THE STOCK DISEASES REGULATIONS, 1926.

The Stock Diseases Regulations, 1926, published in the Government Gazette on the 5th day of August, 1927, are amended as follows:—

1. Part IV. of the said Regulations is repealed and a new Part is inserted in lieu thereof as follows:—

Part IV.—Stock in and from the Kimberley.

Prohibited Area.

34. As from and after the first day of October, 1932, no cattle shall be kept or depastured on, and no cattle shall be introduced into or removed from that portion of the State comprised within a line starting at the mouth of the Grey River, proceeding thence along the bank of the said river to its junction with the Shaw River; thence due East until it meets the Rabbit-proof Fence; thence along the said fence until it meets the 121st meridian of longitude; thence along the said meridian Northwards until it meets the sea coast; thence along the sea coast to the starting point: Provided that cattle within the said area at the commencement of this regulation may, for the purpose of due compliance with this regulation, be removed into or transported or driven through the Kimberley Quarantine Area as hereinafter defined, or may be removed direct into such other part of the State as the Chief Inspector of Stock may in writing permit.

Removal of Stock from Kimberley Quarantine Area.

35. For the purposes of this Part of these Regulations, the Kimberley Quarantine Area means the quarantine area constituted and declared under these Regulations by notice published in the Government Gazette on the 9th day of September, 1932, and being all that portion of the State North of a line commencing at the point where the sea coast meets the 20th parallel of latitude, proceeding thence along the said parallel Eastwards until it meets the 127th meridian of longitude; thence Northward along the said meridian until it meets the Southern boundary of the Kimberley Division as constituted under the provisions of "The Land Act, 1898"; thence along such Southern boundary Eastwards until it meets the boundary of the Northern Territory.

36. Cattle shall not be removed from the Kimberley Quarantine Area to any other part of the State save and except upon and subject to the following conditions, namely:—

- (i) A permit in writing signed by an inspector of stock shall first be obtained by the person about to remove the cattle;
- (ii) The cattle shall be removed only by sea from a port within the said area;
- (iii) The cattle, after shipment, shall not be landed in any other part of the State, except directly into the Owen's Anchorage Area hereinafter mentioned;
- (iv) The cattle shall, immediately before shipment, be sprayed by or under the supervision of an inspector of stock with an approved solution repellant to the Buffalo Fly (Lyperosia exigua);
- (v) If the Chief Inspector of Stock shall so direct, the cattle, after shipment, shall be sprayed again by or under the supervision of an inspector of stock before being landed;
- (vi) Whenever cattle are sprayed in accordance with this regulation, the owner thereof shall pay to the inspector of stock by whom or under whose supervision such cattle are sprayed the charges for the same prescribed in the Fourth Schedule to these Regulations.

37. Horses, camels and donkeys shall not be removed from the Kimberley Quarantine Area save and except upon and subject to the following conditions, namely:—

- (i) At least fourteen days prior to removal a permit in writing signed by an inspector of stock shall be obtained by the person about to remove the horses, camels, or donkeys;

- (ii) Within seven days prior to removal the horses, camels, or donkeys about to be removed shall be dipped or sprayed by or under the supervision of an inspector of stock;
- (iii) Whenever horses, camels, or donkeys are dipped or sprayed in accordance with this regulation, the owner thereof shall pay to the inspector of stock by whom or under whose supervision the same are dipped or sprayed the charges for the same prescribed in the Fourth Schedule to these Regulations.

Stock from Intermediate Ports.

38. (1.) Vessels conveying cattle from the Kimberley Quarantine Area may call at all intermediate ports, and stock from parts of the State other than the Kimberley Quarantine Area may be shipped on such vessels for carriage to any other part of the State: Provided that, where such stock consists of cattle, horses, camels, and donkeys, such cattle, horses, camels and donkeys shall not be landed elsewhere than at Owen's Anchorage Quarantine Area without the permit in writing of the Chief Inspector of Stock, and such stock, horses, camels, and donkeys shall, before being landed anywhere, be treated by or under the supervision of an inspector of stock in such manner as the Chief Inspector of Stock may direct.

(2) If any treatment aforesaid shall include dipping or spraying, the owner of the stock dipped or sprayed shall pay to the inspector of stock by whom or under whose supervision the same are dipped or sprayed the charges for the same prescribed in the Fourth Schedule to these Regulations.

Owen's Anchorage Quarantine Area.

39. For the purposes of this Part of these Regulations, the Owen's Anchorage Quarantine Area means the quarantine area constituted and declared under these Regulations by notice published in the Government Gazette on the 9th day of September, 1932, and being all that portion of the State adjacent to Owen's Anchorage in the Port of Fremantle bounded on the North by Island Road, on the East by the road known as the Old Rockingham Road, on the South by the Northern fence of the Explosives Reserve, and on the West by the ocean, and shall include all other portions of the State which may hereafter from time to time be constituted and declared to be added to and form part of the said Quarantine Area under these Regulations.

40. No cattle, other than cattle brought from the Kimberley Quarantine Area, and cattle carried from other parts of the State in a vessel also carrying cattle from the said quarantine area, and cattle intended to be slaughtered immediately, shall be brought into the Owen's Anchorage Quarantine Area without the permission in writing of the Chief Inspector of Stock.

41. No cattle brought into the Owen's Anchorage Quarantine Area or found therein shall be removed therefrom without the permission in writing of an inspector of stock.

42. All cattle brought into or found within the Owen's Anchorage Quarantine Area may be dipped therein by or under the supervision of an inspector of stock, and shall be quarantined or kept in such area until slaughtered or until an inspector of stock permits the removal of the same therefrom.

43. Permits as in Form No. 7 in the Third Schedule to these Regulations may be issued by an inspector of stock for the removal of cattle from the Owen's Anchorage Quarantine Area upon and subject to the following conditions:—

(f) all trucks containing cattle in course of removal from the said quarantine area shall be sealed forthwith upon the cattle being loaded thereon, and such seals shall not be broken until the cattle arrive at their destination, and then only in the presence of an inspector of stock, inspector of public health, or police officer.

(2) If any cattle brought into or found straying in the Owen's Anchorage Quarantine Area shall come into contact with any cattle brought from the Kimberley Quarantine Area, then such cattle shall, for the purposes of this regulation, be deemed to be cattle brought from the Kimberley Quarantine Area.

44. All stock brought into or found straying in the Owen's Anchorage Quarantine Area and found to be infested with cattle tick shall be dipped immediately in a prescribed dip by or under the supervision of an inspector of stock.

45. Whenever stock is dipped at Owen's Anchorage Quarantine Area, the owner thereof shall pay to the inspector of stock by whom or under whose supervision the stock is dipped the charges for the same prescribed in the Fourth Schedule to these Regulations.

Skins and Hides to be treated as prescribed in Regulation 62.

45A. All skins and hides from cattle slaughtered within the Kimberley Quarantine Area and within the Owen's Anchorage Quarantine Area shall be treated as prescribed in paragraphs (2) and (3) of Regulation 62 hereof.
