in a passenger train, travelling time shall not count between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m.: provided that this shall not operate to reduce the travelling time when paid for below eight hours in any one day.

19.—Workers in Breakdown Gangs.

Workers in breakdown gangs shall, in lieu of away-from-home allowance and travelling time, be provided with board and sleeping accommodation, and shall be paid from the time they leave until they return to their home station, except during such period as they shall be booked off duty, if such period shall exceed ten consecutive hours. Time occupied in travelling shall be paid at bare time rates; actual working time shall be paid at overtime rates after eight hours' work per day.

20.—Transfers and Transfer Allowances.

(a) When any transfer is ordered by the Company, the worker transferred shall not lose his right of appeal against the transfer, and if, on inquiry, it is found that a transfer can be arranged with another worker to suit the convenience of the Company, then he shall be retransferred. A worker transferred from one station to another over one mile distant shall:—

(i) be paid not less than £4 for a married man and fifteen shillings (15s.) for a single man (a married man who does not transfer his family shall be paid as a single man until he does transfer his family);

(ii) be paid such further out-of-pocket expenses (if any) as the General Manager in his discretion shall decide to have been reasonably incurred;

(iii) be granted free passes for himself and family (including those dependants mentioned in the interpretation of "married man," and also the mother of a married man permanently residing with and wholly dependent upon him), and free railway transport for his furniture and effects, including one cow and not more than two goats. When the train is provided with appropriate sleepers and the worker's journey extends through the night, he and his family shall be supplied with sleeping berths, if sleeping berth space is available. Married workers, if necessary, shall be allowed one day for packing and one day for unpacking;

(iv) be paid actual travelling and waiting time up to a maximum of eight hours per day. No overtime or Sunday time rates shall apply.

(b) The granting of an allowance in excess of that provided above to meet special cases shall be at the discretion of the General Manager.

Any worker who is transferred from one place to another to suit himself, or who is transferred by way of punishment, shall be entitled to the provisions of Subclause (a) (iii) only.

(c) At least ten days' notice shall be given to a worker required to transfer permanently from one station to another.

(d) A worker shall not be transferred for a lesser period than three months. If required to work temporarily at any depot for relief or other purposes for a less period, he will be paid lodging allowance, as provided elsewhere in this Agreement.

21.—Water Allowance.

Water shall be delivered alongside the line gratis to any worker on the following scale:—To a married man—30 gallons per day; to a single man—10 gallons per day. This shall not apply to stations where a public water scheme is available.

22.—Uniforms.

The supply of uniforms shall be in accordance with the provisions of Clause 14 of Agreement No. 2 of 1930.

23.—Free Passes, Privilege Tickets, and Season Tickets.

(a) After twelve months' continuous service a worker shall be allowed three passes per annum as under:—

One second-class station-to-station pass on the occasion of the annual or long service leave to cover the full term of leave due.

Two first-class privilege passes from one given station to another and return, except during the Christmas and Easter Holidays when, at the option of the General Manager, the passes may be issued as second-class.

In addition to the worker the passes shall be available for his wife and members of his family under eighteen years of age unmarried, unmarried daughters over eighteen years of age and his parents; provided they are resident with and dependent upon him for support. The station-to-station passes may be changed to first-class on payment by the worker of half the additional fare at ordinary rates.

For the purpose of this clause a member of the family shall be deemed to be dependent, provided such member's income does not exceed fifteen shillings (15s.) per week exclusive of old age or invalid pension, but a member of the family temporarily out of employment shall not be deemed to be dependent.

A widower with his child or children resident with him and who regularly employs a housekeeper may, at the discretion of the General Manager, be granted passes for such housekeeper; in like manner an unmarried worker supporting younger brothers and/or sisters may be granted passes for such housekeeper.

(b) Upon request a worker may be granted a separate station-to-station pass for his wife and dependants, as mentioned in Subclause (a) hereof, where it is inconvenient for both to travel together.

(c) Should any worker through illness be unable to use his station-to-station pass on the occasion of his annual leave, he shall be entitled to the use of such pass on the occasion of taking leave without pay during the year in which same is due.

(d) A worker who resigns, or is retired from the service and has leave due, shall be granted a free pass station-to-station for the term of such holidays: Provided that, should a worker not have given the requisite notice or obtained the consent of the General Manager to leave the service as provided for in Clause 6, he shall forfeit all claim to any passes he would otherwise have been entitled to under the provisions of this clause.

(e) Workers working away from their home station shall be entitled to a free pass, to enable them to visit their home station, at intervals of not less than once per fortnight: provided, that the work upon which they are engaged will permit of their doing so; no travelling time to be paid. Also provided that this clause shall not operate to increase or decrease the rate of expenses a worker would otherwise be entitled to.

(f) Market Passes.—Workers stationed outside Suburban Areas will be issued Market Passes once per month to the Market Town most convenient to the General Manager and the worker. The passes may be issued in favour of the worker, his wife, or his housekeeper and children between the ages of five and fourteen years. A worker's wife or housekeeper may be granted a Market Pass once per fortnight, if required. Provided, however, that the maximum number of passes granted under this clause shall be two per month.

(g) Free Freight.—Domestic supplies, up to a maximum weight fortnightly of 2 cwt. for married men and 1 cwt. for single men, shall be carried free by rail to home station from the Market Town most convenient to the General Manager and the worker, and, in addition, meat, bread, and vegetables, when not obtainable locally, shall be carried free from the Market Town most convenient to the General Manager and the worker where same are procurable. All such supplies shall be for the sole use of the worker and his family. This subclause shall not apply in the Suburban Area. Provided that this concession shall not apply when any member of the worker's family conducts a board-house or store at the home station.

(h) Free passes shall not apply to Race or Hired Special, Guaranteed Special, or Special Excursion trains within 50 miles radius, or when, in the opinion of the Station-master at the station where the worker desires to commence his journey, there is not ample room on the train.

(i) Workers who have not had an opportunity of allowing their holidays to accrue owing to having taken leave on individual public holidays, shall be granted their station-to-station pass when on special leave up to fourteen days.

(j) After six months' continuous service a worker shall be entitled to the passes mentioned in the Subclause (a) in proportion to length of the service.

(k) Workers in isolated parts may be issued free passes, at the discretion of the Head of the Branch, for the purposes of obtaining medical attention.

(l) Privilege Tickets.—After six months' continuous service a worker shall be allowed privilege return tickets (first or second class) for himself, wife, and members of his family under eighteen years of age, also unmarried daughters over eighteen years of age, provided they are resident with and dependent upon the worker's earnings. The charge for privilege tickets to be half the single fare for the return journey, with a minimum of 1s. for adults and 6d. for children.

(m) Season Tickets.—Second class season tickets at half the ordinary season ticket rate, available between the stations on the Company's Railway nearest his residence and his place of work shall, on application, be issued to any worker. To any worker in receipt of £1 18s. 3d. or under per week, one-quarter of the ordinary season tickets rates shall be charged.

24.—Secretary's Pass.

The General Manager shall grant leave without pay, for a continuous period or otherwise, of thirty days in each year to the Secretary of the Union (should such Secretary be a railway worker) to enable him to attend exclusively to the Union work, and a free pass will be issued to the said Secretary, whether he be a worker or not, for that period, but the pass may be withdrawn at the General Manager's discretion. Such pass shall be used exclusively for Union work in connection with railway workers and not for political purposes.

25.—No Reduction.

This Agreement shall not in itself operate to reduce the wages of any worker who is at present receiving above the minimum rate prescribed for his class of work.

26.—Preference.

Preference to be given to unionists with regard to employment, but this shall not apply to apprentices or juniors.

27.—Junior Workers.

Junior workers may be employed as rivet boys, power hammer boys helping apprentice blacksmiths, cleaning and sweeping shops, messenger boys, gathering bolts and rivets and screws, etc., which have been dropped by tradesmen, assisting in tool shop, nutting bolts, sorting, bagging and weighing bolts and nuts, rivets, and spikes, holding up rivets up to half-inch in diameter (provided the junior is not under 18 years of age), assisting ladlemen in daubing ladles; and also in the following operations, provided that there are no apprentice machinists in their first six months available, namely: Operating bolt and spike finning machines, operating pointing machine, operating nut burring machine, operating nut tapping machine.

28.—Boards of Reference.

(a) The Court appoints, for the purpose of the Agreement, Boards of Reference. The Board shall each consist of a chairman and two other representatives nominated by the parties. There are assigned to such Board, in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to the agreement, the functions of—

- (i) classifying and fixing wages, rates and conditions for any machine, occupation or calling not specifically mentioned in the agreement;
- (ii) adjusting any matters of difference which may arise between the parties from time to time, except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of the Agreement, or any of them;
- (iii) deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to the Board from time to time.

(b) Separate Boards may be appointed for different sections corresponding to the occupations, callings, or vocations referred to in this Agreement and/or for different districts.

29.—Alterations and Additions.

If during the currency of an Award or Agreement between the Company and the Union or Unions representing its employees any alteration or addition to an existing Award or Agreement between the Commissioner of Railways and a Union or Unions representing his employees is agreed upon, the Union shall notify the Company within ten days after any alteration or addition has been agreed to, and such alterations or additions shall automatically apply to the employees of the Company from the same date as it applies to the employees of the Commissioner: Provided that, should the Company within twenty-one days of any such alteration or addition being made, notify in writing the Union or Unions concerned that the Company objects to being bound by such alteration or addition, and within the same period of twenty-one days submits the question or questions involved for the decision of the Court of Arbitration, the question of whether the Company shall be bound by the said alteration or addition shall be subject to the determination of the Court, whose decision, if in the affirmative, shall operate as from the date the alteration or addition became operative in the Government service.
