ROAD DISTRICTS ACT, 1919-1954; TOWN PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT ACT, 1928-1953.

Belmont Park Road Board.

L.G. 290/54.

IN pursuance of the powers contained in the Road Districts Act, 1919-1954, and the Town Planning and Development Act, 1928-1953, the Belmont Park Road Board makes the following by-law:—

1. (a) All buildings erected in the Belmont Park Road District shall face to a roadway, unless the Board, in its discretion, having due regard to the sanitary and hygienic conditions or amenity of the area, considers it desirable for a building to face other than a roadway.

(b) No privies or other outhouses shall be erected between the front of any dwelling house and the road fronting the land upon which such dwelling house is erected.

(c) Where any building site fronts onto two roads or upon a road and a reserve or water front, the Board may in its discretion specify in which direction such building shall front.

2. If any building shall be wholly or partly built or erected or added to or altered contrary to and not in conformity with the provisions of this by-law, the Board or any officer thereof may give notice to the owner, occupier or builder, or leave upon the site of such building notice in writing to bring such building in conformity with the provisions of this by-law or requiring pulling down or removal of such building within such time as is limited in such notice and such owner, occupier, or builder shall comply with such notice within the time therein limited, provided that this by-law shall not prevent the continued use of any building in existence at the time of the coming into operation of this by-law.

3. Any person who shall be guilty of any breach of this by-law or shall fail to comply with any notice thereunder shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

ROAD DISTRICTS ACT, 1919-1954.

Bruce Rock Road Board.

By-law for Control of Illuminated Signs.

L.G. 426/55.

THE Bruce Rock Road Board, under and by virtue of the powers conferred on it in that behalf by the Road Districts Act, 1919-1954, and in the Town Planning and Development Act, 1928-1954, and all other powers enabling it, doth hereby make and publish the following by-laws:—

1. In the construction of these by-laws, subject to the context, "Board" shall mean the Bruce Rock Road Board.

2. No person shall erect any illuminated sign under any verandah or balcony over any footpath in the townsite of Bruce Rock without first obtaining written approval from the Board.

3. An application for an illuminated sign shall be in the form set out in Schedule "A" attached hereto.
4. Illuminated signs under verandahs and balconies—
 - (i) shall be rigidly supported from the framework of the verandah or balcony by vertical suspension rods or straps;
 - (ii) shall be totally enclosed between the top of the sign and the framework of any verandah or balcony in such a way that there shall be no accumulation of dust or other unsightly or offensive material;
 - (iii) shall be fixed so that the minimum distance between any two signs is six feet and so that no sign shall be within three feet of the side wall of the building in front of which it is erected;
 - (iv) shall be fixed at right angles to the building line and so that the centre of the sign coincides with the centre line of the verandah or balcony;
 - (v) shall not exceed 14 inches in depth nor eight inches in width nor eight feet in length nor 15 pounds in weight per lineal foot;
 - (vi) shall be so fixed as to leave a clear headway from the lowest part of the sign to the footway of 10 feet where practicable and in no case of less than nine feet.
5. No person shall erect any illuminated sign under any verandah or balcony unless the sides of such sign are constructed of perspex or glass or any other non-inflammable material not being metal or asbestos sheeting.
6. The owner of or other person using any illuminated sign shall—
 - (i) maintain the same and all things appertaining thereto in a clean, tidy and sightly condition;
 - (ii) whenever required by the Board by written notice, repaint or renovate the same, and if such notice be not complied with within one month the Board may repaint the sign and renovate it in such manner as it thinks fit and the cost thereof together with all penalties recoverable under these by-laws may be recovered upon complain made and heard in the Court of Petty Sessions.
7. If any person shall either by act or omission contravene any of these by-laws he shall be guilty of an offence under these by-laws, and on conviction for such offence shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 10 pounds and also if such offence is in its nature a continuing offence, to a daily penalty not exceeding two pounds during the continuance of the offence.
