referred to in subclause (a) above and the amount of two shillings and sixpence (2s. 6d.) or the sum of one shilling (1s.) whichever is the smaller.

Where the distance hereinbefore referred to exceeds twenty (20) miles all relevant provisions of this subclause shall apply except that "three shillings" shall be substituted for "two shillings and sixpence" wherever occurring.

Where such previous service would only entitle the employee to three months' long service leave on full pay on the basis of 10 years' continuous service then the first 18 months of such previous service shall not be counted.

(d) Continuous service shall not include the period during which an employee is on long service leave or any period exceeding two weeks an employee is absent on leave without pay or any service an employee may have had before reaching the age of 18 years.

(e) An employee who resigned or is dismissed shall not be entitled to long service leave or payment for long service leave other than the leave that had actually accrued to him prior to the date on which he resigned or the date of the offence for which he was dismissed.

(f) Any public holidays occurring during the period in which an employee is on long service leave will be treated as part of the long service leave, and extra days in lieu thereof shall not be granted.

(g) Long service leave shall be taken as it falls due at the convenience of the Department, but the employer may approve the accumulation of long service leave not exceeding six months in any particular case.

(h) A lump sum payment for long service leave accrued in accordance with this clause and for pro rata long service leave shall be made in the following cases:—

(i) The calculation of the amounts due for long service leave accrued and for pro rata long service leave shall be made at the rate of salary of an employee at the time of retirement, resignation or death, whichever applies. No such payment shall exceed the equivalent of 12 months' salary.

26.—Sick Leave.

(a) This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(b) Workers employed for a continuous period of less than three years may be granted sick leave as follows:—

- (ii) where continuous service exceeds six months but does not exceed 18 months: Ten working days on full pay less any leave granted under subparagraph (i);
- (iii) where continuous service exceeds 18 months but is less than three years: Ten working days on full pay and ten working days on half pay less any leave granted under subparagraphs (i) and (ii).

(c) Workers employed for a continuous period of not less than three years may be granted sick leave on full pay on the basis of a cumulative credit of 15 working days for the first three years of service and 10 working days for each year of service after the expiration of the first three years provided—

- (i) that the maximum credit allowable at the 1st July, 1951, and for the first year thereafter shall be 15 working days;
- (ii) that the maximum period of sick leave allowable with pay in respect of any continuous absence shall not exceed six months.

(d) Where a worker has been granted six months continuous sick leave with pay he shall not be entitled to receive further sick leave with pay until he has completed a period of duty of not less than four weeks.

(e) Debits for sick leave granted shall include any public holidays occurring during the period of leave, provided that where duty is resumed on a day immediately succeeding a public holiday the leave shall be regarded as expiring on the working day preceding such holiday.

(f) Any period during which a worker is absent on leave without pay shall not be included as part of such worker's period of service for the purposes of this clause.

(g) A worker who is absent on approved annual leave, long service leave, or leave without pay shall not be eligible for leave under this clause during the currency of such approved leave; provided that if a worker with over three years' continuous service falls sick while on annual leave and produces at the time, satisfactory medical evidence that he is unable to leave the house, he may with the approval of the Permanent Head, be granted at a time convenient to the Department additional leave equivalent to the period of sickness falling within the scheduled period of annual leave: Provided that the period of sickness is at least one week.

(h) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer or his representative, of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three consecutive working days or more. No payment will be made for any absence due to the worker's own fault, neglect or misconduct.

(i) Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this clause, conditions of sick leave applicable immediately prior to the issue of this Award shall continue until 1st July, 1951, when the conditions prescribed in subclauses (a) to (h) inclusive of this clause, shall commence to operate.

27.—Term.
