ROYAL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY ACT, 1926-1940.

Department of Agriculture,
Perth, 12th June, 1941.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, acting pursuant to section 6 of the Royal Agricultural Society Act, 1926-1940, has been pleased to repeal the whole of the uniform by-laws made under and for the purposes of the said Act and published in the Government Gazette on the 4th day of November, 1927, and amended by notice published in the Government Gazette from time to time thereafter, and has been pleased to substitute in lieu thereof new uniform by-laws governing all registered agricultural societies and the members thereof in the manner set forth in the Schedule hereunder:—

G. K. BARON HAY,
Under Secretary Department of Agriculture.

Schedule.

Uniform By-laws.

1. In the construction and for the purposes of these by-laws, unless the context otherwise requires, the terms specified hereunder shall have the meaning defined:—

“Committee” means the duly elected president and members of the committee of the society.

“Society” means an agricultural society registered in pursuance of the Royal Agricultural Society Act, 1926-1940.

“The Royal Agricultural Society” means the Royal Agricultural Society of Western Australia incorporated.

Office Bearers.

2. (a) The general management of the affairs of the society shall be vested in a committee, which shall consist of a president and such other office bearers, as the members at a properly constituted meeting of members shall from time to time decide.

(b) Office bearers comprising the committee shall be financial members of the society.

(c) Patrons and vice-patrons shall not be members of the committee and need not necessarily be members of the society.

Nomination and method of election of Office Bearers.

3. Office-bearers of the Society shall be nominated prior to or at the annual general meeting. No unfinancial member shall be nominated as an office bearer. Office-bearers shall be elected at the annual general meeting of the society.

(a) Should the number required, and no more, be so nominated, the chairman of the meeting shall declare all candidates elected.

(b) Should the number nominated exceed the number required, a ballot shall be taken.

(c) Should a less number than required be nominated, the committee at its next meeting shall fill such vacancies.

(d) The meeting shall appoint a returning officer and two scrutineers to assist in the conduct of the ballot.

Voting for Office Bearers.

4. The voting for office bearers shall be conducted as follows:—

Members shall vote in each instance for the required number of candidates, and any voting paper on which are recorded votes for more or less than the required number of members for any office or committee shall be informal to that extent, but any such informality shall not affect the legality of the voting paper in instances where votes for a member or members for other offices or committees are properly recorded on the same voting paper.

Term of Office.

5. Office bearers shall commence to hold office upon the first day of the month following the meeting at which they are elected.

The president shall retire annually but shall be eligible for re-election.

One-third of the committee, or such number being not less than one-third, as the members of the society at a properly constituted meeting shall decide, shall retire each year and shall be eligible for re-election.

The treasurer, if such office be provided for, shall retire annually and shall be eligible for re-election.

The auditor, who shall not be a member of the committee, shall retire each year and shall be eligible for re-election.

Special Vacancies.

6. The method for dealing with special vacancies shall be as follows:—

Vacancies in the number of office bearers caused by death, resignation, absence without leave, or otherwise, and occurring at any time between two annual general meetings, shall be notified by the secretary to the committee at its next meeting thereafter, and the secretary shall notify such vacancies in writing to each of the members of the committee not present at such meeting and all such vacancies shall be filled by the committee at the next following meeting. Any member so appointed shall, previous to such appointment, signify to the secretary his willingness to accept such appointment, but any person so chosen shall retain office only so long as the member in whose place he is appointed would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred. Provided, however, that when any such vacancy has been filled by the appointment thereto of any other office bearer of the society, the notification of the next meeting of the committee to be given in pursuance of by-law 8 shall specify the vacancy so created, and the committee may at such meeting fill the same.

In the case of any vacancy arising in the office of auditor through any cause prior to the date of the annual meeting, such vacancy shall be filled by the committee, and such person or firm so appointed to fill such vacancy shall hold office until the first day of the month following the annual meeting.

Committee Meetings.

7. Meetings of the committee shall be held at such times as the chairman considers necessary; provided, however, that meetings of the committee shall be held at least twice annually, and at all committee meetings four shall form a quorum.

Convening of Committee Meetings.

8. (a) The secretary shall convene meetings of the committee by notifying each member of the committee in such manner as the committee shall decide.

(b) The chairman may convene a special meeting of the committee at any time, and in such case the secretary shall give to all members such notification as the committee shall decide.

Attendance Committee Meetings.

9. If any of the elected members be absent without leave for three consecutive ordinary meetings of the committee, he shall cease to be an office bearer.

Election of Members.

10. Subject as hereinafter provided, any person paying to the society the amount of the annual subscription may be enrolled as a member and entitled to the privileges of membership: provided that, when any subscription shall be paid in the name of any firm or company, one member only of such firm or one nominee of such company may exercise the rights and privileges of membership and may be elected to any office.

Notwithstanding anything herein contained, the secretary, on the instructions of the committee, shall have the right to refund within two calendar months any money so received and to refuse to accept any person as a member of the society.

Privileges of Members.

11. The privileges of membership of the society shall consist of power to vote at any general meeting of members, free admission to the show grounds (on production of member's ticket or badge) at any time when the society is holding a show, and any other privileges which the members at a properly constituted meeting shall from time to time decide.

Subscriptions.

12. The annual subscription shall be fixed by the members at a properly constituted meeting, and shall continue to be payable until altered by any subsequent general meeting. The date of payment thereof shall also be fixed at a properly constituted meeting of members and may be altered from time to time as the members think fit.

Expulsion.

13. If any member of the society has been guilty of any breach of these by-laws for any misconduct, he may be called upon to show cause to the committee why he should not be expelled from the society. The committee may appoint a day for the hearing of the matter of which at least seven days' notice shall be given to the member. If, at the hearing, the committee is satisfied of the truth of the charge and that it is of sufficient gravity, it shall have power to expel such member from membership of the society. In lesser offences a fine not exceeding ten pounds, or some other penalty which in the opinion of the committee is adequate in the circumstances, may be imposed.

Resignation of Members.

14. The resignation of any member shall be by written notice to the secretary, but no such resignation shall relieve any member from payment of any subscription or other moneys due by him to the society at the time of such resignation, and such subscription or other moneys shall be deemed to be a debt due to the society and may be recoverable at law.

Arrears of Subscription.

15. Any member who shall be six months in arrears in payment of his subscription shall not be entitled to hold or continue to hold any office in the society or to any privileges of membership. Any member who shall be twelve months in arrears in the payment of his subscription shall be deemed to have resigned his membership, and his name may be struck off the roll of members.

Register of Members.

16. An alphabetical list of the names of all members of the society shall always be kept in the office of the society.

Secretary.

17. The appointment and dismissal of the secretary shall be dealt with by the committee only.

The society shall appoint a secretary, and such appointment shall be notified to the Royal Agricultural Society in writing under the hand of the chairman.

Any office bearer of the society may be appointed to the position of secretary, in which case the person so appointed shall be deemed to have resigned from the office previously held by him and the vacancy shall be filled in accordance with by-law 6.

Nothing in these by-laws, however, shall prevent one person holding the combined offices of secretary and treasurer of the society.

The society may appoint joint secretaries, should it so desire, without its being necessary to alter these by-laws to that effect.

General Meetings.

18. A general meeting of members (six to form a quorum) shall be held during each year, at such time and place as may be appointed by the committee. Such meeting shall—

- (a) elect the office bearers of the society in accordance with by-law 2;
- (b) elect the auditor of the society;
- (c) consider the annual report and yearly statement of accounts;
- (d) attend to any other business with which it is competent to deal under these by-laws.

Summoning of Special General Meeting.

19. A special general meeting shall be called (six to form a quorum) at any time by the secretary, on the direction of the president, or on the requisition in writing of six financial members; but no business shall be transacted at any such meeting other than that for which it has been called.

Voting powers of Chairman.

20. The chairman of any general or special general meeting shall have a deliberative vote, and, in case of equality of votes, a casting vote also.

Notices of Meeting.

21. Notice of any general or special general meeting shall be posted or delivered to members fourteen days at least prior to the time fixed for such meeting.

The accidental omission to give notice of any such meeting or the non-receipt of any such notice shall not invalidate any resolution passed at any such meeting.

Auditor.

22. The auditor shall hold office from and including the first day of the month following the date of the meeting at which such election takes place.

How Questions are to be decided.

23. Subject to the proviso hereinafter contained, all matters (except the election of office bearers) to be dealt with at general meetings shall be determined on the voices, unless a division be called for.

Committee.

24. (a) The committee shall have the control and management of the income and expenditure of the funds of the society, and also the entire management and superintendence of all the society's other affairs and concerns, and also the appointment and management of its officers and servants.

(b) The president shall preside at all meetings of the committee. In the absence of the president, the members present shall elect a chairman from among their number. The chairman presiding at any meeting shall have a deliberative and, in the case of equality of votes, a casting vote also.

Rescinding Resolutions.

25. No motion, the effect of which, if carried, would be to rescind any resolution previously passed by the committee during the same year shall be entertained, unless notice of intention to move the same shall have been given in writing to the secretary at least fourteen days prior to the holding of the meeting of the committee at which it is proposed to move such resolution.

Sale of Property.

26. No real property belonging to the society shall be sold, except by the authority of a majority of members present, at an annual general meeting or at a special general meeting called for the purpose and of which purpose notice was stated in the notice convening such meeting.

Borrowing Powers.

27. (a) The committee may, with the sanction of a resolution passed by members in general meeting or in any special meeting called for the purpose, raise money by bank overdraft or by the issue of debentures, or by such other means as may be approved of at such meeting, and, if necessary, may secure the payment thereof by any mortgage or charge upon the property of the society, or by such other means as the members by such resolution shall decide.

(b) The notice convening any general or special meeting at which it is intended to seek the foregoing power from members shall set out the intention of the committee to seek such power, and such notice shall be posted or delivered to each member not less than 14 days before which the meeting is convened.

12.—Safe keeping of Tools.

The employer shall provide a place for the storing and safe keeping of his employees' tools when not in use.

13.—Provision of Appliances.

(b) Unionists shall be given preference of employment.

(a) In this Agreement the term "apprentice" means an apprentice duly registered with the Clerk of the Court in accordance with the provisions of this clause, and the term "probationer" means a person working as apprentice on probation, of whose probationary period notice has been given to the Clerk of the Court in accordance with the provisions of this clause: Provided that an apprentice or probationer shall be deemed to be duly registered during the period of fourteen days allowed for registration.

(b) Any employer hereafter taking a probationer or an apprentice shall, within fourteen days thereafter, duly register such probationer or apprentice by giving notice thereof to the Clerk of the Court in the prescribed forms.

(c) If at the date of this Award any employer is employing any person as an apprentice or a probationer who has not been duly registered as such, he shall register such apprentice or probationer within fourteen days thereafter.

(d) The maximum number of apprentices allowed to any employer shall be in the proportion of one apprentice to every two or fraction of two journeymen employed by him.

(e) For the purpose of ascertaining the number of apprentices allowed to be taken at any time, the number of journeymen employed shall be deemed to be the average number of journeymen employed on all working days of the six months immediately preceding such time.

(f) The term of apprenticeship shall be five years. A probationary period of three months previous to being bound shall be lawful. Such probationary period shall be deemed portion of the period of apprenticeship.

(g) (i) Should any employer from any cause whatsoever be unable to carry out his obligations to his apprentice, he shall be allowed, with the consent of the union and the apprentice, and the parent or guardian of the apprentice, to transfer the apprentice to another employer, who shall thereupon be bound by the covenants, conditions, and stipulations of the agreement of apprenticeship and of this Agreement, and be held to indemnify the former employer from all actions, claims and demands in respect of same. The agreement of apprenticeship shall be indorsed to this effect and signed by the new employer and the other parties thereto, and a clause shall be inserted providing that the indenture may be cancelled by mutual consent.

(ii) It shall be incumbent upon such former employer to notify the Registrar of the date of such transfer and such particulars thereof as may be required.

(h) The following provisions shall apply in respect of all apprenticeships:—

- (ii) At the end of the period of apprenticeship the employer shall give the apprentice a certificate in the prescribed form to show that he has served his apprenticeship. Should the employer at any time before the termination of the term of apprenticeship desire to dispense with the service of the apprentice he may, with the consent of the apprentice, transfer him to another employer carrying on business within a reasonable distance of the original employer's place of business willing to continue to teach the apprentice, and to pay the rate of wages prescribed by this Agreement according to the total length of time served, and generally to perform the obligations of the original employer. He shall also give to the apprentice a certificate of the time served and of the rate of wages paid, and shall give notice to the Clerk of the Court of such transfer in the form prescribed. It shall not be obligatory upon the employer to find the apprentice another employer if he shall so misconduct himself as to entitle the employer to discharge him, but he shall nevertheless give him a certificate for the time actually served.
- (iii) An employer shall be deemed to fail in his duty towards his apprentice, if he neglects to keep him constantly at work, but slackness of work may form a proper ground for transferring him to a master willing to undertake the responsibility of teaching him.
- (iv) Before an apprentice employed under a registered agreement is discharged by the employer for alleged misconduct, the registration of the agreement of apprenticeship shall first have been cancelled by the order of the Court.
- (v) It shall be provided in every agreement of apprenticeship that technical instruction of the apprentice, when available, shall be at the employer's expense and shall be in the employer's time, except in places when such instruction is given after the ordinary working hours.
- (vi) It shall be provided in every agreement of apprenticeship that in the event of the apprentice, in the opinion of the examiners, not progressing satisfactorily, increased time for technical instruction shall be allowed at the employer's expense to enable such apprentice to reach the necessary standard.

(i) The minimum wage payable to an apprentice shall be:—

Apprentices Wages.	Percentage of Basic Wage and Industry Allowance.
First six months .. .. .	20
Second six months .. .. .	25
Second year .. .. .	30
Third year .. .. .	45
Fourth year .. .. .	65
Fifth year .. .. .	85

(j) Every apprentice shall be bound to submit himself to examination by a Board of Examiners, hereinafter constituted, once in each year of his service, when called upon by the Clerk of the Court so to do, and shall in each year of his apprenticeship attend at a technical school the classes for instruction in the trade covered by this Agreement.

(k) The Clerk of the Court shall notify the Board of Examiners of the names and addresses of all candidates required to submit themselves to examination. The examination will be held at such place as shall be from time to time appointed by the Clerk of the Court, and it shall be the duty of each employer to supply such necessary material and machinery as may be required and in all ways facilitate the conduct of the examination.

(l) The examination will be held in the month of November in each year. The Board of Examiners shall consist of one person skilled in the trade, to be nominated by the workers' union; one person skilled in the trade, to be nominated by the employers, or, failing such nomination or nominations, such person or persons as may be appointed for that purpose by the Court. The examiners shall examine the work of and inquire into the diligence of each apprentice and as to the opportunities provided by the employer to each apprentice to learn.

(m) The examiners shall report to the Court in writing as to the result of the examination.

(n) The Clerk of the Court shall supply to each candidate the result of his examination, and it shall be lawful for any employer to withhold the increase in wages accruing in any year in accordance with the scale set forth in subclause (i) hereof from any apprentice who fails to satisfy the examiners at the examination for that year referred to in subclause (l) or (until he has completed the carpentry course) fails to obtain from a technical school a certificate that he has during the year passed an annual examination in carpentry at the school. The employer shall pay the fees payable to the technical school.

(o) If the examiners report to the Court that any employer has not provided sufficient opportunity for the apprentice to learn, the employer shall be deemed prima facie guilty of a breach of this Agreement under section 97 of the Act, and may be summoned before the Court. Upon any such proceeding the report may be received in evidence.

(p) Such fee shall be paid by the Clerk to the examiners as the Court shall allow.

(q) The forms referred to in this clause or prescribed therein shall be such as are provided by the Court.

22.—Term of Agreement.

This Agreement shall come into force in the day of the date herein and shall remain in force for the period of three (3) years thence ensuing, and thereafter subject to the provisions of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1935, and shall apply to all works and undertakings carried out by the said employer in the Municipality of Boulder.

23.—Payment for Sickness.

(a) A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance, on the ground of personal ill-health, for one half-day for each completed month of service; provided that payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to six (6) days in each calendar year. For this purpose twenty (20) days shall constitute a month. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act. Provided always, that an employer shall be entitled to demand a medical certificate from any worker claiming such payment before he can be required to make any such payment.

(b) Should any of the holidays stated in clause (6), with the exception of Saturday and Sunday, occur during an employee's absence from work through sickness, or as the result of an accident, the said employee shall be entitled to receive payment for such holiday.

- (ii) classifying and fixing wages, rates, and conditions for any occupation or calling not specifically mentioned in the Agreement;
- (iii) deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to such Board from time to time.

An appeal shall lie from any decision of such Board, in the manner and subject to the conditions prescribed in the regulations to the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1935, which for this purpose are embodied in this Agreement.

(c) After application has been made to the Board, and pending the Board's decision, the worker shall be entitled to work for or be employed at the proposed lesser rate.
