Clerk of the Council.

HEALTH ACT, 1911-1957.

Port Hedland Road Board.

P.H.D. 1907/56, Ex. Co. No. 346.

WHEREAS under the provisions of the Health Act, 1911-1957, a local authority may make or adopt by-laws, and may alter, amend or repeal any by-laws so made or adopted; and whereas the Port Hedland Road Board, being a local authority within the meaning of the Act, adopted Model By-laws described as Series "A," made by the Governor pursuant to section 343 of the Health Act, 1911-1957, and reprinted pursuant to the Reprinting of Regulations Act, 1954, in the Gazette on 9th August, 1956: Now, therefore, the Port Hedland Road Board resolves and determines that the said adopted by-laws shall be amended as follows:—

After Part IX insert a new part to be known as Part X as follows:—

Part X.—Storage of Inflammable Materials.

1. These by-laws shall have effect within the townsite of Port Hedland as constituted under the Land Act, 1933, and described in the Government Gazette of 23rd October, 1896.

2. In this by-law unless the context requires otherwise—

"inflammable liquid" means liquid petroleum, and any oil, liquid spirit or any similar liquid which will flash or emit an inflammable vapour at or below a temperature of 150 degrees Fahrenheit, Abel Close Test;

"firebreak" means a strip of ploughed or cleared land which is devoid of all scrub, stubble, buildings, structures and any other inflammable material, and is so maintained;

"embankment" means a barrier constructed of earth or of concrete which is devoid of all scrub, stubble, buildings, structures and any other inflammable material, and is so maintained.

3. No person shall store any aviation spirit within any portion of the district prescribed in By-law 1 of this Part except with the written permission of the Board.

4. No person shall store more than 60 gallons of inflammable liquid on any domestic premises, and not more than four gallons shall be stored within 20 feet of any adjacent structure or building or inside any building which is within 20 feet of any other structure or building.

5. No person shall store any inflammable liquid on premises which are not domestic premises except under the following conditions:—

(a) Where the quantity of inflammable liquid stored does not exceed 500 gallons—

- (i) it shall be stored at least 25 feet distant from any adjacent buildings;
- (ii) a firebreak at least 10 feet wide shall be provided immediately around the storage area;
- (iii) a continuous embankment capable of arresting the flow of all inflammable liquid there stored shall be provided, not less than 15 feet distant from any building on any premises where the storage area is situated on sloping ground;
- (iv) two 2-gallon capacity foam fire extinguishers shall be kept at the storage area and maintained ready for immediate use;
- (v) two signs bearing the wording specified hereunder shall be conspicuously displayed at the storage area, clearly marked in red letters, not less than six inches in height:—

DANGER.

INFLAMMABLE LIQUIDS.

NO SMOKING. NO MATCHES.

NO NAKED LIGHTS.

- (b) Where a quantity exceeding 500 gallons but not exceeding 5,000 gallons of inflammable liquid is stored—
- (i) the storage area shall be surrounded by a continuous embankment forming a reservoir, the capacity of which shall be not less than ten per centum greater than the total volume of inflammable liquid stored;
 - (ii) every part of such embankment shall be not less than 50 feet distant from any building;
 - (iii) two 2-gallon capacity foam fire extinguishers shall be kept at the storage area and maintained ready for immediate use;
 - (iv) two signs bearing the wording specified hereunder shall be erected at the storage area, clearly marked in red letters not less than 12 inches in height:—

DANGER.
INFLAMMABLE LIQUIDS.
NO SMOKING. NO MATCHES.
NO NAKED LIGHTS.

6. No person shall store any quantity of inflammable liquids in excess of 5,000 gallons within the area prescribed in By-law 1 of this Part without the written permission of the local authority, and unless all conditions imposed by the local authority are fully complied with.

7. No person shall store any empty drum which has been used for containing inflammable liquid, within 50 feet of any occupied building.

8. The owner, agent and every person employed or engaged in or about any inflammable liquid storage area shall take all due precautions for the prevention of accidents by fire or explosion and shall prevent unauthorised persons from having access to any inflammable liquid.

9. This by-law shall not apply to any underground storage of inflammable liquid, installed and maintained in accordance with the requirements of the Fire Underwriters' Association of Australia.

Passed at a meeting of the Port Hedland Road Board this 14th day of November, 1958.

E. A. RICHARDSON,
Chairman.
J. R. T. KEASH,
Acting Secretary.

Approved by His Excellency the Governor in Executive Council this 25th day of February, 1959.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA (SALES-PROMOTION LABELS) ACT, 1957.

Department of Industrial Development,
 Perth, 25th February, 1959.

Ex. Co. No. 326.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, acting pursuant to the provisions of the Western Australia (Sales-Promotion Labels) Act, 1957, has been pleased to make the regulations set out in the Schedule hereunder.

D. O. TEMBY,
 Director of Industrial Development.

Schedule.

Regulations.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Sales-Promotion Labels Regulations.
2. In these regulations unless the context requires otherwise—
 "Appendix" means Appendix to these regulations;
 "the Act" means the Western Australia (Sales-Promotion Labels) Act, 1957, with its amendments, if any, and the regulations made and in force thereunder.
3. The form of design, irrespective of its size and colour, depicted in Part I of the Appendix is prescribed as the prescribed label for the purposes of the Act.

4. (1) An application for a permit to use a prescribed label must be addressed to the Minister and made by the applicant in writing in the form set out in Part II of the Appendix and must contain the full name and business address of the applicant, particulars of the goods in respect of which the permit is sought, and such particulars of their production or preparation as are necessary to enable the Minister to determine whether the production or preparation is substantially carried out in the State.

(2) (a) Where the particulars set out in an application for a permit do not satisfy the Minister that the production or preparation of the goods referred to in the application is substantially carried out in the State the Minister may require the applicant within a specified time to furnish him in writing with further particulars.

(b) If the applicant does not furnish the further particulars so required, the Minister may refuse to issue a permit to the applicant.

5. A permit issued under section 7 of the Act must be in the form set out in Part III of the Appendix and signed by the Minister or by a person to whom the Minister has delegated the authority to issue those permits.

6. (1) The holder of a permit who changes his business address as shown in the permit shall within twenty-eight days of the change furnish to the Minister in writing particulars of the change of address.

(2) The holder of a permit shall, if any change occurs in the particulars relating to the production or preparation of the goods as set out in his application for the permit, immediately notify the Minister in writing of that change.

7. The holder of a permit issued under section 7 of the Act may, in accordance with the Act, so long as the permit is in force, affix or cause to be affixed to goods in respect of which the permit was issued or to their containers a prescribed label.

8. (1) An inspector may enter during normal working hours any land, building or place—

(a) where he has reason to believe that goods in respect of which a permit to use a prescribed label is sought or held are produced, prepared or kept for sale; or

(b) where he has reason to believe that goods to which or to the containers of which prescribed labels are affixed are produced, prepared or kept for sale; or

(c) where he has reason to believe that an offence against the Act is or has been committed.

(2) An inspector may—

(a) if and as it appears to him necessary, in the exercise of his powers or the performance of his duties under the Act, enlist the aid of an interpreter or a member of the Police Force;

(b) take possession or make copies or extracts of any document produced to him which appears to him to be connected in any manner with any act or omission constituting an offence against the Act;

(c) take possession of any goods or samples of goods for use as an exhibit or as exhibits in any prosecution for an offence against the Act; and

(d) exercise such of the powers and authorities as are vested in him under the Act and are necessary for giving effect to the purposes and objects of the Act.

(3) If no prosecution is commenced against the person from whose custody possession was so taken of the documents, goods or samples, or against the owner thereof, within thirty days after the taking possession of them, the inspector shall return them to the person or owner immediately after the expiration of that period.

BETTING CONTROL ACT, 1954-1957.

Betting Control Board,
Perth, 25th February, 1959.

Ex. Co. No. 335.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, acting pursuant to the provisions of the Betting Control Act, 1954-1957, has been pleased to make the regulations set out in the Schedule hereunder.

H. H. STYANTS,
Chairman of the Betting Control Board of Western Australia.

Schedule.

Regulations.

1. In these regulations the Betting Control Regulations, 1955, published in the Government Gazette on the 6th May, 1955, and amended from time to time thereafter, are referred to as the principal regulations.

2. Regulation 23 of the principal regulations is amended by deleting the word, "the" secondly appearing in line four.

3. Subregulation (2) of regulation 112 of the principal regulations is amended by adding after the word, "Australia" in line six the word, "and".

4. The Rules of Betting contained in the First Appendix to the principal regulations is amended by substituting for rule 12 a rule as follows:—

12. Where a race is ordered to be run again the following provisions apply:—

- (a) On Course: All bets made on the first run shall be declared void and a new betting market made on the re-run.
 - (b) Off Course: Bets made at starting price in favour of any horses which started on the first run but did not go to the post on the second run are void. All other bets stand and the market shall be that of the re-run.
 - (c) Subject to this regulation the provisions of rule 7 of the Rules of Betting contained in the First Appendix to these regulations apply.
