INDUSTRIES ASSISTANCE ACT, 1915-1940.

The Treasury,
Perth, 20th November, 1941.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, acting pursuant to section 29 of the Industries Assistance Act, 1915-1940, has been pleased to amend the regulations made under the said Act and published in the Government Gazette on the 23rd day of April, 1915, and amended by notice published in the Government Gazette on the 5th day of November, 1915, in the manner mentioned in the Schedule hereunder.

A. J. REID,
Under Treasurer.

Schedule.

The regulations made under the Industries Assistance Act, 1915-1940, as published in the Government Gazette on the 23rd day of April, 1915, and as amended by notice published in the Government Gazette on the 5th day of November, 1915, are further amended by adding thereto a further regulation as follows:—

8. (1) This regulation is made for the purposes of subsection (6) of section 14 of the Industries Assistance Act, 1915-1940, and shall apply only in respect of advances made out of or commodities supplied with moneys loaned to the State for purposes of drought relief under the Commonwealth of Australia Loan (Drought Relief) Act, 1940 (No. 71 of 1940), after the commencement of the said subsection (6) of section 14 aforesaid.

(2) The said advances shall be made or the said commodities shall be supplied under the provisions of the Industries Assistance Act, 1915-1940, by the Commissioners of the Agricultural Bank of Western Australia for the purpose of drought relief out of the moneys loaned to the State by the Commonwealth as aforesaid and made available to the said Commissioners by the Government of the State.

(3) The advances made or the moneys owing for the commodities supplied shall be repayable to the said Commissioners in the following manner:—

(a) Where the Commissioners are of the opinion that the proceeds derived by the borrower from the sale of his crops or wool or other sources of income arising out of the agricultural farming, grazing, or other operations carried on by him during the 1941-1942 season on any land, his estate and interest wherein is, by virtue of section 15 of the Act, charged with the repayment of the said advances or moneys aforesaid, are sufficient to repay in full the advances or moneys aforesaid and still leave a balance sufficient to enable the borrower to carry on all or any of the said operations during the 1942-1943 season, the Commissioners may require the borrower to repay to the Commissioners in full the advances or moneys aforesaid out of the said proceeds, and the borrower shall be liable to make such repayment forthwith upon the Commissioners making a demand for the same.

(b) Where the Commissioners are of the opinion that the proceeds referred to in subparagraph (a) hereof are not sufficient to repay in full the advances or moneys aforesaid and still leave a balance sufficient to enable the borrower to carry on his said operations during the 1942-1943 season, the Commissioners may, if they think fit—

(i) allow the repayment of the advances or moneys aforesaid to be deferred wholly or in part until the proceeds derived by the borrower from his said operations in the subsequent year or years are sufficient to repay the deferred advances or moneys aforesaid and leave a balance to enable the borrower to carry on his said operations during the season next following that in which the repayment in full of the advances or moneys aforesaid is made in full; or

(ii) fund the advances or moneys aforesaid wholly or in part and allow the borrower to repay the funded advances or moneys aforesaid by annual instalments spread over a period to be fixed by the Commissioners but not exceeding seven years.
Provided that—

(a) in cases where the advances or moneys aforesaid are funded as aforesaid and become repayable by annual instalments over a period of years as hereinbefore provided for, the Commissioners may require the borrower to execute in their favour a mortgage of his lands and a bill of sale over his stock and plant to secure the repayment of the advances or moneys aforesaid by the said instalments; and

(b) in cases where the Commissioners merely allow the repayment of the advances or moneys aforesaid to be deferred and do not fund the same, section 15 of the Act shall continue to apply and have effect to secure the repayment in full of the advances or moneys aforesaid.

(c) Where the proceeds referred to in subparagraph (a) hereof are sufficient to repay in full the advances or moneys aforesaid but are not sufficient still to leave a balance sufficient to enable the borrower to carry on his said operations during the ensuing season or seasons, the Commissioners may from year to year, as often as they are satisfied is necessary, repay in full the advances or moneys aforesaid out of the proceeds derived by the borrower from his said operations and simultaneously readvance moneys or again supply commodities to the borrower under and in accordance with this regulation, and this regulation shall apply as if the moneys readvanced or the commodities again supplied were advances originally made or commodities originally supplied.

Provided that no such readvances shall be made or no such commodities shall again be supplied to the same borrower after the expiration of the period of seven years computed from the first day of April, 1941.

(4) When for the purposes of paragraph (3) of this regulation the Commissioners are considering whether or not, after repayment in full of the advances or moneys owing by the borrower, the balance of the proceeds derived by the borrower from his operation aforesaid are sufficient to enable him to carry on his said operations during the next ensuing season, interest owing to creditors of the borrower other than the Commissioners, and payments in respect of machinery or plant owing by the borrower to persons other than the Commissioners, shall not be taken into account as being expenses incidental to the carrying on of his said operations by the borrower.

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Act and in compliance with subsection (6) of section 14 of the Act, in relation to any advances or moneys aforesaid to which this regulation applies, where the Commissioners are of opinion that it is desirable to do so, they may at any time agree in writing with any applicant or with any creditor of an applicant for the waiver or postponement of any charge arising under the Act wholly or in part or to any basis or method of application or division of the proceeds of the realisation of any property of an applicant the subject of any such charge.

(6) The rate of interest which shall be charged in respect of advances or other moneys aforesaid to which this regulation applies shall be the same rate as that payable by the State to the Commonwealth of Australia in respect of the moneys loaned by the said Commonwealth to the State and made available by the State to the Commissioners for the purpose of enabling them to make such advances or to supply commodities to applicants under this regulation.

Provided that advances made and moneys owing for commodities supplied shall be free of interest during the period ending on the 31st day of March, 1942, but as from the 1st day of April, 1941, shall bear interest at the rate aforesaid.

(7) Advances may be made or commodities may be supplied under this regulation during the period of seven years commencing on the 1st day of April, 1941, but not thereafter.

LAND OPEN FOR SELECTION.

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that the areas scheduled hereunder are available for selection under Part V. of the Land Act, 1933-1939, and the regulations appertaining thereto, subject to the provisions of the said Act.

Applications must be lodged at the Land Agency Office as specified hereunder not later than the date specified, but may be lodged before such date if so desired.

All applications lodged on or before such date will be treated as having been received on the closing day, and if there are more applicants than one for any block, the application to be granted will be determined by the Land Board. Should any lands remain unselected such will continue available until applied for or otherwise dealt with.

If a Land Board sitting becomes necessary, the applicants for the blocks will be duly notified of the date, time, and place of the meeting of the Board, and there shall be an interval of at least three days between the closing date and the sitting of the Board.

If an applicant wishes to appear before the Land Board in person he may apply to the Head Office or to the Clerk in Charge of any of the District or Branch Land Offices for a certificate to the Railway Department which, on presentation at the nearest Railway Station will entitle him to a Return Ticket, at Concession Rates, to the place where the Board will sit, available for seven days from the date of issue.

The selector of a Homestead Farm from any location must take the balance thereof, if any, under Conditional Purchase.

All marketable timber, including sandalwood and mallet, is reserved to the Crown, subject to the provisions of clause 18 of the regulations.

THE ROAD DISTRICTS ACT, 1919-1939.

By-laws to Control Camping in the Northampton Road District.

P.W. 1325/35.

WHEREAS under the provisions of the Road Districts Act, 1919-1939, the Board of any district is empowered to make by-laws for all or any of the purposes mentioned in the said Act, the Northampton Road Board doth, in exercise of the powers aforesaid and of every power enabling it in this behalf, hereby make the following by-laws:—

BY-LAW No. 122.

1.—Camping.

No persons shall, except as hereinafter provided, camp, lodge, or tarry for a longer period than seven consecutive days on any Crown lands or reserve or land the property of the Northampton Road Board, for the purpose of camping, lodging, or tarrying thereon.

2.—Permits for Camping.

Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (1), camping may be permitted in areas set apart for the purpose by the Road Board, but not elsewhere, upon the issue of a permission by the secretary of the Road Board and subject to the following conditions:—

The Board may at any time make and declare a schedule of charges and issue permits to persons desirous of camping on any such areas.

(a) No person shall sublet any camp, or sell, give, or otherwise dispose of any permit to any person.

(b) No person shall cut or otherwise destroy any trees or shrubs within the camping area, excepting only by permission of the inspector or ranger for clearing those areas actually required for erecting camps thereon.

(c) Campers must keep the area covered by their permit in a clean and sanitary condition at all times. All rubbish capable of destruction by fire shall be burned by the occupier in the approved fireplace, and all other rubbish shall be placed in the proper receptacles.

(d) Camping permits may at any time be withdrawn by the Board, if in their opinion a breach of these by-laws has been committed, or if in their opinion it is desirable that the permit shall be terminated.

In the event of termination hereunder, the rental paid shall be forfeited to the Road Board, and no compensation shall be paid for the loss, damage, or inconvenience suffered through the withdrawal of the permit.

(e) Subject to the right of the officers and employees of the Road Board, or any person acting under their instructions, or any police officer, to enter any camping site at any time, no persons shall enter into or remain within such camping site, except with the permission of the holder of the permit.

(f) No fires shall be lighted on any camping area, except in places approved by the secretary.

(g) Permits issued shall be for a period of twelve months only, and an extension of this period can only be obtained by the approval of the Board granted at a Board meeting.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these by-laws, the Board may at a full Board meeting, upon application by an old age or other pensioner, agree to the issuing of a permit for the erection of a wood and iron camp for permanent occupation by the person to whom the permit is issued.

(h) Business of any description will not be allowed on any camping area.

3.—Penalty.

For every offence against the provisions of these by-laws the offender shall, upon conviction before any one or more justices of the peace, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Schedule of Fees.

For each private camping site—one pound (£1), to be paid on or before the 1st day of January in each year. Such fee shall include a permit to erect or occupy a camp, which shall be known and designated by the name of the person to whom such permit is issued, and this permit shall only apply to the building so designated thereon.

Passed by resolution of the Northampton Road Board at Northampton on the 13th day of September, 1941.

The Common Seal of the Northampton Road Board was hereunto affixed in the presence of—

F. A. PORTER,
Chairman.
C. F. FRASER,
Secretary.

THE ROAD DISTRICTS ACT, 1919-1939.

South Perth Road District By-law No. 4.

Appointment and Dismissal of Officers and Servants. IN pursuance of the powers in that behalf contained in the Road Districts Act, 1919-1939, the South Perth Road Board makes the following by-law relating to the appointment and dismissal of officers and servants, to be numbered No. 4:—

1. In this by-law, subject to the context—

“Board” means the South Perth Road Board.

“Chairman” means the chairman of the Board and includes any deputy or acting chairman.

“Engineer” means the engineer of the Board and includes any other person authorised to act as such for the time being.

“Labourer” means a person engaged on outside manual work on a daily or weekly hiring.

“Secretary” means the secretary of the Board and includes any other person authorised to act as such for the time being.

2. (1) Subject to the next following subclause, no officer or servant (other than labourers) shall be appointed except—

(a) by a resolution of the Board; or

(b) by some person authorised by a resolution of the Board to make such appointment.

In every case the resolution of the Board shall specify the remuneration to be paid to the person so appointed.

(2) If in the opinion of the chairman it is advisable to appoint an officer or servant before the next meeting of the Board, the chairman may make such appointment, but such appointment shall lapse at the conclusion of the next following meeting of the Board, unless it is confirmed by a resolution of the Board at such meeting.

3. No officer or servant (other than labourers) shall be dismissed, except by a resolution of the Board.

4. If in the opinion of the chairman it is advisable that any officer or servant should be suspended from his employment by the Board, the chairman may by writing under his hand suspend such officer or servant.

The fact of such suspension shall be reported to the next following meeting of the Board.

5. (1) The engineer may from time to time engage such labourers as he may think necessary for carrying out the work entrusted to him by the Board, and the engineer may dismiss any labourers whose services are in his opinion no longer required by the Board.

(2) The engineer shall have no authority to engage any labourer, except upon the terms of the Industrial Award from time to time in force in respect of such labourer.

(3) The engineer shall within 24 hours of the engagement or dismissal of any labourer notify to the secretary in writing the name and classification of such labourer.

Passed by a resolution of the South Perth Road Board at a meeting held on the 10th October, 1941.

D. F. VINCENT,
Chairman.
E. J. JOHNSON,
Secretary.
