ORDER IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it is enacted, inter alia, by subsection (1) of section 28 of the Companies Act, 1943-1954, that no company shall be registered by a name which is identical with that by which a firm is registered and is carrying on business under the Business Names Act, 1942-1946, or, in the opinion of the Registrar of Companies, so nearly resembles that name as to be calculated to deceive; and whereas it is provided in paragraph (a) of the proviso to subsection (7) of that section that where in the opinion of the Governor (on being satisfied that it would be inequitable or unreasonable to require any company formed or incorporated outside Western Australia to which Part XI of the Companies Act, 1943-1954, applies to change its name, style, title or designation before complying with the requirements of such Part) it is in the circumstances of the particular case expedient, the Governor may authorise the Registrar to accept for filing the documents and particulars specified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of subsection (1) of section 329 of the Companies Act, 1943-1954; and whereas registration under Part XI of the Companies Act, 1943-1954, of a company incorporated in the State of New South Wales by the name of Television and General Finance Company Limited was refused by the Registrar on the ground that, in his opinion, that name so nearly resembles the name by which a firm (namely, Television Finance Corporation) is already registered and carrying on business under the Business Names Act, 1942-1946, as to be calculated to deceive; and whereas His Excellency the Governor is satisfied that it would be inequitable or unreasonable to require Television and General Finance Company Limited to change its name before complying with the requirements of Part XI of the Companies Act, 1943-1954, and is of the opinion that the circumstances of the case render it expedient to authorise the Registrar of Companies to accept from such company for filing the documents and particulars hereinbefore referred to: Now, therefore, his Excellency the Governor, acting with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, and in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the Companies Act, 1943-1954, doth hereby authorise the Registrar of Companies to accept from Television and General Finance Company Limited for filing the documents and particulars specified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of subsection (1) of section 329 of that Act.

The annual leave shall be in addition to the holidays mentioned in clause 11 hereof.

An employer shall pay to an employee who has been continuously employed for more than one (1) month but less than three (3) months an amount equivalent to one and one quarter (1¼) day's pay in respect of each completed month of service; and to an employee who has been continuously employed for more than three (3) months an amount equivalent to two and one twelfth (2 1/12th) days' pay in respect of each completed month of service. The said payments shall be made to an employee entitled thereto:—

- (a) on the termination of his service if such termination occurs before he takes his annual leave; or
- (b) on the taking of his annual leave if he remains in the service of his employer.

An employer shall set aside and/or credit to an employee's account from time to time sufficient money to cover the said payments so that unless that employee's service is terminated earlier there will be available for him at the time he takes his annual leave a sum equivalent to two (2) weeks' double pay and one (1) week's single pay and apart from paying the money so set aside an employer shall not be obliged to make any payments to an employee in respect of his annual leave or in respect of the period during which such leave is actually taken.

(b) It shall be a condition of every worker taking Annual Leave that he—

- (i) Shall not under any circumstances be engaged in any gainful employment while on such leave.
- (ii) Shall return to the active service of the employer forthwith at the expiration of leave, and
- (iii) Shall not draw any sick or accident pay simultaneously with annual leave.

A breach of condition (i) above will result in immediate discharge from the employer's service accompanied by forfeiture of all rights (if any) to retiring allowance or other similar payments or benefits.

A breach of condition (ii) (except as on the grounds of illness necessitating retirement or additional leave on the advice of a medical officer) will result in forfeiture of all rights (if any) to retiring allowance or other similar benefits or payments.

13.—Bonus.

The employer shall pay to an employee receiving wages under this Agreement a bonus equal to 1/52nd part of each week's pay. The employer's liability shall become absolute at the end of each week of an employee's service. The said bonus shall be accumulated by the employer and held on behalf of and paid to the employee entitled thereto in the last week of December in each year or on the earlier termination of his service.

14.—Long Service Leave.

(a) Right to Leave.

A worker shall as herein provided be entitled to leave with pay in respect of long service.

(b) Long Service.

(1) The long service which shall entitle a worker to such leave shall, subject as herein provided, be continuous service with one and the same employer.

(2) Such service shall include service prior to the coming into operation hereof if it continued until such time but only to the extent of the last 20 completed years of continuous service. Provided, however, that where a worker has received long service leave under previous agreements on the basis of 13 weeks' leave after 25 years' service, he shall be entitled to a further six and one half (6½) weeks' leave on the completion of each 10 years continuous service after the date he first qualified for long service leave.

(3) (i) Where a business has, whether before or after the coming into operation hereof, been transmitted from an employer (herein called "the transmitter") to another employer (herein called "the transmittee") and a worker who at the time of such transmission was an employee of the transmitter in that business becomes an employee of the transmittee—the period of the continuous service which the worker has had with the transmitter (including any such service with any prior transmitter) shall be deemed to be service of the worker with the transmittee.

(ii) In this subclause "transmission" includes transfer conveyance assignment or succession whether voluntary or by agreement or by operation of law and "transmitted" has a corresponding meaning.

(4) Such service shall include—

- (a) any period of absence from duty on any annual leave or long service leave;
- (b) any period following any termination of the employment by the employer if such termination has been made merely with the intention of avoiding obligations hereunder in respect of long service leave or obligations under any award in respect of annual leave;
- (c) any period during which the service of the worker was or is interrupted by service
 - (i) as a member of the Naval, Military or Air Forces of the Commonwealth of Australia other than as a member of the British Commonwealth Occupation Forces in Japan and other than as a member of the Permanent

Forces of the Commonwealth of Australia except in the circumstances referred to in section 31 (2) of the Defence Act, 1903-1956, and except in Korea or Malaya after June 26, 1950;

- (ii) as a member of the Civil Construction Corps established under the National Security Act, 1939-1946;
- (iii) in any of the Armed Forces under the National Service Act, 1951 (as amended):

Provided that the worker as soon as reasonably practicable on the completion of any such service resumed or resumes employment with the employer by whom he was employed immediately before the commencement of such service.

(5) Service shall be deemed to be continuous notwithstanding—

- (a) the transmission of a business as referred to in paragraph (3) hereof;
- (b) any interruption of a class referred to in paragraph (4) hereof irrespective of the duration thereof;
- (c) any absence from duty authorised by the employer;
- (d) any absence from duty arising directly or indirectly from an industrial dispute if the worker returns to work in accordance with the terms of settlement of the dispute;
- (e) any termination of the employment of the worker or any ground other than slackness of trade if the worker be re-employed by the same employer within a period not exceeding two months from the date of such termination;
- (f) any termination of the employment by the employer on the ground of slackness of trade if the worker is re-employed by the same employer within a period not exceeding six months from the date of such termination;
- (g) any reasonable absence of the worker on legitimate Union business in respect of which he has requested and been refused leave;
- (h) any absence from duty after the coming into operation of this clause by reason of any cause not specified in this clause unless the employer during the absence or within 14 days of the termination of the absence notifies the worker in writing that such absence will be regarded as having broken the continuity of service, which notice may be given by delivery to the worker personally or by posting it by registered mail to his last recorded address, in which case it shall be deemed to have reached him in due course of post.

Provided that the period of any absence from duty or the period of any interruption referred to in placita (c) to (i) inclusive of this paragraph shall not (except as set out in paragraph (4) hereof) count as service.

(c) Period of Leave.

(1) The leave to which a worker shall be entitled or deemed to be entitled shall be as provided in this subclause.

(2) Subject to subclause b(2) where a worker has completed at least 20 years' service the amount of leave shall be—

- (a) in respect of 20 years' service so completed—13 weeks' leave;
- (b) in respect of each 10 years' service completed after such 20 years—6½ weeks' leave.

(3) Where a worker has completed at least 15 years' service since its commencement and his employment is terminated:—

- (a) by his death;
- (b) in any circumstances otherwise than by the employer for serious misconduct.

The amount of leave shall be—

- (i) if such termination takes place before the worker has become entitled to leave under placitum (a) of paragraph (2) hereof such proportion of 13 weeks' leave as the number of completed years of such service bears to 20 years;
 - (ii) if such termination takes place after the worker has become entitled to leave under placitum (a) of paragraph (2) hereof the leave due under such placitum and in addition such proportion of 13 weeks' leave as the number of completed years of such service after the accrual of such entitlement bears to 20 years.
- (4) Where a worker has completed at least 10 years' service but less than 15 years' service since its commencement and his employment is terminated—

- (i) by his death; or
- (ii) by the employer for any reason other than serious misconduct; or
- (iii) by the worker on account of sickness or of injury to the worker or domestic or other pressing necessity where such sickness or injury or necessity is of such a nature as to justify or in the event of a dispute is, in the opinion of a Board of Reference, of such a nature as to justify such termination.

The amount of leave shall be such proportion of 13 weeks' leave as the number of completed years of such service bears to 20 years.

(5) In the cases to which paragraphs (3) and (4) hereof apply the worker shall be deemed to have been entitled to and to have commenced leave immediately prior to such termination.

(d) Payment for period of Leave.

(1) A worker shall subject to paragraph (3) hereof, be entitled to be paid for each week of leave to which he has become entitled or is deemed to have become entitled the ordinary time rate of pay applicable to him at the date he commences such leave.

(2) Such ordinary time rate of pay shall be the rate applicable to him for the standard weekly hours which are prescribed by the Agreement.

(3) Where by agreement between the employer and the worker the commencement of the leave to which the worker is entitled or any portion thereof is postponed to meet the convenience of the worker, the rate of payment for such leave shall be at the ordinary time rate of pay applicable to him at the date of accrual or, if so agreed, at the ordinary time rate of pay applicable at the date he commences such leave.

(4) The ordinary time rate of pay—

- (a) shall include any deductions from wages for board and/or lodging or the like which is not provided and taken during the period of leave;
- (b) shall not include shift premiums, overtime, penalty rates, commissions, bonuses, allowances or the like.

(5) In the case of workers employed on piece or bonus work or any other system of payment by results payment shall be at ordinary time rates.

(e) Taking Leave.

(1) In a case to which paragraph (2) of subclause (c) applies—

- (a) leave shall be granted and taken as soon as reasonably practicable after the right thereto accrues due or at such time as may be agreed between the employer and the worker or in the absence of such agreement at such time as may be determined by a Board of Reference having regard to the needs of the employer's establishment and the worker's circumstances;
- (b) except where the time for taking leave is agreed to by the employer and the worker or determined by the Board of Reference the employer shall give to a worker at least one month's notice of the date from which his leave is to be taken;

(c) where a worker is beyond 60 years of age at the time he becomes eligible for long service leave he shall have the option of taking actual leave under this scheme or of receiving payment in lieu thereof on retirement. Such option shall be exercised in writing addressed to the employer at the time of becoming eligible for long service leave;

(d) the employer shall have the right in cases of emergency to recall any worker from long service, in which case the unexpired leave shall be made up on some mutually convenient date;

(e) any leave shall be exclusive of any public holidays or annual leave specified in this Agreement occurring during the period when the leave is taken;

(f) payment shall be made in one of the following ways—

(i) in full before the worker goes on leave;

(ii) at the same time as his wages would have been paid to him if the worker had remained at work, in which case payment shall, if the worker in writing so requires, be made by cheque posted to an address specified by the worker; or

(iii) in any other way agreed between the employer and the worker.

(g) it shall be a condition of every worker's taking long service leave that he (or she);

(i) shall not under any circumstances be engaged in any gainful employment while on such leave;

(ii) shall return to the active service of the employer forthwith at the expiration of the leave; and

(iii) shall not draw any sick or accident pay simultaneously with long service leave pay.

A breach of condition (i) above will result in immediate discharge from the employer's service accompanied by forfeiture of all rights (if any) to retiring allowance, or other similar payments or benefits. A breach of condition (ii) above (except as on the grounds of illness necessitating retirement or additional leave on the advice of a Medical Officer appointed by the employer) will result in forfeiture of all rights (if any) to retiring allowance or other similar benefits or payments.

(h) In order to avoid confusion and embarrassment workers whilst on long service leave shall not, without the prior permission of the officer in charge of the particular establishment, visit any of the premises of the employer except for the purpose of collecting pay or transacting genuine business with the employer's officers. Social visits shall not be indulged in. "Establishment" means any brewery, cooperage, or workshop, but does not include hotels or annual picnics or sports or usual weekly competitive sporting activities.

(2) In a case to which paragraph (3) or paragraph (4) of subclause (c) applies and in any case in which the employment of the worker who has become entitled to leave hereunder is terminated before such leave is taken or fully taken the employer shall, upon termination of his employment otherwise than by death pay to the worker, and upon termination of employment by death pay to the personal representative of the worker upon request by the personal representative, a sum equivalent to the amount which would have been payable in respect of the period of leave to which he is entitled or deemed to have been entitled and which would have been taken but for such termination. Such payment shall be deemed to have satisfied the obligation of the employer in respect of leave hereunder.

(f) Granting Leave in Advance and Benefits to be Brought into Account.

(1) Any employer may by agreement with a worker allow leave to such a worker before the right thereto has accrued due, but where leave is taken in such a case the worker shall not become entitled to any further leave hereunder in respect of any period until after the expiration of the period in respect of which such leave had been taken before it accrued due.

(2) Where leave has been granted to a worker pursuant to the preceding paragraph before the right thereto has accrued due, and the employment subsequently is terminated, the employer may deduct from whatever remuneration is payable upon the termination of the employment a proportionate amount on the basis of 13 weeks for 20 years' service in respect of any period for which the worker has been granted long service leave to which he was not at the date of termination of his employment or prior thereto entitled.

(3) Subject to subclause b (2) any leave in the nature of long service leave or payment in lieu thereof under a State law or a long service leave scheme not under the provisions hereof granted to a worker by his employer in respect of any period of service with the employer shall be taken into account whether the same is granted before or after the coming into operation hereof and shall be deemed to have been leave taken and granted hereunder in the case of leave with pay to the extent of the period of such leave and in the case of payment in lieu thereof to the extent of a period of leave with pay equivalent to the amount of the payment and to be satisfaction to the extent thereof of the entitlement of the worker hereunder.

(g) Records to be Kept.

(1) Each employer shall during the employment and for a period of 12 months thereafter or in the case of termination by death of the worker a period of three years thereafter keep a record from which can be readily ascertained the name of each worker and his occupation, the date of the commencement of his employment and his entitlement to long service leave and any leave which may have been granted to him or in respect of which payment may have been made hereunder.

(2) Such record shall be open for inspection in the manner and circumstances prescribed by this Agreement with respect to the Time and Wages Record.

(c) After application has been made to the Board, and pending the Board's decision, the worker shall be entitled to work for or be employed at the proposed lesser rate.

16.—Engagement.

The engagement between employer and worker, except casual hands, shall be weekly, and may be terminated by a week's notice from either party, except in the case of the worker absenting himself without leave, not obeying lawful commands, or being guilty of other misconduct, or of the works of the employer being stopped, through fire or tempest, when such engagement may be terminated immediately.

(c) The term "sickness" shall not include any case where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(d) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof of his sickness satisfactory to the employer. This proof shall be in the form of a medical certificate if the absence is for three days or more. The employer shall have the right at any time to have the worker examined by a doctor on behalf of the employer.
