CITY OF FREMANTLE.

City of Fremantle Town Planning Scheme—Part 1 and Amendments.

NOTICE is hereby given that, following a resolution by the Council in pursuance of section 7 of the Town Planning and Development Act, 1928-1955, to vary the Town Planning Scheme referred to above, with reference to an area situated wholly within the City of Fremantle Municipal District, the Council of the City of Fremantle resolved, at a meeting of the Council held on Monday the 15th June, 1959, that the plans and regulations produced and adopted at the Council meeting and being duly signed and sealed by the Mayor and Town Clerk, be the subject of an application to the Hon. the Minister for Town Planning for formal approval to the Council's resolution varying the Town Planning Scheme.

The Hon. the Minister for Town Planning has given his approval to the public notification of the Council's variation to the Town Planning Scheme, in accordance with Town Planning Regulations, 1930.

Notice is hereby given that certified copies of the variation to the City of Fremantle Town Planning Scheme Part 1, referred to in the resolution, will be exhibited for a period of three months, as from the 1st December, 1959, at the Engineer's Office, Town Hall, Fremantle.

Variation to City of Fremantle Town Planning Scheme Part 1.

Fremantle Town Lots 162-163-164, South Terrace, now zoned for Residential Purposes, to be re-zoned for Shopping Purposes.

The plans will be open for inspection by all interested persons on Mondays to Friday, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4.30 p.m.

Forms will be available for the lodging of objections by owners or occupiers of property within the Municipal District of Fremantle, or the submission of recommendations or representations of interested persons.

Objections and representations must be submitted to the Town Clerk, Town Hall, Fremantle, not later than the 29th February, 1960. An officer of the Council will be available at the City Engineers Office, on the first floor of the Town Hall, to answer inquiries and give detailed information concerning the plans.

Dated this 25th day of November, 1959.

TOWN PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT ACT,
1928-1958.

Perth Road Board.

Perth Road Board Town Planning Scheme No. 14—
Watermans Bay (Hamersley House).

NOTICE is hereby given that the Perth Road Board on the 18th day of August, 1959, passed the following resolution:—

Resolved that the Perth Road Board, in pursuance of section 7 of the Town Planning and Development Act, 1928-1958, prepare the above Town Planning Scheme with reference to an area situate wholly within the road district of Perth and enclosed within the inner edge of a blue border on the plans now produced to the Perth Road Board, and marked and certified by the Secretary to the Road Board, under his hand, dated the 18th day of August, 1959, as Plan No. 1 and Plan No. 2.

Details of Scheme No. 14 (Summary).

The authority responsible for the administration of this Scheme is the Perth Road Board.

The general objects of the Scheme are to replace the subdivision shown on Plan No. 1 with that shown on Plan No. 2, and in particular to demolish the old house shown on Plan No. 1, in order that the existing traffic hazard may be eliminated, and to provide, by the road widening shown on Plan No. 2, for future improvements to West Coast Highway.

The land within the Scheme Area shall be resumed by the Board, and the owners thereof shall be paid compensation; the new lots created by the re-survey will be sold by the Board, and the net proceeds of the sale credited to the Scheme.

The Scheme shall be debited with the administrative costs of the Scheme, the survey costs, the cost of road access to serve the new lots, and all compensation costs.

In the event of the Scheme showing a profit, the surplus profit shall be paid by the Board to the original owners of land in the Scheme Area. In the event of the Scheme not showing a profit, all net losses of the Scheme shall be paid by the Board.

And notice is hereby given that the Plans Nos. 1 and 2, referred to in the above resolution, have been deposited at Perth Road Board Office, Cedric Street, Osborne Park, and at the office of the Town Planning Board, 31 Malcolm Street, Perth; and will be available for inspection by all persons interested, without payment of any fee, during normal office hours. Any suggestions for the inclusion or exclusion of any lands or works in or from the area of the proposed Scheme should be sent in writing to the Secretary, Perth Road Board, on or before the 4th day of March, 1960.

Dated this 30th day of November, 1959.

L. P. KNUCKEY,
Secretary.

Cedric Street, Osborne Park.

Perth Road Board.

Notice of Intention to Borrow.

Proposed Loan of £20,000.

NOTICE is hereby given that at a meeting held on 8th December, 1959, the Perth Road Board resolved to borrow the sum of twenty thousand pounds to be expended on works and undertakings in the Perth Road District, the said works and undertakings being acquisition of land, erection of library building, Osborne, together with furniture, shelving, equipment, floor covering, blinds, library books, approaches, entrances and garden treatment.

Plans, specifications and the estimates of the cost of the said works and undertakings and statements showing the proposed expenditure of the money to be borrowed, including the cost of supervision and initial expenditure in connection with the raising of the loan, are open for inspection at the office of the Perth Road Board for one month from the publication hereof, between the hours of 10 a.m., and 4 p.m., on week-days except Saturdays.

The amount of £20,000 is proposed to be raised by the sale of debentures, repayable with interest by 40 equal half-yearly instalments over a period of 20 years after the date of the issue thereof, in lieu of the formation of a sinking fund.

The debentures shall bear interest at a rate of five pounds ten shillings per cent. per annum (£5 10s. per cent.) payable half-yearly. The amount of the said debentures and interest thereon is to be paid at the office of the Board, Cedric Street, corner Balcatta Beach Road, Osborne Park.

The works and undertakings for which the loan is proposed to be raised will, in the opinion of the Board, be of special benefit to the whole of the Perth Road District and any loan rate applicable to such loan will be levied on the rateable land within the said district.

Dated this 9th day of December, 1959.

| All other workers | 40 | 37½ |
| Commercial Jobbing Offices | 40 | 37½ |

Provided that, for all workers embraced by this clause working abnormal shifts, there shall be a reduction of two (2) hours per week. An abnormal shift is a shift exceeding eight and a quarter (8¼) hours' work (excluding meal breaks), which does not carry overtime rates.

(b) The week's work shall be accomplished in five (5) shifts.

(c) The five (5) shifts for day workers shall be worked from Monday to Friday, inclusive.

(d) The five (5) shifts for night workers shall be arranged in rostered sequence in accordance with a roster agreed upon between the employer and the Union.

(e) Balance of Staff.—Should the occasion arise through absenteeism, sickness, or accident, the balance of the staff is not maintained as rostered for, arrangements shall be made between the House and the Chapel to recall a worker who has been rostered off. Payment for this extra shift shall be at ordinary rates, and no time off shall be given to compensate for the necessity of working this shift. No time shall be deducted from the wages of the worker so recalled by reason of late start, provided that the worker commences duty as soon as is reasonably possible in the circumstances.

(f) In cases where a worker is absent through sickness or other causes (such as bereavement) on his rostered night off, his night off for that week will automatically lapse.

(g) In the event of a permanent worker not being provided with work for the maximum number of hours in each week, he shall receive not less than the minimum wage for his grade provided in clause 7.

(h) "Day Work" shall mean work done between 8 a.m. and 6.30 p.m. Work done by a day worker before or after these hours and/or before or after the hours of his rostered shift shall be paid for at overtime rates.

(i) "Night Work" shall mean work done between 6.30 p.m. and 8 a.m. Work done by a night worker before or after these hours and/or before or after the hours of the rostered shift shall be paid for at overtime rates.

(j) It shall not be necessary for all sections to commence work at the same time, but where individual workers are called in before the usual starting time or retained after finishing time, they shall be paid overtime.

(k) In offices where a weekly as well as a daily paper is issued, time worked on the ordinary weekly issue shall be counted as part of the week's work.

(l) Provided always that in the case of papers other than dailies, special arrangements shall be made between the union and the employer regarding the distribution of the weekly working hours.

(m) In offices where a regular shift is worked between the hours set down in this Award for day work and night work, the wages shall be a rate proportionate to the number of hours day work and night work, but if more than one hour is worked beyond 6.30 p.m., the weekly hours shall be those for night work.

(n) Roster.—The working hours of each day and night of each office shall be conspicuously displayed in each workroom and shall continue unchanged until altered by agreement between the employer and the Union: Provided that the roster of the Newspaper Section may be varied by half an hour by giving twenty-four (24) hours' notice to the Chapel.

(o) No assistant linotype attendant shall be employed on night work until he has reached the age of seventeen (17) years.

7.—Wages.

The Minimum weekly rate of wages shall be:—

Basic Wage.

The basic wage upon which the rates prescribed in this Award are based is £13 13s. 6d. per week for males and £8 17s. 9d. per week for females.

8.—Casuals.

(a) A "Casual" is a worker on time work paid by the hour or per day and whose term of employment in any one office does not exceed two consecutive full weeks. For the purpose of this clause the continuity of employment shall not be affected by reason of an interruption in any week due to non-publication of the paper on any of the holidays provided in this Award.

(b) If a casual worker commences duty on any day or night or is directed to attend for duty and actually attends on any day or night, such worker shall in respect of such day or night be paid at the rate herein provided and for four hours day and a full shift at night at the least.

(c) Casuals who are sent for and whose services are not availed of shall be paid a "call" at the rate of two hours' pay at casual rates.

(d) A casual worker, whether working on day or night shift, shall be paid for such work the hourly rate prescribed for such work, with the addition of ten per cent. (10%).

(e) Casuals working day work, if employed for a full week, shall be paid the prescribed weekly wage, with no extra allowance for shift.

(f) A casual worker, when working overtime, shall have his rate of pay as a casual worker increased by the same proportion as the weekly worker's rate applicable to the class of work done by the casual worker is directed to be increased under this Award for work done on overtime, with the addition of ten per cent. (10%). For the purpose of this subclause "overtime" shall mean all work performed outside the usual working hours and/or the usual shift of the section or department in which the casual worker is working, and/or if the casual worker has already performed a shift equalling the number of hours usually worked per shift in the section or department in which he is working.

(g) Casuals working mixed shifts, i.e., shifts commencing before 6.30 p.m. and ending after 6.30 p.m. shall be paid day rates; provided the work after 6.30 p.m. does not exceed one hour. If it does, then night rates are to be paid throughout, and the guarantee to be four hours in the Newspaper Section and six hours in the Jobbing Section.

9.—General Conditions.

(a) Workers regularly employed on night work, if called on to work during the day, shall be paid night work rates, and workers regularly employed on day work if called on to work at night shall be paid night work rates.

(b) Workers shall be paid at the rate for the classification at which they are usually employed, and when put to work of a higher grade for more than one hour during the day or night shift shall receive while so employed, the difference in pay between their ordinary rate and higher rate. If employed for four (4) hours or more they shall be paid the higher rate for the full shift. A worker put to work on a lower grade shall be paid his ordinary rate: Provided that a worker relieving one of a higher grade during the illness or leave other than annual leave of a worker who is being paid his ordinary wages shall not be entitled to the higher rate.

(c) Conveyance home. Whenever the finishing time of any worker in the Jobbing Section working overtime is such as to cause him to miss his usual means of conveyance home, he shall be conveyed home in a suitable manner without delay at the expense of the employer.

(d) Payment on termination. If a worker's services be terminated during the course of the week he shall be paid all money due to him immediately at the termination of his service.

(e) Work not to be taken off employer's premises. No work shall be taken off the employer's premises to be executed by any worker.

(f) Seating provision. Any male worker whose work requires him to be seated shall be provided with a reasonably comfortable seat.

(g) Any female worker whose work permits of her being seated or requires her to be seated shall be provided with a reasonably comfortable seat.

10.—Machine Operating.

(a) No person other than a composing apprentice, compositor, or duly qualified operator shall be employed to operate a linotype or other type-setting machine.

(b) Compositors learning machine operating shall be paid the compositor's time rates of wages—jobbing or news—according to the class of work in which he is engaged, and shall serve a probationary period of twelve (12) months; provided that at any time when a compositor shall be able to set and correct an average of seven thousand (7,000) ems per hour based on minion matrices, thirteen (13) ems measure, the matter to be solid, he shall be deemed a proficient operator and shall be paid the minimum rate for operators. The test of the operator's proficiency to be his ability to set the above number of ems in a full day on fair copy, and to approximately maintain these averages. Each employer may adopt the usual means of accurately testing the proficiency of a probationer; provided further that a probationer may apply for a test at any time within the twelve (12) months.

(c) An operator shall not be required to do engineer's or attendant's work except when he is being paid extra for looking after his machine, providing always that the day operator or operators on one day in each week shall do attendant's work without the extra payment, provided in all cases operators shall assist in changing their machines when called upon to do so.

(d) An operator having to look after his own machine shall be paid ten shillings (10s.) per week extra; where a machine is worked more than one shift, then ten shillings (10s.) extra shall be paid to the operator on each shift; providing always that on one day in each week the day operator or operators shall be exempted from the provisions of this clause.

(e) An operator required to go on hand work shall be paid the machine time rate. No operator shall be permanently changed from machine to hand work without one week's notice.

(f) Copy shall consist of ink-written or type-written manuscript or reprint. Wherever possible reprint 6½ point or smaller shall be divided into takes of not more than three inches and distributed as fairly as possible amongst the compositors working the shift. This clause shall not apply to advertisements or racing matter.

11.—Overtime.

(a) Overtime shall be paid for at the rate of time and one-half for the first three (3) hours, and double time thereafter. When overtime is worked any part of a quarter of an hour shall be counted as a full quarter of an hour.

(b) Double time or double rate shall be paid for all work done on Saturday and (with a minimum of four (4) hours' work or pay equivalent thereto) on Sunday; provided that this subclause shall not apply to the usual Sunday shift in respect to newspaper workers.

(c) Overtime shall be rotated amongst workers in the News Section and, as far as practicable, in the Jobbing Section.

(d) All overtime rates earned by a worker shall be paid in full, and no deduction shall be made from such overtime rates by reason of any time not worked by such worker.

(e) All work done on the sixth shift, either day or night, shall be paid for at double time or double rate. Provided always that this clause shall not apply when clause 6, subclause (e)—balance of staff—applies, when the shift shall be paid for at ordinary rate, except when overtime rates apply.

(f) Where notice of overtime in excess of one hour has not been given to any worker, including an apprentice, in the Job Printing Section during the previous shift, or where notice of overtime has been given but overtime has not been worked, five shillings (5s.) shall be paid as an allowance for tea money. The same allowance shall be made for each meal reasonably occurring during such overtime work.

(g) No worker under sixteen (16) years of age shall be employed on overtime. No worker under seventeen (17) years of age (except galley boys) nor any apprentice under that age (except apprentices to stereotyping) nor any female shall be on duty in any event before 8 a.m. or later than 9 p.m. on any day.

(h) An employer shall not require or permit any female worker to work overtime after 6 p.m. unless at least one other female person is working with her.

(i) An employer shall not require or permit an employee to work overtime or on night shift in connection with power-driven machinery unless he works in company with at least one other person; provided that an apprentice shall not be permitted to work overtime unless at least one journeyman from the same section is employed in company with the said apprentice.

(j) Overtime shall be calculated on the actual wage received.

(k) The rates in this clause shall be applicable to the man in charge of the composing room and the head mechanic in the newspaper section.

(l) An employer may require any worker to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates, and such worker shall work overtime in accordance with such requirements.

(m) No organisation party to this Award, or worker or workers covered by this Award, shall in any way, whether directly or indirectly, be a party to or concerned in any ban, limitation or restriction upon the working of overtime in accordance with the requirements of this subclause.

(n) This subclause shall remain in operation only until otherwise determined by the Court.

(o) An employer shall not insist upon a worker working overtime where the worker declares he is not free to work and discloses a good reason to the employer to support his declaration. No worker shall be dismissed or in any way whatsoever prejudiced in his employment by reason of his refusal to work overtime where he has satisfactorily disclosed he is not free to work. Any dispute arising under this subclause shall be heard and decided by the Board of Reference.

12.—Holidays.

(a) Every worker shall receive four (4) consecutive weeks' annual leave in each year on full pay at a time convenient to the employer. If the employment of a worker who has been employed for more than three calendar months is terminated he shall be paid the proportion of wages which the period of his employment bears to twelve calendar months. Should any of the holidays mentioned in the next subclause fall within the four weeks' holiday an extra day or days shall be added to the four weeks.

(b) One day at Christmas and one day at Easter shall be paid holidays, and should any worker be required to work on these days and/or nights or any day and/or night of his annual leave, he shall receive double pay for the time worked in addition to holiday pay: Provided that should any of the holidays abovementioned fall on a Saturday or Sunday and/or on the rostered day or night off of any worker, another day's holiday shall be substituted. Provided always that if the employer determines it is impracticable or inadvisable to substitute another day or night off in lieu as allowed for in this proviso payment shall be made for the shift at ordinary rates. For overtime worked on any holiday the rates shall be those prescribed in clause 11, subclause (a) and calculated on the basis of the pay prescribed for work performed on any holiday.

(c) Casual workers shall receive proportionate annual holidays, provided they have worked an average of three (3) shifts per week over a period of not less than six (6) months.

(d) Where the employer terminates the employment within one week of a day on which a holiday occurs, the worker shall be paid for such holiday or holidays prescribed by this Award: Provided that such worker had been employed by the employer for a period of at least one month prior to the termination of the employment.

13.—Termination of Employment.

Any worker having been employed for two (2) consecutive full weeks in any office shall be entitled to one week's notice that his services are to be dispensed with, and any such worker leaving his employment shall likewise give one week's notice. In the case of casual workers no notice is necessary.

14.—Long Service Leave.

(a) Right to Leave.

A worker shall as herein provided be entitled to leave with pay in respect of long service.

(b) Long Service.

(1) The Long service which shall entitle a worker to such leave shall, subject as herein provided, be continuous service with one and the same employer.

(2) Such service shall include service prior to the first day of April, 1958, if it continued until such time but only to the extent of the last 20 completed years of continuous service.

(3) (i) Where a business has, whether before or after the first day of April, 1958, been transmitted from an employer (herein called "the transmitter") business becomes an employee of the transmittor—tee") and a worker who at the time of such transmission was an employee of the transmitter in that business becomes an employee of the transmittor—the period of the continuous service which the worker has had with the transmitter (including any such service with any prior transmitter) shall be deemed to be service of the worker with the transmittor.

(ii) In this subclause "transmission" includes transfer, conveyance, assignment or succession, whether voluntary or by agreement or by operation of law and "transmitted" has a corresponding meaning.

(4) Such service shall include—

(a) Any period of absence from duty on any annual leave or long service leave.

(b) Any period of absence from duty necessitated by sickness or injury to the worker but only to the extent of fifteen working days in any year of his employment.

(c) Any period following any termination of the employment by the employer if such termination has been made merely with the intention of avoiding obligations hereunder in respect of long service leave or obligations under any award in respect of annual leave.

(d) Any period during which the service of the worker was or is interrupted by service—

(i) as a member of the Naval, Military or Air Forces of the Commonwealth of Australia other than as a member of the British Commonwealth Occupation Forces in Japan and other than as a member of the Permanent Forces of the Commonwealth of Australia except in the circumstances referred to in section 31 (2) of the Defence Act, 1903-1956, and except in Korea or Malaya after June 26, 1950;

(ii) as a member of the Civil Construction Corps established under the National Security Act, 1939-1946;

(iii) in any of the Armed Forces under the National Service Act, 1951 (as amended).

Provided that the worker as soon as reasonably practicable on the completion of any such service resumed or resumes employment with the employer by whom he was employed immediately before the commencement of such service.

(5) Service shall be deemed to be continuous notwithstanding—

(a) the transmission of a business as referred to in paragraph (3) hereof;

(b) any interruption of a class referred to in paragraph (4) hereof irrespective of the duration thereof;

(c) any absence from duty authorised by the employer;

(d) any standing-down of a worker in accordance with the provisions of an Award, Industrial Agreement, Order or Determination under either Commonwealth or State law;

(e) any absence from duty arising directly or indirectly from an industrial dispute if the worker returns to work in accordance with the terms of settlement of the dispute;

(f) any termination of the employment by the employer on any ground other than slackness of trade if the worker be re-employed by the same employer within a period not exceeding two months from the date of such termination;

- (g) any termination of the employment by the employer on the ground of slackness of trade if the worker is re-employed by the same employer within a period not exceeding six months from the date of such termination;
- (h) any reasonable absence of the worker on legitimate union business in respect of which he has requested and been refused leave;
- (i) any absence from duty after the coming into operation of this clause by reason of any cause not specified in this clause unless the employer during the absence or within fourteen days of the termination of the absence notifies the worker in writing that such absence will be regarded as having broken the continuity of service, which notice may be given by delivery to the worker personally or by posting it by registered mail to his last recorded address, in which case it shall be deemed to have reached him in due course of post.

Provided that the period of any absence from duty or the period of any interruption referred to in placita (c) to (i) inclusive of this paragraph shall not (except as set out in paragraph (4) hereof) count as service.

(c) Period of Leave.

(1) The leave to which a worker shall be entitled or deemed to be entitled shall be as provided in this subclause.

(2) Where a worker has completed at least 20 years' service the amount of leave shall be—

- (a) in respect of 20 years' service so completed—13 weeks' leave;
- (b) in respect of each 10 years' service completed after such 20 years—six and a half weeks' leave.

(3) Where a worker has completed at least 15 years' service since its commencement and his employment is terminated—

- (a) by his death;
- (b) in any circumstances otherwise than by the employer for serious misconduct;

the amount of leave shall be—

- (i) if such determination takes place before the worker has become entitled to leave under placitum (a) of paragraph (2) hereof such proportion of 13 weeks' leave as the number of completed years of such service bears to 20 years;
- (ii) if such termination takes place after the worker has become entitled to leave under placitum (a) of paragraph (2) hereof the leave due under such placitum and in addition such proportion of 13 weeks' leave as the number of completed years of such service after the accrual of such entitlement bears to 20 years.

(4) Where a worker has completed at least 10 years' service but less than 15 years' service since its commencement and his employment is terminated—

- (i) by his death; or
- (ii) by the employer for any reason other than serious misconduct; or
- (iii) by the worker on account of sickness or injury to the worker or domestic or other pressing necessity where such sickness or injury or necessity is of such a nature as to justify or in the event of a dispute is, in the opinion of the Special Board of Reference, of such a nature as to justify such termination; the amount of the leave shall be such proportion of 13 weeks' leave as the number of completed years of such service bears to 20 years.

(5) In the cases to which paragraphs (3) and (4) hereof apply the worker shall be deemed to have been entitled to and to have commenced leave immediately prior to such termination.

(d) Payment for Period of Leave.

(1) A worker shall subject to paragraph (3) hereof, be entitled to be paid for each week of leave to which he has become entitled or is deemed to have become entitled the ordinary time rate of pay applicable to him at the date he commences such leave.

(2) Such ordinary time rate of pay shall be the rate applicable to him for the standard weekly hours which are prescribed by this award, but in the case of casuals and part-time workers shall be the ordinary time rate for the number of hours usually worked up to but not exceeding the prescribed standard.

(3) Where by agreement between the employer and the worker the commencement of the leave to which the worker is entitled or any portion thereof is postponed to meet the convenience of the worker, the rate of payment for such leave shall be at the ordinary time rate of pay applicable to him at the date of accrual or, if so agreed, at the ordinary time rate of pay applicable at the date he commences such leave.

(4) The ordinary time rate of pay—

- (a) shall include any deductions from wages for board and/or lodging or the like which is not provided and taken during the period of leave;
- (b) shall not include shift premiums, overtime, penalty rates, commissions, bonuses, allowances or the like.

(5) In the case of workers employed on piece or bonus work or any other system of payment by results payment shall be at ordinary time rates.

(1) In a case to which paragraph (2) of subclause (c) applies—

(a) Leave shall be granted and taken as soon as reasonably practicable after the right thereto accrues due or at such time or times as may be agreed between the employer and the worker or in the absence of such agreement at such time or times as may be determined by the Special Board of Reference, having regard to the needs of the employer's establishment and the worker's circumstances.

(b) Except where the time for taking leave is agreed to by the employer and the worker or determined by the Special Board of Reference the employer shall give to a worker at least one month's notice of the date from which his leave is to be taken.

(c) Leave may be granted and taken in one continuous period or if the employer and the worker so agree in not more than three separate periods in respect of the first 13 weeks' entitlement and in not more than two separate periods in respect of any subsequent period of entitlement.

(d) Any leave shall be inclusive of any public holidays specified in this award occurring during the period when the leave is taken but shall not be inclusive of any annual leave.

(e) Payment shall be made in one of the following ways—

- (i) in full before the worker goes on leave;
- (ii) at the same time as his wages would have been paid to him if the worker had remained at work, in which case payment shall, if the worker in writing so requires, be made by cheque posted to an address specified by the worker; or
- (iii) in any other way agreed between the employer and the worker.

(f) No worker shall, during any period when he is on leave, engage in any employment for hire or reward in substitution for the employment from which he is on leave, and if a worker breaches this provision he shall thereupon forfeit his right to leave hereunder in respect of the unexpired period of leave upon which he has entered, and the employer shall be entitled to withhold any further payment in respect of the period and to reclaim any payments already made on account of such period of leave.

(2) In a case to which paragraph (3) or paragraph (4) of subclause (c) applies and in any case in which the employment of the worker who has become entitled to leave hereunder is terminated before such leave is taken or fully taken the employer shall, upon termination of his employment otherwise than by death pay to the worker, and upon termination of employment by death pay to the personal representative of the worker upon request by the personal representative, a sum equivalent to the amount which would have been payable in respect of the period of leave to which he is entitled or deemed to have been entitled and which would have been taken but for such termination. Such payment shall be deemed to have satisfied the obligation of the employer in respect of leave hereunder.

(f) Granting Leave in Advance and Benefits to be Brought into Account.

(1) Any employer may by agreement with a worker allow leave to such a worker before the right thereto has accrued due, but where leave is taken in such a case the worker shall not become entitled to any further leave hereunder in respect of any period until after the expiration of the period in respect of which such leave had been taken before it accrued due.

(2) Where leave has been granted to a worker pursuant to the preceding paragraph before the right thereto has accrued due, and the employment subsequently is terminated, the employer may deduct from whatever remuneration is payable upon the termination of the employment a proportionate amount on the basis of 13 weeks for twenty years' service in respect of any period for which the worker has been granted long service leave to which he was not at the date of termination of his employment or prior thereto entitled.

(3) Any leave in the nature of long service leave or payment in lieu thereof under a State law or a long service leave scheme not under the provisions hereof granted to a worker by his employer in respect of any period of service with the employer shall be taken into account whether the same is granted before or after the coming into operation hereof and shall be deemed to have been leave taken and granted hereunder in the case of leave with pay to the extent of the period of such leave and in the case of payment in lieu thereof to the extent of a period of leave with pay equivalent to the amount of the payment and to be satisfaction to the extent thereof of the entitlement of the worker hereunder.

(g) Records to be Kept.

(1) Each employer shall during the employment and for a period of 12 months thereafter, or in the case of termination by death of the worker a period of three years thereafter, keep a record from which can be readily ascertained the name of each worker and his occupation, the date of the commencement of his employment and his entitlement to long service leave and any leave which may have been granted to him or in respect of which payment may have been made hereunder.

(2) Such record shall be open for inspection in the manner and circumstances prescribed by this award with respect to the time and wages record.

(h) Special Board of Reference.

(1) There shall be constituted a Special Board of Reference for the purpose hereof to which all disputes and matters arising hereunder shall be referred and the Board shall determine all such disputes and matters.

(2) There shall be assigned to such Board the functions of—

- (a) the settlement of disputes on any matters arising hereunder;
- (b) the determination of such matters as are specifically assigned to it hereunder.

(3) The Board of Reference shall consist of one representative or substitute therefor nominated from time to time by the Western Australian Employers' Federation (Incorporated) and one representative or substitute nominated from time to time by the West Australian Trade Unions Industrial Council (A.L.P.) together with a chairman to be mutually agreed upon by the organisations named in this paragraph.

(i) State Law.

(1) The provisions of any State law to the extent to which they have before the coming into operation hereof conferred an accrued right on a worker to be granted a period of long service leave in respect of a completed period of 20 or more years' service or employment or an accrued right on a worker or his personal representative to payment in respect of long service leave shall not be affected hereby and shall not be deemed to be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(2) The entitlement of any such worker to leave in respect of a period of service with the employer completed after the period in respect of which the long service leave referred to in paragraph (1) hereof accrued due shall be in accordance herewith.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (1) and (2) hereof, the entitlement to leave hereunder shall be in substitution for and satisfaction of any long service leave to which the worker may be entitled in respect of employment of the worker by the employer.

(4) An employer who under any State law with regard to long service leave is exempted from the provisions of that law as at the first day of April, 1958 shall in respect of the workers covered by such exemption be exempt from the provisions hereof.

(j) Exemptions.

The Special Board of Reference may subject to such conditions as it thinks fit exempt any employer from the provisions hereof in respect of its workers where there is an existing or prospective long service leave scheme which, in its opinion is, viewed as a whole, more favourable for the whole of the workers of that employer than the provisions hereof.

(k) Liberty to Apply.

Liberty is granted to any party to this award to apply to the Court at any time for an appropriate variation of this clause if any of the terms and conditions operating under the code of Long Service Leave being negotiated between the Australian Council of Trade Unions and Federal Employers' Organisations is varied in any way.

15.—Time Book.

(a) Each employer shall keep a time and wages book, correctly and fully written in ink, showing the name of each worker, and his occupation, the hours worked (including overtime) each day or night, the time of the commencement and the ending of each shift, and the wages, overtime, and allowance paid each week. The book shall be open for inspection by duly accredited officials of the Union during the usual office hours, at the place of business of the employer. The inspecting official shall be entitled to take a copy of any entry in such book or time card, and may in any relevant proceeding tender such copy in evidence. Every book kept under this clause shall for at least twelve months after the making of any record thereon be kept by the employer at his place of business and shall be there open for inspection under this clause.

(b) The employer and the worker shall be severally responsible for the proper posting daily of such time book.

16.—Union Chapel Delegates.

Delegates chosen from the chapel of workers (but not more than three) shall be allowed the necessary time in working hours to interview the employer or his representative for the purpose of discussing industrial matters; the time of any interview shall be so fixed as not to delay the publication of the newspapers.

17.—Union Officials Visiting Factory.

An employer shall permit two officials of the Union to enter the workroom during working hours to interview the Father or Clerk of the Chapel or individual members, or to collect subscriptions, or to see that this Award is being observed, but shall not interview members severally in such manner as to delay work.

18.—Call.

(a) A worker sent for and/or called to work otherwise than in his usual working hours shall, if he attends, be paid two (2) hours at ordinary rates as a "call" in addition to his ordinary wage; providing always that this clause shall not apply when a worker is called in under clause 6, subclause (e) Balance of Staff.

(b) This clause shall only apply when a worker is not notified before he leaves his work that he will be required for special duty; provided that any man so called shall be paid at least two (2) hours at overtime rates.

(c) If no work is available to a worker when sent for or called, two (2) hours shall be paid for.

19.—Health Conditions.

(a) Type metal shavings or type metal dust shall not be permitted to accumulate in a workroom in such a manner that it may be inhaled by the workers to the detriment of their health.

(b) Dry-cleaning shall not, so far as practicable, be permitted or carried out in any room or place where lead or type metal dust is accumulated.

(c) Efficient ventilation shall be provided in all workshops and factories.

(d) The employer shall provide suitable places for workers to wash their hands.

(e) Proper facilities shall be provided by the employer for the changing and protection from dust of the clothing of workers taken off during working hours.

(f) All metal pots heated by gas or other fume-producing means shall be provided with suitable hoods, so fitted that all noxious fumes and gasses may be conducted into the open air.

(g) Where artificial lighting is used it shall, as far as possible, be of such a nature and be so situated as to prevent undue strain to the eyes.

(h) A first aid ambulance chest shall be provided in all establishments, equipped to the satisfaction of the Chief Inspector of Factories with all usual necessary furnishings and appliances and placed in a position approved of by such official.

(i) In workshops, factories, or offices where the floors are composed of materials known as granolithic, or concrete, or combination of cement, stone or asphalt, employers shall provide some suitable mats upon which the workers may stand whilst at work.

20.—Disputes.

Any dispute arising out of this Award which cannot be satisfactorily settled between the Father of the Chapel which attends to the interests of the worker concerned and the Printer shall be referred to the union concerned and the House. If not then settled, it shall be referred to the Board of Reference.

21.—Board of Reference.

(a) For the purpose of this Award, a Board of Reference is hereby appointed which shall consist of a chairman and two (2) other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties. The said Board shall have assigned to it, in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to the dispute, the functions of—

(i) adjusting any matters of difference which may arise from time to time, except such as involve interpretation of the provisions of this Award or any of them;

(ii) dealing with any other matter which the Court may refer to the Board from time to time.

(b) An appeal shall lie from any decision of such Board in the manner and subject to the conditions prescribed in the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, which for this purpose are embodied in this Award.

22.—Preference to Unionists.

In the employment of persons under this Award no discrimination shall be exercised against the members of the Union: Provided that, where a worker other than a member of the union is engaged, such worker shall within fourteen days of engagement, make application for membership of the union, and, if accepted, shall complete such application.

23.—Award, etc., to be Posted.

A copy of this Award, with any variation thereof, shall be kept posted in a prominent place in each workroom where it may be read by workers. The Union shall be permitted to post notices as to union meetings on a board at each establishment in a reasonable manner.

24.—Health Notices.

Notices containing advice for the preservation of the health and protection of workmen, if provided by the Union shall be kept prominently posted and displayed in all workrooms by the employer.

25.—Classes of Labour.

(a) Only two classes of labour—journeymen and apprentices—shall be employed in any branch of the industry, with the exception of junior assistant readers, junior assistant linotype attendants and assistant stereotypers, as provided in this Award.

(b) Should an emergency arise which affects the classes of labour specified in this Award the employers and the applicant union shall confer and decide on measures to meet the emergency.

(c) Nothing in this clause shall affect the employment of boys in such work as going messages, sweeping-up, and cleaning printing machines and pulling galley proofs.

26.—Meal Period.

(a) The minimum time allowance for meals shall be one hour for day workers and half an hour for night workers: Provided that by agreement with the Union, the period may be reduced to not less than half an hour.

(b) No worker shall be compelled to break shift except for meals, and no shift shall exceed five hours without a break for meals.

(c) Where a worker is required to work during his usual meal period he shall be paid one-half extra on the hourly rate of his weekly wage for the time so worked and be allowed his usual meal period as soon as it can be arranged: Provided that the extra rate shall not apply when twenty-four (24) hours' notice has been given by the employer.

27.—Sick Pay.

Permanent male workers absent through illness shall be entitled to payment of the usual wages during such illness not exceeding the wages for five (5) shifts in any one year. Such sick leave shall accumulate from year to year, provided that it shall be available to the worker for a period of two years but no longer from the end of the year of employment in which it accrues.

Permanent female workers absent through illness shall be entitled to sick pay during such illness not exceeding the wages for twelve shifts in any one year.

This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act. No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

28.—Artificial Light.

Where the construction of the building is such that the worker is obliged to work in artificial light, he shall be paid ten per centum (10%) increase on the rates hereinbefore prescribed during the time he is so engaged. Provided that this provision shall not apply during the time overtime rate applies nor to occasions upon which dullness of natural light through weather conditions makes artificial light necessary, or to night work: And further provided that the attention of the employer has been drawn to the defect in the natural lighting of the building and he has failed within a reasonable time to remedy the defect.

29.—Bronzing or Dusting-off.

(a) All workers employed on bronze work shall be paid double time rates while so employed. Milk shall be provided before commencing and occasionally during the progress of the work. The work shall be done in a room or place devoted solely to this operation. There shall be provided—

- (i) suitable overalls and head coverings for all workers engaged in bronzing or dusting-off, which shall be washed or otherwise effectively cleaned at least once every week when in use;
- (ii) for all workers engaged in bronzing or dusting-off, a suitable place or places for clothing put off during working hours.

(b) Every worker employed in bronzing or dusting-off shall—

- (i) wash the face and hands before partaking of any food or leaving the premises;
- (ii) wear the overalls and head coverings supplied, as provided herein;
- (iii) deposit clothing put off during working hours in the place or places provided in pursuance of clause 19 (e).

(c) Where bronzing or dusting-off is regularly done there shall be provided and maintained in a clean state and in good repair for the use of all workers employed in bronzing or dusting-off, a lavatory with a sufficient supply of clean towels and soap and nail brushes, and having a supply of hot and cold water.

(d) Where bronzing or dusting-off is not done regularly, a reasonable supply of hot water shall be available for each worker engaged in bronzing or dusting-off.

30.—Female Section.

(a) Rest Intervals for Females.—There shall be an interval of 10 minutes, at a time fixed by the employer, between 10 a.m. and 11 a.m. for rest on each day, Monday to Friday inclusive, in each week for each female worker on time work, such time to count as time worked. Reasonable facilities shall be provided by the employer for the worker to have refreshments during such interval if the worker so desires.

(b) Females not to Wash-up or Feed Machines, etc.—A female shall not be required or permitted to wash-up or clean a printing machine; or feed any armory press or platen machine used for carton cutting, or operate any power guillotine machine, or feed any printing machine, or to do bronzing or dusting-off work.

(c) A junior female shall not be permitted to operate a power-driven stapler, puncher, or perforator until she has completed her first six months.

(d) A female worker shall not perform night-shift work.

(e) On the termination of the employment the employer shall provide the worker with a note stating the date when such employment began and the date of its termination: such note shall be the property of the worker, and shall be shown to the employer and/or a duly accredited union official on demand.

(f) Juniors (Female). The term "junior" shall mean a female who has had less than three years' experience or has not attained the age of 21 years, but shall not include any female in receipt of the adult wage.

(g) No department shall be exclusively manned by junior females.

31.—Definitions.

(a) "Journeyman" shall mean a man who has served an apprenticeship of not less than five years or who is capable of earning and is being paid the minimum rate set out herein for his class of work.

(b) A timeworker's hourly rate for any work for which a weekly rate is prescribed by this Award shall be ascertained by dividing the weekly rate by the number of hours which constitute the worker's ordinary working week.

(c) The word "factory" or the words "factory or workshop" shall include every room or place where work in respect of which a wage is prescribed by this Award is carried out by workers.

(d) A day's work or a night's work shall mean work done between the usual hours of commencing and finishing work on any day or night shift respectively, or any mixed day and night shift.

(e) "Assistant reader" shall mean a worker employed to hold and read copy and generally assist a reader in his work.

(f) "Union" shall mean the "Printing Industry Employees' Union of Australia, Western Australian Branch, Industrial Union of Workers, Perth."

(g) "Court" shall mean "The Court of Arbitration of Western Australia."

32.—Clauses to Cover All Workers.

All clauses in this award shall apply equally to all workers, whether male or female, except where specifically stated otherwise.

33.—Liberty to Apply.

Liberty is reserved to the Union to apply at any time in respect of:—

- (a) Margins.
- (b) Night Loading.
- (c) Long Service Leave.

34.—Apprentices.

(a) The employment of apprentices shall be governed by the Apprenticeship Regulations, 1953, with the following amendments:—

Add to Regulation 30 a new paragraph as follows:—

(d) Marks shall be awarded for these examinations as follows:—A merit pass shall be granted to all who secure at least 75 per cent. of marks and a pass shall be awarded to those who receive at least 60 per cent. of marks. Less than 60 per cent. marks shall necessitate a student continuing his studies another term. As from the date of this Award an apprentice who passes the first annual examination with a merit pass shall receive the sum of five shillings (5s.) per week in addition to the prescribed weekly wage; for the second annual examination he passes with a merit pass he shall receive an additional sum of two shillings and sixpence (2s. 6d.) per week, or a total of seven shillings and sixpence (7s. 6d.) in addition to the prescribed weekly wage; for the third annual examination he passes with a merit pass he shall receive a further sum of two shillings and sixpence (2s. 6d.) per week, or a total of ten shillings (10s.) in addition to the prescribed weekly wage. He shall receive such additional amounts on and from the beginning of the first pay period commencing in January following the examination.

(b) Apprentices may be taken to the following trades:—

- (i) Hand and/or Machine Composing.
- (ii) Linotype Mechanic.
- (iii) Letterpress and/or Rotary Machining.
- (iv) Stereotyping.

(c) Proportion of Apprentices.—One apprentice to each branch of the trade may be employed in any establishment where one skilled adult worker is permanently employed in such branch on full rates as provided in this award; two apprentices to three such adults; three apprentices to five such adults and one additional apprentice to every additional three or fraction of three such adults. Notwithstanding the stipulations herein, an employer may, with the approval of the branch of the union concerned, take an apprentice additional to the number provided herein when one apprentice has entered the last year of the period of his apprenticeship or where an apprentice is in his second last year and there is no apprentice in his last year of apprenticeship.

For the purpose of this subclause "permanently employed" means continuously employed for a period of not less than six calendar months.

(d) All apprentices indentured under this award shall have full facilities afforded them at least once a year for two weeks in their trade at Perth Technical College, the period to be arranged between the employers and the Technical School authorities; wages to be paid by the employer.

(e) The term of apprenticeship shall be five (5) years.

(f) An apprentice on reaching the age of seventeen (17) years shall be allowed to work at night, provided that no apprentice shall be allowed to work at night to the exclusion of a journeyman permanently employed. If so employed at night, an apprentice shall be paid fifteen shillings (15s.) weekly in addition to his wages as prescribed in paragraph (g) of this clause.

(g) The minimum weekly wage payable to an apprentice shall be:—

| | Per cent. of basic wage per week. |
|------------------|-----------------------------------|
| First year | 33½ |
| Second year | 45 |
| Third year | 65 |
| Fourth year | 85 |
| Fifth year | 100 plus £1. |

(h) (i) An apprentice to hand composing shall be taught and instructed in all phases of hand composing and all things incidental thereto and, in addition, where the requisite facilities are available, he shall be taught and instructed in machine composing and the mechanism of slug-casting or type-casting machines.

(ii) In establishments where facilities are available for such teaching and instruction, an employer may take an apprentice to hand and machine composing. Such apprentice shall be taught and instructed in all phases of hand composing and all things incidental thereto. In addition, he shall be taught and instructed in machine composing and the mechanism of slug-casting or type-casting machines.

(iii) Where an apprentice is taught and instructed in machine composing, such teaching and instruction shall be given in the last four years of his apprenticeship. Provided however that should any such apprentice at any time fail to pass any annual examination in hand composing he shall not be taught and instructed nor permitted to work at machine composing until he shall have passed an examination equivalent to that in which he failed.

(iv) An apprentice to linotype mechanics shall be taught and instructed in all phases of the mechanism of linotype, Ludlow, Elrod and slug casting machines, how to attend and adjust them, and make such repairs to them as the mechanical equipment of the employer's business will permit, and all things incidental to a linotype, Elrod, Ludlow or slug casting machine.

An attendance at the Technical College or correspondence therewith, if such can be arranged, shall as to the teaching and instructing with regards Elrod or Ludlow machines be a sufficient compliance with this Clause.

(v) An apprentice to letterpress machining shall be taught and instructed in all phases of letterpress machining and all things incidental thereto. For this purpose the employer shall have and use in his business at least one cylinder machine. An attendance at the Technical College or correspondence therewith, if such can be arranged, shall as to the teaching and instructing in colour printing be a sufficient compliance with this clause.

(vi) An apprentice to letterpress and rotary machining shall be taught and instructed for the first three (3) years in all phases of letterpress machining and all things incidental thereto, including make-ready and mixing and use of inks, black and colour printing, the class of paper and stock used, and the care of cylinder letterpress machines, including the mechanism of such machines, and for the balance of his apprenticeship he shall be taught and instructed in all phases of rotary machining and all things incidental thereto. For the purpose of determining the number of apprentices to which an office is entitled, each rotary machine first and second assistant, shall be deemed a journeyman.

(vii) An apprentice to stereotyping shall be taught and instructed in all phases of the trade including flat-casting within the limits of the plant, equipment and facilities available in the particular establishment concerned. Such apprentices shall be allowed to work at night at sixteen (16) years of age and if so employed at night shall be paid fifteen shillings (15s.) weekly in addition to the rates prescribed in paragraph (g) of this clause.
