Provided that the above rates or any of them may at any time be varied by Award of the Court of Arbitration or Agreement between the parties hereto.

An apprentice who, after having served the full term of his apprenticeship is under the age of twenty-one years, may continue in his master's employment at less than a journeyman's minimum wage until the expiration of one year thereafter, or until he becomes twenty-one years of age, whichever first happens: Provided that, during the first six months after the expiration of the apprenticeship, he shall be paid three pounds fifteen shillings and sevenpence per week, and for the balance of the period four pounds eleven shillings and sevenpence per week.

11.—Apprentices.

(a) The employment of apprentices shall be governed by the provisions of Schedule A attached hereto.

(b) For the purposes of this Agreement all workers in the industry shall be classified as belonging to one of the following classes:— 1, Journeymen; 2, Journeywomen; 3, Registered apprentices; 4, Junior workers.

(c) Male apprentices shall not exceed in number one to every three journeymen or journeywomen, or fraction of three journeymen or journeywomen coat, vest, or trouser hands, or machinists or pressers, employed by each employer or firm of employers. No apprentice under the age of sixteen years shall be taken to the pressing branch.

(d) Female apprentices shall not exceed in number one to every two journeywomen or journeymen, or fraction of two journeymen or journeywomen coat, vest, skirt, or trouser hands, or machinists or pressers, employed by each employer or firm of employers. Provided, in reference to this and the immediately preceding clause, that at the expiration of three years of the term of apprenticeship (and subject to the apprentice having qualified by examination for that period), an additional apprentice may, for the purpose of computing such proportion, be taken in substitution for the apprentice so completing the term of three years as aforesaid.

(e) The periods of apprenticeship shall be as follows:—1, To coat making—five years; 2, to vest making—three years; 3, to trouser making—three years; 4, to skirt making—three years; 5, to pressing—four years; 6, to coat, trouser, and vest machining—four years; 7, to fitting up and trimming—four years.

Provided that, in the case of a youth who has had previous experience in the industry as a junior worker, the term of apprenticeship may be reduced to such period as the Court, or, on the advice of any person delegated by it for such purpose, taking into consideration the age and previous experience of the youth, may determine; the rates of wages to be paid in such case shall be the rates hereinbefore prescribed for the years of service which the youth has yet to serve.

(f) The provisions of this clause, and the rates of wages hereinbefore set out, shall not apply to any apprentices now working under a contract of apprenticeship in writing and duly executed. All such contracts must be forwarded by the employer to the Court for registration forthwith.

12.—Under-rate Workers.

Any worker who is unable to earn the minimum wage may be paid such lesser wage as may from time to time be agreed upon in writing between the Union and the employer, and, in default of such agreement within twenty-four hours after such worker shall have applied in writing to the Secretary of the Union stating his desire that such wage should be agreed upon, such wage as shall be fixed by the most convenient Resident or Police Magistrate, upon the application of such worker, after twenty-four hours' notice in writing shall have been given by him to the said Secretary, who shall, if he so desires, be heard by the Magistrate upon such application. After having given to the Secretary, and after lodging the application mentioned, and pending the Magistrate's decision thereon, the worker shall be entitled to work for and be employed at the proposed lesser rate. The determination of the Magistrate shall have effect for a period of six calendar months from the date thereof and after the expiration of the said period until the wage shall have been again fixed at the instance of the said Secretary in the manner prescribed. The Secretary of the Union may by writing under his hand appoint an agent or substitute to represent the Union at the hearing of the application before the Magistrate.

13.—Visiting Workshops.

Any person duly authorised by the Chief Inspector of Factories in writing (such authorisation shall be terminable at the will of the Chief Inspector of Factories), shall have power to inspect any part of a factory, workshop, or place where it is believed that a breach of this Agreement is occurring, or has occurred. At least six hours' notice shall be given by such authorised person prior to his actual going on the premises, and the employer shall be notified of his arrival and shall, in person, or by his nominee, be entitled to accompany the authorised person in such inspection, and shall provide access to the wages book or time sheet of any worker bound by the Agreement. The necessary proof that the worker is so bound shall be supplied by the authorised person. The work and duties of the workers shall be interfered with as little as possible by the authorised person.

14.—Record Book.

Employers shall provide in each factory, workshop, or place where work is carried on for him, a time book. Such time book shall contain a correct account of the hours worked and wages received by every worker (including outdoor workers) bound by this Agreement, and, in the case of outdoor workers doing piece-work, an itemised record of the work done by such workers. Such book shall be kept correctly entered up in ink, and shall be signed each week by the worker so bound, verifying the accuracy of the hours worked and the amount of wages received and, in the case of outdoor workers doing piece-work, the itemised details of the work done.

The said book shall be open to inspection of a duly authorised officer of the Union during working hours.

Schedule A.

Apprenticeship Regulations.

1. No person between the ages of fourteen and eighteen years shall be employed in the abovementioned trades, except as a junior worker or an apprentice, including an apprentice on probation.

2. Every apprentice shall be employed on probation for a period of three months, to determine his fitness or otherwise for apprenticeship, and shall work only for such hours per day and for such remuneration as is herein prescribed. In the event of his becoming an apprentice, such probationary period shall be counted as part of the term of apprenticeship. No apprenticeship agreement shall be entered into until the termination of the probationary period, but in the meantime all conditions as to terms and conditions of employment shall apply as if the apprentice were a duly registered apprentice.

3. When an apprentice cannot be usefully employed because of a strike, the employer shall be relieved of his obligations under the apprenticeship agreement during the period of the strike.

4. Subject to Regulation (6), time lost by the apprentice through sickness or any other cause whatsoever may, with the consent of the Court, on the application of any party, be added to the original term in the apprenticeship agreement.

5. The employer shall pay the apprentice for all time lost through sickness or the holidays prescribed by this Award. Provided—

(a) payment for such sickness shall not exceed a total of one month in each year;

(b) where the time lost through sickness exceeds four consecutive working days, the employer may demand from the apprentice the production of a medical certificate, and a further certificate or certificates may be required if any time is lost through sickness within seven days from the date of resumption of duty, the cost, if any, of such certificate or certificates, not exceeding 5s., to be borne by the employer;

(c) an apprentice shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment, or for any accident or sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

6. The employer shall pay the apprentice in respect of time lost through compulsory military or naval training the amount by which the wages prescribed by the Industrial Award for the trade, calling, craft, occupation, or industry exceeds the amount received by the apprentice from the Department of Defence. Provided that this clause shall not apply to military or naval training imposed through failure to attend compulsory parades. All time lost by reason of compulsory military or naval training, other than the additional training mentioned in the above proviso, shall count as part of the apprenticeship.

7. When an apprentice is absent from work for any cause other than sickness, or in pursuance of the provisions of these Regulations, the employer shall be entitled to deduct from the wages of the apprentice an amount proportionate to the time so lost.

8. An apprentice shall be entitled to such holidays as are provided for in this Award.

9. If the apprentice shall at any time during the term of apprenticeship be wilfully disobedient to the lawful orders of the employer, his managers, foremen or other servants having authority over the apprentice, or be slothful, or negligent, or dishonest, or shall otherwise grossly misbehave himself, or shall not conduct himself as a good and faithful apprentice should do, or shall not faithfully observe and keep his part of his agreement, then it shall be lawful for the employer, with the consent of the Court, to discharge the apprentice from his service.

10. The Court may in its discretion for any cause, which it may deem sufficient on the application of any party to an apprenticeship agreement, abrogate or cancel the agreement, either unconditionally or subject to such terms and conditions as it may deem advisable.

11. In the event of an employer being unable to provide work for the apprentice, or to mutually agree with the legal guardian of the apprentice to cancel the agreement, or to arrange a transfer, application may be made to the Court to arrange for such transfer or to have such agreement cancelled.

12. Where in any case an employer is temporarily unable to provide work to employ an apprentice for his full time, application may be made by the employer to the Court for permission to employ the apprentice for such lesser time per week or per month, and at such remuneration as the Court may determine, being not less than the proportionate amount of the rate of wages prescribed by the Industrial Award for the trade, calling, or industry.

13. An apprentice may be suspended for misconduct by the employer, but in any such case the employer shall forthwith make an application for cancellation of his agreement, and, in the event of the Court refusing same, the wages of the apprentice, or such portion thereof as the Court may order, shall be paid as from the date of such suspension, and, in the event of the application for cancellation being granted, such order may take effect from the date when the apprentice was suspended.

14. (a) Every apprentice shall attend a Government Technical School, vocational classes, or classes of instruction, for instruction in such subjects as are provided for his trade. Provided, however, that attendance shall not be compulsory when the apprentice is resident outside a radius of 12 miles from the place where instruction is given. Provided also, that if technical instruction is not available in the locality in which the apprentice is employed and is available by correspondence, at reasonable cost to be approved by the Court, the Court may prescribe such correspondence course as the technical instruction to be taken by the apprentice, and paid for by the employer.

(b) The fees for the classes attended by the apprentice shall be paid by the employer.

(c) The period during which apprentices are to attend such Technical School or classes shall be four hours in each week the classes are held, if instruction is available.

15. For the purpose of ascertaining the number of apprentices to be taken at any time, the average number of journeymen employed on all working days of the six months immediately preceding such time shall be deemed to be the number of journeymen employed. Where the employer is himself a journeyman regularly and usually working at the trade, he shall be counted as a journeyman for the purpose of computing the number of apprentices allowed.

16. Every Industrial Inspector appointed in pursuance of the provisions of "The Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1925," shall have the power to enter any premises, make such inspection of the premises, plant, machinery or work upon which any apprentice is employed, or could be employed, interview any apprentice or employer, examine any books or documents of the business relating to the wages and conditions of apprentices, and interrogate the employer in regard to any of the abovementioned matters.

17. The breach of any of the terms of a contract of apprenticeship shall be deemed to be a breach of these Regulations, but this shall not prejudice or affect the right of any party to proceed for damages or penalties in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

18. Non-compliance by any person with the provisions of these Regulations shall be deemed to be a breach thereof.

19. Any person convicted of a breach of these Regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

20. Proceedings in respect of breaches of these Regulations shall be instituted and conducted, and fines and penalties recovered in the same manner as proceedings in respect of enforcement of an Award, and the forms prescribed for such enforcement, modified or altered where necessary, may be used in the proceedings.

21. The provisions of this Agreement limiting the number of apprentices who may be employed, shall not operate or be so construed as to require the discharge of any person employed in the trade on the first day of March, 1930.

22. "Apprentice" means any person of any age who is apprenticed to learn or to be taught any of the industries, crafts, or callings to which these Regulations apply, and, where the context so admits, includes an apprentice on probation.
