(Sgd.) R. H. DOIG,
Clerk of the Council.

HEALTH ACT, 1911-1957.

City of Nedlands.

WHEREAS under the provisions of the Health Act, 1911-1957, a local authority may make or adopt by-laws and may alter, amend or repeal any by-laws so made or adopted: Now, therefore, the Nedlands Municipal Council (now the Nedlands City Council), being a local authority within the meaning of the Act and having adopted the Model By-Laws described as Series "A," as reprinted pursuant to the Reprinting Regulations Act, 1954, in the Government Gazette on 9th August, 1956, hereby resolve and determine that the said adopted by-laws shall be amended as follows:—

Section N of Part IX of the by-laws is hereby repealed and a new section, to be numbered N, is hereby inserted in Part IX of the by-laws as follows:—

Section N.—Fish Shops.

1. In these by-laws "fish" shall mean fresh fish, frozen fish, chilled fish and cooked fish, whether cleaned, uncleaned or part-cleaned, but does not include fish which has been cured, preserved hermetically canned or treated to prevent putrefaction.

"Fish shop" shall mean any building or place where fish is kept or exposed for sale, or where fish is cleaned, scaled, cut up or cooked for the purposes of sale for consumption otherwise than on the premises.

2. Fish shops shall be classified as "A," "B," or "C" class and shall be registered accordingly.

The occupier of an "A" class fish shop shall be permitted to clean, part-clean, scale and cut up fish and expose fish for sale and cook fish for the purpose of sale for consumption otherwise than on the premises.

The occupier of a "B" class fish shop shall be permitted only to expose fish for sale and to cook fish for the purpose of sale for consumption otherwise than on the premises.

The occupier of a "C" class fish shop shall be permitted only to expose fish for sale.

No occupier of a fish shop shall do or permit to be done any of the things set out in this clause which are not permitted to be done in the class of fish shop occupied by him.

3. In every "A" class fish shop there shall be a room constructed in accordance with the provisions of clause 14 of section A of this Part, and all cleaning, scaling and cutting up of fish shall be done in such room and not elsewhere.

4. The occupier of every fish shop shall have an impervious receptacle, which shall be provided with an air-tight covering. Such covering shall at all times be kept closed, except when it is necessary to place something in or remove something from the receptacle.

The occupier of every "A" class fish shop shall cause all offal and wastes to be immediately picked up and placed in such receptacle.

The occupier of every fish shop shall cause all rejected and unsaleable fish to be immediately placed in such receptacle.

The contents of such receptacle shall be removed from the premises once in each working day, or at such times as an inspector may direct. Such receptacle shall, after being emptied, be immediately cleaned with an efficient disinfectant.

5. The occupier of any "B" class or "C" class fish shop shall not allow any box, basket or other container used for the transport of fish to remain in such fish shop longer than is necessary for the emptying of such box, basket or container.

6. In every "A" class and "B" class fish shop where the cooking of fish is carried on there shall be provided—

(a) a fireplace so constructed that all the vapours and effluvia of such cooking are carried direct into a chimney flue of approved proportion; or

(b) a hood provided with a ventilating pipe of at least seven inches in diameter and discharging direct into the open air or into a chimney flue of approved proportions.

The chimney or ventilating pipe referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) hereof shall be carried up at least 10 feet above the roof of the building containing the fish shop, or above the roof of the highest adjoining building, whichever shall be the higher.

No cooking of fish shall be carried on except in a fireplace or under a hood of the above description.

7. The occupier of every fish shop where fish is exposed for sale shall keep all such fish on metal trays or on approved shelves or counters, and all fittings and fixtures of such trays, shelves and counters shall be of impervious material or covered with impervious material.

8. (a) The occupier of every "A" class and "B" class fish shop shall cover and keep covered all doors, window-openings and other aperture on the premises with screens of fine mesh wire gauze, and shall cause all doors to be self-closing.

(b) The occupier of every "C" class fish shop shall comply with the provisions of subclause (a) of this clause, or shall keep all fish in enclosures covered by glass or fine mesh wire gauze.

9. No occupier of a fish shop shall allow any decomposing fish to remain in any part of his shop.

10. Every occupier of a fish shop shall keep all fish in containers separate from every other kind of food, except in hermetically sealed cans or bottles.

11. After having handled fish every person shall wash his hands before handling any other kind of food intended for sale in a fish shop.

Passed by the Council of the City of Nedlands at the ordinary meeting held on the 17th August, 1961.

J. CHAS. SMITH,
Mayor.
T. C. BROWN,
Town Clerk.

22nd August, 1961.

Approved by His Excellency the Governor in Executive Council this 17th day of October, 1961.

(Sgd.) R. H. DOIG,
Clerk of the Council.

HEALTH ACT, 1911-1959.

Shire of Belmont.

P.H.D. 859/53.

WHEREAS under the provisions of the Health Act, 1911-1959, a local authority may make or adopt by-laws and may alter, amend or repeal any by-laws so made or adopted: Now, therefore, the Shire of Belmont, being a local authority within the meaning of the Act and having adopted with modifications the Model By-laws described as Series "A," as reprinted pursuant to the Reprinting of Regulations Act, 1954, in the Government Gazette on the 9th August, 1956, doth hereby resolve and determine that the said adopted by-laws shall be amended as follows:—

PART VII.—FOOD.

By-law 51 of Part VII of the Model By-laws as adopted by resolution dated the 24th September, 1956, with the modifications to that by-law as published in the Government Gazette on the 3rd February, 1956, is amended by substituting for the words "forty shillings" and "twenty shillings" where they appear in paragraph (b) of that by-law the words, "five pounds" and "two pounds ten shillings" respectively.

Passed at a meeting of the Belmont Shire Council this 28th day of August, 1961.

P. J. FAULKNER,
President.
W. G. KLENK,
Shire Clerk.

Approved by His Excellency the Governor in Executive Council this 17th day of October, 1961.

R. H. DOIG,
Clerk of the Council.

HEALTH ACT, 1911-1960.

Shire of Canning.

Amendment to By-laws.

P.H.D. 769/61.

WHEREAS under the provisions of the Health Act, 1911-1960, a local authority may make or adopt by-laws and may alter, amend or repeal any by-laws so made or adopted; and whereas Model By-laws described as Series "A" have been made and published in the Government Gazette on the 9th August, 1956: Now, therefore, the Shire of Canning, being a local health authority within the meaning of the Act, and having adopted the Model By-laws described as Series "A" and published in the Government Gazette on the 9th August, 1956, doth hereby amend the said adopted by-laws as follows, that is to say:—

Part VII.—Food.

By-laws 51 and 52 are repealed and the following by-laws substituted:—

51. (a) No person shall expose or offer food for sale in any public place, unless such person is licensed by the local authority.

(b) Every person desiring to engage in the trade of an itinerant vendor of food shall, before so engaging in such trade, or, if already so engaged, then during the first week of July in every year, apply to the local authority in the form of Schedule "C" for a license to carry on such trade, and with such application deposit a fee of ten pounds, and upon such application being granted, a license shall be issued in the form of Schedule "D" hereto.

(c) Every license granted under this by-law shall operate only during the period ended the 30th day of June next succeeding the date of issue, and after the said 30th day of June shall cease to be in force.

52. Every person engaged in the trade of an itinerant vendor of food shall comply with the following conditions:—

- (a) He shall cause all food to be protected from contamination by flies and dust, and all meat, fish or other food, subject to putrefaction, shall be protected by refrigeration to the satisfaction of an inspector.
- (b) He shall not permit any other person to handle or touch any food on his vehicle.
- (c) He shall maintain his clothing and his person at all times in a clean condition.
- (d) He shall, whilst plying his trade, have his name legibly and conspicuously displayed on some part of his vehicle, barrow, bag or tray.
- (e) He shall, whilst plying his trade, carry with him his license and shall produce the same to any inspector on demand.

Made and passed by the Shire of Canning on the 14th day of August, 1961.

W. F. LINGARD,
Deputy President.
N. I. DAWKINS,
Shire Clerk.

Approved by His Excellency the Governor in Executive Council this 17th day of October, 1961.

1. The lessee hereby covenants with the lessor as follows:—
 - (a) To pay to the lessor at its Office at Perth or elsewhere as directed by the lessor the rent hereinbefore reserved at the times and in the manner hereinbefore provided.

- (b) To pay to the lessor at its Office at Perth or elsewhere as directed by the lessor the sum of (less the sum of already paid by the lessee as a deposit on approval of his application for this lease) as the capital cost of the dwelling house erected on the demised land by equal fortnightly instalments of pounds shillings and pence each, extending over years, computed from the day of 19....., inclusive of interest on the said capital cost or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid at the rate of per centum per annum: Provided that, subject to the regulations made under the said Act, the lessee may at any time pay the whole of such capital cost or such portion as may for the time being remain unpaid, or any instalments in excess of the prescribed instalments.
- (c) To pay all rates, taxes and assessments, levied, assessed, charged or imposed upon the said demised land, in the manner following, that is to say: To pay to the lessor, with each fortnightly instalment of rent, an amount to be estimated and assessed by the lessor as the fortnightly proportionate part of the annual amount payable for the rates, taxes and assessments aforesaid, including water, sewerage and drainage in respect of the dwelling house erected upon the said demised land; and such fortnightly amount shall be received in trust by the lessor on behalf of the lessee and shall be paid by the lessor to the Government department or local authority so far as the same may extend on behalf of the lessee in respect of the liability of the lessee to pay the said rates, taxes and assessments.
- (d) To pay to the lessor at its office at Perth or elsewhere as directed by the lessor with each fortnightly instalment of rent such amount as is equal to the fortnightly proportionate part of the annual fire insurance premium payable for insuring against loss or damage by fire the dwelling house erected upon the said demised land.
- (e) To keep and maintain the said dwelling house clean and in good repair and condition to the satisfaction of the lessor.
- (f) Not to transfer, sublet, mortgage, charge or dispose of the said demised land or the dwelling house erected thereon otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of the said Act.
- (g) Not to make any alteration in or addition to the said dwelling house without the consent in writing of the lessor.
- (h) To reside continuously in the said dwelling house provided that the Minister, on the advice of the lessor, may, on application by the lessee, suspend the operation of this covenant from time to time for such period as he may in his discretion think fit.

2. Provided always and it is hereby agreed and declared by and between the lessor and the lessee that this lease is granted and held upon and subject to the following conditions, namely:—

- (a) That the lessee and the wife (or husband) of the lessee is not, and that the lessee and any person claiming under the lessee shall not become the owner or lessee of any dwelling house other than the dwelling house erected upon the said demised land, except as a beneficiary under a will or as the next-of-kin of a deceased person, until the whole of the capital cost of the said dwelling house as ascertained and payable by the lessee under this lease, together with interest thereon as hereinbefore provided for, and all rents and other moneys payable by the lessee under these presents have been paid by the lessee in accordance with his covenants in that behalf herein contained; and that if this condition is not duly complied with by the lessee and all persons claiming under the lessee the lease hereby granted may be forfeited by the lessor and the lessor may re-enter on the said demised land and the said dwelling house, and determine the lease in like manner as if there had been a breach by the lessee of a covenant on his part in these presents contained.

- (b) That it shall be lawful at any time hereafter for Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, or for any person or persons acting in that behalf by her or their authority to resume and enter upon possession of any portion or portions of the said demised land, which it may at any time by Her Majesty, her heirs and successors be deemed necessary to resume for roads, tramways, railways and railway stations, canals, bridges, towing-paths, harbour or river improvements works, drainage or irrigation works, quarries and generally for any other works or purposes for public use, utility or convenience, and for the purpose of exercising the power to search for minerals hereinafter reserved, and such lands so resumed to hold unto Her Majesty, her heirs and successors as of her or their former estate without making to the lessee any compensation in respect thereof, so, nevertheless, that no such resumption be made without compensation of any part of the said demised land upon which any expenditure or improvement shall have been made by the lessee.
- (c) That there is hereby saved and reserved to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors all mines of gold, silver, copper, tin or other metals, ore and mineral or other substances containing metals, and all gems or precious stones, and coal or mineral oil on or under the said demised land, with full liberty at all times to search and dig for and carry away the same and for that purpose to enter upon the said demised land or any portion thereof.
- (d) The lessor and Her Majesty, her heirs and successors shall not be liable to compensate the lessee or any person claiming under the lessee for or in respect of any loss or damage arising from the exercise of all or any of the powers or rights hereby reserved to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, save and except insofar as the same may be provided for by law, and that the lessor and Her Majesty, her heirs and successors shall not be under any liability to the lessee or any person claiming under him in respect of sand drift from any adjacent land.
- (e) That if the lessee fails to maintain the dwelling house in good repair and condition, the Commission or any person acting with the authority of the Commission, may at any time after the expiration of two months from notice to the lessee of such default, enter upon the demised premises and effect all repairs which the Commission deems necessary, and the expense thereby incurred, with interest at such rate as shall be approved by the Minister, shall be paid by the lessee to the Commission on demand, and until repayment shall remain a charge on the dwelling house, notwithstanding that the total amount of capital expenditure in respect of such dwelling house is thereby increased to more than two thousand five hundred pounds.

- (f) That if default shall be made by the lessee in payment of any instalment of rent or capital cost or interest thereon or of any other moneys payable by the lessee hereunder for fourteen days after the day hereinbefore appointed for the payment of such instalment (whether lawfully demanded or not) or if the lessee shall fail or neglect in any respect duly to observe, perform or comply with any covenant or condition on his part herein contained or with any of the provisions of the said Act and such default shall continue for fourteen days, then the lessor may by notice in writing to the lessee forfeit the lease hereby granted, and may thereupon re-enter upon the said demised premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and again have and possess the said demised land as of its former estate without prejudice however to the rights of the lessor to sue for and recover from the lessee any instalments of rents, capital cost, interest or other moneys then owing payable and unpaid by the lessee and damages for breach of contract and upon such re-entry by the lessor as aforesaid the lease hereby granted shall cease and determine.
- (g) That publication of a notice in the Government Gazette purporting to have been published by order of the lessor to the effect that the lease hereby granted has been forfeited for default of payment of an instalment of rent, capital cost, interest or other money payable by the lessee under these presents or for breach of a covenant or condition by the lessee herein contained shall be deemed to be equivalent to and have the effect of a re-entry by the lessor into the said demised premises under the last preceding paragraph hereof.
3. The lessor covenants with the lessee as follows:—
- (a) If the lessee duly and regularly pays by the instalments and within the times hereinbefore prescribed and appointed the amount hereinbefore referred to in paragraph (d) of clause 1 hereof as a contribution to the Insurance Fund for insuring the said dwelling house from fire and if while the said amount continues to be payable the said dwelling house is damaged or destroyed by fire, and the fire which causes such damage or destruction was not caused by negligence on the part of the lessee or his servants or agents the lessor will with moneys out of the said Insurance Fund as soon as reasonably may be, re-instate or re-build the said dwelling house.

(b) The lessee duly and regularly paying the rents, capital cost, interest and other moneys payable thereunder and duly observing, performing and complying with the covenants, conditions, agreements and stipulations on his part herein contained shall be entitled to the possession and enjoyment of the said demised land and the dwelling house erected thereon free from interruption by the lessor or any person or body claiming under the lessor.

2. Provided always and it is hereby agreed and declared by and between the lessor and the lessee that this lease is granted and held upon and subject to the following conditions namely:—

- (a) That the lessee and the wife (or husband) of the lessee is not, and that the lessee and any person claiming under the lessee shall not become the owner or lessee of any dwelling house, other than the dwelling house erected upon the said demised land, except as a beneficiary under a will or as the next-of-kin of a deceased person, until the whole of the capital cost of the said dwelling house as ascertained and payable by the lessee under this lease, together with interest thereon as hereinbefore provided for, and all rents and other moneys payable by the lessee under these presents have been paid by the lessee in accordance with his covenants in that behalf herein contained; and that if this condition is not duly complied with by the lessee and all persons claiming under the lessee the lease hereby granted may be forfeited by the lessor and the lessor may re-enter on the said demised land and the said dwelling house, and determine the lease in like manner as if there had been a breach by the lessee of a covenant on his part in these presents contained.
- (b) That it shall be lawful at any time hereafter for Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, or for any other person or persons acting in that behalf by her or their authority to resume and enter upon possession of any portion or portions of the said demised land, which it may at any time by Her Majesty, her heirs and successors be deemed necessary to resume for roads, tramways, railways and railway stations, canals, bridges, towing paths, harbour or river improvements works, drainage or irrigation works, quarries, and generally for any other works or purposes for public use, utility or convenience, and for the purpose of exercising the power to search for minerals hereinafter reserved, and such lands so resumed to hold unto Her Majesty, her heirs and successors as of her or their former estate without making to the lessee any compensation in respect thereof, so, nevertheless, that no such resumption be made without compensation of any part of the said demised land upon which any expenditure or improvement shall have been made by the lessee.

- (c) That there is hereby saved and reserved to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors all mines of gold, silver, copper, tin or other metals, ore and mineral or other substances containing metals and all gems or precious stones, and coal or mineral oil or under the said demised land, with full liberty at all times to search and dig for and carry away the same and for that purpose enter upon the said demised land or any portion thereof.
- (d) The lessor and Her Majesty, her heirs and successors shall not be liable to compensate the lessee or any person claiming under the lessee for or in respect of any loss or damage arising from the exercise of all or any of the powers or rights hereby reserved to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, save and except insofar as the same may be provided for by law, and that the lessor and Her Majesty, her heirs and successors shall not be under any liability to the lessee or any person claiming under him in respect of sand drift from any adjacent land.
- (e) That if the lessee fails to maintain the dwelling house in good order repair and condition, the Commission or any person acting with the authority of the Commission, may at any time after the expiration of two months from notice to the lessee of such default, enter upon the demised premises and effect all repairs which the Commission deems necessary, and the expense thereby incurred, with interest at such rate as shall be approved by the Minister, shall be paid by the lessee to the Commission on demand, and until repayment shall remain a charge on the dwelling house, notwithstanding that the total amount of capital expenditure in respect of such dwelling house is thereby increased to more than two thousand five hundred pounds.
- (f) That if default shall be made by the lessee in payment of any instalment of rent or capital cost or interest thereon or of any other moneys payable by the lessee hereunder for fourteen days after the day hereinbefore appointed for the payment of such instalment (whether lawfully demanded or not) or if the lessee shall fail or neglect in any respect duly to observe, perform or comply with any covenant or condition on his part herein contained or with any of the provisions of the said Act and such default shall continue for fourteen days, then the lessor may by notice in writing to the lessee forfeit the lease hereby granted, and may thereupon re-enter upon the said demised premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and again have and possess the said demised land as of its former estate without prejudice however to the rights of the lessor to sue for and recover from the lessee any instalments of rents, capital cost, interest or other moneys then owing payable and unpaid by the lessee and damages for breach of contract and upon such re-entry by the lessor as aforesaid the lease hereby granted shall cease and determine.

(g) That publication of a notice in the Government Gazette purporting to have been published by order of the lessor to the effect that the lease hereby granted has been forfeited for default of payment of any instalments of rent, capital cost, interest or other money payable by the lessee under these presents or for breach of a covenant or condition by the lessee herein contained shall be deemed to be equivalent to and have the effect of a re-entry by the lessor into the said demised premises under the last preceding paragraph hereof.

3. The lessor covenants with the lessee as follows:—

(a) If the lessee duly and regularly pays by the instalments and within the times hereinbefore prescribed and appointed the sum hereinbefore referred to in paragraph (d) of clause 1 hereof as a contribution to the Insurance Fund for insuring the said dwelling house from fire and if while the said sum continues to be payable the said dwelling house is damaged or destroyed by fire, and the fire which causes such damage or destruction was not caused by negligence on the part of the lessee or his servants or agents the lessor will with moneys out of the said Insurance Fund as soon as reasonably may be, reinstate or rebuild the said dwelling house.

(b) The lessee duly and regularly paying the rents, capital cost, interest and other moneys payable hereunder and duly observing, performing and complying with the covenants, conditions, agreements and stipulations on his part herein contained shall be entitled to the possession and enjoyment of the said demised land and the dwelling house erected thereon free from interruption by the lessor or any person or body claiming under the lessor.

VETERINARY SURGEONS ACT, 1960.

Department of Agriculture,
South Perth, 17th October, 1961.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, acting pursuant to the powers conferred by the Veterinary Surgeons Act, 1960, has been pleased to make the regulations set forth in the schedule hereunder.

T. C. DUNNE,
Director of Agriculture.

Schedule.
Regulations.

Citation.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Veterinary Surgeons Act Regulations, 1961.

Interpretation.

2. In these regulations unless the context requires otherwise—
“Board” means the Veterinary Surgeons’ Board constituted under the Act;
“the Act” means the Veterinary Surgeons Act, 1960;
words and expressions defined in section 2 of the Act when used in these regulations have the same respective meanings as they have in the Act.

Election of Elective Members.

3. An election of a member or members of the Board required to be elected under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 5 of the Act shall be held as and whenever necessary, and the Registrar shall be the returning officer at any election so held.

4. (1) For the purpose of the election the returning officer shall fix a day upon which the election shall be held and at least six weeks before that day shall notify each registered veterinary surgeon by letter posted to his address in the register of the day so fixed and calling for nominations.

- (2) The returning officer shall fix a day for the close of nominations which day shall be not less than fourteen days and not more than twenty-one days prior to the day fixed for the holding of the election.

5. The following provisions shall apply in respect of an election held pursuant to regulation 3 of these regulations:—

- (a) A nomination may be in the Form No. 1 in the schedule to these regulations, but has no effect unless it—
 - (i) nominates only one person as a candidate and contains the full name of that person;
 - (ii) is signed by two registered veterinary surgeons;
 - (iii) is signed by the candidate consenting to act if elected; and
 - (iv) is addressed to the returning officer at Perth, and is delivered or forwarded to him so as to reach him prior to the hour of noon on the day fixed for the close of nominations.
- (b) Nomination papers received after the hour of noon on the day fixed for the close of nominations shall be rejected.
- (c) If the number of candidates duly nominated does not exceed the number of persons required to be elected, those candidates shall be duly elected, but if the number of candidates duly nominated exceeds the number of persons required to be elected, the returning officer shall by letter notify each registered veterinary surgeon of the names of those candidates and enclose in such letter a ballot paper in the Form No. 2 in the schedule to these regulations.
- (d) Every ballot paper shall—
 - (i) contain the full names of the candidates arranged in alphabetical order of their surnames;
 - (ii) specify the date of the election and the time of the closing thereof after which the returning officer shall not accept ballot papers; and
 - (iii) bear the initials of the returning officer.

- (e) A person to whom a ballot paper is forwarded, if desirous of voting, shall record his vote on the ballot paper by marking in the square opposite the name or names of the candidate or candidates for whom he votes a cross or crosses to the number of candidates required to be elected.
- (f) A voter having marked his ballot paper in accordance with paragraph (e) of this regulation shall post or deliver the ballot paper to the returning officer so as to be received by him not later than the day and time specified on the ballot paper for the closing of the election.
- (g) The returning officer shall reject any ballot paper not marked in the manner required by paragraph (e) of this regulation, or not received by him at or prior to the time specified thereon for the closing of the election, but a ballot paper shall not be rejected merely because of an informality or alleged informality in the manner in which it has been dealt with by the voter if the ballot paper is regular in other respects and in the opinion of the returning officer clearly indicates the intention of the voter in voting.
- (h) The result of an election shall be determined by scrutiny of the ballot papers and count of the votes.
- (i) Each candidate may, by notice in writing delivered to the returning officer not less than five days prior to the day fixed for the election, appoint one scrutineer to be present when the returning officer shall open the envelopes containing the ballot papers and commence to count the votes.
- (j) The candidate or candidates, according to the number of persons required to be elected at the election, who obtain the greatest number of votes, shall be declared by the returning officer to be elected.
- (k) In the event of two or more candidates receiving an equal number of votes, the returning officer, in the presence of the scrutineers, shall draw lots to decide which of such candidates shall be deemed to have been duly elected, and shall thereupon declare that candidate or those candidates who were successful on lots being drawn as aforesaid to be elected.
- (l) After the declaration of the result of the election the returning officer shall forthwith in writing notify the Minister of the name of the candidate or as the case may be, the names of the candidates, successful at the election.
- (m) The returning officer shall retain for a period of six months after the holding of an election all the ballot papers used at that election, and after the expiration of that period shall at a convenient time and in the presence of a member of the Board destroy by burning all such ballot papers.

Nominative Member.

6. (1) At least three months prior to the day fixed for an election of members of the Board in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 5 of the Act, the Registrar shall notify in writing the Western Australian division of the Australian Veterinary Association that it is required to nominate in writing in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) of that subsection a registered veterinary surgeon to be a member of the Board.

(2) The nomination referred to in subregulation (1) of this regulation shall be delivered to the Registrar prior to the day fixed for the close of nominations of candidates for election as members of the Board pursuant to regulation 4 of these regulations.

Remuneration of Board Members.

7. Each member of the Board, and each deputy of a member is entitled to be paid a fee of three pounds three shillings (£3 3s.) in respect of each meeting of the Board which he attends.

Registration of Veterinary Surgeons.

8. Every person who desires to be registered under the Act as a veterinary surgeon shall—

- (a) make application to the Board in the Form No. 3 in the schedule to these regulations, furnish the Board with all information required to be contained in that form, and verify such information by statutory declaration made by him;
- (b) if required by the Board, produce a certificate of the registration of his birth, or when such a certificate cannot be procured, such other evidence of his age as the Board in its discretion considers satisfactory;
- (c) lodge with the Registrar every degree, diploma or license of competency in veterinary science by virtue of which he claims to be registered, or a certificate that he has passed a prescribed examination to the satisfaction of the Board;
- (d) lodge with the Registrar a statutory declaration in the Form No. 4 in the schedule to these regulations made by himself declaring that—
 - (i) he is identical with the person named in that degree, diploma, license or certificate;
 - (ii) he has attained the age of twenty-one years;
 - (iii) he is a person of good fame and character;
 - (iv) he has not been refused registration, or his name has not been removed from the register or other similar public document, in any place outside the State: Provided that if he has been refused registration or his name has been so removed, he shall declare the fact and the reasons therefor;
- (e) lodge with the Registrar a statutory declaration in the Form No. 5 in the schedule to these regulations made by a reputable person well acquainted with the applicant declaring that the applicant is well known to the declarant and is of good fame and character; and
- (f) pay to the Registrar at the time of making his application the fee prescribed by these regulations.

9. (1) The Board shall consider every application made pursuant to regulation 8 of these regulations and may register or refuse to register the applicant as a veterinary surgeon under the Act.

(2) A certificate of registration issued to a person registered under the Act pursuant to this regulation may be in the Form No. 6 in the schedule to these regulations.

Certificates on Payment of Roll Fee.

10. Upon payment each year as required by section 18 of the Act of the roll fee prescribed by these regulations, the Registrar shall issue to the person paying the same a certificate in such one of the Forms Nos. 7, 8 or 9 in the schedule to these regulations as may be appropriate.

Certificates Remain Property of Board.

11. Any certificate issued pursuant to the provisions of the Act or of these regulations remains the property of the Board, and shall be returned to the Board if the name of the person to whom the certificate was granted is removed from the register.

Register.

12. The Register of Veterinary Surgeons, Western Australia, required to be kept by the Registrar pursuant to section 17 of the Act, shall be in the Form No. 10 in the schedule to these regulations.

Restoration of Name to Register.

13. Any registered veterinary surgeon whose name is removed from the register under subsection (2) of section 19, or paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of section 23, of the Act may upon payment of the prescribed restoration fee have his name restored to the register.

Insertion in Register of Higher Degrees, etc.

14. Every application pursuant to subsection (3) of section 21 of the Act by a registered veterinary surgeon to have inserted opposite his name in the register any degree, diploma or status of a higher standing, or any additional qualification, shall be supported by such evidence as the Board in its absolute discretion may require, and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

Fees.

15. The fees payable under these regulations are as follows:—

On an application to be registered as a veterinary surgeon under the Act	5	5	0
For annual roll fee	2	2	0
On restoration to the register of a name removed therefrom	4	4	0
