10.—Higher Duties.

A worker required to do work which is entitled to a higher rate under this Agreement than that which she or he usually performs shall be entitled to payment at the higher rate whilst so employed.

11.—Engagement.

One week's notice on either side shall be necessary to terminate the engagement: Provided that an employer may at any time dismiss an employee for refusal or neglect to obey orders or for misconduct, or if, after receiving one week's notice, he does not carry out his duties in the same manner as he did prior to such notice.

12.—Time and Wages Book.

Each employer shall keep and enter up, or cause to be kept and entered up, a book containing the names of each of his workers to whom this Agreement applies, the class of work performed by and the wages paid to each such worker, and the time during which he or she has been employed. If within twenty-four (24) hours after the worker has notified the secretary of his or her desire to work at a lesser wage than the said minimum the secretary and the worker do not agree as aforesaid, then the worker may apply to the most convenient Resident or Police Magistrate for a permit to work at such lesser wage. The worker shall give to the said secretary at least twenty-four hours' notice in writing of his or her intention to make such application to the Magistrate, and the secretary or his agent shall be entitled to attend before the Magistrate, and, pending the decision thereon in either case, the worker shall be entitled to work and be employed by an employer at the proposed lesser rate. The Magistrate may grant such worker a permit to work for such wage and for such period, not exceeding six calendar months, as he thinks fit, and his decision in the matter shall be final. The permit shall entitle the worker to work at a wage therein mentioned for such period as may be therein stated until the wage shall have again been settled by the Magistrate on the application of the said secretary.
