Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply when the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act. (b) A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through any accident wherever sustained arising out of his own wilful default or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default. On any other public holiday the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for work, and payment for that day may be deducted, but if work be done, ordinary rates shall apply; (ii) Each worker shall be entitled to two (2) weeks' leave on full pay on completion of each year of service, such leave shall be taken within three (3) months of becoming due. The determination of the Magistrate shall have effect for six calendar months from the date thereof, and, after the expiration of the said period, until the wage shall be again fixed in the manner prescribed at the instance of the said secretary. The secretary may by writing under his hand appoint an agent or substitute to represent the Association at the hearing of any such application before the Magistrate.

13.—Disputes.

In the event of any dispute arising as to any of the matters herein contained, except any question of interpretation, the matter shall be referred to a representative of the Union and a representative of the Bank, and, if they are unable to come to an agreement, the matter shall be referred to the Court, which may determine the matter itself or refer to a Board constituted under section 87 of the Act.

14.—Dismissal, etc.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in or implied by clause 3 hereof, an officer may, subject to sections 92 and 121 (6) of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1941, be reduced for disciplinary reasons, or for inefficiency or other good cause, in which event he shall be paid such rate as may be agreed upon by the Bank and the Secretary of the Union. If the Bank is unable to agree with the secretary of the Union as to the rate to be paid in such case, the matter shall be dealt with in the manner prescribed by clause 13. This subclause (a) shall not in any way interfere with the discretionary powers referred to in clause 3 (g).

(b) Whenever an officer is dismissed, suspended, or reduced in salary, or is informed that he is disrated, and within one month afterwards such officer asks in writing to be furnished with the reasons for such action, he shall be informed in writing of such reasons within a fortnight from the receipt at head office of the request therefor.

15.—General.

(a) Except as allowed by this Award no officer shall as a result of this Award suffer any loss of rates of pay allowance or position to which such officer is entitled under any agreement with the Bank.

(b) The Bank shall continue its established practice with regard to sick pay and other special allowances.

If the Bank decides to adopt the second method set out in this subclause for fixing the date of increases and the completed year of service falls in the first three months of the Bank's half year, such increases shall date from the end of the Bank's half year preceding such completed year of service.

(f) Except where inconsistent with the context "officer" includes a clerk or typist.

16.—Operation of Award.

This Award shall come into operation as from the 1st day of November, 1943, and shall remain in force for a period of twelve (12) months from that date.

In witness whereof this Award has been signed by the President of the Court and the Seal of the Court has been hereto affixed this 26th day of May, 1944.
