Under no circumstances, however, shall the provisions of this subclause operate concurrently with those of clause 6 so as to permit an officer to be paid allowances in respect of both travelling and transfer expenses for one and the same period.

(b) If a married officer is unable to obtain reasonable accommodation for the transfer of his home within the period of fourteen days referred to in subclause (a), and the permanent head is satisfied that the officer has taken all possible steps to secure reasonable accommodation, such officer shall, after the expiration of the fourteen days, be reimbursed at the rate stated adjacent to Item 3 in the schedule hereto, until such time as he has secured reasonable accommodation: Provided that the period of reimbursement under this subclause shall not exceed seventy-seven days (77) without the approval of the Commissioner. (g) Where it can be shown by the production of receipts or other evidence that an allowance payable under this clause would be insufficient to meet reasonable additional costs incurred by an officer on transfer, an appropriate rate of reimbursement may be determined by the Commissioner.

(h) The provisions of clause 6, subclauses (1) to (g) inclusive, shall have equal application to this clause.

(a) Except as hereinafter provided, an officer, other than one classified as a Relieving Officer, who acts in a position classified higher than his own, shall with the approval of the Commissioner, be paid higher duties allowance on the basis defined in subclause (c) for the whole period he acts in such higher position: Provided that—

- (i) he performs the full duties and accepts the full responsibility of the higher position for a continuous period of two weeks or more; and
- (ii) he acts in the higher position for reasons other than the absence of the classified occupant thereof on normal annual leave.

(b) For the purpose of this clause the expression "normal annual leave" shall mean the annual period of recreation leave as referred to in Public Service Regulation 52 and shall include any public service holidays taken in conjunction with such annual recreation leave.

(c) An officer who acts in a higher position under the conditions prescribed in subclause (a) shall be paid higher duties allowance on the following basis—

- (ii) when acting in a higher position the minimum classified margin of which does not exceed his own margin over the basic rate—an allowance equivalent to the difference between his own margin over the basic rate and the margin he would receive if he were permanently appointed to the position in which he is acting.

(k) An officer who is in receipt of an allowance granted under this clause shall, if he acts in a higher position continuously for a sufficiently long enough period, be entitled to receive an increased higher duties allowance equivalent to the annual increment he would have received had he been permanently appointed to such higher position for the whole time he has been acting therein: Provided that in the case of a Relieving Officer acting or relieving in a position only one class higher than his own, the first four weeks of service in the higher position shall not be taken into account.
