THE HEALTH ACT, 1911-1937.

Adoption and Amendment of By-laws.

M.H.D. 2624/38; Ex. Co. No. 1932.

WHEREAS under the provisions of the Health Act, 1911-1937, a Local Health Authority may make or adopt by-laws, and may amend, repeal, or alter any by-laws so made or adopted: Now, therefore, the Municipality of Cottesloe, being a Local Health Authority and having adopted the Model By-laws published in the Government Gazette on the 8th day of April, 1927, doth hereby adopt, with amendments as set out hereunder, the subsequent Model By-laws published in the Government Gazette on the 20th day of October, 1933; the 5th day of October, 1934; the 1st day of February, 1935; the 12th day of February, 1937; the 2nd day of July, 1937; the 22nd day of April, 1938, and the 29th day of April, 1938, and doth also amend its by-laws as follows:—

Part VI.—Boarding Houses.

Add after By-law 4 a further by-law as follows:—

4a. Where verandahs of not less than 8 feet in width form portion of the main building of any boarding house, the Local Authority may allow a part of such verandahs, not exceeding one-half of the total length, to be utilised for sleeping apartments under the following conditions:—

(1) The number of beds on such part of the verandahs as is set apart for sleeping apartments shall not be greater than will allow a minimum of 40 square feet for each single bed and 44 square feet for each three-quarter bed, and there shall be a space of at least 2 feet 6 inches between each bed.

Verandah space shall not be equipped with double beds.

(2) Verandah space so set aside for sleeping apartments shall at all times be capable of being fully opened to the outer air from a height of 3 feet above floor level to the under side of the verandah plate. Such opening may be so fitted as to be capable also of being closed by blinds, sliding or swinging glass shutters, or in other manner when approved by the Health Inspector of the Local Authority.

(3) The keeper of every boarding house utilising verandah space under the provisions of this by-law shall provide dressing accommodation for persons sleeping thereon in some specified room in such house, and shall affix above each bed on such verandah space a notice specifying the number of such bed, and the number of the room provided for dressing.

Each person so accommodated shall be allotted a separate locker, wardrobe, or other form of storage for clothing in the room specified in the preceding paragraph, etc., which shall be equipped with a lock and key, such key to be delivered to the person so accommodated. The locker, etc., so allotted shall have a clear cubic capacity of not less than 9 cubic feet and be properly fitted with clothes hooks.

(4) The Local Authority shall issue to every keeper of a boarding house, utilising verandah space for above-mentioned purposes a certificate specifying the maximum number of boarders permitted to occupy such verandah space.

By-law 19.—Clause (h) is deleted and the following clause inserted in lieu thereof:—

(h) (1) One closet for males and one for females placed in approved positions is provided for every 10 or part of 10 people who are accommodated on the premises.

(2) Closets for different sexes do not adjoin each other unless separated by a wall of brick, stone or concrete of approved thickness; such wall may be the wall of one closet or common to both.

(3) The door of every external closet is properly screened at least 6 feet high and reaches to the ground, and if required a screen shall be fixed to prevent the closet being visible from overlooking windows.

(4) Any closet for the use of females has a separate entrance behind such screen and such entrance is not less than 12 feet from the entrance of any closet intended for the use of males.

(5) Sex boards be provided on entrance door of closets.

Part V.—Lodging Houses.

By-law 21.—Clause (h) is deleted and the following clause inserted in lieu thereof:—

(h) (1) One closet for males and one for females placed in approved position is provided for every 10 or part of 10 people who are accommodated on the premises.

(2) Closets for different sexes shall not adjoin each other unless separated by a wall of brick, stone or concrete of approved thickness; such wall may be the wall of one closet or common to both.

(3) The door of every external closet is properly screened at least 6 feet high and reaches to the ground, and if required a screen shall be fixed to prevent the closet being visible from overlooking windows.

(4) Any closet for the use of females has a separate entrance behind such screen and such entrance is not less than twelve feet from the entrance of any closet intended for the use of males.

(5) Sex boards be provided on entrance door of closets.
