When conditions of sale have been settled by the magistrate as provided for in Regulation 11 hereof, the clerk of the Court shall, subject to payment by the applicant in whose favour the order for sale was made of such fees and charges as would be payable under the rules of the Local Court if the said order were a warrant of execution issued by the Court under the said Rules of Court to be executed against land for the enforcement of a judgment of the Court, direct the bailiff of the Court to sell the land in respect of which the order for sale has been made under and in accordance with the said order for sale and the conditions of sale aforesaid.

13. Every sale of land under an order for sale made under these regulations shall be conducted by the bailiff in the same manner as sales of land under a warrant of execution issued out of the Local Court under the provisions of "The Local Courts Act, 1911," and the Rules of the Local Court made thereunder are conducted, and the provisions of the said Act and the said Rules of Court relating to the sale of land under warrant of execution issued under the said Act and Rules of Court shall, so far as the same can be made applicable, apply and be applied mutatis mutandis to sales of land conducted under an order for sale made under these regulations.

14. After land has been sold by the bailiff under an order for sale, the proceeds shall be paid into the Local Court, and shall be applied by the Clerk of the Court as follows:—

- Firstly, in payment of the costs and expenses incurred by the applicant in obtaining and registering the order for sale, and the costs and expenses incurred in connection with the sale of the land.
- Secondly, where the order for sale has been made in favour of the Commissioner for Public Health, in payment of the amount payable under and in complete satisfaction of the charge for the enforcement whereof the order for sale was made pari passu with any land tax unpaid and payable at the time of the sale of the land.
- Thirdly, in payment of all rates and taxes other than land tax and rates due to the local authority in whose favour the order for sale was made, when the order for sale has been made in favour of a local authority, unpaid and payable in respect of the land at the time of sale thereof.

- Fourthly, where the order for sale has been made in favour of a local authority, in payment of the amount payable under and in complete satisfaction of the charge for the enforcement whereof the order for sale was made, pari passu with the rates (if any) unpaid and payable at the time of the sale to the local authority in whose favour the order for sale was made.
- Fifthly, in payment of any balance of the amount payable under and in complete satisfaction of the charge, for the enforcement of which the order for sale was made, to the person in whose favour the said order was made.
- Sixthly, in payment of any moneys due under any mortgage to the Agricultural Bank.
- Seventhly, in payment of all vendor's costs and expenses of and in connection with conferring upon the purchaser a clear title to the land.
- Eighthly, in or towards the discharge of all or any other mortgages or mortgage or encumbrances or encumbrance proved to the satisfaction of the clerk of the Court to exist over the land, due regard being had to the respective priorities of any such mortgages or encumbrances.
- Ninthly, in payment to the person who would but for the order for sale be entitled to the land, or if there are several persons who would be so entitled, then to such persons in the proportions in which they would be respectively so entitled: Provided that if any person is entitled to an estate in reversion or remainder in the said land the money may be paid into the Supreme Court under section forty-six of "The Trustees Act, 1900."

15. Any purchaser of land sold under an order for sale made under these regulations may apply for and obtain from the clerk of the Local Court a warrant of possession, which may be in the form of warrant of possession (Form 179) as prescribed in the schedule to the Rules of the Local Court with such modifications as may be necessary; and the bailiff may put such purchaser in possession of the land thereunder.

16. Whilst the order for sale remains in force the land, in respect of which the order has been made, may be offered for sale thereunder in the manner herein directed as often as the magistrate who made the order shall think expedient.

17. If the land is not sold, and, in the case of land under "The Transfer of Land Act, 1893," a transfer thereof is not registered within twelve months from the date of the order for sale, then the order and all proceedings founded thereon shall no longer be in force and shall cease to bind the land; and, in the case of land under "The Transfer of Land Act, 1893," the Registrar of Titles shall, at the instance of any person interested in the land, and on payment of the proper fee, enter on the certificate or other instrument of title a memorandum to that effect.

18. An order for sale under which the land has not been sold shall not discharge the land from the charge, for the enforcement of which the order for sale was made, or take away from the Commissioner of Public Health or the local authority in whose favour the order was made any right of the Commissioner or the local authority against the land including the right to apply for a fresh order for sale.

19. The clerk of the Local Court shall execute a proper conveyance or transfer of the land to the purchaser which shall convey or transfer to the purchaser (subject to registration under "The Transfer of Land Act, 1893," or "The Land Act, 1933," as the case may require) an estate in fee simple in the land, or (if such land has not been alienated from the Crown in fee simple) all the estate and interest therein of every person (other than the Crown) and all the estate and interest which any such person is entitled or able to transfer, assign, convey or dispose of therein, and the estate of the purchaser shall be subject to the exceptions, conditions and powers (if any) contained in the grant or Crown lease or conditional purchase lease of the land and to any public rights of way and to any easements acquired by enjoyment or use or subsisting over and upon or affecting the land, and to any rates and taxes imposed or to be imposed on or in respect of the land after the date of the sale, and to any mortgage in favour of the Agricultural Bank, but free from other encumbrances.

20. The Registrar of Titles, in the case of land under "The Transfer of Land Act, 1893," and the Under Secretary for Lands in the case of land not under the said Act and under "The Land Act, 1933," upon production to him of any transfer as aforesaid shall register the same, and notwithstanding any statutory provision to the contrary, production of the certificate or other instrument of title shall not be required, but for the purpose of registration the Registrar of Titles or the Under Secretary for Lands, as the case may be, may if he thinks fit, make such orders and publish such advertisements as are provided for in the case of dealings with land when the certificate or other instrument of title is lost or not produced.
