This allowance shall not be payable in respect of the removal of the furniture and effects of a new appointee at the time of his first commencing duty.

(d) An officer who finds that he is unable to resume duty on the expiration of the period shown on the first certificate shall thereupon furnish a further certificate and shall continue to do so upon the expiration of the period respectively covered by such certificates.

(e) The employer on receipt of an application for leave of absence on account of illness and supported by a certificate of a registered medical practitioner, may require a further certificate from a Government Medical officer. If in the opinion of the employer this further certificate does not

(l) The employer in order to satisfy himself in any case may send a registered medical practitioner to attend on and examine the officer at his residence and if the report of the practitioner is, in the opinion of the employer, not favourable to the application of the officer concerned, the fee payable to the practitioner shall be deducted from any money which is or becomes payable to the said officer by the employer.

(m) Where in the discharge of his duties, an officer sustains injuries which would be compensative in accordance with the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Act and which necessitates the granting of leave under this Award, half the period only of such leave on full pay and/or half pay respectively shall be charged against his sick leave entitlements or sick leave credits as the case may be.

(n) Where an officer transfers to another hospital, a party to this Award, the period of sick leave that has accrued to the officer's credit shall remain to such officer's credit and the provisions of subclause (f) (i) of this clause shall continue to apply to such officer.

(b) A fortnight's salary shall be computed by dividing the annual salary rate by three hundred and thirteen (313) and multiplying the result by twelve (12).

(c) The hourly rate shall be calculated as one seventy-fifth (1/75th) of the fortnight's salary for those working a thirty seven and a half (37½) hour week and by one eightieth (1/80th) of a fortnight's salary for those working a forty (40) hour week.

(g) No appeal shall be heard by the Appeal Board unless the appellant supplies the Appeal Board, at least four (4) days prior to the hearing, with three (3) copies of a statement in writing of the facts upon which the appellant relies and also serves a copy of such statement upon the representative of the employer, three (3) days prior to the hearing.
