Any person failing to comply with this Regulation is liable to a penalty of not exceeding twenty pounds.

Default Assessments, Section 6.

17. If an assessment is made by the Commissioner of Taxation under Section 43 of "The Land and Income Tax Assessment Act, 1907-1931" (assessment in case of default), tax in respect of the income of any person so assessed shall be due to the Department and payable to the Commissioner of Taxation on behalf of the Department, and Section 5 of the Act shall apply.

Minimum Assessments—Method of Issue—Due date of Payment.

18. No assessment of less than one shilling and twopence shall issue, and no assessment under two shillings and threepence shall issue where the person is not assessed for State income tax. All assessments under the Act shall issue at the same time as assessments for income tax under "The Land and Income Tax Assessment Act, 1907-1931," or dividend duty under "The Dividend Duties Act, 1902." All assessments under the Act shall be due and payable on the date shown on the notice of assessment.

Postage to be Prepaid.

19. Postage on every return, statement, communication, remittance, or other matter sent by post addressed to the Commissioner shall be fully prepaid by the sender.

Copies of Returns.

20. A copy of or extract from a return of any taxpayer may, subject to the approval of the Commissioner, and upon payment of the prescribed fee (1s.), be supplied only to the taxpayer himself, or to some person authorised by the taxpayer in writing in that behalf.

Payment of Tax.

21. An employer may pay the tax, where deducted other than by means of adhesive stamps, in any of the following ways:—

(a) By delivery of cash, bank notes, or cheques to the Commissioner, at the Taxation Department, G.P.O. Buildings, Forrest Place, Perth.

(b) By remitting the tax to the Commissioner by bank draft or cheque, or postal money order or postal note, payable in the city to which the remittance is sent.

- (c) By depositing the net amount of the tax to the credit of the State Commissioner of Taxation at any branch of the Commonwealth Bank in Western Australia, or by paying the tax to any State Department.

All tax in respect of salaries and wages paid must be remitted to the Commissioner of Taxation within seven days of such payment, or within seven days of the end of each month, in those cases where the Commissioner has approved of monthly remittances.

Post Office to be Agent of Remitter.

22. When a remittance is posted by a taxpayer addressed to the State Commissioner, the Post Office shall be deemed to be the agent of the remitter, and payment shall not be deemed to have been made until the remittance has been received by the addressee. All remittances must be accompanied by a memorandum signed by the employer or his authorised agent, giving the period of payment of wages, number of taxpayers (employees), and total amount of wages paid, and upon which the tax is levied.

Payment by Cheque.

23. When a cheque has been delivered or remitted to the Commissioner in payment of tax, the tax shall (notwithstanding any receipt given therefor) not be deemed to have been paid until the amount of the cheque has been collected.

Receipts to be Issued.

24. Receipts for tax shall be issued by such person as the Commissioner may authorise, and shall be in the form F.E. No. 2, Schedule 1.

Part Payment not to be Accepted.

25. Except with the express consent of the Commissioner, no money shall be accepted on account or in part payment of the tax.

Insufficient Postage.

26. When any sum is received as payment of tax, the Commissioner shall first deduct therefrom the amount of postage and surcharge (if any) paid upon any unstamped or insufficiently stamped matter received through the post from the taxpayer, and shall credit in payment of the tax only the net amount then remaining.

Tax in respect of Salary and Wages.

27. For the purpose of paragraph (c) (i) and (ii) of Section 9 of the Act, any person paying salary or wages may select the method of collection either by means of adhesive stamps of the requisite value attached to the pay-sheet, or by deducting from the salary or wages payable by him contributions to the Fund and paying as prescribed to the Commissioner, and once the method of collection has been selected or adopted, no departure from the said method can be allowed without the express permission of the Commissioner.

Drawings by Principals and Partners not Liable.

28. Drawings by the principal or partners in any business, either as salary or wages, or in anticipation of profits, shall not be liable for tax under Section 9 of the Act, but will be assessed by the Commissioner under Section 5, in conjunction with the other income of the business.

Adhesive Stamps.

29. The adhesive stamps to be used in connection with deductions of tax under the Act shall be of the form and size as prescribed in Schedule 3; such stamps shall be printed by the Government Printer only.

State Treasurer to Issue Stamps.

30. The State Under Treasurer for the time being shall be the only person authorised to control and issue on the part of the Commissioner stamps for sale to persons authorised to sell stamps by the State Under Treasurer or the State Commissioner of Taxation.

All advances for stamps shall be properly recorded and shall be balanced monthly. A remittance of the value of the stamps sold shall accompany every application for fresh supply or recoup of the stamps sold.

Collection of Tax from Casual Employees.

31. Every employer of a casual employee shall see that payment of tax is made by means of adhesive stamps of the requisite value, to be affixed to a casual employee wages book, where any payment amounts to fifteen shillings or over (inclusive of any remuneration by way of sustenance), and is either at a daily rate or in the nature of a contract.

Such wages book in the Form F.E. No. 6 of Schedule 1 will be supplied by the Department on the application of any casual employee, and non-production thereof on the demand of an employer renders the employee liable to a penalty of twenty pounds.

Where any payment without board and lodging amounts to less than 21s. per week, no tax is due, but where the payments in any week amount to £1, and, in addition thereto, board and lodging is received, adhesive stamps of the requisite value of the aggregate of any casual labour during any week must be attached at the termination thereof. For example—Where an employee such as a gardener or char-woman is employed by several employers, and where the weekly or periodical payment for wages totals £1 per week or more, and, in addition, board and lodging is received, such employee shall keep the prescribed book in which all payments for wages shall be entered, and the employee shall affix Financial Emergency stamps to the value applicable to the total payments received during the week, and shall cancel such stamps by initialing and dating the face thereof.

Cancellation of adhesive Stamps.

32. All adhesive stamps attached to wages sheets, wages books, receipts, or other documents, and used in payment of tax, shall be cancelled by the employer, employee or paying officer by writing his name or initials and correct date of writing across the face of the stamps. Any person authorised by the Minister or the Commissioner may cancel stamps used in respect to the payment of tax.

Failure to cancel involves a penalty of twenty pounds.

Overlapping of Stamps.

When attaching adhesive stamps to wages sheets, wages books, receipts or other documents, they shall be so attached that one stamp does not overlap another for more than half the length of the stamp.

Fractional Tax.

33. Where the tax payable by a taxpayer amounts to 4½d., 1s. 1½d., and so on, the employer or paying officer shall deduct the next highest penny in such cases, viz., 5d., 1s. 2d., and so on, and from the next following payment the employer shall deduct 4d., 1s. 1d., and so on, or, subject to special arrangement, with approval of the Commissioner, the odd halfpennies due in respect to any contribution may be deducted at the end of each month or quarter.

Stamping of Salary and Wages Sheets, Wages Books, etc.

34. Where two or more employees are engaged by an employer, and each employee is subject to a deduction from his salary or wage for tax, it shall not be necessary for the employer to attach to the salary or wages sheet, receipt, or salary or wages book signed by each employee a stamp for the amount of each employee's tax, but stamps to the aggregate value of the total tax of all the employees may be attached to the salary or wages sheets, receipt, or salary or wages book (for example see Schedule 2).

Payments in respect of Contracts, Section 9, Subsection (3).

35. All payments in respect to any contract for work done or labour performed, including clearing, shearing, droving, and carting made by any person shall be deemed to be wages within the meaning of the Act. Every person making such payments shall deduct the amount of the tax due thereon, and shall pay the amount of such tax to the Commissioner of Taxation in the manner prescribed, or he may purchase Financial Emergency Tax stamps to the value of such tax and attach the stamps to the receipts, wages sheets, wages book, or other document in use, and shall cancel the stamps in the manner prescribed. In respect to contracts for shearing, the following deductions shall be allowed from each payment made by the employer or other person making such payments to:—Shearers, 3s. 6d. in the £; shed hands, 2.0d. in the £ (adults); shed hands, 3.0d. in the £ (18 to 21 years); shed hands, 2.6d. in the £ (under 18 years); pressers, 2.0d. in the £; cooks, 2.0d. in the £.

Where a lump sum is paid by a pastoralist, farmer, or any other person to a contractor who employs a number of shearers and other men in the shearing of sheep, and that contractor is unable to produce evidence from the Commissioner that he has furnished an income tax return, a return under this Act or "The Hospital Fund Act, 1931," deductions must be made by the pastoralists, etc., but no deduction for expenses is to be allowed to the contractor beyond the deductions mentioned in the previous paragraph.

In respect to contracts for carting of super., wheat, oats, and other farm produce by a contractor using motor transport, a deduction of 50 per cent. of the contract payment shall be allowed to cover cost of transport, unless the contractor produces evidence from the Commissioner that he has furnished an income tax return, or a return under this Act or the Hospital Fund Act, and in such case no deduction is necessary when payments are made to the contractor.

Financial Emergency Tax must, however, be deducted by the contractor when paying wages, etc., to any of his employees.

Any contractor claiming deduction for expenses beyond those covered by these Regulations, and allowable as a deduction from payments made, must make application for same to the Commissioner of Taxation at the time of furnishing his income tax return or a return of income under the Act.

In the case of contractors receiving progress and final payments on account of contracts who are also returners for income tax purposes, under "The Land and Income Tax Assessment Act, 1907-1931," or for tax under this Act, no deduction by means of adhesive stamps or otherwise shall be made therefrom on account of tax, conditionally that a certificate is given by the Commissioner to the effect that the contractor is a returner under "The Land and Income Tax Assessment Act, 1907-1931," or "The Financial Emergency Tax Assessment Act, 1932."

(a.) Where any employer (person, firm, or company) paying commission regularly to a number of agents or other persons, desires exemption from collecting the tax at the time of payment of the commission, such employer may furnish to the Commissioner a list of the names, occupations, and addresses of the persons to whom commission is payable, and the Commissioner, on being satisfied that the persons receiving commission have furnished an income return under this Act or "The Land and Income Tax Assessment Act, 1907-1931," may, in his discretion, grant to such employer exemption from liability to deduct tax under Section 9 of the Act. (Form F.E. No. 3, Schedule 1.)

Each certificate of exemption granted under Section 9 or this Regulation shall be numbered, and such number shall be quoted against every payment made for commission to the persons mentioned in such certificate.

Use of Adhesive Stamps for payment of Emergency Tax and Hospital Contributions.

(b.) Care must be exercised in seeing that only Financial Emergency Tax Stamps are used for payment of tax where tax is payable under Section 9 of the Act. Hospital Fund Stamps must not on any account be used for this purpose, nor must Financial Emergency Tax Stamps be used in connection with payment of Hospital Fund contributions.

Payment of Tax by Cash or Cheque.

(c.) Where an employer elects to pay Financial Emergency Tax and Hospital Fund contributions by cash or cheque to the Commissioner of Taxation, or to any officer authorised by him to collect tax, he shall forward with each remittance a correct statement of the amount of Emergency Tax and the amount of Hospital Contribution.

Tax payable by Companies, Section 8.

36. Every company subject to "The Dividend Duties Act, 1902," and amendments thereto, shall, as and when every payment of duty under "The Dividend Duties Act, 1902," and amendments thereto, is payable to the Commissioner of Taxation, in addition to the duty payable under that Act, make a payment of tax at the rate in the pound fixed by Parliament in respect to every pound of its profits as assessed under the Act.

In the case of a life assurance company, it shall be assessed at the rate in the pound fixed by Parliament on the amount of interest received from its investments.

Other insurance companies shall be assessed at the rate fixed by Parliament in respect of every three pounds two shillings and sixpence of the premiums received by the company after any allowance for reinsurances paid away.

Provided that the first payment of tax shall be payable in respect of a proportionate part of the amount of the first assessment under "The Dividend Duties Act, 1902," and amendments thereto, after the commencement of the Act of the profits or income of every such taxpayer as shall bear the same ratio to the whole as the length of the period between the commencement of the Act and the first day of July, 1933, bears to a year:

Provided also, that income (in the nature of dividends) received by any person in respect of shares in any company that has duly paid tax shall be exempt from tax, but this exemption shall not apply to persons resident in Western Australia and receiving dividends from companies incorporated and carrying on business in the other States of the Commonwealth or from ex-Australian companies. All such dividends are liable to tax under the Act.

- (10.) The cash allowances paid and the bonus shares allotted to shareholders of any co-operative company or society as a rebate or discount on their trading with such companies or societies.

Service of Notices.

38. Any notice or other document, the service of which is not elsewhere provided for, shall be deemed to be served on the taxpayer by or on behalf of the Commissioner when service is effected:—

- (a) by delivering it to him personally;
- (b) by leaving it at his address in accordance with Regulation 12 (a) and (b);
- (c) by posting it in a letter addressed to him in accordance with the said Regulation 12 (a) and (b).

Any notice to be given by the Commissioner may be given by any officer of the Commissioner duly authorised in that behalf, and any notice purporting to be signed by the authority of the Commissioner shall be valid and effectual for all purposes as if signed by the Commissioner in person.

Appointment of Prescribed Deputy.

39. The Governor may by notice published in the Government Gazette appoint any person to be a prescribed deputy of the Commissioner for the purposes of the Financial Emergency Tax Assessment Act.

Onus of Proof.

40. In any proceedings against the taxpayer for failing or neglecting to duly furnish a return, a certificate in writing signed by the Commissioner, or the prescribed deputy of the Commissioner, certifying that no return has been received from the taxpayer by any officer authorised by the Commissioner to receive returns at the place where under the Regulations the return should have been furnished, shall be prima facie evidence that the defendant failed or neglected to duly furnish a return.

Spoiled Stamps.

41. If any stamp after having been issued in the manner prescribed in the Regulations shall have become damaged, spoiled, or unfit for use other than in the ordinary course of affixing to wages and salary sheets, the State Under Treasurer shall, upon application being made to him and upon delivery to him of the stamps damaged, spoiled or rendered unfit for use, cause a similar stamp or stamps of equal value to be delivered to the owner of such stamps so damaged or spoiled or rendered unfit for use, or to his representative.

Payment of Wages or Salaries in Lump Sums at various periods, Section 9.

42. Where an employer (such as a pastoralist or farmer) makes payments of salaries or wages to his employees in lump sums at different periods the following provision shall apply:—

- (a) where a lump sum is paid to an employee after the 1st December, 1932, but covering a period prior to such date, no tax is due on such payment:
- (b) where a salary or wage is paid in a lump sum, or in instalments, and covers a period subsequent to the 1st December, 1932, a deduction shall be made by the employer of the amount of tax due on such payment; and
- (c) where an employee is also entitled to receive his board and lodging, a sum shall be added to such payment calculated at the rate of one pound per week, dating from the first day of December, 1932, up to the date of such payment.

Payment of Allowances.

43. Retiring allowances, furlough, or any allowance for past services, when paid in a lump sum after the 1st December, 1932, shall be assessed for tax to the extent of 5 per cent. of the amount of the total allowance paid, but where such allowances, furlough, etc., are paid fortnightly or monthly after the 1st December, 1932, such periodical payments shall be subject to tax and must be deducted by the employer at the time of payment.

Note.—Travelling allowances or any allowance granted to cover any special expenditure, except for living and maintenance, shall not be subject to tax under the Act.

(2) he has furnished a return under the Act or "The Land and Income Tax Assessment Act 1907-1931," the Commissioner may issue a certificate of exemption from tax under Section 9, and such salary and/or wage shall be assessed as income under Section 5 of this Act.

Refund of Tax under Section 9, Subsection (6).

45. If, during the period between the 1st December, 1932, and the 30th June, 1933, or during any subsequent year ended 30th June, any person shall pay tax in respect of his salary and wage, and at the expiration of such period he proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the amount of his salary or wage, together with any other income received by him during such period, and did not amount to an average of one pound per week for such period, was exempt from tax under the Act, he may apply for, and the Commissioner shall make, a refund of the amount of tax over-paid.

23rd February, 1933.

LOTTERIES (CONTROL) ACT, 1932.

Regulations.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Lotteries
 Regulations, 1933.
2. These Regulations are divided into parts as follows:—

4. Every application under paragraph (b) of Section 5 of the Act shall be in the Form No. 2 in the Schedule hereto, and shall, in addition to the details prescribed in paragraph (c) of that section, give details of—

(a) the name, address, and occupation of every per-person who is in any manner associated or intended to be associated as a principal with the person making application to conduct the lottery;

(b) the method proposed to be adopted for the sale and distribution of tickets, or the receipt of subscriptions, and also, if the Commission reincluding agents and vendors of tickets and receivers of money;

(c) prizes proposed to be distributed.

5. The Minister may require any person or persons proposing to conduct a lottery, as a condition of his granting a permit, to furnish him with an approved bond, in such a sum as the Minister may think sufficient for the faithful performance by such person or persons of their obligations and duties under the Act and Regulations, and to ensure compliance with the conditions of the permit. Such bond may be in the Form No. 3 in the Schedule.

Part II.—Conduct of Lotteries.

6. Every person conducting a lottery shall forthwith, on the receipt of any money or subscription, give each person entering the lottery or subscribing money therein, a ticket voucher or coupon showing the name of the lottery in which the ticket is taken or subscription received, the amount of subscription which has been received, receiving such money or valuable thing, give a receipt therefor to the person remitting. Moneys received by the permit-holder shall not be held for any longer period than two banking days, and shall be paid into the bank account to be kept by him under the provisions of Section 11 of the Act.

8. The Minister may require any person having the handling or receipt of any money pertaining to a lottery to furnish a bond in the Form No. 4 in the Schedule.

9. A permit may be in the Form No. 5 in the Schedule.

Part III.—Method of Drawing Lotteries conducted by the Commission.

10. The procedure and method of drawing lotteries conducted by the Commission shall be as follows:—

(a) At least three days' previous notice shall be given by the Commission by advertisement in a daily newspaper circulating in Perth of the date, time, and place of drawing;

(b) The drawing shall be conducted in the presence of such members of the public who desire to be present subject, however, to the capacity of the building where the drawing takes place;

(c) The Commission shall cause to be made a number of cabinets of a design to be approved by the Minister for the purpose of containing marbles, and shall cause to be made a sufficient number of marbles from time to time to correspond with every ticket which may be sold or received in connection with the lottery. The marbles shall be numbered consecutively from one to the total number of marbles. For the purpose of convenient reference in the handling and checking of the marbles they shall be placed in batches in numerical order in separate cabinets;

(d) All marbles corresponding to the numbers of any unsold tickets shall be taken from the cabinets prior to the remaining marbles participating in the lottery being put into sealed containers as hereinafter provided, and the butts of tickets sold shall be arranged and kept in numerical order for the purpose of easy reference;

(e) After the closing hour, and within reasonable time before the drawing of the lottery, all the marbles remaining in the cabinets shall be checked with the butts of the tickets sold by a person or persons appointed by the Minister, and shall be placed by such person or persons in some receptacle or receptacles which they shall personally seal and hand over to a member or members of the Commission in person, who shall take charge of and keep the receptacles and their contents in custody under lock and key until the time of drawing. The members of the Commission shall be responsible for seeing that no person has access to or is allowed to handle or touch the receptacles or their contents;

(f) When the time of drawing arrives the receptacles and their contents shall be removed to the place of drawing, under the supervision of a member or members of the Commission and the person or persons appointed by the Minister, and they shall be examined and unfastened and the marbles tipped into a barrel under such supervision. The barrel shall be closed and locked and then rotated a sufficient number of times to mix the marbles thoroughly;

(g) After the barrel has been rotated as provided in paragraph (f) it shall be opened by a member of the Commission, and some well-known person of good repute who may be appointed by the Commission, or some other person approved by the Minister, shall insert a long spoon of material and design to be approved of by the Minister. In approving such design the Minister shall see that the spoon shall be of such construction as to take out one marble only at a time.

(h) The person so inserting the spoon shall withdraw it with a marble in it and shall not touch the marble with his hands. He shall direct the marble by means of the spoon and deposit it in a glass container, which shall be provided for the purpose. The marble shall then be taken out by a member of the Commission, who shall read and call out the number inscribed on it clearly and audibly to the persons present. Such member shall then hand the marble to another member of the Commission, who shall follow the same procedure. The marble shall then be handed by the latter member to a recording clerk, who shall make a written record of the number in a book to be kept for that purpose.

(i) The procedure outlined in paragraphs (g) and (h) shall be followed until the whole of the prizes are allotted, and at the conclusion of the drawing the record shall be certified by at least three persons taking part in the drawing.

(j) Where any of the prizes in a lottery are to be determined by the result of any horse race, in addition to the procedure specified above, the following procedure shall be observed in order to determine the particular ticket or subscription in respect of which a horse is drawn—

(i) A number of large marbles made of some durable substance, to be approved by the Minister, and to be at least 1½ inches in diameter, shall be provided in accordance with the number of horses entitled to participate in the drawing;

(ii) Each marble shall have the name of one of such horses written on it;

(iii) These marbles shall be checked by a member of the Commission and the person or persons appointed by the Minister;

(iv) A separate and smaller barrel shall be provided, having an opening through which the marbles may be put into the barrel and a fastening for such opening;

Further provision shall be made for an opening and fastening sufficient to admit the passage of one marble at a time when the drawing takes place.

(v) After the marbles have been checked the member of the Commission shall place them in the barrel, which he shall close and rotate;

(vi) In order to ascertain the number of the ticket entitled to a horse a small marble shall be first drawn out in the manner hereinbefore specified, and then a large marble with the horse's name on it shall be allowed to pass through the opening in the barrel provided for the marbles with the horses' names by some person appointed by the Commission for that purpose. The ticket corresponding to the number of the small marble drawn shall be the ticket entitled to the horse named on the large marble drawn from the other barrel. This procedure shall be followed until the specified number of horses according to the terms of the lottery is drawn;

(vii) In each case the same process of checking and recording shall be followed as in paragraph (h).

11. The following shall be the order to be observed at all drawings:—

First:—Where any of the prizes are distributed according to horses, horses shall be drawn first in accordance with paragraph (vi) of the preceding regulation. When all the horses have been drawn according to the terms of the lottery, the numbered marbles shall be checked and restored to the appropriate barrel by a member of the Commission; or, where there are no horses, first, second, and third prizes shall be drawn, and then the marbles so restored to the barrel.

Second:—Then all prizes of the next lower denomination, after which the marbles for these prizes shall be similarly restored to the barrel.

Third:—The same process shall be repeated until the lottery is fully drawn.

Part IV.—Advertisement of Result of Lottery.

12. A permit-holder conducting any lottery shall advertise the result of the lottery in some newspaper circulating in the district in which the lottery is conducted for such number of issues of that newspaper as the Minister may at the time of giving the permit direct, and, in the event of no such direction being given, in the first available issue of such newspaper following the drawing of the lottery.

The advertisement shall state the particulars of all prizes won, the names of all persons who have won the first, second, and third prizes respectively in the lottery, and the numbers of all tickets the holders of which have won prizes.

13. In the event of any prize moneys or prizes not having been claimed by the persons entitled thereto within twelve calendar months after the publication of such advertisement, or the last of such advertisements, the permit-holder shall apply any such moneys for any charitable purposes the Minister may direct in writing.

Part V.—Lotteries Commission.

14. The Lotteries Commission shall meet at least once in every week.

15. The Minister shall cause to be made a common seal bearing the name of the Commission. The common seal of the Commission shall at all times be kept locked up in some secure place, and the only persons who shall have access thereto shall be the Chairman and the members of the Commission. The common seal shall not be affixed to any document, except in pursuance of a resolution duly passed at a meeting of the Commission, and every such affixation shall be attested by the signatures of at least two of the members.

16. At meetings of the Commission the following shall be the order of procedure, or as near thereto as practicable:—

- (a) The minutes of the previous meeting shall be considered;
- (b) Copies of correspondence sent by order of the Commission shall be read;
- (c) Reading of letters received and considering thereon;
- (d) Consideration of applications;
- (e) Presentation of schedule of receipts and disbursements and consideration of accounts;
- (f) Orders of the day, including subjects continued from proceedings of former meetings and any business the members may think desirable;
- (g) Motions of which previous notice has been given.

17. The Chairman shall preside at each meeting. In the absence of the Chairman the chair shall be taken by some member nominated by the Minister to act as vice-Chairman in his absence.

Part VI.—Offences.

18. Any person who makes any false statement in any application under these Regulations commits an offence. If the false statement is made wilfully the offender shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds and, in any other case, to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

19. Any permit-holder conducting a lottery in which any person other than the person specified in the application for a permit is associated as principal, servant, or agent commits an offence. Penalty: One hundred pounds.

20. Any person who by act or omission commits any breach of these Regulations for which no specific penalty is provided, commits an offence and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.
