ALBANY ROAD BOARD.

By-laws of the Albany Road Board.

WHEREAS by the Road Districts Act, 1919-1942; the Cattle Trespass, Fencing and Impounding Act, 1882, and other Statutes, the Road Board of any district is empowered to make by-laws for all or any purposes in the said Act mentioned, the Albany Road Board, in pursuance of the powers vested in the said Board under and by virtue of the said Acts and of every other authority enabling it in that behalf, doth hereby make and publish the following by-laws:—

PART 1.

Interpretations.

1. In these by-laws the interpretations set out in the Road Districts Act, 1919-1942, shall apply, in addition to which the following terms shall, unless the context otherwise indicates, bear the meaning set against them in the Road Districts Act, or respectively, that is to say:—"The Act"—the Road Districts Act, 1919-1942, and all amendments thereto which may hereafter come into force; "Board"—the Albany Road Board; "Board Room"—shall be the office, hall, or building in which the meeting of the Board is held from time to time; "District"—the district under the jurisdiction of the Albany Road Board; "Secretary"—the Secretary-Engineer of the Board. All other interpretations to be prescribed in the Road Districts Act or other Acts or regulations thereunder.

Duties of Secretary.

2. The duties of the secretary shall be:—

- (a) To attend all Board meetings.
- (b) To attend all committee meetings.
- (c) To take notes of minutes and prepare reports of committees.
- (d) To conduct all correspondence, and to give the other officials instructions, as directed by the minutes, and carry out the resolutions of the Board as contained in such minutes.
- (e) To answer all questions on the Board's business.

(f) To see that the accounts are audited monthly, and balance sheet prepared and published in a newspaper circulating in the district, or by circular to ratepayers, and other duties specified under the Road Districts Act, 1919-1942.

(g) To prepare and place before the Board the monthly financial statement at the end of each month of the financial year.

(h) To supervise the preparation of the rate-books and the Board's electoral lists, to examine proof of the latter, and to arrange for the distribution of copies prior to the elections; also to attend all courts of revision or appeal, to make the necessary arrangements for the elections, to issue instructions to the supervisor, in accordance with the Board's resolutions.

(i) To summon the members to Board and committee meetings.

(j) To keep all books up to date, in accordance with instructions issued by the Minister and additional instructions of the Board.

(k) To check all accounts sent in to the Board, and to see that all accounts for works have stated in them the authority under which such works have been done, and to check all returns made by the collector or other of the Board's officers, and see that the counterfoils of the receipt book accompany all returns; to supervise and attend to the due payment of all moneys coming through the hands of the Board's officers and payable to the credit of the Board.

(l) To report to the Board at its next meeting any officer neglecting to make his returns as provided, with the necessary vouchers attached thereto.

(m) To pay into the bank weekly, or as much more often as is required, to the credit of the Board, all moneys received by him on behalf of the Board, when such moneys shall amount in the aggregate to the sum of £5 or more.

(n) To act, when required, as inspector in connection with the administration of all Statutes coming within the jurisdiction of the Board;

(o) To see that no payment to the credit of the Board shall be made by any officer except through the secretary, or such other officer as may be acting temporarily in that capacity.

(p) Obey readily and cheerfully all lawful commands or orders of the Board, and to attend to all other matters affecting the finances and welfare of the Board and not herein specified.

(q) To see that all bonds and other forms of security to be taken from the contractors are prepared, and that the security required of servants is taken within due time, and report as to such matters to the Board.

(r) To report to the chairman any servant of the Board who has been guilty of any neglect of duty, or who is incapable of performing the duties allotted to him.

(s) To exercise, subject to any directions given by the Board or chairman, control over all servants of the Board.

(t) To see that no receipt is on any other than the forms prescribed by the Acts, and regulations under which authority is given for the issue of such receipts.

(u) To be responsible for the issue of receipts on the proper prescribed forms, and that all receipts issued are in proper sequence.

(v) To keep in the safe all current books and legal documents when not in actual use; to retain one key of the safe in his own personal custody, and to deposit the duplicate with the Board's bankers in the joint name of the chairman and vice-chairman of the Board; to lock in the safe at the end of each day such of the Board's moneys as remain unbanked; to enter in the bank deposit book full details of all cheques and other moneys, and to obtain a proper deposit receipt thereto.

Duties of Supervisor-Engineer.

3. The duties of supervisor-engineer shall be:—

(a) The supervisor-engineer shall have the control of works, plant, and all property of the Board and shall issue instructions to the foreman, and shall see that same are faithfully carried out. Should the foreman be guilty of insubordination or disobedience, or be found incapable of performing the duties allotted to him, the supervisor-engineer shall report the matter to the chairman, who shall inquire into the matter and, if necessary, shall suspend the foreman and report the matter to the next meeting of the Board.

(b) To prepare proper plans and specifications for all works and improvements as regards roads and culverts under the control of the Board; examine all materials to be employed in such works, and to see the same faithfully and properly executed and performed, and watch the progress and formation thereof; submit all specifications and plans to the Board before tenders are called.

(c) To see that the work of cleaning and repairing all public roads and footways is properly carried out.

(d) To see that no labourers are engaged but those that are able bodied.

(e) To see that all drains, sewers, culverts, and bridges are maintained in a state of efficiency.

(f) To see that all servants under his control carry out their duties efficiently, and to report any departure therefrom.

(g) To attend all Board and committee meetings if required.

(h) To specially examine all roads throughout the district at least once each six months, or as required by the Board.

(i) To supply monthly, or as required, to the Board returns of all work completed or in progress with remarks thereon.

Duties of Collector.

4. (a) The collector shall collect moneys that may be due to the Board, issuing receipts on the Board's printed forms for payment and entering particulars of all payments in the book provided by the Board for that purpose.

(b) The collector shall make his financial report and payments to the Secretary every three days.

Appointment of Officers.

5. No permanent appointment shall be made to any office under the Board until after an advertisement has been published in one or more local newspapers calling for applications from persons competent to fill such an appointment. All appointments shall be made by resolution passed by the Board.

6. The election of all officers shall be conducted by a show of hands unless a ballot be demanded.

7. The salary or allowance attached to the office under consideration of the Board shall be fixed in all cases preceding the appointment, and the salary of any officer when fixed shall not at any time be considered with a view to its increase or reduction unless specially authorised by a meeting of the Board, at which at least a quorum is present.

8. All complaints against servants of the Board must be in writing, and must in every case be signed by the person or persons complaining, and no notice whatever shall be taken of any complaint not made in accordance with this by-law. All such complaints as are receivable shall be addressed to the chairman, who, upon the receipt of such complaints, shall have power to investigate the same, and he shall report thereon to the Board at their next meeting.

Meetings and Proceedings.

9. Notice shall be given in writing by the chairman or secretary of ordinary or regular meetings adjourned.

10. Meetings of the Board shall be of two kinds—"Ordinary" and "Special." Ordinary meetings are the regular meetings held in pursuance of these by-laws for the transaction of the general business of the Board, including meetings adjourned for the purpose of any incomplete business, but an adjourned meeting would not exclude any business which was considered necessary to transact. Special meetings are those called under section 131 of the Act, and shall include those called by the chairman in response to a requisition signed by three members, and the notices for such special meetings shall have such special business notified thereon for which the meeting was called, and for which each member shall receive seven days' notice. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting other than that for which the special meeting was called: Provided that any matter of emergency can be discussed, with the ruling of the chairman and the consent of those present. The ratepayers' meeting shall consist of one called under section 144 of the Act, and the standing orders shall, so far as the Act allows, apply to the proceedings, but the provisions of the Act shall be first complied with.

11. Ordinary meetings shall be held at the office of the Board once in each month, on the day and at the hour appointed from time to time by resolution of the Board.

12. A special meeting may, on the requisition of three members of the Board, be called at any time in the manner prescribed by the Act, but the chairman may call a special meeting of the Board as often as he may think proper. No business will be transacted at any ordinary or special meeting unless a quorum is present.

13. At any meeting of the Board it shall rest with the majority of the members of the Board present to exclude the public from such meeting when, in their opinion, it is expedient to do so.

14. At all meetings of the Board, when there is not a quorum present, or when the Board is counted out (which counting out shall take place whenever there shall be less than a quorum present, or within 60 minutes after time for which the meeting is called), such circumstances, together with the names of the members then present, shall be recorded in the minute book.

Voting.

15. Each member (including the chairman) shall have one vote, and such chairman shall not have a casting vote in addition to his ordinary vote, and all questions at such meetings shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present. All motions and amendments shall be decided by show of hands, unless a division is demanded, before the next business is proceeded with.

Minutes of Meeting.

16. (a) The minute book prescribed by the Act shall be kept, in which any item of business transacted by the Board shall be entered by the secretary. Minutes of the special or ordinary meeting shall be confirmed at the next ordinary meeting. No discussion shall take place upon the minutes of the proceedings, except as to their accuracy or for the rectification of a clerical error.

(b) Providing that pasting or otherwise permanently affixing the minutes of the meeting of the Board to the leaves of the minute book shall be equivalent to the entry therein, and the reading of the minutes may be dispensed with when members have been supplied with copies thereof at least three days before the holding of such meeting.

Standing Orders.

17. The order of business at all ordinary meetings of the Board shall be as follows, that is to say:—

(a) Reading and confirmation of minutes of last ordinary also special meetings (if any).

(b) Consideration of business arising out of minutes.

(c) Questions of which due notice has been given by members or officers of the Board.

(d) The chairman shall have the right of directing attention at any meeting to any matter or subject within the jurisdiction or official cognisance of the Board, by a minute signed by himself, and such minute shall, when introduced, take precedence of all business before or to come before the Board, and the adoption thereof may be put by him from the chair as a motion without being seconded, but he shall confine himself to the questions contained therein.

(e) Reports of sub-committees and officers and members.

(f) Deputations and presentation of petitions or memorials, and consideration thereof.

(g) Reading of correspondence received and, at the option of the Board, despatched, and taking action as may be deemed expedient in regard thereto.

(h) Consideration of tenders and ratification of contracts.

(i) Presentation of monthly statement and passing of accounts for payment.

(j) Motions of which previous notice has been given.

(k) Motions without notice (by leave of the Board under by-law 18).

(l) General business.

(m) Notice of motions.

18. In the event of any member having urgent business to place before the meeting, he may move the suspension of the standing orders, and, if agreed to by the Board, such business shall take precedence of all other.

Petitions.

19. Every petition or memorial shall be respectful and temperate in its language, and shall be presented to the Board by a member only, and any member presenting a petition or memorial to the Board shall affix his name to the beginning thereof, with the number of signatures, and any member presenting a petition or memorial shall acquaint himself with the contents thereof and ascertain that it does not contain language disrespectful to the Board. The nature or prayer of every petition or memorial shall be stated to the Board by the member presenting same.

Tenders.

20. Tenders for work shall be opened and dealt with when the subject matter of the tenders comes on to be considered at the meeting of the Board, or by a committee appointed for the purpose. The Board may require a deposit of 5 per cent. of the amount of the tender to accompany such tender, or two satisfactory sureties.

Orders of Debate—Speakers must not Digress.

21. A member, when speaking, shall not digress from the subject of debate.

Correspondence.

22. All correspondence with the Board shall be addressed to the secretary and submitted to the Board. No letter addressed to the Board shall be presented or read by a member.

Consideration of Reports.

23. (a) If, in a report of a Committee, distinct recommendations are made, the decision of the Board may be taken separately on each recommendation.

(b) Any report of a committee or any portion thereof may be amended by the Board in any matter if it may think fit, or may be referred back to the committee for further consideration.

(c) The recommendations of any committee, when adopted by the Board, shall be resolutions of the Board.

Precedence of Chairman.

24. When the chairman rises in his place during the progress of a debate, any member when speaking or offering to speak shall immediately resume his seat, and every member shall preserve strict silence, so that the chairman may be heard without interruption, but the member who was speaking may resume when the chairman takes his seat.

Notice of Motion—Absence of Mover.

25. In the absence of a member who has placed a notice of motion on the business paper for any meeting, any other member may at such meeting move the same, or such motion may be deferred until next ordinary meeting of the Board.

Withdrawal of Motions.

26. Except as elsewhere provided, no motion after being placed on the business paper, shall be withdrawn without the consent of the Board.

Motions to be Seconded.

27. No motion shall be debated unless or until it has been seconded.

Motions not to be withdrawn without Consent.

28. When a motion has been proposed and seconded it shall become subject to the control of the Board, and shall not be withdrawn without the consent of the Board.

Amendment may be moved.

29. When a motion has been proposed and seconded, any member shall be at liberty to move an amendment thereon, but no such amendment shall be debated unless or until it has been seconded.

Motions and Amendments to be in Writing.

30. No motion or amendment shall be debated unless or until it has been reduced to writing, if the chairman so directs.

31. A motion or amendment not seconded cannot be discussed by any member except the mover, nor put by the chairman.

32. In submitting a motion or amendment the chairman shall put the question first in the affirmative and then in the negative.

Further Amendment may be moved on amended Question.

33. If an amendment has been carried the question as amended thereby shall become itself the question before the Board, whereupon any further amendment upon such question may be moved.

How subsequent Amendments may be moved.

34. If an amendment, whether upon an original question or amended as aforesaid, has been negatived, then a further amendment may be moved to the question to which such first-mentioned amendment was moved, and so on until there are no further amendments and the question is decided by the final vote in the affirmative or negative: Provided that not more than one question and one proposed amendment thereof shall be before the Board at any one time.

Motions for Adjournment.

35. No discussion shall be permitted upon any motion for adjournment of the Board. If upon the question being put on any such motion the same is negatived, the subject then under consideration or next on the business paper shall be discussed, and it shall not be competent for any member again to move a motion for adjournment until half an hour has elapsed from the time of moving the one that has been negatived.

Mover of Adjournment, when entitled to Priority.

36. On resuming any discussion which has been adjourned, the mover of such adjournment shall be entitled, if he has not already spoken on the subject under discussion, to speak first.

Notice of Question to be given.

37. Sufficient notice of every question shall be given to the chairman or member expected to reply, and, if necessary, reference to other persons or to documents.

Questions to be put without Argument.

38. Every question shall be put categorically and without argument.

Replies and Objections.

39. No discussion shall ensue upon any reply or refusal to reply to any questions except by permission of the Board.

Mode of Addressing Board.

40. Members shall, on all occasions when at a meeting, address the chairman and speak to each other by their official designation, as chairman or secretary, etc., as the case may be, and, with the exception of the chairman, shall rise in their place and stand while speaking (except when prevented from doing so by bodily infirmity).

Speaker not to be interrupted if in Order.

41. No member shall be interrupted while speaking, except for the purpose of calling him to order, as hereinafter provided for in pursuance of by-law.

Limitation as to Number of Speeches.

42. The mover of an original motion shall have the right of general reply to all observations which have been made in reference to such motion, and to any amendment thereon, as well as the right to speak upon every such amendment. Every member, other than the mover of an original motion, shall have the right to speak once upon such motion, and once upon every amendment moved thereon. No member shall, without the consent of the Board, speak more than once upon any one question, or for longer than ten minutes at any one time, unless when misrepresented or misunderstood, in which case he may be permitted to explain without adding further observations than may be necessary for the purpose of such explanation.

Determination of Questions.

43. (a) All questions shall, if not otherwise decided by law, be determined thus: Upon a question being put the chairman shall call for a show of hands for and against the question, and shall declare whether the question has been affirmed by the majority of members present or otherwise. The decision of the chairman shall be final, unless such decision be immediately challenged and any member rise and demand a division.

(b) Where any member dissents he may request that his name be recorded in the minutes as opposed to the motion, and it shall be so recorded.

Divisions.

44. Upon a division being so called for, the question shall first be put in the affirmative and then in the negative, and the chairman and all members present shall vote by a show of hands, and the names and votes of the chairman and members present shall be recorded in the minutes by the secretary.

Chairman may repeat Question.

45. The chairman shall be at liberty to put any question as often as may be necessary to enable him to form his opinion as to the result of the voting and declare same.

Acts of Disorder.

46. Any member who at any meeting of the Board or any committee commits a breach of any by-law, or who moves or attempts to move any motion or amendment embodying any matter beyond the legal jurisdiction of the Board or committee, or who in any other way raises or attempts to raise any question, or addresses or attempts to address the Board or committee upon any subject which the Board or committee shall have no legal right to entertain or discuss, or uses any language which, according to the common usage of gentlemen, would be disorderly, or makes use of any expression inconsistent with good order and decorum, or who says or does anything calculated to bring the Board or Committee into contempt shall be guilty of an act of disorder.

Ruling of Chairman.

47. The chairman, when called upon to decide a point of order or practice, shall state the rule or precedent applicable to the case, without further argument or comment, and his decision shall be final in that particular case.

(b) If the ruling of the chairman be disagreed with, then the usual parliamentary procedure may be adopted.

Members called to Order more than once.

48. Any member who, having been called to order by the chairman for any infringement of any of the provisions of this by-law, or for any breach of decorum, shall, upon the request of the chairman, withdraw from the Board room for the remainder of the meeting.

Removal from Board Room—Penalty for Continued Breach of Order, etc.

49. In the event of a member declining to withdraw from the Board room on being requested to do so by the chairman, the chairman may order his retirement until the termination of the sitting, and should such member disobey such order he shall be deemed guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one pound.

Disorder.

50. If disorder arise at any meeting, the chairman may adjourn the meeting for a period of fifteen minutes and quit the chair. The Board, on resuming shall, on question being put from the chair, decide without debate whether the business be proceeded with or not.

Appointment of Committee.

51. The Board may at any time appoint one or more members as a committee to inquire into any matter and make a report and recommendation thereon, but no committee shall incur any financial liability or in any way commit the Board to any responsibility whatever without express and specific authority conferred by the by-laws or a resolution of the Board.

Finance and Accounts.

52. All accounts, bills, and vouchers shall be submitted to the finance committee meeting and the ordinary general meeting, and after being certified as correct, shall be paid by cheque. An account shall be opened with such bank as the Board may from time to time direct, and all moneys received from whatever source, with the exception of money paid to the credit of the Board at the Treasury, shall be paid to the credit of the Board's account at such bank. All cheques and orders drawn against the Board's bank or Treasury account must be signed by the chairman and any one member of the Board and in all cases countersigned by the secretary of the Board.

53. All moneys belonging to the Board shall, within 24 hours, after they come into the hands of any officer, servant, or clerk, be paid to the secretary or responsible officer directed by the Board to receive same.

Urgent Work.

54. In the case of emergency the following amounts may be expended by the persons mentioned:—chairman, or one member, or chairman and one member, up to £5; by the engineer up to £10, which expenditure shall, if found correct, be confirmed by the next ordinary meeting.

Unauthorised Expenditure.

55. Every item of expenditure, and every liability incurred by any committee or member of the Board otherwise than under the authority of the Act or of these by-laws, shall be deemed unlawful expenditure and a breach of this by-law by such person.

Common Seal.

56. The common seal of the Board shall be kept in the Board's safe. The common seal shall not be affixed to any deed or other instrument except by order of the Board.

Offences, Omissions or Neglects.

57. Any person guilty of the following offences shall, on conviction thereof, pay a penalty not exceeding ten pounds:—

(a) Damaging or destroying any building, dam, well, tank, pump, windmill, windlass, bucket, rope, piping, troughing, fence, gate, or other property under the control of the Board.

(b) Placing any placard or other document, writing, or printing on or otherwise defacing any house or building abutting or contiguous to a public road, or any wall, fence, gate, or lamp post without the consent of the occupier or owner thereof.

(c) Blasting any rock, stone, or timber in or near any road without the permission of the Board, and not attending to such directions in regard thereto given by such Board.

(d) Placing, stacking, or storing within the limits of any townsite, in the open air, any cases, paper, shavings, crates packed with straw or dangerous or inflammable substances so as to be or likely to become a source of danger through fire.

Preservation of Trees.

58. Any person who shall carelessly, wilfully, or wantonly injure, destroy, carry away, or remove from its place any tree or shrub, or plant standing in any of the roads, enclosures, public places or reserves, or who shall carelessly, wilfully, or wantonly injure, destroy, carry away or remove out of its place, or ride, or drive against any of the tree-guards, fences, or other protection to such trees, shrubs, or plants aforesaid, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than £10, and in addition thereto shall also pay the Board a sum equal to the damage so done.

Prescribing Removal of Verandahs.

59. Any verandah or balcony which obstructs the footway or roadway or is dangerous, and all other obstructions on the footways or roadways, or over the same, shall be removed, when ordered, within such time as shall be notified by the Board, and all expenses incurred in removing same shall be borne by the owner or occupier of such verandah or balcony or other obstructions, whether removed by the Board or otherwise; and any person whatsoever interfering or obstructing any officer or person employed by the Board in carrying out this by-law shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £10.

Encroachment, etc.—Removal of.

60. On the order of the Board the secretary or other appointed officer may direct the removal within 14 days of any building, fence, or obstruction or encroachment in or upon any street, lane, or public place under the control of the Board. In any case where, after service of notice of such removal, any such obstruction or encroachment has not been removed within the specified time, it shall be lawful for the officer appointed by the Board to remove same at the cost and charges of the person so offending, and to proceed against the offender for the breach of this by-law, the penalty for which shall not exceed £20 for every day or part of a day during which such offence shall be committed or continued after the expiry of the notice prescribed therein.

Gates across Roads.

61. No person shall place a gate across any road without having first obtained the permission of the Board, and every such gate must not be less than 12 feet wide and to be well hinged and have proper catches, and must be erected to the satisfaction of the Board and in accordance with section 189 of the Road Districts Act, 1919-1942. An annual fee of 2s. 6d. to be paid on each and every gate.

Lighting.

62. Any unauthorised person who shall light, put out when lighted, or in any other way interfere with any lamp belonging to the Board, or shall damage or destroy such lamp, shall pay, in addition to the value of such damage, if any, on conviction, a sum not exceeding £5.

Water Supply.

63. Any person who shall injure or destroy any well, bore, pipe, tank, or place of storage for water, or any machinery, appliances, or property used in connection therewith, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5, and also shall pay to the Board the sum of such damages.

64. Any person who shall waste, or allow to escape, foul, pollute, or taint any water contained in a bore, pipe, tank, or place of storage, shall be guilty of an offence against this by-law, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.

65. No person shall pollute or cause to be polluted any watercourse, pool, tank, reservoir, or other water within the district.

66. Any person or persons leaving open the lid of any well, or any gate of an enclosure surrounding any dam or other water supply under the control of the Board, shall be guilty of an offence against these by-laws and notwithstanding any remedy for damages so caused, shall be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding £5.

67. Any person who shall remove any water from any well, bore, tank, or other place or storage under the control of the Board, except in the direct watering of stock thereat, or for bona fide camping use, or except with the written consent of the Board and payment thereon of such reasonable fee as may be demanded, shall forfeit and pay, on conviction, a penalty not exceeding £5.

Water-courses.

68. No person shall cause or allow any obstruction in any water course, water-channel, creek, or other water passing through or adjoining or abutting on his property, either by construction of permanent or temporary weirs or dams, or by allowing any accumulation of rubbish, soil, sand, or dead or growing scrub, or timber, and shall at least once in every year so clean and maintain such water-courses, water-channels, or creeks so as to retain their full natural discharging capacity. No person shall alter or deviate in any way the course of any water-course, channel, or creek without first obtaining the permission of the Board in writing.

Sand and Timber.

69. Any person who shall remove any sand or other materials from any lands under the control of the Board without a license shall forfeit and pay, on conviction, a sum not exceeding £5.

Fencing.

70. The Board may require owners of land within any townsite or prescribed area within the district to fence the boundary thereof abutting on any road and prescribe the manner in which the fence is to be erected and maintained, and the description, style, and material of any such fence.

71. The owner of any land abutting on any road in any townsite shall fence all such boundaries so abutting with such description of fence as may be directed by the Board, and shall maintain every such boundary fence erected, or to be erected, in good order. In the event of such fence not being erected or repaired after due notice has been given so to do, the Board may fence or repair such fences and recover the cost of so doing from the owner or owners of the land.

72. The owners of vacant townsite lots within the district shall, when required by the Board, clear such lot of trees, shrub, and undergrowth, wholly or partially, and within such time as may be directed by the Board. Penalty for breach not exceeding £5.

Bathing.

73. No person shall bathe in any river or open public water within the limits or abutting on the boundary of the Road District within the jurisdiction of the Board without suitable bathing costume or clothing. Every person offending against this by-law shall, for every offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.

Depasturing of Cattle.

74. Any person who shall turn loose, or suffer any kind of animal belonging to him or under his control to stray or go about, or to be tethered or depastured in or upon any road, recreation ground, or reserve of the district, shall, on conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

75. The owner of any animal suffering from an infectious or contagious disease shall not permit such animal to be ridden or allowed to stray on any road, unfenced land, or reserve, within the district. Any animal so suffering may be slaughtered and destroyed without notice and at the owner's expense.

76. The owner or driver of any such animal shall be liable, if convicted, of a breach of this by-law to a penalty not exceeding £10, and not less than £2.

Straying Stock.

77. No owner or person having the custody or control of any animal shall cause, permit, or suffer such animal to stray on any road, public reserve, or other public place, or on any unfenced land abutting thereon within the boundary of the district.

78. (a) Any contravention of by-law 77 shall be an offence punishable under these by-laws, if the animal is a bull, boar, or stallion, by a fine not exceeding £20, and not less than £2.

(b) In any other case, by a fine not exceeding £10, and not less than 10s.

79. Provided that this by-law shall not apply in the case of stock whilst in the charge of the town ranger duly appointed by the Board.

Registered Dairy Cows.

80. Registered dairy cows may be placed in charge of the town ranger, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily, on payment to such ranger of such herding fee as is from time to time prescribed by resolution of the Board.

Crossing Places.

81. It shall be lawful for the owner of any land fronting or adjoining any public way requiring access thereto with horse or vehicle from such street to such land across any existing made footpath, kerbing, channel, or gutter, having first had and obtained the consent of the Board, to construct a crossing of such dimensions and materials, and in such form and manner as the regulations of the Board for the time being require, or as may be directed by the secretary, and thereafter keep and maintain the same in good repair. Any person not complying with this by-law shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

Public Pound, etc.

82. Any person who shall break, damage, or destroy any pound, fence, gate, lock, shed, trough, or other premises, the property of the Board, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £10.

83. Any person who shall break, obliterate, deface or damage any table of fees, placard, or other notice required by the Cattle Trespass, Fencing, and Impounding Act, 1882, or any subsequent amendments thereof shall be guilty of an offence against this by-law and shall on conviction be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

84. Any person who shall release or attempt to release any cattle which shall be lawfully seized for the purpose of being impounded, whether such cattle shall be in the pound or on the way or from such pound, shall be guilty of an offence against this by-law, and shall on conviction be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

Poundage, and Driving Charges.

85. The following charges as poundage fees and driving charges with the area under the control of the Board in respect of cattle impounded for trespass upon any road, track, right-of-way or reserves within the area under the control of the Board shall be:—

Maximum charge to one owner, £1.

Heavy Loading on Culverts, etc.

86. The owner of every vehicle which together with its load shall weigh more than seven and one-half tons shall travel the roads, bridges, and culverts within the district at his own risk, and shall be liable to pay for all damage done.

87. The Board may by notice affixed to any bridge or culvert declare the maximum weight of any engine, agricultural, or other machine or vehicle of any kind, and of any load of material which shall be permitted to cross such culvert or bridge, and also the pace at which such engine, machine, or vehicle shall be driven, led or taken over any such bridge or culvert, and any person who shall cross any bridge or culvert in contravention of this by-law, shall, in addition to any liability for damage he may have caused, be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Damaging Roads.

88. No person shall, either wilfully or negligently damage or destroy any road, or portion of a road by means of a horse, team, motor car, or motor wagon or other means, and any person found guilty of such damage or destruction shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £25. Any person who—

(a) cuts or removes, without the consent of the Board, timber, earth, stone, or other material from a road or reserve; or

(b) erects, without the consent of the Board upon a road so as to encroach thereon, or

(c) draws, without the consent aforesaid, across the waterside of a road, or across a drain, except over a properly constructed approach or culvert, a dray or other wheeled vehicle; or

(d) draws upon any road, timber, stone, or other material otherwise than on a wheeled vehicle, or suffers such material when carried principally or in part upon a wheeled vehicle to drag or trail upon a road or draws upon a road a whim or timber carriage any portion of which or any portion of chains attached thereto or any portion of other attachments trails or drags upon a road, shall be deemed guilty of an offence against these by-laws and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5 for every such offence.

89. Any person taking any plough, cultivator, or other implement over or along any road and thereby damaging or marking such road in such a manner which in the opinion of the Board may indirectly cause ultimate damage to the road, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

90. Any person who draws upon any road any vehicle the wheel or wheels of which are locked, unless there is placed at the bottom of such wheel some sufficient protection to prevent damage to such road, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

91. No person shall drive any stock along any road vested in or under the control of the Board when such road is in such a condition as the result of weather that the passing of any stock thereon would cause damage or injury to such road. Any person committing a breach of this by-law shall be guilty of an offence and liable upon conviction to a penalty not exceeding £20.

To protect Bridges from Fire.

92. Any person who shall light a fire (except by the order of the Board), or who shall place any rushes or other inflammable substance under, near, or against any bridge in the district, for the purpose of making a camp or sleeping place, or for any other purpose, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than £1, and not exceeding £20.

Prevention of Trees falling across Road.

93. No person shall make or leave a fire near any road or reserve without taking proper precaution against such fire spreading.

94. No person shall rimbark or set fire to any standing tree upon or near to any road or track.

Park Lands, Reserves, and Recreation Grounds.

95. All park lands and recreation grounds shall be open to the public daily for recreation purposes, excepting as otherwise provided for in these by-laws. The Board shall have power to grant exclusive right to use and occupy any park lands, recreation grounds, or reserves placed under its control within the district for holding public sports or amusements to any responsible person or persons or club, and any person or persons obtaining such right shall be responsible for the proper care of all fences, buildings, or trees, or other improvements upon or enclosing such park lands, recreation grounds and reserves, and shall pay the Board a fee to be fixed for admission on such occasion, and comply with the provisions of these by-laws and any regulations passed by resolution of the Board under which such exclusive rights are granted.

96. No horses, cattle, or vehicles shall be allowed on any park lands, or recreation grounds without the written permission of the Board.

97. All persons using or being upon any park lands, recreation grounds, or reserves shall at all times conduct themselves in a becoming manner; and any person creating any disturbance or annoyance to the public shall be liable to be expelled from such lands by any police officer or officer of the Board.

98. The Board may, in its discretion, prohibit any games or gymnastics from being played or carried on by any person or persons upon any park lands, recreation grounds, or reserves on a Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday.

99. No person shall offer for sale on any reserve any provisions, refreshments, or other goods of any kind, nor carry on any games, or boxing, or other similar shows, nor use any firearms, except with the express sanction of the Board, and payment of such fee as may be demanded.

100. The Board, or any person duly authorised, may make charges for admission to any reserve or defined portion thereof, but such charges shall not exceed 1s. for adults and sixpence (6d.) for children under fifteen years of age, with free entry for children (accompanied) under five years of age, and for horses and vehicle or motor cars, 1s.

101. Such person to whom the use of any reserve is given for picnic sports, races, or other use shall be held responsible for the immediate removal of all rubbish brought thereon on the occasion of such use, and a deposit not exceeding £5 shall be paid as a guarantee for the due removal of such rubbish. On the removal of such rubbish, to the satisfaction of the Board, the deposit shall be returned.

102. No person shall damage or injure any tree, shrub or plant in any park lands, recreation grounds, or reserves. Any person offending against this by-law shall forfeit and pay, on conviction, a penalty not exceeding £10 for every such offence.

Stalls, Hawkers, etc.

103. No person, unless he be a holder of a stall license issued by the Board and shall have paid the prescribed fee therefor, shall place or erect within the district any movable, temporarily fixed, or fixed stall, including any vehicle used or intended to be used as a stall for the sale of any meat, game, poultry, fruit, vegetables, food or any articles of merchandise, in or near any street or way, or in or on any footpath, right-of-way, or reserve. The Board reserves the right to allocate the position to be occupied by any such stall or stand. The fees for a stall or stand shall be as prescribed in Schedule A hereto. License must be produced on demand to any police officer or officer of the Board.

104. No person shall hawk, peddle, or cry foodstuffs or wares of any description within the district unless he shall be the holder of a Hawker's License issued by the Board. Provided that nothing in these by-laws shall be read to apply to any recognised storekeeper within the district who may be fulfilling by delivery bona fide orders for the goods of his business or store, nor to any ratepayer of the district who may be disposing of the bona fide primary products of his or her property situate within the district. Licenses must be produced on demand to any police officer or officer of the Board. The fees for a Hawker's License shall be as prescribed in Schedule A hereto.

105. Neither stall licenses nor hawkers' licenses are in any way transferable, either by way of loan, gift, sale or assignment.

Poisonous Plants.

106. (1) The owner or occupier of land within the district of the Albany Road Board, at his own expense, shall keep the roads abutting on every portion of land owned or occupied by him clear of poisonous plants, after such have been cleared of poisonous plants by the Road Board.

(2) All poisonous plants removed by such clearing by any owner or occupier as aforesaid shall be removed from every such road and destroyed by such owner or occupier at his own expense.

(3) Where land is owned or occupied by different owners or occupiers on each side of a road, the centre of the roadway shall be taken as the road for the purpose of this by-law, paragraph (1).

(4) Any owner or occupier infringing or failing to comply with any of the above by-laws shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding £20.

Building By-laws.

107. (1) No owner or builder within the meaning of these by-laws shall erect any building upon any land in any townsite within the district, unless he first submits to the Board a copy of the plans and specifications of the building to be erected, and setting out clearly the number of buildings proposed to be built on each particular townsite lot or parcel of land, the measurements, materials of construction, and use for which the buildings is intended.

(2) No building shall be commenced unless a copy of the plans and specifications shall have been laid before and approved by the Board, and such copy of the plans and specifications shall receive approval by endorsement set thereto by the hands of the chairman and secretary.

(3) The Board may reject any plans or specifications which have not, by reason of inflammable material proposed to be used or other reason, proper regard for the safety of persons or other buildings in the event of fire.

(4) The Board may reject any plans or specifications which, in the opinion of the Board, do not bear proper consideration of size or design of construction or architecture to the adjacent buildings.

(5) No builder or owner shall open up any road or footpath which by reason of building operations is found necessary, unless he first obtains a permit from the Board, and such openings shall be covered or railed and provided with lights to ensure safety to the general public using the road or footpath.

(6) Every builder or owner shall, within reasonable time, from the completion of any building, fill in and repair to the satisfaction of the Board's authorised inspecting officer all openings on any road or footpath which, by reason of building operations, it has been found necessary to open.

(7) No verandah shall be erected over any footpath unless it is eight feet in height from the footpath, and, if supporting posts be used, these shall be placed eleven feet from the building line to the outside of the posts, and as close to the kerbing as the Board may direct, to conform with the footpath width of eleven feet.

(8) Any person who does any act contrary to, or neglects or omits to do any act required to be done within the meaning of these by-laws, shall incur a penalty not exceeding twenty-five pounds, and a further penalty of not more than twenty shillings for each day the offence continues.

Appointment of Employees.

108. (1) The secretary or foreman of the Albany Road Board is hereby authorised, acting for and on behalf of the Board, to employ any casual or weekly servant required by the Board in connection with any works, but shall report the fact of the employment of any such servant to the Board at its meeting next following such employment, and the Board shall be deemed to have ratified the employment of any such servant, and such employment may be continued unless at such meeting the Board by resolution directs that the employment of the servant shall be discontinued.

(2) The authority given by this by-law shall be supplementary to and shall not derogate from the power of the chairman of the Board under section 211 (3) of the Road District Act, 1919-42.

Penalties.

109. Where any person by these by-laws, or any of them, is required to do or perform any act, and such act is not done or remains undone or unperformed, it shall be lawful for the Board to perform the same and charge the cost and expenses against such person, and the amount thereof may be recovered summarily.

110. Every person who does, permits, or suffers any act, matter, or thing contrary to any of these by-laws, or commits or permits any breach or neglect thereof, shall be deemed guilty of an offence against these by-laws, and, where not otherwise provided, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20 for every such offence.

111. All penalties or other sums recovered under provisions of these by-laws shall, unless otherwise provided, be paid to the Board, and shall become the property of and form part of the ordinary income of the Board, except so much as may be paid to any informer.

112. All by-laws which obtained in this district previous to this date are hereby repealed.

Passed and adopted by resolution of the Albany Road Board on the 13th day of April, 1945.
