LAND OPEN FOR SELECTION.

Department of Lands and Surveys.

Perth, 6th March, 1934.

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that the areas scheduled hereunder are available for selection under Part V. of "The Land Act, 1933-34," and the Regulations appertaining thereto, subject to the provisions of the said Act.

Applications must be lodged at the Local Land Office for the district in which the land is situated, not later than the date specified, but may be lodged before such date if so desired.

All applications lodged on or before such date will be treated as having been received on the closing day, and if there are more applicants than one for any block, the application will be granted will be determined by the Land Board. Should any lands remain unselected such will continue available until applied for or otherwise dealt with.

If a Land Board sitting becomes necessary, the applicants for the blocks will be duly notified of the date, time and place of the meeting of the Board, and there shall be an interval of at least three days between the closing date and the sitting of the Board.

If an applicant wishes to appear before the Land Board in person he may apply to the Head Office or to the Clerk in Charge of any of the District or Branch Land Offices for a certificate to the Railway Department which, on presentation at the nearest Railway Station, will entitle him to a Return Ticket, at Excursion Rates, to the place where the Board will sit, available for seven days from the date of issue.

The selector of a Homestead Farm from any location must take the balance thereof, if any, under Conditional Purchase.

All marketable timber, including sandalwood and mallet, is reserved to the Crown, subject to the provisions of Clause 18 of the Regulations.

THE MINING ACT, 1904

(Regulation 180).

Warden's Office,
Laverton, 31st March, 1936.

TAKE notice that it is the intention of the Warden of the Goldfield mentioned hereunder, on the date mentioned, to issue out of the Warden's Court an order authorising the cancellation of registration of the undermentioned mining tenements, in accordance with Regulation 180 of "The Mining Act, 1904." An order may issue in the absence of the registered holder, but should he desire to object to such order he must, before the date mentioned, lodge at the Warden's Office an objection containing the grounds of such objection, and, on the date mentioned, the Warden will proceed to hear and determine the same, in accordance with the evidence then submitted.

(Sgd.) E. McGINN,
Warden.

To be heard at the Warden's Court, Laverton, on Thursday, the Twenty-eighth day of May, 1936.

METROPOLITAN WEEKLY NEWSPAPERS.

Journalists' Agreement.

No. 6 of 1936.

(Registered 6-4-1936.)

THIS Agreement, made in pursuance of "The Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1935," this third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six, between the People's Printing and Publishing Company of W.A., Limited, Proprietors of the newspaper "The Westralian Worker," of the one part, and The Metropolitan Journalists' Industrial Union of Workers of Western Australia, a Union registered under the said Act, of the other part: Whereby it is agreed that the following rates and conditions shall govern employment with respect to the said newspaper.

This Agreement shall operate over an area comprised within a radius of fifteen miles from the General Post Office, Perth, and over an area comprised within a radius of ten miles from the Post Office, Kalgoorlie.

This Agreement shall come into force on and be operative as from the First day of February, 1936, and shall continue in operation until the Thirty-first day of December, 1937, and thereafter until a new agreement is entered into between the parties.

1.—Minimum Rates of Pay.

The minimum weekly rates of pay shall be as follows and shall not be affected by any increase or decrease in the basic wage as declared by the Court of Arbitration so that the total rates of pay hereinafter provided shall not be altered in any way during the currency of this Agreement:—

Basic wage:—Metropolitan Area—Males, £3 10s. 6d.; females, £1 18s. 1d. Goldfields—Males, £4 5s. 7d.; females, £2 6s. 3d.

(a)	Editors	11	0	0
(b)	Senior journalist	9	0	0
	General journalist	7	15	0
	Junior journalist	5	5	0

2.—Cadets.

(a) An employee who is constantly or regularly in training for journalism or who substantially performs the work of one in training for journalism, and has not had three years' experience in journalism, shall, for the purpose of this Agreement, be termed a cadet, and shall become a member of the Metropolitan Journalists' Union within two months of his appointment, unless he makes a statutory declaration to the effect that he has conscientious objections to doing so.

(b) The services of a cadet shall be regarded as continuous, notwithstanding that he may have been employed on more than one newspaper during his period of cadetship.

(c) Except with the consent in writing of the Union, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, not more than one cadet shall be employed to every five members of the employer's staff.

(d) The rates of pay for cadets shall be as follows:—

	£	s.	d.
First year	2	0	0	per week
Second year	3	0	0	„
Third year	4	0	0	„

(e) The period of cadetship shall not exceed three years: Provided, however, that after the completion of this period of cadetship, should there be no vacancy on the classified staff to which he could be appointed, a cadet may, with the consent of the Metropolitan Journalists' Union, continue in such employment at the rate provided for a third-year cadet until such time as a vacancy for a junior occurs under the percentage grading prescribed in this Agreement, within a period consented to by the Union. In the event of his services being terminated by his employer without just cause in law during such period, or should the Union refuse to consent to a further period, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, the cadet shall receive the difference between the third-year cadet rate and the rate for a junior journalist, from the time of completion of his third-year cadetship until the date of termination of his services. If the cadet leaves his employment of his own accord during or after such periods no such extra payment shall be made.

(f) No person shall commence his cadetship unless he has a knowledge of English equivalent to the standard of the Intermediate or Junior examination at any Australian University.

(g) A cadet shall be fully and thoroughly taught and instructed by his employer in the profession of a journalism. Such instruction shall include:—

- (1) instruction as to the alterations, emendations, and corrections of copy, and especially the copy he supplies;
- (2) provision to accompany at suitable times, as opportunity occurs, for practical instruction and experience, members of the classified staff when they are employed on various forms of journalistic work.

(h) Each cadet shall be permitted by his employer to absent himself during ordinary working hours for periods, not exceeding a total of four hours in any one week, for the purpose of attending shorthand and type-writing classes, University or other lectures, or classes in literature, economics, civics, logic, and other subjects covered in the course of the Diploma of Journalism granted at the University of Western Australia.

(i) All lecture and other fees and the requisite books for such studies shall be provided by the employer.

3.—Casual Journalists.

(a) A casual journalist shall be one who may be employed on the ordinary routine work of the Literary Staff for not more than seven (7) days in any period of one month, except when he is engaged to replace a permanent journalist absent on sick, holiday, or other emergency leave.

(b) Casual journalists shall only be engaged and paid as follows:—

	£	s.	d.
For half day or four hours or less ..	0	18	6
For full day, comprising more than four hours and not more than eight (8) hours	1	15	0
For time worked in excess of eight (8) hours in one day	Time and a-half

(c) Casual journalists employed for supplying sporting results only on Saturday afternoons shall be paid lineage rates, or a minimum sum of seven shillings and sixpence (7s. 6d.), for the afternoon.

4.—Contributors.

Writers who contribute matter for publication, but who are not on the classified staff, and who do not usually act as general members of the staff, and who are not otherwise provided for, and contributors generally, shall be paid at the following rates:—

For articles (except leading), paragraphs, reports, etc.—2d. per line.

For leading articles or verse—2½d. per line.

Provided that this clause shall not apply to contributions dealing with political and/or industrial matters.

5.—Correspondents.

District correspondents regularly employed as such shall be paid at least the rates prescribed for junior journalists.

6.—Classification of Journalists.

(a) Journalists, with the undermentioned exceptions, shall be classified as follows:—Senior journalists, general journalists, junior journalists.

(b) Classified journalists shall be classified in the following proportions:—Three-fifths of the staff shall be seniors; not more than one-fifth shall be juniors, and the rest shall be generals. Where the calculation of the percentage results in a fraction, such fraction, if over point five, shall be reckoned to the higher integer, and, if point five or less, to the lower integer.

(c) The exceptions to the classifications mentioned in this clause shall be:—

1. Editors in chief, casuals, cadets, district and country correspondents, contributors and journalists employed outside the Commonwealth;
2. "Contributors" in this subclause means a person who is not employed as a member of the general staff, or to act as if he were a member of the general staff (and who is not a district or suburban or country correspondent as hereinafter defined), but who in and at his own time prepares matter to be submitted to his employers for acceptance or rejection at the employer's option.

7.—Hours of Employment.

(a) The ordinary working hours for journalists shall not exceed forty hours.

(b) There shall be two clear days (one of which may be Sunday) off in each week.

(c) Subject to the next succeeding subclause the period between the time of entering on duty, as hereinafter defined, and the time signed off as the time of completion, shall be reckoned as actual time worked, except such time as is usually occupied in meal time.

(d) After the expiration of a period of eleven hours in any one day from the time of entering on duty, as hereinafter defined, all time until the time signed off as the time of completion shall be reckoned as overtime and either allowed off or paid for as hereinafter provided.

(e) When the weekly maximum number of hours is exceeded in any week, time to the amount of the excess shall be deducted from the forty hours to be worked during the next succeeding week.

(f) Any time due as arrears shall be allowed on continuously: Provided that, by agreement between the employer and the journalist, the time off may be taken in periods of not less than half a day each.

(g) Notice of time off shall, as far as possible, be given before 5 p.m. on the preceding day.

(h) If the time off is not allowed in the next succeeding week, it shall be paid for at the rate of time and a-half.

8.—Time Book.

(a) A Time Book, in a form to be agreed upon by the parties, shall be provided by the employer and kept on the premises. It shall, among other things, provide for the entries hereinafter mentioned.

(b) Except on country engagements, the working day of a journalist shall commence at the time of his entering on duty.

(c) "Entering on duty" means:—

1. arrival at the office for the first time in the day for the purpose of performing duty; or
2. beginning to perform the first engagement, whichever is the earlier, a reasonable time being allowed in the latter case to cover the period required to reach the engagement from home.

(d) Except as otherwise provided, all journalists shall make the following entries in the Time Book; each of them shall personally, on entering on duty, or as soon thereafter as circumstances reasonably permit, sign on in the Time Book and write therein the time of entering upon duty as above defined. He shall also, on completing his work for the day, or as soon thereafter as circumstances reasonably permit, sign off, stating the time of completion.

(e) Entries so made, if not disputed within twenty-four hours, shall be taken to be correct.

(f) The Time Book shall be open for inspection during office hours by—(1) every member of the staff; (2) by the secretary of the Metropolitan Journalists' Industrial Union of Workers of Western Australia, or a member of the said Union authorised in writing to inspect it.

9.—Country Engagements.

On country engagements time on duty shall be reckoned as follows:—

- (a) If the engagement is confined to one day, the whole time during which the journalist is absent from the city.
- (b) If the engagement or engagements extend beyond one day, five-twelfths of the time the journalist is absent from the city.

10.—Expenses.

(a) All employees embraced in this Agreement shall be paid reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred whilst on duty.

(b) If a member's duty compels him to take more than one meal a day away from his home, such meal or meals in excess of one a day shall be paid for by the employer.

(c) Women members employed upon work requiring attendance in evening dress shall be provided with reasonable vehicular facilities.

11.—Holiday Leave.

(a) All journalists regularly employed on salaries, and district correspondents fully employed as such, shall receive three consecutive weeks' holiday after forty-nine (49) weeks' service on full pay irrespective of sick leave, and in addition shall be paid for all gazetted public holidays.

(b) If a journalist is not employed for a full year, then a proportional part of the annual leave shall be granted.

(c) The term "full pay" in this clause relating to district correspondents shall be taken to mean pay at the same rate as that of a junior journalist.

12.—Sick and Incapacity Pay.

(a) All members regularly employed on salary, and also all district correspondents solely employed, shall, in every year of their employment, be paid weekly whilst absent through illness or bona fide incapacity (upon production of a medical certificate, if required), at not less than the following scale:—

1. For every two months or part of two months he has been employed up to six months, he shall be paid the first week at full pay, the second week at half pay, and the third week at quarter pay.
2. After he has been employed six months, he shall be paid for the first four weeks at full pay, the second four weeks at half pay, and the third four weeks at quarter pay.

(b) In the case of district correspondents, "full pay" in this clause means £5 5s. a week.

(c) Where any other provision has been made for the case of an employee's illness, either alone or in conjunction with any other contingency, that provision shall be substituted in whole or in part, and either generally as to all employees, or as to any individual case, in the place for the provision for sick pay made by this clause, if there be obtained the written consent of the Union and of the Company, and the certificate of the Registrar, that in his opinion the substituted provision is as beneficial to the member of the Union as the provisions hereby made.

(d) If in any particular case the Company is required by law to make any payment or compensation to the journalist who is ill then, to the extent of such payment or compensation actually made, the provision in this Award for sick pay, or in any substituted provision, shall abate.

(e) For the purpose of this division the period or periods absent in twelve months shall be regarded as cumulative, and not as applying to separate illnesses and/or incapacity that may occur during the course of the twelve months.

13.—Relieving.

Any journalist or cadet temporarily taking the place of another of higher grade shall, while doing so, be paid at the higher rate: Provided that this does not apply to holidays or sick leave, where the absent journalist or cadet is paid by the employer.

14.—Termination of Employment.

Termination of employment of journalists who have been in the employ of the Company for two months or more shall be subject to four weeks' notice: Provided that, in the case of editor, the period shall be three months, and, in the case of seniors, two months, but in cases where a journalist has been guilty of misconduct or refusal of duty, the Company shall be entitled to dismiss such journalist immediately. A journalist wishing to terminate his employment shall give the notice provided in this clause.

15.—Salaries and Conditions to Continue.

Any journalist who prior to this Agreement coming into force was in possession of status and conditions of employment better than those prescribed herein shall not have such status or conditions reduced or abrogated in any way.

16.—Names to be Furnished.

(a) The names of all journalists employed by the Company, together with a statement as to the grade in which they are employed, shall be entered and, when necessary, added to or corrected by or on behalf of the Company in a book kept by the Company for the purpose.

(b) A copy of such entries shall, on application in writing by the secretary of the Metropolitan Journalists' Industrial Union of Workers of Western Australia, at any time be furnished by the Company to any member of the said Union authorised in writing to receive it.

17.—Preference.

It shall be a condition of the employment of any new member of the classified staff, or any district correspondent, that he shall either be a member of the Union or become one within a period of three months from the commencement of such employment, unless he make a statutory declaration to the effect that he has conscientious objections to doing so. The Union shall not refuse admittance to its membership of any one applying for same under this clause. A member of the Union in employment before this Agreement shall remain a member unless he make a statutory declaration of conscientious objections, or leaves the profession.

The making of a statutory declaration of conscientious objections by a member who is in arrears with his contributions to the Union shall not exempt him from his obligation to remain a member.

18.—Male and Female Employees.

All provisions of this Agreement shall apply equally to male and female employees.

In witness whereof the parties to this Agreement have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and the year first hereinbefore written.
