LAND OPEN FOR LEASING FOR GRAZING PURPOSES.

West of Midland Railway.

Department of Lands and Surveys,
 Perth, 17th October, 1934.

1733/34.

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that all the vacant unreserved Crown land situate West of the Midland Railway Reserve, from Gingin to Mingenew, on the Plans set out hereunder, will be available for leasing for Grazing Purposes, under Section 116 of "The Land Act, 1933," on and after Wednesday, 7th November next.

Applications should be lodged at the Geraldton Land Agency for the land on Plans 93, 94, 95, 123, and 124/80, and at the Perth Land Office for the land on Plans 30, 31, 58, 59, 62, 63, 90, 91, and 92/80.

Applications received on or before the above date will be deemed to have been received simultaneously, and, in the event of more than one application being received for the same area, the Land Board will determine which shall be granted. After that date areas not applied for will remain available for application until further notice.

The annual rental has been fixed at 5s. per 1,000 acres, and the minimum rental is £2 per annum. The lease will be for Grazing Purposes only and subject to the condition that each lease must be fenced with a sheep-proof fence within two years of the date of the lease.

The term of the lease will be 10 years and the maximum area which may be held by any one person is 10,000 acres.

Any survey required must be paid for by the lessee at the cost fixed by the Surveyor General, but not exceeding the prescribed fee under the Regulations.

W. P. ODELL,
 Under Secretary for Lands.

LAND OPEN FOR PASTORAL LEASING.

LAND OPEN FOR SELECTION.

Department of Lands and Surveys,
Perth, 6th March, 1934.

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that the areas scheduled hereunder are available for selection under Part V. of "The Land Act, 1933," and the Regulations appertaining thereto, subject to the provisions of the said Act.

Applications must be lodged at the Local Land Office for the district in which the land is situated, not later than the date specified, but may be lodged before such date if so desired.

All applications lodged on or before such date will be treated as having been received on the closing day, and if there are more applicants than one for any block, the application to be granted will be determined by the Land Board. Should any lands remain unselected such will continue available until applied for or otherwise dealt with.

If a Land Board sitting becomes necessary, the applicants for the blocks will be duly notified of the date, time, and place of the meeting of the Board, and there shall be an interval of at least three days between the closing date and the sitting of the Board.

If an applicant wishes to appear before the Land Board in person he may apply to the Head Office or to the Clerk in Charge of any of the District or Branch Land Offices for a certificate to the Railway Department which, on presentation at the nearest Railway Station, will entitle him to a Return Ticket, at Excursion Rates, to the place where the Board will sit, available for seven days from the date of issue.

The selector of a Homestead Farm from any location must take the balance thereof, if any, under Conditional Purchase.

All marketable timber, including sandalwood and mallet, is reserved to the Crown, subject to the provisions of Clause 18 of the Regulations.

The percentage of youths under the age of 21 years employed in any department shall not exceed one to every three or fraction of three men employed receiving the full minimum wage in that department.

Hours—Overtime.

The time of duty for motormen, conductors, and traffiemen shall not exceed eight hours per day, unless extra rates be paid for the overtime.

The extra rate for any excess of eight hours shall be calculated at time and a quarter for the first hour and time and a half thereafter.

All duty performed by employees other than motormen and conductors in the Tramway Service shall not exceed eight and three-quarter hours per day and four and one quarter hours on Saturday, unless overtime rates be paid. The overtime rates shall be time and a quarter for the first hour and time and a half thereafter. Work done between the hours of midnight and 7.30 o'clock a.m., and on Sundays, shall be paid at the rate of time and a half. This clause shall not apply to ear cleaners and employees who ordinarily work at night, nor to shedmen whose duties rotate.

For all duty between 1 a.m. and 5 a.m., motormen and conductors shall be paid at the rate of double time, except for the portion of existing shifts after 1 a.m.

Holidays, Sundays, Leave of Absence.

4.

For duty done on Sundays, employees shall be paid at the rate of time and a half, with a minimum of eight hours.

5.

For duty on holidays, all employees shall be paid at the rate of time and a half, with a minimum of eight hours. The holidays referred to are New Year's Day, Easter Monday, Eight Hours' Day, King's Birthday, and Boxing Day.

6.

Each traffic employee shall be entitled to one day off duty in each week, without pay.

For all duty done on his day off, he shall be paid for his hours on duty but for not less than eight hours, and at the rate of time and a half, unless he be given two days' notice in writing that he will be required, and in that case the rate shall be time and a quarter. This shall not apply to Sunday football or other specials governed by Clause 17.

All employees shall be entitled to leave of absence for fourteen consecutive days per annum, on full pay, as for twelve working days, and shall be given seven days' previous notice of the leave.

An employee leaving the Company's service during the course of a year of service and without getting his leave of absence in that year, shall be entitled to be paid at ordinary rates for a number of days proportionate to the length of his service in that year.

Spread of Hours, Call Back Duty, etc.

The spread of hours from beginning to end of the day's work for motormen, conductors, and traffiemen shall not exceed nine consecutive hours, except on Sundays, when it shall not exceed eleven consecutive hours.

This provision does not apply to such motormen and conductors, not exceeding 20 per cent. of the whole number (or such other proportion, as may be allowed by the Board of Reference) as are required to do duty on broken shifts. In their case, the spread of hours shall not exceed twelve consecutive hours.

For any excess of the nine hours, payment shall be made at the rate of time and a half.

This clause shall not apply to call-back duty covered by Clauses 9 and 10 hereof.

9.

Motormen and conductors who take up traffic duties outside regular working hours shall be paid time and a quarter, with a minimum payment of 3s. 6d., whether before the commencement or after the completion of the day's work or any portion of the day's work, except as provided in Clause 10.

10.

Motormen and conductors doing call-back duty between the hours of 9 p.m. and 12 p.m. shall be paid at the rate of time and a half, with a minimum payment of 5s., except where the work has been continuous from earlier in the evening, when the time up to 9 p.m. shall be paid for at time and a quarter, and time and half thereafter.

11.

Ten minutes shall be allowed to motormen and conductors for signing on.

12.

Except in such cases as may be permitted by the Union, or by the Board of Reference, no motorman or conductor shall be on duty for more than five consecutive hours without meal relief.

13.

Meal relief shall not be less than thirty minutes.

14.

No employee shall be required to come back for another shift after his duty is over for the day until he has had ten hours at least off duty.

15.

No motorman or conductor shall be called upon to work more than six night shifts consecutively.

16.

Motormen and conductors (except such as work broken shifts) shall have their duty on day shifts and on night shifts in each alternate week.

17.

When an employee is required by roster, or directed to attend for duty, and attends, he shall be paid for his hours of duty, but for not less in any case than four hours.

This shall not apply to any case where the Company has given to the employee two hours before the time fixed a notice stating that he is not required.

18.

Except in the case of misconduct, every motorman and conductor who signs on for duty and does not leave duty for his own purposes shall be entitled to a full day's pay.

19.

Promotion shall be governed by efficiency and (in the event of equal efficiency) by seniority.

"Efficiency" means special qualifications and aptitude for the discharge of the duties of the office to be filled, together with merit and good and diligent conduct.

20.

An employee shall perform such work as the Company may from time to time require. But where an employee is used for mixed functions, or for functions other than his previous or usual functions, he shall be paid for the time worked at the rates provided for under this Agreement.

21.

Any time occupied by an employee in making a report in writing as to any accident or incident (other than a usual daily report) shall be paid for at ordinary rates.

22.

Any time occupied by an employee attending by direction at the Head Office of the Company's business, or to answer complaints or reports, shall be paid for at ordinary rates unless his attendance is owing to his own misconduct.

23.

The Company shall keep each conductor supplied with the amount of change which he is required to have for the performance of his duties.

24.

Employees shall at all times be allowed free transit on the Company's cars, subject to such conditions as the Company may from time to time impose.

25.

The services of an employee shall not be terminated for other than grave misconduct, without one week's notice in writing or one week's pay in lieu thereof; and an employee shall give the Company one week's notice in writing of his intention to terminate his employment, or, in lieu thereof, one week's pay may be forfeited by the Company.

The Company and the employee may by mutual consent agree to waive the notice required to be given by this clause.

26.

Members of the Union shall be at liberty to wear the present badge of their Union on their watchchains.

27.

Officers and members of the Union shall not be prevented from collecting subscriptions or doing any business of the Union: provided that they do not thereby interfere with the working of the Tramways or (if they are employees) fail in their duties.

28.

At each Depot a list of the staff employed thereat, in order of seniority as to the service, shall be kept exhibited in a conspicuous place to which all employees have access.

29.

The Company shall provide each motorman and conductor and traffiean either with the following uniform and clothing:—

Serge tunic each twelve months of service;
Trousers each twelve months of service;
Khaki tunic each twelve months of service;
Helmet and cap each twelve months of service;
Cap cover (white) each two years of service;
Overcoat each two years of service,

or else with a uniform cap and a cash allowance of 13s. 4d. per month of service, to be paid at the end of the year, or at any earlier conclusion of the service.

30.

Each employee shall be entitled to be paid for a full day of duty, if he be on duty any part of the day, unless he be paid a minimum wage of £4 6s. 6d. per week, averaged over each four weeks of his service, or such lesser time as he may be in the service.

31.

When a charge is made against an employee by any person, whether inside or outside the service of the Company, the employee shall forthwith be notified of the charge in writing, and shall be permitted to give and to call evidence in his defence, and shall (so far as it lies within the Company's power) be confronted with his accuser. Employees who have been summoned in respect of charges shall, unless the charge be established, be entitled to payment for the time of attendance at ordinary rates, and to payment of any expenses reasonably incurred by their witnesses.

If the Union dispute the finding of the Company as to the charge or dispute as to the expenses reasonably incurred, the dispute may be referred either by the Union or by the Company to the Board of Reference.

32.

(a) For the purpose of this Agreement, so far as it relates to the Company, a Board of Reference is appointed.

(b) The functions of the Board shall be from time to time to allow and fix under Clause 8 the proportion of men required to do duty in broken shifts.

(c) to approve and fix cases, under Clause 12, in which motormen or conductors may be on duty for more than five consecutive hours without meal relief.

(d) to determine a dispute under Clause 31.

(e) The Board shall consist of two representatives of the Company and two representatives of the Union, with the addition of the Registrar or such person as he may nominate in case the votes are equally divided, or the members invite his assistance.

(f) The representatives of the Company shall be:—William Henry Stanley, Manager of the Company, Kalgoorlie; David Thomson, Accountant of the Company, Kalgoorlie; and the representatives of the Union shall be the President and the Secretary.

(g) Two members shall constitute a quorum.

(h) The Board shall sit at such times and places as the members may agree or as the Registrar shall fix, and may adjourn from time to time and from place to place.

(i) The Company and the Union may, respectively, from time to time substitute other persons as their representatives in the place of the then existing representatives; provided that they give notice in writing to the Registrar.

33.

When motormen and conductors are required to work one-man cars, they shall be paid at the rate of 1½d. per hour above the ruling rate.

34.

“Employee” in this Agreement means an employee who is a member of the Union.

35.

Payment of Wages:—Wages shall be paid fortnightly. Pay day shall be on every alternate Friday for the wages earned during the fortnight ending the preceding Tuesday.

36.

Area:—This Agreement shall operate within a radius of five miles from the Post Office, Kalgoorlie.

37.

Term:—This Agreement shall come into operation as from the first day of August, 1934, and shall remain in force for a period of two years from that date.

In witness whereof the parties hereto have set their hands, and the Seal of the Company has been affixed this tenth day of October, 1934.
