RIGHTS IN WATER AND IRRIGATION ACT, 1914-1954.

Department of Public Works Water Supply,
Perth, 8th January, 1960.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to approve of the by-laws made pursuant to the provisions of the Rights in Water and Irrigation Act, 1914-1954, by the Minister for Water Supply, Sewerage and Drainage (acting as the Irrigation Board for Harvey No. 1, Waroona, Harvey No. 2 and Collie Irrigation Districts) and set out in the Schedule hereunder.

(Sgd.) J. McCONNELL,
Under Secretary for Works.

Schedule.

By-laws.

Principal
by-laws.

1. The by-laws for Harvey No. 1 Irrigation District, Waroona Irrigation District, Harvey No. 2 Irrigation District and Collie Irrigation District reprinted pursuant to the Reprinting of Regulations Act, 1954, published in the Government Gazette on the 6th April, 1955, and amended by notices published in the Government Gazette on the 12th December, 1956, and the 14th day of November, 1957, are referred to in these by-laws as the principal by-laws.

By-law 26
amended.

2. By-law 26 of the principal by-laws is amended—

(a) by inserting immediately before the word "Subject" being the first word in the by-law, the paragraph designation "(a)"; and

(b) by adding the following paragraph:—

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this by-law, the Minister may in any financial year compute as from a date to be fixed by him (which date for the year ending the 31st day of August, 1960, was fixed as the 1st day of November, 1959) the quantity of water to be supplied to the ratepayer during the remainder of that year and allocate to the ratepayer the number of hours for which he is entitled to be supplied with that water for subsequent waterings in that year, and the ratepayer shall, so far as the water is available, upon payment in advance of the further sum (in lieu of the sum of 5s. 9d. per acre for each acre to be watered as specified in paragraph (a) of this by-law) of 2s. 9d. for each hour so allocated, and 2s. 2d. for each hour in excess of the number of hours so allocated, be supplied with subsequent waterings, at such times and in such order and in such manner as the Minister may direct.

METROPOLITAN WATER SUPPLY, SEWERAGE, AND DRAINAGE ACT, 1909-1956.

Water Supply, Sewerage and Drainage Department,

Perth, 17th December, 1959.

Ex. Co. No. 2340.

His Excellency the Governor in Executive Council has been pleased to approve of the by-laws made by the Minister under the provisions of the Metropolitan Water Supply, Sewerage and Drainage Act, 1909-1956, as set out in the Schedule hereunder.

B. J. CLARKSON,
Under Secretary.

Schedule.

By-laws.

Principal
by-laws.

1. In these by-laws the expression "by-laws" means the by-laws made by the Minister under the provisions of the Metropolitan Water Supply, Sewerage, and Drainage Act, 1909 (as amended), and published in the Government Gazette on the 26th January, 1945, as reprinted pursuant to the Reprinting of Regulations Act, 1954, with all amendments to and including those appearing in the Government Gazette on the 15th June, 1956 (which by-laws as so reprinted were published in the Government Gazette on the 25th June, 1957), and as further amended by by-laws so made and published in the Government Gazette on the 18th December, 1956, the 13th August, 1957, and the 30th June, 1959.

By-law 267
substituted.

2. The principal by-laws are amended by substituting for by-law 267 the following by-law:—

267. (1) Subject to the provisions of these by-laws, every ratepayer is entitled to consume during each consumption year on each separately assessed piece of land of which he is the owner or occupier that quantity of water which, if calculated at the price specified in item (1) of the Schedule in by-law 278 of these by-laws, would amount to the equivalent of the water rate levied in respect of that separately assessed piece of land for the rating year ending the 30th day of June during which that consumption year terminates, provided that such water is taken during that consumption year.

(2) In this by-law "consumption year" means, subject to by-law 288 of these by-laws, the period of twelve months terminating on the day (being in any year a day between the 15th day of January and the 29th day of June next following) fixed by the Minister for reading, for the purpose of ascertaining the water consumed, the meter attached to the water service supplying the separately assessed piece of land.

CEMETERIES ACT, 1897-1957.

ERRATUM.

AMENDMENTS to Ravensthorpe Public Cemetery By-laws published on page 3436 of Government Gazette (No. 99) of 21st December, 1959: In line 16 of the notice, for "19th January, 1953" read "19th January, 1955."

(Sgd.) GEO. S. LINDSAY,
Secretary for Local Government.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS ACT, 1906.

City of Nedlands.

By-law No. 8—Standing Orders.

L.C. 617/59.

A By-law of the City of Nedlands made under Section 180 of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1906, and numbered 8.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the said Act, the Mayor and Councillors of the City of Nedlands order as follows:—

1. The proceedings and business of the Council shall be conducted according to the following regulations, which shall be called the Standing Orders.

Mayor.

2. In the construction of this by-law, unless the context otherwise requires, the word "Mayor" shall include the Councillor chosen to preside at any meetings of the Council.

Meetings of the Council.

Mayor to Preside.

3. The Mayor, if present, shall preside at all meetings of the Council, and, in his absence, or if, after being present, he retires, one of the Councillors chosen by the Councillors present shall preside.

Quorum.

4. At any meeting of the Council a quorum shall consist of not less than four Councillors in addition to the Mayor or Councillor chosen to preside. Every meeting shall proceed to business so soon after the time stated in the summons, as there shall be a sufficient number of Councillors in attendance to constitute a quorum.

Absence of Quorum.

5. If at any meeting a quorum be not present within a quarter of an hour after the time appointed for such meeting, the majority of the Councillors present, or any one Councillor if only one be present, or the Town Clerk if no Councillor be present, may adjourn such meeting to any date not later than seven days from the date of such adjournment.

6. If at any time during any meeting of the Council, a quorum is not present the Mayor shall thereupon suspend the proceedings of the meeting for a period of two minutes, and if a quorum be not present at the expiration of such period, the meeting shall be deemed to have been counted out, and the Mayor shall adjourn it to some future date.

7. At all meetings at which there are not present four Councillors and the Mayor or Councillor chosen to preside, or at which the Council is counted out for want of a quorum, the names of the Councillors then present shall be recorded in the Minute Book.

Open or Closed Doors.

8. (1) The business of the Council shall be conducted with open doors, except upon such occasions as the Council shall by resolution otherwise decide, which resolution may be moved without notice.

(2) Upon the carrying of such resolution the Mayor shall direct all persons other than Councillors and servants of the Council to leave the Council Chambers and all such persons shall forthwith comply with such direction.

(3) Any person failing to comply with such direction may by order of the Mayor be removed from the Council Chambers.

(4) After the carrying of a resolution under subclause (1) of this clause, the business at that meeting of the Council shall proceed behind closed doors until the Council shall by resolution decide to proceed with open doors, which lastmentioned resolution may be moved without notice.

(5) While a resolution under subclause (1) of this clause is in force, the operation of clause 26 hereof shall be suspended unless the Council shall by resolution otherwise decide, which lastmentioned resolution may be moved without notice.

Disturbance by Strangers.

9. (1) No person, not being a Councillor, shall at any meeting of the Council by expressing approval or dissent or conversing or otherwise interrupt the proceedings of the Council.

(2) Any person so offending shall when so directed by the Mayor forthwith leave the Council Chambers.

(3) Any person being so ordered to leave and failing to do so may by order of the Mayor be removed from the Council Chambers.

Order of Business.

Order of Business at Ordinary Meeting.

10. The order of business at an ordinary meeting shall be as follows, or as near thereto as shall be practicable, but for the greater convenience of the Council at any particular meeting thereof it may be altered by resolution to that effect:—

- (i) Confirmation of Minutes.
- (ii) Announcements without discussion.
- (iii) Questions of which due notice has been given (without discussion).
- (iv) Correspondence (refers only to items of interest and not when business is involved).
- (v) Petitions and memorials.
- (vi) Notices of intention to move the suspension of Standing Orders at the close of the meeting.
- (vii) Reports of Committees.
- (viii) Orders of the day, including considering and ordering upon any business left over from the previous meeting, and any business the Mayor may think desirable to bring under the notice of the Council and may have directed to be entered as an order of the day.
- (ix) Motions of which previous notice has been given.
- (x) Notice of motions for consideration at the following meeting, if given during the meeting.

Order of Business.

11. The order of business at any special meeting of the Council shall be the order in which such business stands in the notice thereof, and no other business shall be transacted.

Confirmation of Minutes.

12. The minutes of any preceding meeting, whether ordinary or special, not previously confirmed, shall be submitted as the first business at all meetings of the Council in order to their confirmation; and no discussion shall be permitted thereon, except as to their accuracy as a record of the proceedings, and the said minutes shall then be signed by the Mayor.

Questions.

13. Any Councillor desiring to ask a question at any meeting of the Council shall give notice thereof in writing to the Town Clerk at least six hours before the hour fixed for the meeting.

14. All questions and answers shall be submitted as briefly and concisely as possible, and no discussion shall be allowed thereon.

Reception of Correspondence.

15. No discussion shall be permitted on any motion that any correspondence be received or not received or that any correspondence or any part thereof be referred to any Occasional Committee of the Council.

Notices of Motion.

16. (1) Any Councillor may bring forward such business as he may consider advisable in the form of a motion, of which notice shall be given in writing to the Town Clerk, either at the meeting previous to the meeting at which it is intended to move the same or at any time thereafter, being not less than three clear days before such lastmentioned meeting.

(2) Every notice of motion shall relate to some question affecting the constitution, administration, or condition of the City.

(3) The Mayor shall rule out of order any motion which does not comply with the last preceding subclause.

17. Every such motion shall lapse, unless the Councillor who gave notice thereof, or some other Councillor authorised by him in writing, be present to move the same when such motion shall be called on.

Deputations.

18. Deputations wishing to be received by the Council shall in the first instance send in a memorial in writing, and the Town Clerk shall bring the memorial before the Committee concerned, which shall if it sees fit receive the deputation and report to the Council. If the Committee is of the opinion that the memorial is one which should be brought before the Council the Committee shall so report, and if the Council shall so order the deputation shall be invited to attend.

19. A deputation shall not exceed ten in number and only two members thereof shall be at liberty to address the Council or a Committee of the Council except in reply to questions from members of the Council or Committee, and the matter shall not be further considered by the Council or the Committee until the deputation shall have withdrawn.

Councillors to Address Mayor.

20. (1) Any Councillor moving a motion or amendment, or taking part in the discussion thereon, shall rise and address the Mayor.

Point of Order.

(2) A Councillor who is addressing the Mayor shall not be interrupted except upon a point of order, when he shall resume his seat until the Councillor raising the point of order has been heard thereon and the question of order has been disposed of, whereupon the firstmentioned Councillor may proceed.

(3) Rising to express a difference of opinion with or to contradict a speaker shall not be recognised as raising a point of order.

(4) A violation of any provision of these Standing Orders shall be a breach of order.

Substance of Motion to be Stated.

21. Any Councillor desirous of proposing an original motion or amendment shall state the substance of the same before he addresses the Council thereon and, if so required by the Mayor, shall put the motion or amendment in writing.

Motions and Amendments to be Seconded.

22. No motion or amendment shall be discussed or put to the vote of the Council unless it be seconded, but a Councillor may require the enforcement of any Standing Order of the Council by directing the Mayor's attention to the infraction thereof.

Titles to be Used.

23. Speakers in referring to others present shall designate them by their respective titles of Mayor or Councillor as the case may be.

Priority of Speaking.

24. If two or more Councillors rise to speak at the same time, the Mayor shall decide which is entitled to priority.

Mayor to be Heard.

25. Whenever the Mayor rises during a debate any Councillor then speaking or offering to speak shall sit down and the Council shall be silent so that the Mayor may be heard without interruption.

Speaking Twice.

26. Subject to clause 27 hereof, no Councillor shall speak twice on the same question except—

- (a) in reply upon an original motion of which he was the mover;
- (b) in reply upon an amendment last debated of which he was the mover;
- (c) by way of personal explanation.

27. The Council may by resolution, which resolution may be moved without notice, suspend the operation of clause 26 hereof and thereupon such clause shall be suspended until such time as the Council shall by resolution otherwise decide, which resolution may be moved without notice.

Personal Explanation.

28. A Councillor making a personal explanation shall confine it to a succinct explanation of a material part of his former speech which may have been misunderstood, and to the explanation itself. He shall not advert to matters not strictly necessary for that purpose nor seek to strengthen his former argument by new matter or by replying to other Councillors.

29. The Mayor shall forthwith call to order any Councillor committing a breach of clause 26 hereof.

No Speech after Certain Events.

30. No Councillor shall speak on any motion or amendment—
- (a) after the mover has replied;
 - (b) after the question has been put.

Mover and Seconder have Spoken.

31. A Councillor moving or seconding a motion or amendment shall be held to have spoken thereon.

Limit of Speeches.

32. No Councillor shall speak upon any motion or amendment or in reply for a longer period than ten minutes without the consent of the Council, which shall be signified without debate.

Speaking in Reply.

33. A Councillor speaking in reply shall not introduce any new matter but shall confine himself strictly to answering previous speakers.

Division of Motions.

34. The Mayor, at his discretion may, or the Council may by motion without debate, order a complicated motion to be divided and put in the form of several motions.

Withdrawal of Motions.

35. A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the mover with the consent of the Council, which shall be signified without debate, and it shall not be competent for any Councillor to speak upon it after the mover has asked permission for its withdrawal unless such permission is refused.

Production of Documents.

36. Any Councillor may of right require the production of any of the documents of the Council relating to the question or matter under discussion.

No Digression.

37. No Councillor shall speak otherwise than upon or shall digress from the question then before the Council except to make a personal explanation.

No Adverse Reflection on Council.

38. No Councillor shall reflect adversely upon a resolution of the Council except on a motion that such resolution be rescinded.

No Adverse Reflection on Councillor.

39. No Councillor shall reflect adversely upon the character, motives or actions of another Councillor unless the Council shall resolve, without debate, that the question then before the Council cannot otherwise be adequately considered.

40. Any Councillor may require the Town Clerk to take down any particular words used by a Councillor immediately upon the same being used.

Demand for Withdrawal.

41. If any Councillor commits a breach of clauses 38 or 39 hereof the Mayor may require him unreservedly to withdraw his offending comment and make a satisfactory apology, and if he decline or neglect to do so the Mayor may direct such Councillor to cease speaking and resume his seat and may call on the next speaker.

Disturbance by Councillors.

42. No Councillor shall make any noise or disturbance or, except to raise a point of order, converse aloud while any other person is addressing the Council.

43. The Mayor may call the attention of the Council to continued irrelevance, tedious repetition, unbecoming language, or any breach of order or decorum on the part of a Councillor and may direct such Councillor, if speaking, to discontinue his speech, and thereupon such Councillor shall cease speaking and resume his seat.

44. When the Mayor is putting any question no Councillor shall walk out of or across the Chamber, nor shall any Councillor, whilst any other Councillor is speaking, pass between the speaker and the chair.

45. The Mayor shall preserve order, and may call any Councillor to order whenever in his opinion there shall be cause for so doing.

46. Every Councillor shall be entitled to direct the attention of the Mayor to any infraction of the Standing Orders by any other Councillor.

Rulings by Mayor.

47. The Mayor when deciding a point of order or practice shall give his decision and no argument or comment shall be permitted thereon and his decision shall be final in that particular case unless a majority of the Councillors then present shall upon motion made forthwith, without discussion, dissent therefrom.

48. Whenever it shall have been decided by the Mayor that any motion, amendment or other matter before the Council is out of order, the same shall be rejected, and whenever anything said or done in the Council by any Councillor shall be similarly decided to be out of order such Councillor shall be called upon by the Mayor to make such explanation, retraction or apology as the case may require.

49. If a Councillor shall persist in any conduct which the Mayor shall have decided is out of order or shall refuse to make any explanation, retraction or apology required by the Mayor under clause 48 hereof, the Mayor may direct such Councillor to refrain from taking any further part in the then meeting of the Council other than the recording of his vote, and the Councillor shall comply with such direction.

Serious Disorder.

50. (1) If at a meeting of the Council the Mayor is of opinion that by reason of disorder or otherwise the business of the Council cannot be effectually continued, he may adjourn the meeting for a period of fifteen minutes, whereafter the Council shall re-assemble and decide whether business shall be proceeded with, which question shall be forthwith decided without debate.

(2) If thereafter the Mayor is again of opinion that the business of the Council cannot be effectually continued, he may close the meeting.

All Councillors to Vote.

51. At all meetings of the Council, save when the Act otherwise provides, all the Councillors present shall vote, and if any Councillor who is entitled to vote fails to vote the Mayor shall call upon him to vote. If there be an equal division of votes upon any question the Mayor shall in addition to his own vote, have a second or casting vote.

Permissible Motions During Debate.

52. (1) Subject to subclause (2) of this clause, when a motion is under debate no further motion shall be moved except the following:—

- (a) That the motion be amended.
- (b) That the Council do adjourn.
- (c) That the debate be adjourned.
- (d) That the question be now put.
- (e) That the Council do proceed with the next business.
- (f) That the Council do sit behind closed doors.
- (g) That the meeting be now closed.

(2) When the question before the Council is a recommendation from a Committee of the Council, a Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor move without notice that the question be referred back to the Committee. On such motion the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak beyond formally seconding and the chairman of the Committee concerned, or in his absence, a member thereof, may speak for not more than five minutes, but no other debate shall be allowed.

Amendment to Relate to Motion.

53. Every amendment shall be relevant to the motion on which it is moved.

54. Every amendment shall be read before being moved.

One Amendment at a Time.

55. Only one amendment at a time shall be discussed, but as often as an amendment is lost another amendment may be moved before the original motion is put to the vote; provided that when an amendment is carried one further amendment to the original motion as amended and no more may be moved.

56. When an amendment is carried the original motion as amended shall for all purposes of subsequent debate, subject only to the last preceding clause, be treated as an original motion.

That Council Adjourn.

57. A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor or on the conclusion of any business move without notice that the Council do now adjourn. Such motion shall state the time and date to which the adjournment is to be made. On such motion the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak beyond formally seconding and the mover of the motion (if any) which was then under debate may speak for not more than five minutes, but no other debate shall be allowed.

58. If a motion for the adjournment of the Council be negatived no similar motion shall be moved until after the question then under discussion or the next on the notice paper or any other which may be allowed precedence shall have been disposed of.

59. (1) No Councillor who has spoken on the question then before the Council shall move the adjournment of the Council.

(2) No Councillor shall at the same sitting of the Council move or second more than one motion for the adjournment of the Council.

60. On a motion for the adjournment of the Council being carried, the debate on the question (if any) under debate when such motion was moved shall be continued immediately upon the Council resuming after the adjournment.

61. On a motion for the adjournment of the Council being carried, a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under consideration at the time of the adjournment and they shall not be permitted to speak on any subsequent consideration of the same subject; provided that this clause shall not deprive a mover of the right of reply.

62. The Mayor may at any time adjourn the Council to such time and date as he shall then declare.

That Debate be Adjourned.

63. A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor move without notice that the debate be adjourned to a later hour of the same meeting or to a subsequent meeting of the Council. On such motion the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak beyond formally seconding, and no other debate shall be allowed; provided that if the question then before the Council is a recommendation from a Committee the chairman of the Committee concerned, or in his absence, a member thereof, may speak for not more than five minutes.

64. (1) No Councillor who has spoken on the question then under debate shall move the adjournment of the debate.

(2) No Councillor shall at the same sitting of the Council move or second more than one motion for the adjournment of the same debate.

65. On resuming an adjourned debate the Councillor who moved its adjournment shall be entitled to speak first.

66. On a motion for the adjournment of a debate being carried, a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under debate and they shall not be permitted to speak on any resumption of the debate on that subject; provided that this clause shall not deprive a mover of the right of reply.

67. If the debate on any motion, moved and seconded, be interrupted by Council being counted out, such debate may on motion with notice be resumed at the next meeting at the point where it was so interrupted.

That Question be Put.

68. A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor move without notice and without comment that the question under consideration be now put, and upon such motion being formally seconded the same shall be immediately put without debate.

69. A motion that the question under consideration be put shall not be moved by a Councillor who has already spoken on the question, and such a motion shall not be carried without the consent of a two-thirds majority of the Councillors present.

70. When it is decided by the Council that the question under consideration be put, the mover of the question under consideration shall, if debate has ensued and if otherwise entitled to do so, be permitted to speak in reply for not more than five minutes before the question is put, but subject thereto the question shall at once be put.

71. Whenever it is decided by the Council that the question shall be put the question to be so put shall include the main question as well as any amendment thereto.

That Council Proceed with Next Business.

72. A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor move without notice and without comment that the Council do proceed with the next business and upon such motion being formally seconded the same shall be immediately put without debate.

73. When the Council decides to proceed with the next business, the question which was then under discussion shall be considered as dropped.

74. During the same debate on any question a motion that the Council do proceed with the next business shall not be moved within one hour after a similar motion has been negatived.

That Meeting Be Closed.

75. A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor, or on the conclusion of any business, move without notice that the meeting of the Council be now closed. On such motion, the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak beyond formally seconding and the mover of the motion (if any) then under debate may speak for not more than five minutes, but no other debate shall be allowed.

76. If a motion that the meeting of the Council be closed be negatived, no similar motion shall be moved until after the question then under discussion or the next on the motion paper or any other which may be allowed precedence shall have been disposed of.

77. (1) No Councillor who shall have spoken on the question then before the Council shall move that the meeting be closed.

(2) No Councillor shall at the same meeting of the Council move or second more than one motion that the meeting be closed.

78. On a motion that the meeting be closed being carried, the debate on the question (if any) under debate when such motion was moved shall stand adjourned to its place on the notice paper for the next meeting of the Council.

79. On a motion that the meeting be closed being carried, a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under consideration up to the closing of the meeting and they shall not be permitted to speak on any subsequent consideration of the same subject; provided that this clause shall not deprive a mover of the right of reply.

Confidential Business.

80. All matters dealt with by or brought before the Council sitting otherwise than with open doors, or any Committee of the Council, shall be treated as strictly confidential, and shall not without the authority of the Council or of the Committee, as the case may be, be disclosed to any person other than the Mayor, Councillors or servants of the Council (and in the case of servants only so far as may be necessary for the performance of the duties of such servants) prior to the discussion of such matters at a meeting of the Council held with open doors.

Motions Affecting Expenditure.

81. No motion or amendment shall be moved at any meeting of the Council otherwise than in the form of a reference to the Finance Committee for consideration and report if it would have the effect of incurring expenditure not provided for in the estimates.

Rescission of Resolution.

82. No resolution of any meeting of the Council shall be revoked, rescinded or altered at any subsequent meeting held during the municipal year, except in the manner provided by the Act.

Negatived Motions.

83. No motion to the same effect as any motion which has been negatived by the Council shall again be entertained within a period of three months except with the consent of at least seven members of the Council.

Suspension of Standing Orders.

84. In cases of urgent necessity any Standing Order of the Council may be suspended on motion duly made and seconded: Provided that—

- (a) no such motion shall be made until all business appearing in the notice paper has been disposed of;
- (b) no such motion shall be carried unless the number of Councillors voting in the affirmative shall exceed those voting in the negative by at least four;
- (c) no such motion shall be permitted unless notice thereof in writing shall have been given at the time prescribed by clause 10 hereof unless the Mayor shall be satisfied that this requirement could not reasonably have been complied with.

85. Any Councillor moving the suspension of any standing order shall state the object of such motion, but no discussion shall take place thereon.

Method of Taking Vote.

86. The Mayor shall, in taking the vote on any motion or amendment, put the question first in the affirmative and then in the negative, and he may do so as often as is necessary to enable him to form and declare his opinion as to which party has the majority on the voices or by a show of hands.

87. (1) The Council shall vote on the voices, or by a show of hands as may in each case be directed by the Mayor, but any Councillor may call for a division on any question.

(2) Upon a division being called for, the division bell shall be rung, and after the lapse of one-half of a minute from the bell ceasing to ring no Councillor shall be permitted to enter or leave the Chamber until after the division has been taken.

(3) When a division is being taken and until the vote is recorded, all Councillors voting in the affirmative shall stand up and all those voting in the negative shall remain seated.

Standing Committees.

88. (1) In addition to such occasional Committees as may from time to time be appointed, there shall be three standing Committees of the Council, namely: (i) Finance, (ii) Works, Health and Buildings, (iii) General Purposes.

(2) Each standing Committee shall comprise the Mayor ex officio and four Councillors, being one Councillor from each ward.

(3) At the first meeting of the Council held after the annual election, a Treasurer shall be elected and shall be his ward representative and Chairman of the Finance Committee and shall hold office until the 30th day of November next ensuing.

(4) The members of each standing Committee with the exception of the Treasurer shall be appointed for each year at the first meeting of the Council held after the annual election and shall hold office until the 30th day of November then next ensuing.

(5) In default of agreement, the members of the standing Committees shall be elected by ballot and in the event of an equality of votes for two or more Councillors the Mayor shall have a second or casting vote.

(6) At the first Committee meeting next occurring, the Works, Health and Buildings Committee and the General Purposes Committee shall each elect a chairman.

(7) The Council may by resolution change the membership of any Committee or appoint substitutes for Councillors absent pursuant to leave granted by the Council.

89. Subject to any resolution of the Council passed after the coming into operation of these Standing Orders, the standing Committees shall have the oversight of the following matters:—

(i) Finance Committee.—(a) The finances of the Council; (b) items of expenditure recommended by any Committee; (c) estimates of receipts and expenditure for each financial year; (d) loans; (e) the Council's official staff, provided that any standing Committee may make a recommendation to the Finance Committee concerning an appointment to the official staff of an applicant whose principal duties pertain to matters the oversight of which has been entrusted by the Council to such Committee, and if the Finance Committee does not accept such recommendation it may be made to the Council.

(ii) Works, Health and Buildings Committee.—(a) Construction and maintenance of streets, ways, drains, bridges and other public places; (b) sweeping and watering of streets; (c) fencing vacant lands; (d) construction of street shelters and street signs; (e) construction of crossings over footpaths and any constructional matters in connection with streets; (f) siting of all works buildings; (g) matters affecting or relating to the health of the citizens; (h) immunisation, location and construction of all clinics; (i) house inspections; (j) licensing of eating houses, sale of food and drugs and food sampling; (k) nightsoil and rubbish services; (l) noxious trades, morgues, etc.; (m) hawkers, dogs and goats, impounding, etc.; (n) inspection of places of public amusement; (o) the provision of electricity services, equipment and fittings for the lighting of streets, ways, reserves and public places, and matters relating thereto; (p) the purchase, sale, replacement, control and maintenance of all Council vehicles, plant and machinery; (q) the purchase of all necessary supplies for the foregoing; (r) control of buildings and building operations and of verandahs, signs, hoardings and similar matters, otherwise than in connection with the property of the Council; (s) storage of inflammable materials.

- (iii) General Purposes Committee.—(a) Parks, reserves and playgrounds; (b) enclosed recreational areas, including ovals; (c) all matters, including resumption of land, relating to zoning and town planning generally; (d) location of metropolitan regional roads; (e) street trees and road verges; (f) town halls and all buildings the property of the Council; (g) swimming pools, including the management and control thereof; (h) acquisition of land for recreational areas; (i) civic functions; (j) control and management of parking facilities; (k) the definition and allocation for use of street kerbside space; (l) parking areas and all matters relating thereto; (m) matters relating to the control and management of libraries.

Occasional Committees.

90. (1) The Council may appoint occasional committees to perform any duty which may lawfully be entrusted to a Committee.

(2) An occasional committee may comprise any number of Councillors not exceeding the largest minority of the total number of Councillors.

(3) No standing Committee shall interfere in any matter which has for the time being been entrusted to an occasional committee.

(4) An occasional committee shall not be appointed except on a motion which states—

- (a) the duties proposed to be entrusted to such committee; and
- (b) the names of the Councillors intended to constitute the committee;
- or
- (c) the number of Councillors intended to constitute the committee and that they be elected by ballot.

(5) If the members of an occasional committee are elected by ballot then in the event of an equality of votes for two or more Councillors the Mayor shall have a second or casting vote.

Calling Committee Meetings.

91. The Town Clerk shall call a meeting of any Committee when requested so to do by the Mayor or the Chairman or any two members of such Committee.

92. These Standing Orders shall be observed at meetings of Committees except in so far as they limit the number of times a member may speak and except in so far as they require meetings to be conducted with open doors.

Quorum of Committees.

93. At a meeting of a committee, a quorum shall consist of not less than one member and the chairman. Every meeting shall proceed to business so soon after the time stated as there shall be a sufficient number of Councillors in attendance to constitute a quorum, provided that if a quorum is lacking fifteen minutes after the appointed time of the meeting such meeting shall lapse.

Minutes of Committees.

94. Each standing committee shall cause to be kept a minute book in which shall be entered minutes of all its proceedings and transactions. The minutes of each meeting shall be confirmed at the next meeting of the Committee and shall be signed by the Chairman thereof.

Representation on Public Bodies.

95. Whenever it becomes necessary to appoint a Councillor to represent the Council on a public body or State instrumentality, notice of the necessity to make such appointment shall be given at the meeting of the Council next preceding the meeting at which it is intended to make such appointment.

Penalty.

96. Any person who shall commit a breach of these Standing Orders shall be liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS ACT, 1906.

Municipality of Carnarvon.

By-law for the Control of Caravan Parks.

L.G. 46/59.

A By-law of the Municipality of Carnarvon made under the provisions of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1906, for the Control of Caravan Parks, and numbered 106.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the said Act, the Mayor and Councillors of the Municipality of Carnarvon order as follows:—

1. In this by-law, subject to the context—

“caravan park” means any land under the control of the Council and declared by it to be a parking area for caravans or any land within the Municipality in respect of which a caravan park license is held;

“caravan” means caravan or vehicle, whether on wheels or supported on stumps or blocks designed or fitted as a habitation for any person or capable of being used for dwelling or sleeping purposes;

“sanitary conveniences” includes urinals, water closets, earth closets, privies, sinks, baths, wash-troughs, apparatus for the bacteriolytic treatment of sewage, ash-pit, ash-tubs or other receptacle for the deposit of ashes, faecal matter, or refuse, and all similar conveniences;

“Council” when used in the context shall mean the Carnarvon Municipal Council;

“Municipality” when used in the context shall mean the Municipality of Carnarvon.

2. (1) No person shall operate a caravan park within the Municipality unless he is the holder of a caravan park license issued by the Council. The license shall specify the maximum number of caravans which may be parked on the area.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the Council to grant a license for a caravan park may appeal to the Minister, whose determination on the question shall be final.

(3) The caravan park license shall specify the area in respect of which the license is granted.

(4) The Council shall have the power to require the licensee to erect a suitable fence around the area in respect to which the license is granted.

3. The holder of a caravan park license shall provide the following facilities in the area in respect of which the license is issued:—

(a) Sanitary conveniences for the separate use of the occupants of caravans on the following scale:—

One caravan—One earth closet or one water closet.

Two to five caravans—One earth closet and urinal for men and one earth closet for women, or one water closet for men and one water closet for women.

Six to 10 caravans—Two earth closets and urinal for men and two earth closets for women, or two water closets for men and two water closets for women.

For each additional 10 or part of 10 caravans—One extra earth closet or water closet and urinal for men, or one extra earth closet or water closet for women.

In areas where scheme water is available, sanitary conveniences shall be connected to the sewerage system or a septic tank provided.

(b) Cooking facilities for the occupants of caravans.

(c) Bathrooms and laundries on the following scale:—

One to two caravans—One bathroom and one laundry consisting of not less than one copper and two washing troughs.

Three to eight caravans—One bathroom for each sex and one laundry consisting of not less than one copper and two washing troughs.

Nine to 20 caravans—Two bathrooms for each sex and one laundry consisting of not less than one copper and two washing troughs.

Twenty-one to 32 caravans—Three bathrooms for each sex and two laundries comprising each one copper and two wash troughs.

Over 32 caravans—For each succeeding 12 or part of 12 caravans over 32, one additional bathroom and one additional laundry comprising one copper and two wash troughs.

For the purpose of the above a shower cubicle may be considered a bathroom.

No owner or occupier shall permit or suffer any caravan to remain on any site at a greater distance than 150 feet from any of the sanitary conveniences and bathroom and laundries as provided for in the license.

(d) Separate rubbish bin for each caravan.

4. (a) Where the entrance to a caravan parking area is from a paved public road the holder of the caravan park license in respect of that area shall construct a paved crossing place from the public road to the entrance of the parking area.

(b) Where the entrance to a caravan park is from an unpaved public road which is paved at the entrance of the caravan parking area after the issue of a caravan park license the holder of the caravan park license shall, within three months of completion of such paving, construct a paved crossing place from the public road to the entrance of the parking area.

5. The holder of a caravan park license shall ensure that—

(a) caravans are so parked in the area in respect of which the license is issued that a clear space of not less than 15 feet is left between each caravan and that no caravans are parked within 20 feet of any dwelling. Provided that each such site shall comprise an area of land having a frontage of not less than 25 feet to a road or trafficable track by a depth of not less than 30 feet;

(b) all liquid waste and rubbish is disposed of promptly and the area in respect of which the license is issued is in a clean and hygienic condition; and

(c) no nuisance or annoyance is caused to owners or occupiers of land adjoining or in the vicinity of the caravan parking area by any person using the caravan parking area.

6. The holder of a caravan park license shall not permit more caravans to be parked in the area in respect of which the license is issued than the number of caravans specified in the license.

7. Every caravan park area license shall be for the year or portion of the year ending on the 31st day of October next, following the issue of the license.

8. A caravan park license shall not be issued—
 (a) in respect of an area on which a dwelling is erected unless such area exceeds one-half of an acre; or
 (b) in respect of an area where an adequate water supply is not available.

9. Nothing in this by-law shall authorise any building being commenced or any building being constructed or altered without the plans and specifications thereof being first submitted to and approved by the Council or otherwise than in accordance with the by-law of the Council.

Reserves.

10. The Council from time to time, by notice in the Government Gazette, may declare any reserve under the control of the Council or part thereof to be a parking area for caravans.

Offences and Cancellation of Licenses.

11. Any person who commits a breach of this by-law shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £20.

12. If the holder of a caravan license or a caravan park license fails to comply with any conditions specified in the license or is convicted of a breach of any of this by-law, it shall be lawful for the Council to cancel such license.

13. The Council may cancel any caravan park license if, on the land in respect of which the caravan park license is issued—

- (a) there arises a nuisance within the meaning of the Health Act, 1911-1957; or
 (b) any nuisance or annoyance caused to owners or occupiers of land within the district of the Council.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS ACT, 1906.

Municipality of Carnarvon.

By-law for Regulating the Parking of Caravans—No. 105.

L.G. 344/58.

THE Carnarvon Municipal Council, under and by virtue of the powers conferred upon it by the Municipal Corporation Act, 1906, and all other powers enabling it in that behalf, doth hereby make and publish the following by-law:—

No. 105.

In this by-law, subject to the context—

“caravan” means caravan or vehicle, whether on wheels or supported on stumps or blocks, designed or fitted as a habitation for any person or capable of being used for dwelling or sleeping purposes;

“owner,” when used in reference to a caravan, includes the licensee or person in charge of the caravan;

“sanitary convenience,” includes urinals, water closets, earth closets, privies, sinks, baths, wash-troughs, apparatus for the bacteriolytic treatment of sewage, ash-pits, ash-tubs or other receptacle for the deposit of ashes, faecal matter, or refuse, and all similar conveniences;

“caravan park,” means any land under the control of the Council and declared by it to be a parking area for caravans or any land within the Municipality in respect of which a caravan park license is held;

“Council,” when used in the context shall mean the Carnarvon Municipal Council;

“Municipality,” when used in the context shall mean the Municipality of Carnarvon.

2. No owner of a caravan shall park it or allow it to be stationary on any road, except whilst the caravan is in the course of transit, or on any reserve under the control of the Council, unless such reserve is designated and defined as a caravan parking area.

3. No person being the owner or occupier of any land within the Municipality except land designated and defined as a caravan park shall permit any caravan occupied or used as a habitation or as a dwelling or for sleeping purposes to be parked on or remain stationary on such land unless the owner of such caravan is in possession of a license issued by the Council under this by-law and not more than one caravan shall be parked on any land other than that designated as a caravan park.

4. No owner of a caravan shall park it or allow it to remain stationary on any land within the Municipality unless—

- (1) the caravan is not used as a dwelling or for sleeping purposes; or
- (2) the owner holds in respect of the caravan a license under this by-law issued by the Council; or
- (3) such land is a caravan park.

5. Application for a license under the last preceding clause shall be made to the Council and shall be accompanied by the fee in the next succeeding clause mentioned. Each application shall be in respect of one (1) caravan only.

6. Any license granted by the Council under this by-law shall be deemed to be so granted on the following terms:—

- (1) That sanitary accommodation on the land on which the caravan is to be parked is adequate for both the occupants of the dwelling, where such land contains a dwelling, and the occupants of the caravan.
- (2) Where such land does not contain sanitary conveniences the owner or occupier of the land on which the caravan is to be parked shall provide separate sanitary conveniences in accordance with the provisions of the Health Act, 1911-1956, and the regulations and by-laws made thereunder.

- (3) Subject to due compliance with and observance of the terms of the license by the licensee, the Council shall permit the licensee to park his caravan or allow it to remain stationary on land within the district of the Council under and subject to the provisions of this by-law for any period up to one month, commencing from the date of the granting of the license but not exceeding one (1) month, with liberty to the licensee to apply for a further license.
- (4) No person being the owner of land on which a caravan is licensed to park shall demand or receive payment and remuneration for such parking.
- (5) the licensee shall pay to the Council, a fee of five shillings (5s.) in respect of each license.
- (6) That on or at any time after any breach by the licensee of any of the terms of this by-law, the Council may at any time cancel the license, which shall thereupon cease to have any further force or effect.

7. A license issued by the Council under this by-law shall be in the form of Appendix "A" hereto.

8. Any person who by act or omission shall commit a breach of this by-law shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds (£20).

ROAD DISTRICTS ACT, 1919.

Swan Road District.

By-law to Regulate Hawkers and Stalls.

L.G. 717/59.

IN pursuance of the powers in that behalf contained in the Road Districts Act, 1919, the Swan Road Board hereby makes the following by-law to regulate hawkers and stalls.

1. In this by-law—

“Board” means the Swan Road Board;

“District” means the Swan Road District;

“hawker” has the meaning defined in section 201 (41) of the Road Districts Act, 1919-1959;

“secretary” means the secretary or acting secretary of the Board;

“stall” means a movable or temporarily fixed stall for the sale of any meat, fish, poultry, game, fruit, vegetables, drink, eatables or articles of merchandise;

“stall-keeper” means a person who conducts a stall.

2. No person shall act as a hawker within the District unless he holds a current license from the Board so to do.

3. Subject to clause 9 of this by-law, no person shall conduct a stall in any street or way within the District.

4. No person shall conduct a stall on or near any street or way within the District unless he holds a current license from the Board so to do and no stall shall be erected within 15 feet of the road alignment or such further distance as is required by the by-laws made under the Town Planning and Development Act, 1928-1953, and subject to clause 9 of this by-law no such license shall be granted for a stall on land which is zoned for residential purposes.

Every stall shall be erected and finished off in a good workmanlike manner to the satisfaction of the Board and if required by the Board shall be properly painted.

5. (1) A person who wishes to obtain a hawker's license shall apply therefor in writing to the secretary stating the kind of merchandise in which he wishes to deal, the type of vehicle or other means of conveyance to be used for the transport of his merchandise and the period for which he desires the license.

(2) A person who wishes to obtain a stall-keeper's license shall apply therefor in writing to the secretary stating the kind of merchandise in which he wishes to deal, the type of stall which he wishes to use with particulars of the dimensions and construction thereof, the place or places where he wishes to conduct the stall and the period for which he desires the license.

6. (1) Licenses shall be in such one of the forms set out in Schedule “A” hereto as shall be applicable and subject to clause 9 of this by-law the fees set out in Schedule “C” hereto shall be paid by the licensee to the Board on the issuing thereof.

(2) No license shall be transferable.

(3) A license shall be valid only as to the merchandise described therein and in the case of the stall-keeper's license only as to the place or places described therein.

7. The Board may refuse to issue a license for any of the following reasons:—

(a) That the person concerned had been convicted of a crime or serious offence.

(b) That he had previously been convicted of an offence against the Hawking By-laws.

(c) That he is an undischarged bankrupt.

(d) Where the Board is of the opinion that any area is sufficiently catered for.

8. The Board may cancel a license if, in the opinion of the Board, the holder of a license is not a suitable person to hold a license or where in the opinion of the Board a stall has become unsuitable or is not satisfactorily maintained, and upon cancellation the holder thereof shall forthwith return the license to the secretary.

9. Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 3, clause 4 and clause 6 (1) of this by-law, the Board may grant without fee licenses to conduct stalls in any street or way or on any land for any period specified in such a license if such stalls are conducted solely for the purpose of raising money for religious or charitable purposes.

10. No hawker shall ply his trade in any gazetted townsite, within the boundaries of the Swan Road District.

11. No hawker shall ply his trade between the hour of sunset on any day and the hour of sunrise on the next following day.

12. No hawker or stall-keeper shall shout his wares or make or cause to be made any outcry, noise or disturbance likely to annoy persons in the vicinity.

13. No hawker shall remain stationary in any street or public place for a longer period than shall be necessary for the purpose of serving a customer who is then offering to buy.

14. No hawker shall loiter and no stall-keeper shall place his stall within two hundred yards of any shop which has for sale any merchandise similar to that being offered for sale by the hawker or stall-keeper.

15. Every hawker and stall-keeper shall whilst plying his trade have his name and the words "Licensed Hawker" or "Licensed Stall-keeper," as the case may be, legibly and conspicuously painted on some part of his vehicle, barrow, bag, tray or stall.

16. Every hawker and stall-keeper shall whilst plying his trade carry with him his license and shall produce the same on demand to any officer of the Board.

17. Any person committing a breach of this by-law shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

ROAD DISTRICTS ACT, 1919.

Cockburn Road Board.

By-law Relating to Lawns and Gardens in Roads.

L.G. 732/59.

IN pursuance of the powers in that behalf contained in section 201 of the Road Districts Act, 1919, the Cockburn Road Board makes the following by-law relating to lawns and gardens in roads:—

1. In this by-law, unless the context otherwise requires—
 - “Board” means the Cockburn Road Board;
 - “carriage-way” means that part of a road which is formed or paved for use by vehicles;
 - “footpath” means that part of a road which is formed or paved for use by pedestrians;
2. The owner or occupier of premises abutting on a road may plant and maintain a lawn in the road subject to the following conditions:—
 - (a) The lawn shall not extend beyond the side boundaries of the premises where they abut on the road. Provided that in the case of premises at the corner of two roads the lawn may extend round the corner.
 - (b) The lawn shall not extend beyond the edge of the carriage-way nor shall it encroach on a footpath.
 - (c) The lawn shall have an even surface from the edge of the carriage-way, or if there is a kerb to the carriage-way from the top of such kerb, to the footpath or edge of the road as the case may be.
3. (1) The owner or occupier of premises abutting on a road may, with the written permission of the Board, under the hand of the Secretary of the Board, form and plant a garden in the road.
 - (2) The application for such permission shall be accompanied by a plan showing the position and measurements of the garden by reference to the carriage-way and the front boundary of the premises.
 - (3) The permission may be granted subject to such conditions as the Board may in any case decide.
4. The Board may at any time and without notice and without paying any compensation in respect thereof remove from a road any lawn or garden, or any part thereof, maintained in a road under this by-law.
5. No person shall ride or drive any animal or vehicle over any lawn or garden maintained in a road pursuant to this by-law.

Adopted by resolution of the Cockburn Road Board on 16th December, 1959.

Dandaragan Road Board.

House Numbering By-laws.

L.G. 729/59.

PURSUANT to the powers conferred by the Road Districts Act, 1919, and other powers thereto enabling it, the Dandaragan Road Board doth hereby make and publish the following by-laws for the numbering of houses within the boundaries of its district:—

1. The Dandaragan Road Board may number, and from time to time re-number, all or any houses within its district.

2. The Board may adopt a plan or system of numbering of houses in any road or street or part thereof within its district and may, by notice in writing, require the owners or occupiers thereof to affix number plates of a specified size, shape or colour and material on the houses or front fences or gates or on a post on the lot in accordance with the said plan or system of numbering.

3. The number plates to be fitted in accordance with by-law 2 shall be not less than two and a half inches in height.

4. The Board may serve upon the owner or occupier, in writing, a notice to affix a number plate within a period of one month.

5. If the owner or occupier fails to affix a number plate within one month after being served with a written notice so to do he shall be guilty of an offence.

6. No person shall remove, deface or in any way damage any number plate affixed in accordance with these by-laws.

7. Any person committing a breach of these by-laws shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two pounds (£2).
