"Casual worker" means a worker whose employment is terminated through no fault of his own before the expiration of one (1) week.

7.—Hours.

(a) Day Workers.

(i) Subject to clause 8 hereof, forty (40) hours shall constitute a week's work to be worked in five (5) days of eight (8) hours per day, Monday to Friday inclusive, between the hours of 7 a.m. and 5.30 p.m.

(ii) Lunch interval shall not exceed one (1) hour.

8.—Overtime.

(i) Except as hereafter mentioned, all work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in any one (1) day, Monday to Friday inclusive, and all work performed on Saturday, shall be paid for at the rate of time and one-half for the first four (4) hours and double time thereafter.

(ii) Except as hereafter mentioned, work performed on Sundays or the holidays prescribed in clause 14 (a) shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(iii) All work performed on any of the days mentioned in clause 14 (a) or on Sundays in excess of the hours prescribed in clause 7 (b) shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(iv) Overtime on shift work shall be based on the rate payable for shift work in accordance with clause 9. This shall not apply to the week-end penalty rates prescribed in clause 10.

(c) In the calculation of overtime rates each day shall stand alone.

(d) When a worker is recalled to work after leaving the job, he shall be paid for at least two (2) hours at overtime rates.

(e) When a worker is required for duty during any meal time whereby his meal time is postponed for more than one (1) hour, he shall be paid at overtime rates until he gets his meal.

(f) A worker shall not be compelled to work for more than six (6) hours without a break for a meal.

(g) These overtime rates shall not apply to excess time worked due to private arrangement between the workers themselves or owing to a relieving man failing to come on duty at the proper time, or where such time is worked to effect the periodical rotation of shifts. The time for which any worker may be paid at ordinary rates instead of overtime due to a relieving man failing to come on duty at the proper time shall not exceed two (2) hours, after the expiration of which overtime rates shall apply for the whole of the extra time worked.

(h) (i) The employer may require any worker to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates and such worker shall work overtime in accordance with such requirement.

(ii) No organisation party to this Award, or worker or workers covered by this Award, shall, in any way, whether directly or indirectly, be a party to or concerned in any ban, limitation or restriction upon the working of overtime in accordance with the requirements of this subclause.

9.—Shift Work.

(a) Workers employed on other than day shift shall be paid five per cent. (5%) for afternoon shift and seven and a half per cent. (7½%) for night shift in excess of the rates prescribed in clause 23 hereof.

10.—Week-end Penalty Rates.

(a) All work performed by shift workers during ordinary hours on Saturday shall be paid for at the rate of time and a quarter, and on Sunday at the rate of time and one-half.

(b) The rates prescribed in subclause (a) hereof shall be paid in lieu of the shift allowances prescribed in clause 9 of this Award.

11.—Maximum Rate.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Award to the contrary, no time of duty whatsoever shall be required to be paid for at more than double time rate.

12.—Meal Allowance.

When a worker, without being notified on the previous day, is required to continue working after the usual knock-off time for more than two (2) hours, or (in the case of a day worker or worker on day shift) after 6 p.m., whichever is the later, he shall be provided with any meal required or shall be paid three (3) shillings in lieu thereof. 13.—Higher Duties.

A worker engaged for more than half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of one (1) day or shift on duties carrying a higher rate than his ordinary classification shall be paid the higher rate for such day or shift. (b) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under this Award, the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work be done, ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

(c) Except as hereinafter provided, a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with such employer.

(d) Seven-day shift workers, that is, shift workers who are rostered to work regularly on Sundays and holidays, shall be allowed one (1) week's leave in addition to the leave prescribed in subclause (c) hereof. Where a worker with twelve (12) months' continuous service is engaged for part of a qualifying twelve-monthly period as a seven-day shift worker, he shall be entitled to have the period of two (2) consecutive weeks' annual leave prescribed in subclause (c) hereof increased by one-twelfth ($\frac{1}{12}$ th) of a week for each completed month he is continuously engaged as aforesaid.

(e) If any prescribed holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which, in the case of that worker, would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to that period one (1) day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(f) If after one (1) months' continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth ($\frac{1}{6}$ th) of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(g) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work, except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay, or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Award, shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(h) In the event of a worker being employed by the employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled, subject to subclause (f) of this clause, to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers, he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

(i) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct or who illegally severs his contract of service, shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

(j) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

15.—Absence through Sickness.

(a) A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of personal ill-health for one-twelfth (1/12th) of a week for each completed month of service: Provided that payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to one (1) week in each calendar year. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(b) A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment, or for any accident, wherever sustained, arising out of his own wilful default, or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

(c) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

16.—Contract of Service.

(a) Except in the case of casual workers, the contract of service shall be by the week, and shall be terminable by one (1) week's notice given on either side on any day. If the employer or a worker fails to give the required notice, one (1) week's wages shall be paid or forfeited.

(b) This clause does not affect the right to dismiss for misconduct.

17.—Breakdowns.

The employer shall be entitled to deduct payment for any day or portion of a day upon which a worker cannot be usefully employed because of any strike by the Union or unions affiliated with it, or by any other association or union, or through the breakdown of the employer's machinery, or any stoppage of work by any cause which the employer cannot reasonably prevent.

18.—Time and Wages Record.

The wages book (or wages sheets) of the employer shall be open for inspection by the secretary, or an accredited representative of the Union, at the office of the Company during the usual office hours not more than once in any one (1) week upon reasonable notice being given of the desire to inspect same.

19.—Representative Interviewing Workers.

In the case of a disagreement existing or anticipated concerning any of the provisions of this Award, an accredited representative of the Union shall be permitted to interview the workers during the recognised meal hour and at the change of shift, on the business premises of the employer, but this permission shall not be exercised without the consent of the employer more than once in any one (1) week.

20.—Board of Reference.

The Court hereby appoints for the purpose of this Award a Board of Reference. Such Board shall consist of a chairman and two other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties.

There are assigned to such Board in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to this Award, the functions of—

- (a) adjusting any matters of difference which may arise from time to time, except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of the Award or any of them;
- (b) deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to such Board from time to time.

An appeal shall lie from any decision of such Board in the manner and subject to the conditions prescribed in the regulations to the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, which, for the purpose, are embodied in this Award.

21.—Junior Workers' Certificate.

Junior workers, upon being engaged, shall, if required, furnish the employer with a certificate containing the following particulars:—

- (1) Name in full.
- (2) Age and date of birth.

No worker shall have any claim upon an employer for additional pay in the event of the age of the worker being wrongly stated on the certificate. If any worker shall wilfully misstate his age in the above certificate, he alone shall be guilty of a breach of this Award.

(d) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay under the preceding provisions shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to holidays.

15.—Holidays.

(a) The following days, or the days observed in lieu thereof, shall, subject to the proviso hereto, be allowed as holidays without deduction of pay, namely, New Year's Day, Anniversary Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, State Foundation Day, Christmas Day and Boxing Day: Provided that work performed on those days shall be paid for at the rate of ordinary time in addition to the weekly or casual wage.

(b) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under this Award, the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work be done ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

16.—Annual Leave.

(a) Except as hereinafter provided, a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with such employer.

(b) If any Award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(c) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(d) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work, except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay, or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Award, shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(e) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled, subject to subclause (c) of this clause, to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

(f) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct or who illegally severs his contract of service shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

(g) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

No worker shall have any claim upon an employer for additional pay in the event of the age or length of service of the worker being wrongly stated either on the certificate or verbally to the employer. If any junior worker shall mis-state his age, either verbally to the employer or in the certificate, he alone shall be guilty of a breach of this Award.

19.—Aged and Infirm Workers.

(a) Any worker who by reason of old age or infirmity is unable to earn the minimum wage may be paid such lesser wage as may from time to time be agreed upon in writing between the Union and the employer.

(b) In the event of no agreement being arrived at, the matter may be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.

(c) After application has been made to the Board, and pending the Board's decision, the worker shall be entitled to work for the employer at the proposed lesser rate.

20.—Posting of Award.

The employer shall, upon request of the Union, post a copy of this Award in a conspicuous place in the factory, where it is easily accessible to the workers.

21.—Board of Reference.

The Court may appoint for the purpose of this Award a Board or Boards of Reference. Each such Board shall consist of a chairman and two other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties as prescribed by regulations.

There are assigned to each such Board in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to this Award, the functions of—

(a) adjusting any matters of difference which may arise from time to time, except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of the Award or any of them;

(b) deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to such Board from time to time.

An appeal shall lie from any decision of such Board in the manner and subject to the conditions prescribed in the regulations to the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, which for the purpose are embodied in this Award.

22.—No Reduction.

Nothing herein contained shall entitle an employer to reduce the wages of any worker who at the date of this Award was being paid a higher rate of wage than the minimum prescribed for his or her class of work.

23.—Protective Clothing.

Where necessary for the performance of their duties, workers shall be provided with suitable rubber boots, goggles, masks, gloves or adequate substitutes.

I certify, pursuant to section 65 of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, that the foregoing is a copy of the Agreement arrived at between the parties mentioned above.

Provided that such payment need not be made to workers who can reasonably return home for a meal.

14.—Holidays and Annual Leave.

(b) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under this Award the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work be done ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

(c) Except as hereinafter provided, a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with such employer.

(d) If any prescribed holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day there shall be added to that period one (1) day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(e) If after one (1) month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period, a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth ($\frac{1}{6}$ th) of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(f) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Award shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(g) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled, subject to subclause (e) of this clause, to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

(h) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct or who illegally severs his contract of service shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

(b) Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred.

(c) This clause shall not apply when the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(e) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of subclause (e) hereof a worker who in any calendar year has already been allowed paid sick leave shall not be entitled to payment for any further absence unless he produces to the employer a medical certificate stating that he was unable to attend for duty on account of personal ill-health.

(g) Sick Leave shall accumulate from year to year so that any balance of the period specified in subclause (a) of this clause which has not been allowed in any year to any worker by his employer as paid sick leave may be claimed by the worker and, subject to the conditions hereinbefore prescribed, shall be allowed by his employer in any subsequent year without diminution of the sick leave prescribed in respect of that year. Provided that sick leave which accumulates pursuant to this subclause shall be available to the worker for a period of two (2) years but no longer from the end of the year in which it accrues.

(h) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Award shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to payment under this clause.

16.—Under-rate Workers.

(a) Any worker who by reason of old age or infirmity is unable to earn the minimum wage may be paid such lesser wage as may from time to time be agreed upon in writing between the union and the employer.

(b) In the event of no agreement being arrived at the matter may be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.

(c) After application has been made to the Board and pending the Board's decision the worker shall be entitled to work for the employer at the proposed lesser rate.

17.—Engagement.

(a) Except for casual workers, one (1) week's notice on either side shall be necessary to terminate the engagement: Provided that an employer may at any time dismiss a worker for refusal or neglect to obey orders, for misconduct, or if, after receiving one week's notice, he does not carry out his duties in the same manner as he did prior to such notice.

(b) Casual workers shall be paid ten per cent. (10%) in addition to the rates prescribed in Clause 25 hereof.

18.—Apprentices.

(a) The employment of apprentices shall be governed by the Apprenticeship Regulations, 1953, except that for Regulation (3) thereof there shall be substituted the following:—

(3) No minor shall (except where provision is otherwise made in the Award or where he is a person receiving practical training under the provisions of the Optometrists Act, 1940-1951) be employed or engaged in the industry, except subject to the conditions of apprenticeship or probationership herein contained.

Where practicable, apprentices shall also be taught the cleaning, repairing and/or adjusting of field glasses and/or binoculars.

(c) Apprentices may be taken in the proportion of one (1) apprentice to every two (2) or fraction of two (2) journeymen.

(d) Any apprenticeship agreement entered into prior to the date of this Award shall continue (subject to any agreement between the parties to the contrary approved by the Court) for the period specified in such agreement.

19.—Board of Reference.

(a) The Court hereby appoints for the purpose of this Award a Board of Reference.

(b) The Board shall consist of a chairman and two (2) other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties.

(c) There are assigned to such Board, in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to the Award, the functions of:—

- (ii) deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to such Board from time to time.

(d) An appeal shall lie from any decision of such Board in the manner and subject to the conditions prescribed in the Regulations to the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, which for this purpose are embodied in this Award.

20. Representative Interviewing Workers.

In the case of a disagreement existing or anticipated concerning any of the provisions of this Award, an accredited representative of the Union shall be permitted to interview the workers during the recognised meal hour on the business premises of the employer, but this permission shall not be exercised without the consent of the employer more than once in any one week.

21.—Breakdowns.

The employer shall be entitled to deduct payment for any day or portion of a day upon which the worker cannot be usefully employed because of any strike by the union or unions affiliated with it or by any other association or union, or through the breakdown of the employer's machinery or any stoppage of work by any cause which the employer cannot reasonably prevent.

(b) In the event of no agreement being arrived at the matter may be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.

(c) After application has been made to the Board, and pending the Board's decision, the worker shall be entitled to work for and be employed at the proposed lesser rate.

(b) Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred.

(c) This clause shall not apply when the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(d) A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through any accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment or for any accident wherever sustained arising out of his own wilful default or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

(e) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of subclause (e) hereof, a worker, who in any calendar year, has already been allowed paid sick leave on one occasion for one day only, or less, shall not be entitled to payment for any further absence unless he produces to the employer a medical certificate stating that he was unable to attend for duty on account of personal ill-health.

(g) Sick leave shall accumulate from year to year so that any balance of the period specified in subclause (a) of this clause which has in any year not been allowed to any worker by his employer as paid sick leave may be claimed by the worker and, subject to the conditions hereinbefore prescribed, shall be allowed by his employer in any subsequent year without diminution of the sick leave prescribed in respect of that year. Provided that sick leave which accumulates pursuant to this subclause shall be available to the worker for a period of two (2) years but no longer from the end of the year in which it accrues.

21.—Holidays and Annual Leave.

(b) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under this Award the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work be done ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

(c) Any worker absenting himself from work on the whole or any portion of the working day preceding or on the whole or any portion of the working day succeeding a holiday provided for herein shall not be entitled to payment for such holiday.

(d) Except as hereinafter provided a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with such employer.

(e) If any Award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(f) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(g) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Award shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(h) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled, subject to subclause (f) of this clause, to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

24.—Board of Reference.

(a) The Court appoints for the purpose of the Award a Board of Reference consisting of a chairman and two (2) other representatives, one (1) to be nominated by each of the parties.

There are assigned to the Board, in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to this Award, the functions of—

- (i) adjusting any matters of difference which may arise between the parties from time to time, except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of this Award, or any of them;
