Day workers and non-continuous shift workers:—Mondays to Fridays inclusive, eight hours, and on Saturdays four hours.

Continuous shift workers:—Eighty-eight hours, excluding Sundays, shall constitute a fortnight's work, to be worked in alternate weeks of six shifts of eight hours one week and five shifts of eight hours the following week, and one shift relieved.

5.—Sunday Rates.

For all work done on Sundays shift workers shall be paid at the rate of time and a half and non-shift workers at double time.

6.—Overtime.

For all time worked on week days outside the prescribed hours, overtime shall be paid at the rate of time and a half for the first two hours and double time thereafter, except when such time is worked:—

- by arrangement between the employees themselves, with the consent of the Company;
- for the purpose of effecting the periodical rotation of shifts;
- in consequence of the relieving man not coming on duty at the proper time, in which cases (a), (b), and (c) ordinary rates shall be paid for the time so worked. Provided that, where in case (c) the relieving man fails for more than two hours to come on duty, any such time worked after the said period of two hours shall be paid at overtime rates.

7.—Holidays.

All employees shall be entitled to three holidays, hereinafter mentioned, without pay, viz.:—Christmas Day, Easter Monday, and Labour Day. All work performed on those days shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

8.—Annual Leave.

All employees shall be granted once in each year fourteen consecutive days' holiday, which shall include 12 working days, for which the employee shall be paid two weeks' wages. If the employment is determined before the holiday is due, the employee shall be entitled to one day's pay in lieu of holidays for every complete month of his service or portion of a month.

In the case of a continuous process where workers are relieved on week days, each shift so relieved shall be counted as having been worked, for the purpose of computing annual holidays.

A piece-worker shall be entitled to be paid, when on holiday, the minimum rate for his grade.

9.—Probationary Period.

The first fourteen days of employment shall be on a daily basis at one-sixth of the weekly rate fixed.

10.—Change Room.

A suitable change room, supplied with heating appliance, wash-basins, hot and cold showers, shall be provided for the employees.

11.—Union Official.

A duly accredited official of the Union shall be allowed to collect Union fees at the office on pay days, and he shall be allowed to inspect the time sheets and pay sheets relating to any worker affected by this Agreement, and make extracts therefrom.

12.—Breakdowns, etc.

For the purpose of setting out plainly the exact method of procedure under this clause, it shall be mutually understood that, where it becomes necessary for the Company to deduct payment when any member or members of the organisation cannot be usually employed, it is hereby mutually agreed that:—

(1) No deduction will be made where the breakdown or stoppage of work for any cause the Company cannot reasonably be held responsible for only affects one employee member for not more than two consecutive days; or

(2) Alternatively, affects only two employees for not more than one day; thus making a total of six shifts in either alternative as a maximum to be paid by the Company.

(3) Should the breakdown or stoppage affect the Company to a greater extent than as above specified in (1) and (2), then the Company agrees to stand down the employee members of the organisation in reasonable rotation, so as to give as far as possible equal work for all employees, always excepting the leading firemen, whose services the Company reserves the right to retain at its discretion.

13.—Relieving.

Relieving hands when not engaged at relieving shall be found suitable work to make up full time.

14.—Mixed Functions.

Any worker who is employed for more than two hours on a higher classification shall be paid the rates of such classification for the whole of the shift, and if employed on a lower classification, he shall be paid his ordinary rates.

15.—Maintenance of Existing Conditions.

Save so far as they may be altered or varied by this Agreement all now existing conditions and customs shall be maintained during the period of this Agreement.

In witness whereof the parties hereto have executed these presents the day and year first before-mentioned.
