(c) Except as hereinafter provided a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with such employer.

(e) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(f) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Award shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(g) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled, subject to subclause (e) of this clause to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

(h) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct or dereliction of duty, or who illegally severs his contract of service shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

(i) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

14.—Engagement.

One week's notice on either side shall be necessary to terminate the engagement: Provided that an employer at any time may dismiss a worker for refusal or neglect to obey orders or for misconduct, or if, after receiving one week's notice, such worker does not carry out his or her duties in the same manner as he or she did prior to such notice.

15.—Time and Wages Record.

The employer shall keep and enter up, or cause to be kept and entered up, a record containing the names of each of his workers to whom this Award applies, the class of work performed by and the wages paid to each worker, the age of each junior worker and the time during which each worker has been employed. (a) The Court appoints, for the purpose of the Award, a Board or Boards of Reference. Each Board shall consist of a chairman and two (2) other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties. There are assigned to each such Board, in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to the Award, the functions of—

- (i) adjusting any matters of difference which may arise between the parties from time to time, except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of the Award or any of them;
- (ii) deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to such Board from time to time.

(b) In the event of no agreement being arrived at, the matter may be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.

(c) After application has been made to the Board, and pending the Board's decision, the worker shall be entitled to work for and be employed at the proposed lesser rate.

22.—Absence Through Sickness.

(a) A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of personal ill-health for one-twelfth (1/12th) of a week for each completed month of service: Provided that payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to one week in each calendar year. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(b) A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment, or for any accident, wherever sustained, arising out of his own wilful default or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

(c) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

(c) Cattle (Robb's Jetty): Notwithstanding anything else contained in this Award whilst the present system of solo slaughtering of cattle operates at Robb's Jetty Abattoirs, Award No. 10 of 1939, as amended, shall continue to apply in respect of such work.

4.—Term.

This Award shall operate for a period of one (1) year from the commencement of the first pay period after date hereof.

5.—Preference.

(a) In engaging and/or retaining labour, preference of employment shall be given to financial members of the West Australian Branch of the Australian Meat Industry Employees' Union Industrial Union of Workers, Perth, providing there are members offering who are competent to perform the work to be done.

(b) Upon a non-member of the Union being engaged, such person shall within fourteen (14) days make and complete an application for membership of the Union, but if he is a financial member of another Industrial Union he shall not be required to make such application as above until the expiration of his current membership with such other Union.

(c) If during the continuance of this Award, the members of the Union or a majority of the members of the Union employed under the terms of this Award shall be concerned in or take part in anything in the nature of a strike, the benefit of this clause shall ipso facto cease and determine.

6.—Time and Wages Records.

The said record or time book shall be open to inspection by the secretary of the Union or any other person authorised in writing by him at any time during the usual office hours and he shall be allowed to take necessary extracts therefrom.

Any system of automatic recording of times by machine shall be deemed to comply with these provisions to the extent of the information recorded.

7.—Contract of Service.

(a) Except in the case of casuals, the employment shall be weekly and a week's notice on either side shall be given to terminate engagement or a week's wages paid in lieu. However, this shall not affect the right to dismiss for misconduct, and in such cases, wages shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only.

(b) The employer shall be under no obligation to pay for any day not worked on which the worker is required to present himself for duty except when such absence from work is due to illness and comes within the provisions of the "Sick Leave" clause, or such absence is on account of holidays to which a worker is entitled under the provisions of this Award. Provided further that the employer shall be entitled to deduct payment for any day or portion of a day upon which the worker cannot be usefully employed because of any strike by the Union or Unions affiliated with it, or by any other Association or Union, or through the breakdown of the employer's machinery or any stoppage of work by any cause which the employer cannot reasonably prevent.

8.—Settlement of Disputes.

In the event of any dispute arising in connection with any work performed under this Award, it is mutually agreed that the work will be carried on without interruption and the employer or the Union whose members are bound by this Award, in the event of no agreement being reached between the parties to the dispute, either party may make application for the matter to be referred to a Board of Reference, which shall consist of a chairman mutually agreed upon or alternatively appointed by the Court, and two other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties.

The said Board shall have assigned to it the functions of adjusting any matters of difference which may arise from time to time except such as involve interpretation of the provisions of this Award.

(b) If any holiday falls on an employee's ordinary working day and the employee is not required to work on such day, he shall be paid for the ordinary hours he would have worked on such day if it had not been a holiday.

(c) In the case of workers working a five day week, no payment or a day in lieu shall be granted for any public holiday falling on a Saturday.

(d) Any employee absent from employment on the working day before or the working day after the holiday without reasonable excuse or without the consent of the employer shall not be entitled to payment for the holiday.

(e) For the purpose of subclause (b) the rate of pay for a slaughterman on a public holiday shall be the minimum daily rate as prescribed in clause 28.

12.—Annual Leave.

(a) Except as hereinafter provided, a period of two (2) consecutive week's leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed, shall be allowed annually to a worker by the employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with the employer. Providing that such leave shall be granted within three (3) months of such leave accruing due.

(b) A worker may be rostered off and granted annual leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed prior to his having completed a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service, in which case should the services of such worker terminate or be terminated prior to the completion of twelve (12) months' continuous service, the said worker shall refund to the employer the difference between the amount received by him for wages in respect of the period of his annual leave and the amount which would have accrued to him by reason of the length of his service up to the date of the termination of his services.

(c) When computing the annual leave due under this clause, no deduction shall be made for such leave in respect of the period that a worker is on annual leave and/or holidays.

(d) In the event of a worker being employed by the employer for a portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled to such holidays on full pay as are proportionate to his length of service during that period with the employer.

(e) Any worker who may resign or be dismissed from the service for any cause, other than for pecculation or theft, shall be entitled to receive payment for any annual leave which may have been due up to the time of leaving the service: Provided always that if the worker has been dismissed for pecculation or theft, no claim for annual leave shall be recognised. Misconduct herein referred to shall not affect accumulated annual leave or payment thereof.

(f) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

(g) The rate of payment for annual leave shall be the employee's normal rate of pay at the time of taking such leave, with the exception of slaughtermen whose rates of payment shall be the rate prescribed in clause 28. Minimum rate shall not include cases where employees have been relieving at higher rates of pay immediately prior to taking leave. Provided that such relieving time does not exceed four (4) consecutive weeks.

(i) Approved periods of absence from work caused through accident sustained in the course of employment shall not be considered breaks in continuity of service, but the first six (6) months only of any such period shall count as service for the purpose of computing annual leave.

(j) The employer shall give workers one month's notice of the date on which a worker is to commence his leave.

(k) If any holiday under this Award falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

13.—Sick Leave.

(a) A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of personal ill-health for one-twelfth (1/12th) of a week for each completed month of service: Provided that payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to one (1) week in each calendar year in respect to each worker, but the sick leave herein provided shall be allowed to accumulate and any portion unused in any year may be availed of in the next or any succeeding year. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(b) A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through the result of any accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment or for any accident, wherever sustained, arising out of his own wilful default or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

(c) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

(d) In the case of slaughtermen payment for sick leave shall be at the minimum daily rate prescribed in clause 28.

(b) Shift Workers: (i) Forty (40) hours shall constitute a week's work and the normal hours of work shall be eight (8) hours per day from Monday to Saturday inclusive.

(ii) Workers called upon to perform shift work shall be paid a penalty rate of ten per cent. (10%) in excess of their normal daily wage.

(c) General: The employer may require any worker to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates and such worker shall work overtime in accordance with such requirements.

The Union or any worker, or workers covered by this Award shall not in any way directly or indirectly, be party to or concerned in any ban, limitation or restriction upon the working of overtime in accordance with the requirements of this subclause.

W.A. COAL INDUSTRY TRIBUNAL.

In the matter of the Mining Act Amendment Act, No. 84 of 1948, Part XIII, Division I, and in the matter of an Industrial dispute wherein the Coalminers Industrial Union of Workers of W.A., Collie, applicants (No. 44), and Amalgamated Collieries of W.A. Ltd. and others, respondents, are parties and in the matter of an industrial dispute wherein Amalgamated Collieries of W.A. Ltd. and others applicants (No. 67) and Coalminers Industrial Union of Workers of W.A., Collie, respondents are parties and in the matter of an application by each of the parties to amend Award No. 4 of 1953, Clause 34, Mechanical Units. (Applications No. 44 and 67 of W.A.C.I.T.)

THE Tribunal hereby awards, orders and prescribes that Award No. 4 of 1953, as amended, be further amended in the following manner:—

1. Clause 34. Mechanical Units, delete the existing clause and insert in lieu thereof the following new clause:—

34. Mechanical Units—

(a) Definitions:

(i) "Mechanical Unit"—subject to paragraph (ii) hereof the term "Mechanical Unit" includes any mobile loader, rope scraper loader or other type of loader, shuttle car and continuous miner.

- (ii) "Personnel"—the term "personnel" means employees on mechanical units, employees on coal cutting or coal-boring machines working in a mine, or group of mines where common seniority applies, wherein coal is produced wholly or in part by mechanical units; and any other employee provided for in item 23 of Clause (6) (c) working in conjunction with mechanical units.

(b) Appointments:

The following conditions shall apply to the appointment of personnel to positions and for the filling of vacancies where it is known that such vacancy will exist for a longer period than two consecutive working days:

- (i) The management shall have the right to select the personnel for positions on mechanical units. Provided that an employee who, by reason of length of service at a mine, or group of mines where common seniority applies, thinks that he should have been selected for such appointment, shall have the right to apply to the Western Australian Coal Industry Tribunal for an order directing his appointment.
  - (ii) Upon the hearing of the application the Western Australian Coal Industry Tribunal shall have regard to the age, length of service, nature of experience, record as to reliability and attendance for work and aptitude for machine work of the applicants.
  - (iii) If, having regard to the above matters, the Western Australian Coal Industry Tribunal is satisfied that the appointment of the applicant would not interfere with safety, or the efficient working of the mine, the Tribunal may direct his appointment or may make such order as it thinks fit. Provided however that should the appointee prove in the opinion of the management unsuitable in carrying out the duties of the position, he may be transferred to another position without reduction in pay pending the decision of the Tribunal on an application by the management to review its previous decision.
  - (iv) The person employed performing the work usually performed by a wheeler only shall be paid wheeler's rates.
  - (v) Should any worker refuse to accept the offer of an appointment as personnel on mechanical units or should any personnel on mechanical units forfeit his place to undertake other work in the mine he shall, for the purpose of selection, revert to the back of the seniority list. Provided that, should any personnel on mechanical units through incapacity require a period of relief or by reason of some special qualifications be required to do some special work for the management, a period of release may be arranged by mutual agreement between the manager and the union, or failing mutual agreement the matter may be determined by the Board of Reference.
- (c) Transfers:
- (i) The manager shall have the right to transfer men to fill vacancies of less than three days duration.
  - (ii) The management shall, without prejudice to any other right, have the right of transferring a worker from one classification to another within the mechanical unit group without reduction of the prescribed rate per shift.
- (d) Notification:
- (i) When an appointment has been made pursuant to subclause (b) hereof the management shall notify the Union within twenty-four (24) hours.
