PRICES CONTROL ACT, 1948-1950.

Prices Control Order No. 483.

Copper Bars, Blocks, Ingots and Pigs.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the Prices Control Regulations, 1949, I, Constantin Paul Mathea, Prices Control Commissioner, hereby make the following Order:—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as Prices Control Order No. 483.

Revocation.

2. Prices Control Order No. 289 as amended by Prices Control Order No. 341 is hereby revoked.

Definition.

3. In this Order, unless the contrary intention appears—

"prevailing margin" means, in relation to copper bars, blocks, ingots and pigs, the margin for any particular quality, quantity, or shape, or in respect of any particular term or condition of sale that existed between the price of £140 per ton and the particular vendor's selling price on 31st December, 1948, of copper bars, blocks, ingots and pigs of that particular quality, quantity or shape, or sold under that particular term or condition of sale.

Maximum Prices.

4. I fix and declare the maximum price at which copper bars, blocks, ingots and pigs may be sold by any person to be £260 per ton, plus the prevailing margin where that person's selling price on 31st December, 1948, was greater than £140 per ton or minus the prevailing margin where that person's selling price on the aforesaid date was less than £140 per ton, as the case may be.

Variation of Maximum Prices by Notice.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Order, I declare the maximum price at which copper bars, blocks, ingots and pigs specified in a notice in pursuance of this paragraph may be sold by any person to whom such notice is given to be such price as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.

Dated at Perth this 20th day of June, 1951.

C. P. MATHEA,
Prices Control Commissioner.

PRICES CONTROL ACT, 1948-1950.

Prices Control Order No. 484.

Scrap Copper.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the Prices Control Regulations, 1949, I, Constantin Paul Mathea, Prices Control Commissioner, hereby make the following Order:—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as Prices Control Order No. 484.

Revocation.

2. Prices Control Order No. 364 is hereby revoked.

Maximum Price.

3. I fix and declare the maximum price at which scrap copper may be sold by any person to be £250 per ton.

Variation of Maximum Prices by Notice.

4. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Order, I declare the maximum price at which scrap copper specified in a notice in pursuance of this paragraph may be sold by any person to whom such notice is given to be such price as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.

Dated at Perth this 20th day of June, 1951.

C. P. MATHEA,
Prices Control Commissioner.

PRICES CONTROL ACT, 1948-1950.

Prices Control Order No. 485.

Tin.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the Prices Control Regulations, 1949, I, Constantin Paul Mathea, Prices Control Commissioner, hereby make the following Order:—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as Prices Control Order No. 485.

Revocation.

2. Prices Control Order No. 287 as amended by Prices Control Order No. 340 is hereby revoked.

Definition.

3. In this Order, unless the contrary intention appears—

“Prevailing margin” means, with regard to tin metal, the margin for any particular quality, quantity or shape or in respect of any particular term or condition of sale that existed between the price of £710 per ton and the particular vendor’s selling price on the 25th day of August, 1950, of tin metal of that particular quality, quantity or shape or sold under that particular term or condition of sale;

“tin” means virgin tin metal.

Maximum Prices.

4. I hereby fix the maximum price at which tin may be sold by any person to be £1,400 per ton, plus the prevailing margin where that person’s selling price on the 25th day of August, 1950, was greater than £710 per ton or minus the prevailing margin where that person’s selling price on the aforesaid date was less than £710 per ton as the case may be.

Variation of Maximum Prices by Notice.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Order, I declare the maximum price at which tin specified in a notice given in pursuance of this paragraph may be sold by any person to whom such notice is given to be such price as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.

Dated at Perth this 20th day of June, 1951.

C. P. MATHEA,
Prices Control Commissioner.

PRICES CONTROL ACT, 1948-1950.

Prices Control Order No. 486.

Cement Tiles, Cement Ridgecaps, Cement Shell Ends, Cement Apex Pieces and the Fixing or Construction therefrom of Roofs for Buildings.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the Prices Control Regulations, 1949, I, Constantin Paul Mathea, Prices Control Commissioner, hereby make the following Order:—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as Prices Control Order No. 486.

Definition.

2. In this Order “Perth Metropolitan Area” means all that area comprised within a radius of 20 miles from the General Post Office at Perth.

Maximum Prices—Cement Tiles, Cement Ridgecaps, Cement Shell Ends, Cement Apex Pieces.

3. I fix and declare the maximum price at which any of the types or descriptions of cement tiles, cement ridgecaps, cement shell ends and cement apex pieces specified in the First Column of the First Schedule to this Order, and of the colours specified in the Second Column of that Schedule may be sold by any person to be the price set out in the Third Column of the schedule opposite to each such type or description and colour.

Maximum Rates—Supply of Cement Tiles, Cement Ridgecaps, Cement Shell Ends and Cement Apex Pieces and the Fixing or Construction therefrom of Roofs.

4. I fix and declare the maximum rate at which any person may supply the service of supplying cement tiles, cement ridgecaps, cement shell ends and cement apex pieces of any of the colours specified in the First Column of the Second Schedule to this Order and from such cement tiles, cement ridgecaps, cement shell ends and cement apex pieces, fixing or constructing roofs for buildings upon any building site situated within the Perth Metropolitan Area to be the rate specified in the Second Column of such Schedule opposite such colour set out in the First Column of that Schedule.

Variation of Maximum Prices or Rates by Notice.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Order, wherein any notice in writing to any person in pursuance of this paragraph a maximum price is fixed in relation to the sale of cement tiles, cement ridges, cement shell ends and cement apex pieces or a maximum rate is fixed for the service of supplying cement tiles, cement ridges, cement shell ends and cement apex pieces and from such cement tiles, cement ridges, cement shell ends and cement apex pieces the fixing or construction of roofs for buildings, I declare the maximum price at which such specified goods may be sold or the maximum rate at which such specified service may be supplied, to be such price or rate as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.

PRICES CONTROL ACT, 1948-1950.

Prices Control Order No. 487.

Meat and Offal Meat.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the Prices Control Regulations, 1949, I, Constantin Paul Mathea, Prices Control Commissioner, hereby make the following Order:—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as Prices Control Order No. 487.

Revocation.

2. Prices Control Order No. 410, as amended by Prices Control Order No. 438, is hereby revoked.

Definitions and Interpretations.

3. In this Order, unless the contrary intention appears—

“Perth Metropolitan Area” means all that area comprised within a radius of twenty-five miles from the General Post Office, Perth;

“South-West Land Division” means the South-West Land Division as defined in the Land Act, 1933-1938, but not including the Perth Metropolitan Area, as defined in this paragraph;

“Kalgoorlie-Boulder-Coolgardie Area” means all that area comprised within a radius of twenty-five miles from the principal post office at Kalgoorlie;

“seven days’ credit,” in relation to any sale of meat by retail, means any sale within any period of seven days where payment for all meat sold within that period is not made within that period.

General.

4. In this Order, reference to the weight of any meat shall be construed as a reference to the dressed weight of that meat.

5. For the purposes of this Order, if a person operates more than one place of business, he shall, in respect of each place of business, be deemed a separate seller.

6. Every person who sells by wholesale any meat or offal meat for which a maximum price is fixed by or under the provisions of this Order, shall deliver with that meat or offal meat an invoice or docket containing the following particulars:—

- His name and place of business.
- The name and address of the purchaser of that meat, or offal meat.
- The date of the sale of that meat, or offal meat.
- The class of that meat or offal meat described according to the classes of meat or offal meat specified in the Schedule to this Order, and whether any such meat is frozen or other than frozen.
- The number in each lot of those classes of meat or offal meat sold.
- In the case of any class of meat or offal meat for which a maximum price is expressed in this Order or the Schedules thereto to be fixed by reference to weight—the total weight of each lot of those classes of meat or offal meat sold.
- The price per lb., per dozen, or per unit, as the case may be, at which each lot of those classes of meat or offal meat is sold.

7. Every person who sells by retail any meat for which a maximum price is fixed by or under the provisions of this Order and in relation to the sale of which meat, in pursuance of subparagraph (i) or (ii) of the proviso to paragraph 11 of this Order—

- the purchaser is given credit; or
- where a delivery charge is made by the seller by retail, shall deliver with that meat an invoice or docket containing the following particulars:—

- His name and place of business.
- The name of the purchaser of that meat.
- The date of the sale of that meat.
- The cut or class of meat described according to the cuts or classes of meat specified in the Schedules to this Order.
- In the case of any cut or class of meat for which a maximum price is expressed in this Order or the Schedules thereto to be fixed by reference to weight—the total weight of each cut or class of meat sold.
- The price per lb. or per unit, as the case may be, at which each lot of those cuts or classes of meat is sold.
- The total price of each cut or class of meat sold.

Sales by Wholesale.

8. (1) Subject to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, I fix and declare the maximum price at which the classes of meat or offal meat specified in the First and Second Schedules to this Order may be sold by wholesale to be the prices specified in those Schedules.

(2) I fix and declare the maximum price at which meat for which a delivered price is fixed for sales by wholesale may be sold by wholesale other than at a delivered price, to be such delivered price less an amount calculated at the rate of $\frac{1}{4}$ d. per lb. for every 25 miles or part thereof by which the purchaser's premises are distant from the seller's premises.

Portions of a Carcass or Side.

9. Where any class of meat, a maximum price for the sale of which is fixed by paragraph 8 of this Order, is sold by wholesale in the form of portions or cuts of a carcass or side, the maximum price at which any portion or cut of that carcass or side may be sold shall be such amount that the maximum price of that portion together with the portion of the carcass or side previously sold, shall equal the maximum price fixed for the sale of the whole carcass or side, as the case may be.

Other Sales by Wholesale.

10. I declare that where a person (in this paragraph referred to as “the agent”) purchases live-stock as agent, or purported agent, for another person (in this paragraph referred to as “the principal”) and processes or treats the livestock and delivers meat resulting from the processing or treatment to the principal, the carrying out of the agency (or purported agency) and the performance of the other services by the agent shall, for the purpose of the Regulations and this Order, be deemed to be a sale by wholesale of the meat so delivered by the agent to the principal at a price equal to the sum of the amounts paid or payable by the principal to the agent in respect of the agency and services (including the price paid by the agent for the live-stock purchased by him).

Sales by Retail.

11. I fix and declare the maximum price at which meat of the classes or cuts specified in the first column of the Third Schedule to this Order may be sold by retail to be—

- in respect of sales in the Perth Metropolitan Area, the prices specified in the second column of such Schedule;
- in respect of sales in the South-West Land Division, the prices specified in the third column of such Schedule;
- in respect of sales in the Kalgoorlie-Boulder-Coolgardie Area, the prices specified in the fourth column of such Schedule.

Provided that the prices so specified shall—

- in relation to any sale other than in the Perth Metropolitan Area, where delivery is made to a purchaser's premises which are at a distance greater than one mile from the seller's premises, and are outside the boundary of any town or city; or

(ii) in relation to any sale in the Kalgoorlie-Boulder-Coolgardie Area, and the South-West Land Division, including the Perth Metropolitan Area, where more than seven days' credit is given to the purchaser by the seller by retail—be subject in each case to a charge of one half-penny per pound: Provided also that any such charge, in relation to delivery to a purchaser's premises is separately recorded on a docket delivered in relation to that meat.

Offal Meats—Sales by Retail.

12. I fix and declare the maximum price at which any class of offal meat specified in the Fourth Schedule to this Order may be sold by retail to be the price specified for such class of meat in that Schedule.

Variation of Maximum Prices by Notice.

13. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Order, I declare the maximum price at which meat or offal meat of any class specified in a notice in pursuance of this paragraph may be sold by any person to whom such notice is given to be such price as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.

Exhibition of Price List.

14. (1) Every trader who sells or has for sale by retail any meat or offal meat, shall exhibit in a prominent place in his shop, or if he has more than one shop, in each of his shops, a notice setting forth the maximum price fixed from time to time by or under the provisions of this or any subsequent Order for sale by him of any class or cut or meat or offal meat in the form approved by the Commissioner. I hereby approve the following form of such notice, that is to say—a notice not less than 18 inches long and not less than 12 inches wide, having printed thereon in clear printer's type all the classes or cuts of meat or offal meat which that trader sells or has for sale, and the maximum prices fixed by or under this Order in relation thereto.

(2) For the purpose of the last preceding subparagraph, the amount added for delivery in pursuance of the foregoing provisions of this Order shall not be deemed to be part of the maximum price, but where any charge in relation to delivery or credit is permitted in respect of the sale of meat by any person under those provisions, the following shall be endorsed in clear printer's type at the foot of the notice referred to in the last preceding subparagraph:—

Where delivery is made to a purchaser's premises outside this town (or city), which are distant more than one mile from these premises . . . and where applicable—

Where credit is given for more than seven days, the prices referred to in this list are subject to an addition of one half-penny per lb. in respect of each service.

Women's, Maids' and Girls' Hosiery.
Sales, other than by Wholesale or Retail.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the Prices Control Regulations, 1949, I, Constantin Paul Mathea, Prices Control Commissioner, hereby make the following Order:—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as Prices Control Order No. 488.

Definitions and Interpretations.

2. In this Order, unless the contrary intention appears—

“prevailing price” means, in relation to the sale other than by wholesale or retail by any person of any women's, maids' or girls' hosiery, the price at which that person sold such goods on the 8th day of June, 1951, upon substantially the same terms and conditions, or if no such sale was made by that person on that date upon substantially the same terms and conditions, then the last preceding date upon which such sale was made by that person upon substantially the same terms and conditions;

“cost” means, in relation to the sale other than by wholesale or retail by any person of any women's, maids' or girls' hosiery, the sum of money or other valuable consideration paid or furnished or agreed to be paid or furnished for or in respect of those goods by that person.

Maximum Prices for Goods of a kind previously sold.

3. Notwithstanding the provision of any Order issued prior to this Order, I fix and declare the maximum price at which any women's, maids' or girls' hosiery may be sold by any person other than by wholesale or by retail to be the prevailing price of such goods.

Maximum Prices for Goods of a kind not previously sold.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of any Order issued prior to this Order, I fix and declare the maximum price other than by wholesale or by retail at which any person who did not on or before the 8th day of June, 1951, sell any women's, maids' or girls' hosiery, to be the cost of the goods to that person: Provided that upon application by any person the maximum price at which those goods may be sold by that person shall be such price as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.

Variation of Maximum Prices by Notice.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Order, I declare the maximum price at which any women's, maids' or girls' hosiery specified in a notice in pursuance of this paragraph may be sold other than by wholesale or by retail by any person to whom such notice is given, to be such price as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.
