(l) For the purpose of this clause, a member of the family shall be deemed to be dependant: provided such member's income does not exceed 15s. a week, exclusive of old age or invalid pension; but a member of the family temporarily out of employment shall not be deemed to be dependant.

18.—Privilege Season Tickets.

(a) First class season tickets at one-half the ordinary season ticket rates will, on application and on production of the departmental certificate, be issued to an officer to enable him to travel between his place of occupation and the station nearest his place of residence. To an officer in receipt of £100 per annum or under, one-quarter of the ordinary season ticket rates shall be charged.

(b) These season tickets shall be available only whilst the holder is in the employ of the Department.

(c) Should the holder resign or change his place of residence a refund of the unexpired value of the ticket will be made if handed in at the time.

19.—Resignations and Retirements.

(a) No officer shall leave the Department until the expiration of one month's written notice of his intention so to do, without the approval of the Commissioner.

(b) One calendar month's notice shall be given by the Commissioner to any such officer whose services are no longer required: provided that this subclause shall not apply to cases of summary dismissal for misconduct.

20.—Promotions.

(a) Promotion and the selection of any officer to act in a higher position shall be governed by relative ability, suitability, record, and experience. If everything else is deemed equal, the senior officer shall be selected for promotion.

(b) As a general rule, officers and employees of the Branch in which the vacancies occur will be promoted to the higher position, but the Commissioner may, when he considers it advisable for the good of the service, select an officer from one Branch for position in another, either in the same or in a higher class.

(c) When considered necessary, a person from outside the service may be appointed to any position in the service: provided that there is not an officer in the service capable of filling the position.

(d) No officer shall refuse compliance with any order directing his transfer from one position to another, but if on appeal the Commissioner is satisfied the objection is sound, then such officer shall not be penalised.

(e) An officer desiring to be passed over in the event of promotion being offered, shall, if his request be acceded to, forfeit all claim to promotion for two years, but if good and sufficient reason be given the Commissioner, he may restore such claim.

(f) All officers promoted to a higher position shall be subject to a probationary period of six months and be paid the minimum rate of salary assigned to the class to which they are promoted. At the end of such period, the Head of the Branch shall report to the Commissioner as to the fitness of the officer for the higher position; if the report is satisfactory, the appointment will be confirmed as from the date of taking up duty; if unsatisfactory, the officer will be provided for at the same salary as he was in receipt of prior to the period of probation in the higher position.

(g) When a vacancy occurs in the service, if the senior officer is not selected for promotion, applications shall be called from officers in the lower class to that in which the vacancy exists.

(h) A list of promotions shall be published in the Weekly Notice, and any officer who considers that he has been unjustly passed over may appeal, in the first place to the Head of his Branch, and, if not satisfied with the latter's reply, may then appeal to the Commissioner, whose decision shall be final; but no appeal will be considered unless forwarded so as to reach the Head of the Branch within fourteen days after receipt of the Weekly Notice, and the Commissioner within fourteen days after date of receipt of the reply from the Head of the Branch.

21.—Acting in higher Capacities.

(a) When an officer, other than relief officers in Class 5 or higher classes performs the duties of the position higher than that in which he is classified for a term exceeding one lunar month (continuous or broken) within any one financial year, he shall be paid from the end of that month, while performing any such duties, at the minimum salary attached to such higher position.

(b) An officer called upon to occupy a higher position temporarily shall be entitled to increments as though he had been permanently promoted to such position: provided that, in the case of the first increment, the officer shall have performed the higher duties for twelve months continuously: provided further, that the officer shall be entitled to receive a second increment if he shall have performed the higher duties for two years continuously. Absence on annual leave, long service leave, or sick leave on pay, shall be counted as service, provided the officer resumes in the same or another higher position.

22.—Temporary Clerks.

(a) Temporary clerks shall not be engaged, without the approval of the Commissioner, in any position classified above the sixth class.

(c) Officers performing postal duties shall be paid twenty per cent. and Savings Bank duties one hundred per cent. of the allowances received by the Railway Department from these Departments, in addition to their salaries, but such shall not in any case be deemed part of the salary of such officer, nor shall the officer claim Sunday time or overtime caused through Postal and/or Savings Bank duties.

(d) Nothing in this classification shall lower the rate of salary any officer was in receipt of at the coming into force of the Award.

25.—Payment of Salaries.

(a) Salaries shall be paid fortnightly on each alternate Friday, except where the usual pay-day falls on a public holiday, when payments shall be made on the previous Thursday.

(b) A day's salary shall be calculated as one three hundred and thirteenth of the yearly rate of salary.

(c) The salary for a fortnight shall be computed by dividing the yearly rate by three hundred and thirteen and multiplying the result by twelve.

(d) The provisions of the Award shall be suspended during any period in which by reason of any action on the part of all or of any section of the Commissioner's employees, or for any other cause beyond his control, he is unable wholly or partially to carry on the running of trains, or the Workshops, and the Commissioner will not be liable for payment of salary to any officer whom he does not call upon for duty during any such period.
