(b) Subject to paragraph (c) of this subregulation, for any licensing year other than that ending on 31st July, 1957—

Where the Annual Turnover of the Bookmaker—	Fee. £

(c) Where in respect of a bookmaker's premises license a payment has been made of or towards the fee for the licensing year which commenced on the 1st August, 1956, and such payment exceeds the fee in respect of such license assessed in accordance with paragraph (a) of subregulation (2) of this regulation, then the excess shall be refunded by the Board to the person who made the payment.

Approved by His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor and Administrator in Executive Council, 1st November, 1956.
