No footing shall be placed in position until at least 24 hours' notice shall have been given to the surveyor that the trenches are ready for inspection.

Drainage under Floors.

39. The surface of the ground between all walls of buildings shall be levelled up higher than the finished surface outside and evenly graded to prevent any accumulation of water or drainings beneath the floors, and such surface shall, if required by the surveyor, be covered with properly mixed tar composition laid to a uniform thickness of not less than two inches in every part, rolled, rammed, and finished so as to be impervious to water and other inhalations. In all wet or bad ground subsoil drainage shall be provided and laid as directed in writing by the surveyor.

43. All external walls shall consist of brick, stone, concrete, reinforced concrete, or other hard fire-resisting material approved by the Council, provided that any building used or intended to be used solely as a dwelling-house may have walls constructed of wood and/or asbestos, subject to the conditions set out in this by-law for buildings wholly or partly in wood.

Construction of External Walls.

44. Every wall constructed of brick, stone or other similar materials shall be properly bonded and solidly put together with mortar, and no part of such wall shall overhang any part underneath it except to the extent of nine inches and as approved by the surveyor, and provided that the projection is well and solidly corbelled out, and that the inside of the wall carrying such corbelling is carried up vertically in continuation of the lower face thereof. All return walls shall be properly bonded together.

Damp Course.

45. Every wall or fireplace of brick, stone or similar material shall have a damp-proof course or courses of asphalt, distilled tar and hot sand, or other approved, impervious material at least six inches above the surface of the ground below the lowest floor, and in cases where it is not desirable to place the same throughout the building at the one uniform level, then the said damp-proof course must be laid in horizontal layers connected at the end by a vertical course of the same materials, and shall be not less than half inch thick.

Hollow Walls.

46. External walls may be constructed as hollow walls, if constructed in accordance with the following rules:—(a) The inner and outer parts of the wall shall be separated by a cavity which shall throughout be of a width not exceeding two inches or less than one inch. (b) The inner and outer parts of the wall shall be securely tied together with suitable bonding ties of adequate strength formed of galvanised iron, glazed stoneware, or other approved material. Such ties shall be placed at distances apart not exceeding three feet horizontally, and at least every fifth course vertically. (c) The thickness of each part of the wall shall throughout be not less than four and a-half inches. (d) The aggregate thickness of the two parts, excluding the width of the cavity, shall throughout be not less than the minimum thickness prescribed for solid walls of the same height and length. (e) No hollow wall of not more than 11 inches in thickness shall be greater in superficial extent than three squares in any one storey unless strengthened by a partition wall, fire-place, or projecting pier to the satisfaction of the surveyor.

47. Concrete blocks shall contain not less than one part cement to five parts mixed aggregate, and shall be kept damp for a period of not less than four days, and shall not be used green. Unless with the approval of the surveyor, no block shall be used within 14 days of the date of construction. The blocks shall be bedded and jointed in cement mortar.

If any storey exceeds in height 18 times the thickness prescribed for the walls of such storey, the thickness of each external and party wall throughout such storey shall be increased to one-eighteenth part of the height of the storey, and the thickness of each external and party wall below that storey shall be increased to that thickness, but any such additional thickness may be confined to piers, properly distributed, of which the collective widths amount to one-fourth part of the length of the wall. No increase in thickness of brick walls shall be less than four and one-half inches.

50. The height of any storey may be 20 times the thickness of the walls prescribed for such storey if built with cement mortar.

The height shall not exceed 12 feet when built with lime mortar, or 13 feet 6 inches when built with cement mortar.

53. The thickness of walls under 20 feet in length may be two-thirds the thickness required for external or party walls as stated in Tables A. and B., but in no case less than 9 inches.

54. If in any storey of a building of the warehouse class the thickness of the wall as determined by the provisions of this part of this by-law is less than one-sixteenth part of the height of such storey, the thickness of the wall shall be increased to one-sixteenth part of the height of the storey, and the thickness of each external and party wall below that storey shall be increased to that thickness, but any such additional thickness may be confined to piers properly distributed, of which the collected widths amount to one-fifth part of the length of the wall. No increase in thickness of brick walls shall be less than 4½ inches. The height of any storey built in cement mortar may be 18 times the thickness prescribed for such storey.

Lengths, how Measured.

55. Walls are deemed to be divided into distinct lengths by return walls, and the length of every wall is measured from the face of one return wall to the face of another, provided that such return walls are external, party or cross walls of the thickness required by this part of this by-law, and bonded into the walls so deemed to be divided.

Cross Walls.

56. The thickness of a cross wall shall not be less than two-thirds of the thickness hereinbefore required for an external or party wall of the same dimensions and belonging to the same class of building, but never less than nine inches and no wall subdividing shall be deemed to be a cross wall unless it is carried up to the plate level of the topmost storey, and unless in each storey the aggregate extent of the vertical faces or elevations of all the recesses, and that of all the openings therein taken together, does not exceed one-half of the whole extent of the vertical face or elevation of the wall. If a cross wall is carried on a girder across the ground storey and is supported by piers to the satisfaction of the surveyor, it shall be deemed to be a cross wall in accordance with this regulation. But in one-storey buildings of the domestic class, four and one-half inch cross walls will be permitted, provided the unsupported length of any wall does not exceed 25ft.

Cross Wall becoming External Wall.

57. Wherever a cross wall becomes in any part an external wall, the external portion of such cross wall shall be of the thickness required for an external wall of the same height and length and belonging to the same class of building, but no portion of such cross wall shall be of less thickness than is required for the external portion thereof.

Parapet, Warehouse Class.

In buildings of the warehouse class the thickness of such parapet shall be equal to the thickness of such wall in the topmost storey, and in any other building of a thickness of nine inches at least.

61. Every party wall shall be carried up for a height of 15in. above the roof, measured at right angles to the slope thereof, or 15in. above the highest part of any flat or gutter, as the case may be, and of a thickness (in buildings of the warehouse class) equal to the thickness of such wall in the topmost storey and in any other building of a thickness of eight and one-half inches at the least.

Provided, however, that in the case of domestic buildings where not more than two buildings are erected under one roof, it shall be sufficient if the party wall is carried up at least eight and one-half inches in thickness to the underside of the roof covering, and such roof covering of iron, slate, or other material must be bedded in good mortar to the satisfaction of the surveyor, and the top of such party wall shall not be hidden from view until it has been approved by the surveyor.

62. Every party wall shall be carried up of the thickness aforesaid above any turret, dormer, lantern light, or other erection of combustible materials fixed upon the roof or flat of any building within four feet from such party wall, and shall extend at the least 15in. higher and wider on each side than such erection; and every party wall shall be carried up above any part of any roof opposite thereto, and within four feet therefrom.
