AT a meeting of the Executive Council held in the Executive Council Chamber, at Perth, on the 7th day of August, 1934, the following Orders in Council were authorised to be issued:—

The Vermin Act, 1918.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Vermin Act, 1918," the Governor is empowered to make, repeal, and alter Regulations for carrying this Act into effect: And whereas the Governor, acting under the said Act, did on the 19th day of March, 1919, make certain Regulations, which were published in the Government Gazette on the 21st day of March, 1919: And whereas, by an Order in Council published in the Government Gazette on the 30th day of January, 1931, the said Regulations were amended by the repeal of certain of them and the insertion in lieu thereof of certain new Regulations numbered 90, 90A, 91, 92, 93, 93A, 93B, 93C, and 93D respectively, which Regulations are still in force, save and except that the said Regulation 91 has been amended by Orders in Council published in the Government Gazette on the 6th day of November, 1931, and the 9th day of February, 1933, and the 4th day of May, 1934, respectively: And whereas it is now deemed desirable and expedient further to amend the said Regulations, as amended from time to time as aforesaid, in the manner hereinafter mentioned: Now, therefore, His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, acting with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, and in exercise of the powers conferred by the said Act, doth hereby amend the said Regulations in the manner mentioned and provided in the Schedule hereto, to operate as from the date of the publication of this Order in Council in the Government Gazette.

The Schedule.

1. Regulation 92 is repealed and a new regulation is inserted in lieu thereof, as follows:—

92. Any person who destroys any animal or bird in respect of which the payment of a bonus is provided for in Regulation 91, or the legal personal representative of such person may claim payment of the bonus payable in respect of the animal or bird destroyed as aforesaid, but the said claimant must, according to the requirements of Regulation 93, but subject as hereinafter provided, deliver the scalp and tail, or the skin, or the beak and claws (as the case may be), to the Chief Inspector, or to the secretary of the Vermin Board of the Vermin District in which such animal or bird was destroyed.

Provided that, any claimant as aforesaid who wishes to obtain the market value by sale or other disposition of the skin of the animal destroyed by him, and also to claim the bonus in relation thereto, may make application for that purpose to the secretary of the Vermin Board aforesaid, and, if such secretary is satisfied that the animal from which the skin was obtained was destroyed within his Board's Vermin District, the claimant may retain the skin intact and fill in the form of claim for bonus, which claim shall then be signed by the said secretary and by him be forwarded to the Chief Inspector. In any such case, the acceptance of the claim for bonus, and the payment of the bonus claimed, shall be subject to the following conditions, namely:—

- (i) The claimant shall, as soon as reasonably may be, consign the skin intact to a merchant carrying on business either in Perth or Fremantle, and approved by the Chief Inspector, and notice of such consignment shall be given by the claimant to the Chief Inspector, either on the form of claim or by other writing signed by the claimant.
- (ii) The skin shall be retained by the merchant to whom it is consigned and shall be made available by such merchant, on demand for inspection by the Chief Inspector or his authorised officer.
- (iii) The officer who inspects the skin shall examine and classify the same, and, if he is satisfied that the skin is one in respect of which the said claimant has made a claim for bonus, and that it has been obtained from an animal in respect of which the claimant is entitled to make his said claim, the officer may mark the skin in such manner as will not affect the market value thereof but will identify the skin with the said claim for bonus by the said claimant.
- (iv) When the skin has been inspected and marked as aforesaid, the skin may be sold or disposed of or otherwise dealt with by the merchant without prejudice to the claim of the said claimant for bonus.
- (v) The claim for bonus in relation to the said skin shall not be deemed to be accepted, and bonus shall not be payable or paid to the claimant, or anybody on his behalf, unless and until such skin has been inspected and marked as required by paragraph (iii) hereof.
- (vi) The Chief Inspector, or his authorised officer, shall not be bound, and may decline, to inspect and mark any skin unless and until the form of claim submitted by the claimant has been signed by the secretary of the Vermin Board of the District in which the animal was destroyed, or if the skin has been wholly or partly tanned or wholly or partly manufactured.
- (vii) The Chief Inspector, or his authorised officer, shall not be bound to attend at the place of business of any merchant for the purpose of inspecting and marking skins more often than once in every two weeks.

2. Regulation 93 is amended by inserting after paragraph (c) a new paragraph, to stand as paragraph (d), as follows:—

(d) Any animal or bird aforesaid, unless the Chief Inspector, the secretary of the Vermin Board, or any other person authorised to receive the prescribed evidence of destruction, to whom such evidence of destruction of such animal or bird has been produced, is satisfied that the evidence of destruction produced was taken from an animal or bird for the destruction of which a bonus is payable and that the animal or bird was destroyed in the State.

3. Regulation 93B is amended by inserting at the beginning thereof the words "subject to the proviso to Regulation 92."

4. New regulation—A new regulation, to stand as Regulation 93E, is inserted after Regulation 93D, as follows:—

93E. Wherever any person claiming payment of bonus under these Regulations produces any scalp and tail, or skin, or beak and claws (as the case may be) purporting or represented to be taken from the animal or bird for the destruction whereof the claim for bonus is made, and the Chief Inspector, secretary to the Vermin Board, or other authorised person to whom the same are produced is not satisfied that the claimant is the person who destroyed the animal or bird, or is the legal personal representative of such last-mentioned person, or that the evidence of destruction produced to him was taken from an animal or bird for the destruction of which a bonus is payable, or that the animal or bird was destroyed within the State, the Chief Inspector, the secretary to the Vermin Board, or other authorised person aforesaid, shall retain in his possession the evidence of destruction produced to him as aforesaid sufficiently identified with the claimant, but shall not accept any claim for payment of bonus until such claimant shall have furnished to him further evidence sufficient to satisfy him concerning the matters about which he was previously not satisfied as aforesaid.

Provided that, if the claimant fails within three months after producing the evidence of destruction as aforesaid to furnish to the person to whom such evidence of destruction was produced, further evidence in support of his claim as required, the person holding the said evidence of destruction may forthwith totally destroy the same by fire, and thereafter any and every claim by the said claimant for payment of bonus which was supported or intended to be supported by the production of the said evidence of destruction shall be refused, and the said claimant shall not be entitled to payment of any bonus under or by virtue of such claim.
