Witnesses who are regularly working "on shift" or who, as a result of attending Court for any portion of a day, lose a day's pay, shall be paid one day's allowance at the appropriate rate, or an amount equivalent to wages lost, whichever is the lower: Provided the paying officer is satisfied that the actual loss of time has been sustained.

II.—Travelling Expenses.

The correctness of the entry will be verified by the Clerk of Courts, who should sign the sheet (if correct) and return it to the witness.

Any allowance due will be paid by the Railway Department who will render on the Crown Law Department for a refund of the amount so expended.
