Any person failing to comply with this Regulation is liable to a penalty of not exceeding twenty pounds.

Default Assessments, Section 6.

17. If an assessment is made by the Commissioner of Taxation under Section 43 of "The Land and Income Tax Assessment Act, 1907-1932" (assessment in case of default) tax in respect of the income of any person so assessed shall be due to the Department and payable to the Commissioner of Taxation on behalf of the Department, and Section 5 of the Act shall apply.

All assessments under the Act shall issue at the same time as assessments for income tax under "The Land and Income Tax Assessment Act, 1907-1932," or dividend duty under "The Dividend Duties Act, 1902." All assessments under the Act shall be due and payable on the date shown on the notice of assessment.

Postage to be prepaid.

19. Postage on every return, statement, communication, remittance, or other matter sent by post addressed to the Commissioner shall be fully prepaid by the sender.

Copies of Returns.

20. A copy of or extract from a return of any taxpayer may, subject to the approval of the Commissioner, and upon payment of the prescribed fee (one shilling), be supplied only to the taxpayer himself, or to some person authorised by the taxpayer in writing in that behalf.

Payment of Tax.

21. An employer may pay the tax where deducted, other than by means of adhesive stamps, in any of the following ways:—

- (a) By delivery of cash, bank notes, or cheques to the Commissioner, at the Taxation Department, G.P.O. Buildings, Forrest Place, Perth.
- (b) By remitting the tax to the Commissioner by bank draft or cheque, or postal money order or postal note, payable in the city to which the remittance is sent.
- (c) By depositing the net amount of the tax to the credit of the State Commissioner of Taxation at any branch of the Commonwealth Bank in Western Australia, or by paying the tax to any State Department.

All tax in respect of salaries and wages paid must be remitted to the Commissioner of Taxation within seven days of such payment, or within seven days of the end of each month, in those cases where the Commissioner has approved of monthly remittances.

Post Office to be Agent of Remitter.

22. When a remittance is posted by a taxpayer addressed to the State Commissioner, the Post Office shall be deemed to be the agent of the remitter, and payment shall not be deemed to have been made until the remittance has been received by the addressee. All remittances must be accompanied by a memorandum signed by the employer or his authorised agent, giving the period of payment of wages, number of taxpayers (employees), and total amount of wages paid, and upon which the tax is levied.

Payment by Cheque.

23. When a cheque has been delivered or remitted to the Commissioner in payment of tax, the tax shall (notwithstanding any receipt given therefore) not be deemed to have been paid until the amount of the cheque has been collected.

Receipts to be Issued.

24. Receipts for tax shall be issued by such person as the Commissioner may authorise, and shall be in the Form F.E. No. 2, Schedule 1.

Part Payment not to be Accepted.

25. Except with the express consent of the Commissioner, no money shall be accepted on account or in part payment of the tax.

Insufficient Postage.

26. When any sum is received as payment of tax, the Commissioner shall first deduct therefrom the amount of postage and surcharge (if any) paid upon any unstamped or insufficiently stamped matter received through the post from the taxpayer, and shall credit in payment of the tax only the net amount then remaining.

Tax in respect of Salary and Wages.

27. For the purpose of paragraph (e), (i) and (ii) of Section 9 of the Act, any person paying salary or wages may select the method of collection, either by means of adhesive stamps of the requisite value attached to the pay-sheet, or by deducting from the salary or wages payable by him contributions to the Fund and paying as prescribed to the Commissioner, and once the method of collection has been selected or adopted, no departure from the said method can be allowed without the express permission of the Commissioner.

Drawings by Principals and Partners not Liable.

28. Drawings by the principal or partners in any business, either as salary or wages, or in anticipation of profits, shall not be liable for tax under Section 9 of the Act, but will be assessed by the Commissioner under Section 5, in conjunction with the other income of the business.

Adhesive Stamps.

29. The adhesive stamps to be used in connection with deductions of tax under the Act shall be of the form and size as prescribed in Schedule 3; such stamps shall be printed by the Government Printer only.

State Treasurer to Issue Stamps.

30. The State Under Treasurer for the time being shall be the only person authorised to control and issue on the part of the Commissioner stamps for sale to persons authorised to sell stamps by the State Under Treasurer or the State Commissioner of Taxation.

All advances for stamps shall be properly recorded, and shall be balanced monthly. A remittance of the value of stamps sold shall accompany every application for fresh supply or recoup of the stamps sold.

Collection of Tax from Casual Employees.

31. Every casual employee (see definition of "Casual employee") shall keep a casual employee's wages book, and every employer of a "casual employee" shall see that payment of tax is made by means of adhesive stamps of the requisite value, to be affixed to the casual employee's wages book where—

- (a) any payment amounts to 30s. or over, either at a daily or weekly rate or a lump sum in a nature of a contract; or
- (b) £1 per week or over, plus any remuneration by way of sustenance (board and lodging).

Such wages book, in the Form F.E. No. 6 of Schedule 1, will be supplied by the Department on application, or may be obtained from any clerk of court.

Where any payment without board and lodging amounts to less than thirty shillings per week, no tax is due, but where the payments in any week amount to one pound, and, in addition thereto, board and lodging is received, adhesive stamps of the requisite value of the aggregate of any casual labour during any week must be attached at the termination thereof. For example—Where an employee, such as a gardener or charwoman, is employed by several employers, and where the weekly or periodical payment for wages totals thirty shillings per week or more, such employee shall keep the prescribed book in which all payments for wages shall be entered, and the employee shall affix Financial Emergency stamps to the value applicable to the total payments received during the week, and shall cancel such stamps by initialing and dating the face thereof.

Note.—Any ordinary memorandum book may be used for the purpose of this regulation. The wages book must be kept written up and stamped up to date, and must be produced to any inspector appointed under this Act when demanded.

Cancellation of adhesive Stamps.

32. All adhesive stamps attached to wages sheets, wages books, receipts, or other documents, and used in payment of tax, shall be cancelled by the employer, employee or paying officer by writing his name or initials and correct date of writing across the face of the stamps. Any person authorised by the Minister or the Commissioner may cancel stamps used in respect to the payment of tax.

Failure to cancel involves a penalty of twenty pounds.

Overlapping of Stamps.

When attaching adhesive stamps to wages sheets, wages books, receipts or other documents, they shall be so attached that one stamp does not overlap another for more than half the length of the stamp.

Fractional Tax.

Stamping of Salary and Wages Sheets, Wages Books, etc.

34. Where two or more employees are engaged by an employer it shall not be necessary for the employer to attach to the salary or wages sheet, receipt, or salary or wages book signed by each employee a stamp for the amount of each employee's tax, but stamps to the aggregate value of the total tax of all the employees may be attached to the salary or wages sheets, receipt, or salary or wages book (for example see Schedule 2).

Payments in respect of Contracts, Section 9, Subsection (3).

35. All payments in respect to any contract for work done or labour performed, including clearing, shearing, droving, and carting made by any person shall be deemed to be wages within the meaning of the Act. Every person making such payments shall deduct the amount of the tax due thereon, and shall pay the amount of such tax to the Commissioner of Taxation in the manner prescribed, or he may purchase Financial Emergency Tax stamps to the value of such tax and attach the stamps to the receipts, wages sheets, wages book, or other document in use, and shall cancel the stamps in the manner prescribed.

In respect to contracts for shearing, the following deductions shall be allowed from each payment made by the employer or other person making such payments to:—Shearers, 3s. 6d. in the £; shed hands, 2.0d. in the £ (adults); shed hands, 3.0d. in the £ (18 to 21 years); shed hands, 2.6d. in the £ (under 18 years); pressers, 2.0d. in the £; cooks, 2.0d. in the £.

Where a lump sum is paid by a pastoralist, farmer, or any other person to a contractor who employs a number of shearers and other men in the shearing of sheep, and that contractor is unable to produce evidence from the Commissioner that he has furnished an income tax return, a return under this Act or "The Hospital Fund Act, 1930-1," deductions of tax must be made by the pastoralists, etc., but no deduction for expenses is to be allowed to the contractor beyond the deductions mentioned in the previous paragraph.

In respect to contracts for carting of super., wheat oats, and other farm produce by a carting contractor, where the contractor produces evidence that he has furnished an income tax return or an income return under the Act or the Hospital Fund Act, and produces a certificate of exemption from taxation under Section 9 of the Act, no deduction of tax shall be made from the payments made to the contractor. The number of the certificate of exemption from payment of tax under Section 9 of the Act must be quoted against every payment made to the contractor. In all other cases a deduction of 4d. in the £ must be made from the gross amount paid under the contract.

Financial Emergency Tax must, however, be deducted by the contractor when paying wages, etc., to any of his employees.

Any contractor claiming deduction for expenses beyond those covered by these Regulations, and allowable as a deduction from payments made, must make application for same to the Commissioner of Taxation at the time of furnishing his income tax return or a return of income under the Act.

(a) Where any employer (person, firm, or company) paying commission regularly to a number of agents or other persons, desires exemption from collecting the tax at the time of payment of the commission, such employer may furnish to the Commissioner a list of the names, occupations, and addresses of the persons to whom commission is payable, and the Commissioner, on being satisfied that the persons receiving commission have furnished an income return under the Act or "The Land and Income Tax Assessment Act, 1907-1932," or "The Hospital Fund Act, 1930-31," may, in his discretion, grant to such employer exemption from liability to deduct tax under Section 9 of the Act. (Form F.E. No. 3, Schedule 1.)

Each certificate of exemption granted under this Regulation shall be numbered, and such number shall be quoted against every payment made for commission to the persons mentioned in such certificate.

Use of Adhesive Stamps for payment of Emergency Tax and Hospital Contributions.

(b) Care must be exercised in seeing that only Financial Emergency Tax Stamps are used for payment of tax where tax is payable under Section 9 of the Act. Hospital Fund Stamps must not on any account be used for this purpose, nor must Financial Emergency Tax Stamps be used in connection with payment of Hospital Fund contributions.

Payment of Tax by Cash or Cheque.

(c) Where an employer elects to pay Financial Emergency Tax and Hospital Fund Contribution by cash or cheque to the Commissioner of Taxation, or to any officer authorised by him to collect tax, he shall forward with each remittance a correct statement of the total amount of salary and wages paid and on which Financial Emergency Tax and Hospital Fund contribution have been calculated, and the amount of tax and Hospital contribution deducted.

Tax payable by Companies, Section 8.

36. Every company subject to "The Dividend Duties Act, 1902," and amendments thereto shall, as and when every payment of duty under "The Dividend Duties Act, 1902," and amendments thereto, is payable to the Commissioner of Taxation, in addition to the duty payable under that Act, make a payment of tax at the rate in the pound fixed by Parliament in respect to every pound of its profits as assessed under the Act.

In the case of a life assurance company, it shall be assessed at the rate in the pound fixed by Parliament on the amount of interest received from its investments.

Other insurance companies shall be assessed at the rate fixed by Parliament in respect of every three pounds two shillings and sixpence of the premiums received by the company after any allowance for reinsurances paid away.

Provided that income (in the nature of dividends) received by any person in respect of shares in any company that has duly paid tax shall be exempt from tax, but this exemption shall not apply to persons resident in Western Australia and receiving dividends from companies incorporated and carrying on business in the other States of the Commonwealth or from ex-Australian companies. All such dividends are liable to tax under the Act.

Exemptions under "The Land and Income Tax Assessment Act, 1907-1932."

37. The following incomes, revenues, and funds exempt under the Land and Income Tax Assessment Act shall be exempt from tax under the Act—

- (1) The revenue of municipal corporations, road boards, or other statutory public bodies;
- (2) The incomes of life assurance companies and of companies or societies not carrying on business for purposes of profit or gain; but this exemption shall not apply to incomes derived from interest on investments;

- (10) The cash allowances paid and the bonus shares allotted to shareholders of any co-operative company or society as a rebate or discount on their trading with such companies or societies.

Service of Notices.

38. Any notice or other document, the service of which is not elsewhere provided for, shall be deemed to be served on the taxpayer by or on behalf of the Commissioner when service is effected—

- (a) by delivering it to him personally;
- (b) by leaving it at his address in accordance with Regulation 12 (a) and (b);
- (c) by posting it in a letter addressed to him in accordance with the said Regulation 12 (a) and (b).

Any notice to be given by the Commissioner may be given by any officer of the Commissioner duly authorised in that behalf, and any notice purporting to be signed by the authority of the Commissioner shall be valid and effectual for all purposes as if signed by the Commissioner in person.

Onus of Proof.

39. In any proceedings against the taxpayer for failing or neglecting to duly furnish a return, a certificate in writing signed by the Commissioner, or the prescribed deputy of the Commissioner, certifying that no return has been received from the taxpayer by any officer authorised by the Commissioner to receive returns at the place where under the Regulations the return should have been furnished, shall be prima facie evidence that the defendant failed or neglected to duly furnish a return.

Spoiled Stamps.

40. If any stamp after having been issued in the manner prescribed in the Regulations shall have become damaged, spoiled, or unfit for use other than in the ordinary course of affixing to wages and salary sheets, the State Under Treasurer shall, upon application being made to him and upon delivery to him of the stamps damaged, spoiled or rendered unfit for use, cause a similar stamp or stamps of equal value to be delivered to the owner of such stamps so damaged or spoiled or rendered unfit for use, or to his representative.

Payment of Wages or Salaries in Lump Sums at various periods, Section 9.

41. Where an employer (such as a pastoralist or farmer) makes payments of salaries or wages to his employees in lump sums at different periods the following provisions shall apply:—

Retiring allowances, furlough, or any allowance for past services, when paid in a lump sum after the 1st December, 1932, shall be assessed for tax to the extent of 5 per cent. of the amount of the total allowance paid, but where such allowances, furlough, etc., are paid fortnightly or monthly after the 1st December, 1932, such periodical payments shall be subject to tax and must be deducted by the employer at the time of payment.

Note.—Travelling allowances or any allowance granted to cover any special expenditure, except for living and maintenance, shall not be subject to tax under the Act.

Treatment of Salary and Wages as Income, Section 10.

43. Where any salary or wages consists of fees paid to directors of a company, members of boards, or trusts or commissions, or commissions paid to agents, and the taxpayer satisfies the Commissioner that—
