101. She shall, on taking charge, check and sign a stock book containing a list of all furniture, bedding, linen, clothing, glass, crockery, cutlery, cookery, and kitchen utensils, etc., and shall be responsible for same, and on relinquishing her duties shall hand same to the secretary or her successor, as directed by the Board, fair wear and tear being allowed.

104. She shall be careful to see that all articles of clothing, bedding, etc., are kept in thorough repair and marked, and that all articles of bedding (including mattresses) in use in the wards are frequently changed and aired in the airing grounds provided for such purposes; and that no bedding that has been in use be stowed away without previous airing; and that no article of the Hospital under her control be lent without the consent of the House Committee.
