HEALTH ACT, 1911-1957.

Municipality of Geraldton.

Amendment of By-laws.

P.H.D. 850/38, Ex. Co. No. 1727.

WHEREAS under the Health Act, 1911-1957, a local authority may make or adopt by-laws and may alter, amend or repeal any by-laws so made or adopted; and whereas the Municipality of Geraldton, being a local authority within the meaning of the said Act, adopted, with certain modifications, Model By-laws prepared pursuant to section 343 of the said Act and reprinted pursuant to the Reprinting of Regulations Act, 1954, and published in the Government Gazette on the 9th day of August, 1956: Now, therefore, the said Municipality of Geraldton, doth hereby amend the said adopted by-laws as follows:—

(a) The following paragraph is substituted for paragraph 1A of Part I of the said Model By-laws:—

1A. (1) Every house and every public place and every private place shall be provided with not less than one water closet or earth closet.

(2) Every boarding house and every lodging house shall be provided with not less than one water closet or earth closet for each sex and if the requirements of more than ten persons of either sex are to be served the house shall be provided with one additional water closet or earth closet in respect of each additional ten persons of that sex and each additional part of that number.

Provided that this paragraph shall not apply to public buildings under Part VI of the Act or to licensed premises under the provisions of the Licensing Act, 1911-1955, or to factories under the provisions of the Factories and Shops Act, 1920-1954.

(b) The following subparagraph is added after subparagraph (2) of paragraph 4A of Part I of the said Model By-laws:—

(3) A kitchen having a floor area of not less than 80 square feet and containing facilities suitable for the cooking of food.

(c) The following new paragraph is inserted at the end of paragraph 4AC of Part I of the said Model By-laws:—

4ACA. (1) Every boarding house and every lodging house shall be provided with at least one bathroom for each sex and if the requirements of more than ten persons of either sex are to be served the house shall be provided with one additional bathroom in respect of each additional ten persons of that sex and each additional part of that number.

(2) Every such bathroom shall have a floor area of not less than 36 square feet and walls of not less than five feet six inches measured horizontally and shall be equipped with a wash basin and a plunge bath: Provided, however, that where one bathroom complying with the foregoing requirements has been provided for one sex, such requirements in relation to any additional bathroom for the same sex shall be deemed to be met by the provision of a secondary bathroom complying with the following specifications:—

- (a) Each secondary bathroom shall consist of a cubicle enclosed to a height of at least six feet and having a floor area of not less than twelve square feet and walls of not less than three feet measured horizontally shall be equipped with an efficient shower instead of a plunge bath.
- (b) A sufficient dressing area shall be provided outside each cubicle and one wash basin shall be provided in such dressing area in respect of each cubicle.
- (c) If the said dressing area shall also be intended as a passage way to another cubicle or to a main bathroom it shall be sufficiently wide to allow passage without interference to any use of a cubicle.

(3) Subject to the foregoing provisions a main bathroom and one or more secondary bathrooms for one sex or two or more secondary bathrooms for one sex may be provided by partitioning one room, but a main bathroom must be fully enclosed to a height of at least six feet.

(d) The following paragraph is substituted for paragraph 4AD of Part I of the said Model By-laws:—

4AD. All buildings, apparatus and fittings provided in accordance with By-laws 4A, 4AA, 4AB, 4AC and 4ACA of this part shall continue to be provided so long as the dwelling house is occupied or available for occupation or so long as the premises are used as a boarding house or lodging house (as the case may be).

Clerk of the Council.

HEALTH ACT, 1911-1956.

Dundas Road Board.

M.H.D. 830/30, Ex. Co. No. 1730.

WHEREAS under the provisions of the Health Act, 1911-1956, a local authority may make or adopt by-laws and may alter, amend or repeal any by-laws so made or adopted: Now, therefore, the Dundas Road Board, being a local authority within the meaning of the Act, and having adopted the Model By-laws described as Series "A" and published in the Gazette on the 9th day of August, 1956, doth hereby amend the said adopted by-laws as follows:—

Part I.—General Sanitary Provisions.

After By-law 1B insert new By-law 1C, as follows:—

1C.—Provision of Apparatus for the Bacteriological Treatment of Sewage.

1. (a) This by-law shall apply to that portion of the district comprising portion of the Townsite of Norseman as constituted under the Land Act, 1933, enclosed within a line commencing at the junction of Sinclair Street and Roberts Street to the junction of Allsop Street; thence westerly along Allsop Street to the junction of Allsop Street and Prinsep Street; thence northerly along Prinsep Street to the junction of Prinsep Street and Sinclair Street; thence easterly along Sinclair Street to the commencing point.

(b) The owner of every house existing in the portion of the district prescribed in paragraph (a) of this by-law at the time of coming into operation of this by-law shall provide on the premises an apparatus for the bacteriolytic treatment of sewage and liquid wastes produced on the premises. All sanitary fixtures shall be connected to the apparatus before the 30th day of November, 1958.

(c) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (b), the Board may grant exemptions from the provisions of this by-law in any case where premises are adequately provided for by drains and apparatus in accordance with by-laws and regulations other than as prescribed in paragraph (b) of this by-law.

Passed at a meeting of the Dundas Road Board, this 8th day of February, 1958.

P. A. CHARSLEY,
Chairman.
W. G. KERR,
Secretary.

Clerk of the Council.

FREMANTLE HARBOUR TRUST ACT, 1902-1957.

THE Fremantle Harbour Trust Commissioners, acting pursuant to the provisions of the Fremantle Harbour Trust Act, 1902-1957, do hereby make the Regulations set out in the Schedule hereunder:—

Schedule.

Regulations.

1. In these regulations the expression "principal regulations" means the regulations published in the Government Gazette on the 17th June, 1955, made by the Fremantle Harbour Trust Commissioners pursuant to the provisions of the Fremantle Harbour Trust Act, 1902-1957, as reprinted with all amendments to and including those appearing in the Government Gazette of the 16th November, 1956, and published as so reprinted, pursuant to the Reprinting of Regulations Act, 1954, in the Government Gazette of the 22nd March, 1957, and as further amended from time to time thereafter.
2. The principal regulations are amended as follows:—
  - (a) The heading Part "VIII" is hereby renumbered Part "IX".
  - (b) Regulation No. "346" is hereby renumbered No. "391".
3. The principal regulations are amended by adding a new Part "VIII" as follows:—

Part VIII.

Casual Workers.

No. 346

Interpretations.

For the purpose of this part of these Regulations—

- "The Act" means the Act as defined in Regulation No. 1.
- "Quota" means the number of registered casual workers which in the opinion of the Commissioners is required from time to time for the proper and effective carrying out of casual work within the Port.
- "Casual Work" means work which is defined in Section 31A (1) of the Act, and which is performed on a casual basis.
- "Casual Worker" means a person who carries out or is willing to carry out casual work within the Port.
- "Registered Casual Worker" means a casual worker registered in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations.
- "Employer of Casual Workers" means a person who engages or offers to engage casual workers either directly or through an agent or servant.
- "Registered Employer" means an employer of casual workers registered in accordance with the provisions of these regulations.
- "Labour Controller" means an officer appointed by the Commissioners as Labour Controller, and includes any officer acting for or deputed to carry out any duty on behalf of the Labour Controller.
- "Port" means so much of the Harbour of Fremantle as is contained within the boundaries described in the Schedule to the Act, or as amended, by notice in the Government Gazette, from time to time as prescribed by that Act, and includes the slipways at the western end of the Fremantle Inner Harbour known respectively as the South Slipway and the Rous Head Slipway.
- "Roster" means the arrangement of registration numbers of casual workers which gives the order in which individual workers shall be allocated for casual work.
- "Engagement Centre" means the place or places fixed by the Commissioners at which registered casual workers shall attend to offer for engagement for casual work.

Section 1.

Quota of Registered Casual Workers.

No. 347.

Determination of Quota.—For the purpose of ensuring that a sufficient number of casual workers of the necessary physical fitness, competency and efficiency are available at the Port to carry out casual work referred to in Sub-section (1) (a) of Section 31A of the Act, the quota, as at the date of commencement of this part of these Regulations, shall be 100.

Provided that as the registration of any casual worker originally included in the quota as at the said date, ceases to be effective, pursuant to these Regulations, the quota shall be reduced automatically until the number of registered casual workers is so reduced to 95.

No. 348.

Review of Quota.—If, at any time the Commissioners consider that the quota should be reviewed, the Commissioners may, subject to these Regulations, determine another quota for the Port, but in any case shall review the quota at intervals of not more than six (6) months.

No. 349.

Enquiry may be conducted.—Before amending the quota prescribed in Regulation No. 347, the Commissioners may conduct such enquiry as they think fit.

Section II.

Registration of Casual Workers.

No. 350.

Registration Compulsory.—Subject to the provisions of these Regulations a person to whom these Regulations apply shall not offer for engagement for casual work within the Port unless he is a registered casual worker.

No. 351.

Application for Registration.—A person desiring registration as a casual worker shall make application to the Commissioners on the form provided, and may be required to submit with his application evidence that he is willing and qualified to carry out casual work, including—

- (a) testimonials from at least two reputable persons that he is of sober habits and good character;
- (b) a certificate from a registered medical practitioner that he is physically fit to undertake casual work;
- (c) satisfactory evidence of date of birth.

No. 352.

Applications may be rejected.—The Commissioners may reject any application for registration as a casual worker—

- (a) if the application does not comply with the requirements of Regulation No. 351;
- (b) if the number of registered casual workers allowed for in the current quota would thereby be exceeded;
- (c) for any other reason which to the Commissioners appears good and sufficient.

No. 353.

Issue of Registration Number and Establishment of Register.—(a) Where an application for registration has been accepted the person named in the application shall be registered as a casual worker and issued with a registration number.

(b) The names and registration numbers of all registered casual workers, and such other information as may be considered necessary shall be recorded in a register established for that purpose.

No. 354.

Duration of Registration.—The registration of a casual worker shall remain in force until such time as he notifies the Commissioners in writing that he no longer desires to be registered as a casual worker, or until his registration is suspended or cancelled pursuant to the provisions of these Regulations, whichever first occurs.

Section III.

Registration of Employers of Casual Workers.

No. 355.

Registration Compulsory.—A person shall not engage or offer to engage casual workers for casual work within the Port unless he is registered as an employer of casual workers or is a duly authorised agent or servant of a person so registered.

No. 356.

Application for Registration.—A person desiring registration as an employer of casual workers shall make application to the Commissioners on the form provided, and shall undertake that he will at all times observe the provisions of these Regulations.

No. 357.

Applications may be Rejected.—The Commissioners may reject any application for registration as an employer of casual workers if such application does not comply with the requirements of Regulation No. 356.

No. 358.

Issue of Registration Number and Establishment of Register.—(a) Where an application for registration has been accepted the person named in the application shall be registered as an employer of casual workers and issued with a registration number.

(b) The names and registration numbers of all registered employers of casual workers, and such other information as may be considered necessary shall be recorded in a register established for that purpose.

No. 359.

Duration of Registration.—The registration of an employer of casual workers shall remain in force until such time as he notifies the Commissioners in writing that he no longer desires to be registered as an employer of casual workers, or until his registration is suspended or cancelled pursuant to the provisions of these Regulations, whichever first occurs.

Section IV.

Engagement of Casual Workers.

No. 360.

Performance of Casual Work within the Port.—(a) A person who is not a registered casual worker shall not carry out casual work within the Port.

(b) A person who is not a registered employer shall not employ casual workers within the Port.

(c) A registered employer shall not employ a casual worker for casual work within the Port unless that worker is a registered casual worker, and unless such employer engages such casual worker at an engagement centre and otherwise in accordance with this part of these Regulations.

Provided that when all registered casual workers available for engagement on any day have been allocated by the Labour Controller other workers may with the consent of the Labour Controller be engaged by a registered employer to perform casual work; Provided further that such other workers shall be engaged from day to day only and shall be replaced by registered casual workers at the completion of the particular day.

No. 361.

Requisitions for Labour.—A registered employer offering to engage casual workers shall furnish a requisition for labour on the form provided setting out—

- (a) the number of workers required;
- (b) the time and date the workers are required to commence work;
- (c) the location and nature of the work;
- (d) the number and type of workers required from any subsidiary category;
- (e) the probable duration of the engagement;
- (f) such other information as may be required from time to time.

No. 362.

Time for Lodgment of Requisitions.—A requisition for labour shall be lodged with the Labour Controller not later than a time to be determined by the Commissioners on the working day prior to that on which the labour is required to be engaged: Provided that in cases of emergency or unforeseen circumstances requisitions may be lodged until such other hour as may be determined from time to time.

No. 363.

Allocation of Labour.—Registered casual workers shall be allocated for work by the Labour Controller by means of a roster as provided for in Section V of this part of these Regulations.

No. 364.

Priority of Allocation.—When insufficient labour is available to fulfil all requirements, the Labour Controller shall confer with the employers concerned, and in the event of disagreement between such employers the Labour Controller shall allocate the labour in the order which he considers is in the best interests of the casual work concerned.

No. 365.

Notification of Allocation of Labour.—Upon allocation of registered casual workers from the Roster, the Labour Controller shall furnish each registered employer concerned with a list of the registration numbers and names of the workers allocated to him. A copy of the list shall also be furnished to the casual workers' representative.

No. 366.

Allocations for Work Not to be Refused.—(a) A registered employer shall not refuse to employ any registered casual worker allocated to him from the roster by the Labour Controller.

(b) A registered casual worker shall not refuse to accept employment with any registered employer to whom he is allocated from the roster by the Labour Controller.

No. 367.

Transfer of Labour.—Transfers of registered casual workers from one registered employer to another registered employer, when necessary, shall be arranged by the Labour Controller, and the workers' representative informed accordingly.

No. 368.

Notification of Termination of Engagement.—(a) A registered employer shall notify the Labour Controller in writing in such manner as may be required of the time and date of the termination of engagement of each registered casual worker allocated to him. Such notification shall be in the hands of the Labour Controller not later than a time to be determined by the Commissioners on the working day next following the termination of such engagement.

(b) A registered employer who employs unregistered casual workers in accordance with the provisions of Regulation No. 360 shall on termination of their employment forthwith notify the Labour Controller in the form provided of the total number of unregistered casual workers employed by him, the times worked by each man, and the aggregate of the hours such workers were employed.

No. 369.

Discharge of Labour.—A registered employer of casual workers shall notify the Labour Controller in writing in such manner as may be required of the registration number and name of any casual worker discharged by him for any disciplinary reason. Such notification shall set out the time and date of the discharge, and the reason or reasons therefor.

No. 370.

Workers on Compensation.—A registered employer shall notify the Labour Controller of the registration number and name of any registered casual worker who is injured during the course of his employment and who ceases work because of such injury. Such notification shall state the time and date of ceasing work, and be in the hands of the Labour Controller not later than a time to be determined by the Commissioners on the working day next following the day on which the worker ceased work.

Section V.

Roster of Casual Workers.

No. 371.

Roster to be Compiled.—The Labour Controller shall compile a roster of registered casual workers for the purpose of ensuring as nearly as possible a fair distribution of the available casual work.

No. 372.

Method of Roster.—(a) Subject to subclause (b) of this Regulation, registered casual workers shall be listed on the roster by means of their registration numbers in strict sequence determined by the time and date of the termination of their previous engagement, subject always to the provisions of these regulations as to the suspension or cancellation of the registration of a worker and the removal of his number from the roster.

(b) Registered casual workers becoming available for engagement after periods of absence on authorised sick leave or on workers' compensation, shall be listed by means of their registration numbers at the bottom of the roster for the working day next preceding the date of their return.

No. 373.

Categories.—The registration numbers of all registered casual workers shall be listed on the roster under one main category: Provided that if it is considered any section of the work warrants a subsidiary category, the registration numbers of registered casual workers qualified to perform such work may also be included in any such subsidiary category.

No. 374.

Method of Allocation.—Subject always to the right of the Labour Controller to decide priority of allocation when insufficient labour is available, registered casual workers shall be allocated by the Labour Controller from the roster in order of time of start of engagement in the following order:—

- (a) from any subsidiary category of the roster in strict sequence of registration numbers of casual workers listed in such subsidiary category;
- (b) from the main category of the roster in strict sequence of the registration numbers of casual workers listed therein.

Provided that the Labour Controller in satisfaction of a requisition from a registered employer may allocate not more than two casual workers for employment in a supervisory capacity without regard to their rostered positions.

No. 375.

Suspension from the Roster.—Where for any reason the registration of a casual worker has been suspended or cancelled, the registration number of such casual worker shall be removed from the roster.

No. 376.

Reinstatement on the Roster.—Where the registration number of a casual worker has been removed from the roster in accordance with the provisions of Regulation No. 375, following suspension, and the suspension of his registration is lifted, the registration number of such worker shall again be listed at the bottom of the roster for the first working day on which he is eligible for engagement.

No. 377.

Casual Workers to ensure their Inclusion on the Roster.—A registered casual worker shall forthwith on his arrival at the engagement centre ascertain whether or not his number is listed on the roster, and if not he shall immediately notify the Labour Controller accordingly.

On it being established to the satisfaction of the Labour Controller that a worker's registration number has been omitted in error from or incorrectly placed upon the roster he shall, if practicable, place the worker's registration number in its correct place on the roster.

No. 378.

Grievances.—For the purpose of considering grievances against the operation of the roster, the Commissioners may appoint a Committee consisting of a Chairman, who shall be the Trust's Industrial Officer, or any officer acting in his stead, and an equal number of representatives of registered casual workers and registered employers of casual workers respectively. The findings of the majority of the committee shall be advised to the Commissioners for decision.

Section VI.

Service Charge.

No. 379.

Service Charge to be Levied.—For the purpose of the payment of—

- (a) attendance money required to be paid to registered casual workers under any Award or Agreement duly made and effective under the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952;
- (b) administrative expenses of giving effect to Section 31A of the Act, a registered employer actually employing one or more casual workers to carry out casual work which is referred to in Sub-section (i) (a) of Section 31A of the Act, shall pay to the Commissioners a service charge of one shilling and eightpence (1s. 8d.) for each man hour of employment by him of registered casual workers.

No. 380.

Employers' Obligation in respect of Service Charge.—A registered employer shall pay the service charge as prescribed by Regulation No. 379 to the Commissioners after the employment of registered casual workers. For the purpose of assessment of the amount of service charge payable a registered employer shall—

- (a) at the completion of each engagement of registered casual workers furnish a return in such form as may be required, showing the name and registered number of each casual worker employed by him, together with the daily hours of duty and the total hours worked by each casual worker;
- (b) within 7 days after the end of each calendar month furnish to the Commissioners a return in the form provided showing the aggregate number of man hours of employment by him during each pay period ended in that month;
- (c) specify the amount of service charge payable in accordance with the aggregate man hours of employment during the period covered by the return prescribed in subclause (b) of this regulation, and shall certify as to the correctness of the information included in the returns.

No. 381.

Payment to accompany Return.—At the time of furnishing the return prescribed in Regulation No. 380 (b) and (c), the registered employer concerned shall pay to the Commissioners the amount of the service charge payable by him in accordance with these Regulations.

Section VII.

Payment of Attendance Money.

No. 382.

Qualification for Payment.—(a) A registered casual worker—

- (i) whose number is included on the roster;
- (ii) who attends the engagement centre on any day as required by the Commissioners;
- (iii) who remains in attendance for the time specified in the relevant Industrial Award or Agreement;
- (iv) who offers for engagement;
- (v) who does not refuse to accept employment for which he is allocated;
- (vi) who does not obtain employment;
- (vii) who is entitled to attendance money under any Award or Agreement duly made and effective under the Industrial Arbitration Act., 1912-1952; shall be paid for such attendance by the Commissioners from the Fremantle Harbour Trust Attendance Money Account the amount of attendance money as prescribed by any Award or Agreement referred to in sub-paragraph (vii) hereof.

(b) A registered casual worker who qualifies for the payment of attendance money as prescribed in the preceding paragraph of this regulation shall, before leaving the engagement centre, satisfy himself that his attendance is recorded.

No. 383.

Record of Attendance to be kept.—The Labour Controller shall keep a record of registered casual workers who qualify for the payment of attendance money in accordance with the provisions of Regulation No. 382.

No. 384.

Payment of Attendance Money.—Attendance money payable to a registered casual worker in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations shall be paid weekly at such time and place, and on such day as the Commissioners may from time to time determine.

No. 385.

Receipts to be given.—A registered casual worker on receiving payment of attendance money shall give to the Commissioners a receipt in such form as may be required, and such receipt shall be a full and complete discharge of the Commissioners' obligation to pay attendance money as prescribed in Section 31A of the Act.

Section VIII.

Discipline of Registered Casual Workers and Employers of Casual Workers.

No. 386.

Regulations to be Observed.—A registered casual worker and a registered employer shall at all times observe the requirements of these Regulations and the direction of the Commissioners in giving effect to the provisions contained in Section 31A of the Act.

No. 387.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS ACT, 1906-1956.

Municipality of Albany.

By-law No. 37.

Lawns and Gardens in Streets.

L.G. 19/56.

A By-law of the Municipality of Albany made under Section 180 of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1906-1956, and numbered 37, for Permitting and Regulating Lawns and Gardens in Streets.

IN pursuance of the powers in that behalf contained in the said Act, the Mayor and Councillors of the Municipality of Albany order as follows:—

1. In this by-law, unless the context otherwise requires—
  - “Council” means the Council of the Municipality of Albany;
  - “carriage-way” means that part of a road which is formed or paved for use by vehicles;
  - “footpath” means that part of a road which is formed or paved for use by pedestrians;
  - “Town Clerk” means the Town Clerk or Acting Town Clerk of the Municipality of Albany.
2. The owner or occupier of premises abutting on a street may plant and maintain a lawn in the street subject to the following conditions:—
  - (a) The lawn shall not extend beyond the side boundaries of the premises where they abut on the street. Provided that in the case of premises at the corner of two streets the lawn may extend round the corner.
  - (b) The lawn shall not extend beyond the edge of the carriage-way nor shall it encroach on a constructed footpath.
  - (c) The lawn shall have an even surface from the edge of the carriage-way, or if there is a kerb to the carriage-way from the top of such kerb, to the footpath or edge of the street as the case may be.
3. (1) The owner or occupier of premises abutting on a street may with the written permission of the Council under the hand of the Town Clerk form and plant a garden in the street.
  - (2) The application for such permission shall be accompanied by a plan showing the position and measurements of the garden by reference to the carriage-way and the front boundary of the premises.
  - (3) The permission may be granted subject to such conditions as the Council may in any case decide.
4. The Council may at any time and without notice and without paying any compensation in respect thereof remove from a street any lawn or garden, or any part thereof, maintained in a street under this by-law.
5. No person shall ride or drive any animal or vehicle over any lawn or garden maintained in a street pursuant to this by-law.

Approved by the Albany Municipal Council on 24th March, 1958.

[L.S.]

J. A. BARNESBY,
Mayor.
D. J. SULLIVAN,
Town Clerk.

Recommended—

---

(Sgd.) A. M. MOIR,
for Minister for Local Government.
