After subclause (d) add the following new subclause:—

- (e) Boat Type and Swinging Scaffolds.—Workers working on boat type or swinging scaffolds shall be paid an additional payment of sixpence (6d.) per hour. ‘Swinging scaffold’ means any scaffold suspended from overhead gear and not supported from the ground and which by reason of the operations carried out on it or by reason of wind force or vibration is likely to swing or sway. No employer shall permit an apprentice who has served less than two years of his apprenticeship to work on a boat type or swinging scaffold and no such apprentice shall work on such a scaffold.

After Clause 22 add the following new clause:—

23.—Long Service Leave.

(a) Entitlement to Leave.

A worker shall in respect of continuous service with one and the same employer be entitled to the long service leave as hereinafter prescribed.

(b) Period of Leave.

The amount of such entitlement in the case of a worker who has completed at least twenty (20) years' continuous service with one and the same employer shall be:—

- (i) in respect of the twenty (20) years' service so completed—thirteen (13) weeks' leave; and
- (ii) in respect of each ten (10) years' service with such employer completed after such twenty (20) years—six and one half (6½) weeks' leave.

(c) Pro Rata Entitlement on Termination.

(i) Where a worker has completed at least ten (10) years but less than fifteen (15) years of continuous service with one and the same employer and his employment is terminated by the employer for any cause other than serious misconduct, or by death during his employment, or by the worker on account of personal sickness or injury or domestic or any other pressing necessity where such personal sickness, injury or necessity is of such nature as, in the opinion of the employer or, in the event of a dispute, of the Special Board of Reference, to justify such termination, the worker shall be entitled (or, in the case of death, his personal representative shall be entitled) to such payment as equals a proportionate amount of leave in respect of the period of completed years of such service, on the basis of thirteen (13) weeks for twenty (20) years' service.

(ii) Where a worker has completed at least fifteen (15) years' continuous service with one and the same employer and his employment is terminated for any reason other than by the employer for serious misconduct, he shall be entitled (or, in the case of death, his personal representative shall be entitled) to such payment as equals a proportionate amount of leave in respect of the period of completed years of such service since the commencement of his continuous service, or since the last accrual of entitlement to leave, on the basis of thirteen (13) weeks for twenty (20) years' service.

(d) Calculation of Continuous Service.

(1) For the purpose of this clause the following absences (whether before or after the commencement of this clause) shall not break the continuity of service and shall, subject to any limitation, herein, count as service:—

- (i) Absence in respect of any period during which the worker shall have served as a member of the Naval, Military or Air Forces of the Commonwealth of Australia (other than as a member of the permanent forces of the Commonwealth of Australia—except where such service occurs after 26th June, 1950, in Korea or Malaya—and other than as a member of the British Commonwealth Occupation Forces in Japan), or as a member of the Civil Construction Corps established under the National Security Act, 1939 (as amended), or absence on compulsory service in any of the armed forces under the National Service Act, 1951 (as amended): Provided that the worker as soon as reasonably practicable on the completion of any such service resumes employment with the employer by whom he was employed immediately before the commencement of such absence;
- (ii) absence on any annual leave or long service leave;
- (iii) absence following any termination of the employment by the employer if such termination has been made merely with the intention of avoiding obligations under this Award in respect of long service leave or annual leave; and
- (iv) absence necessitated by personal sickness or injury of which not more than fifteen (15) working days a years shall count as service.

(2) For the purposes of this clause the following absences (whether before or after the commencement of this clause) shall not break the continuity of service, but the period of such absence shall not count as service:—

- (i) Absence following any termination of the employment by the employer on any ground other than slackness of trade if the worker be re-employed by the same employer within a period not exceeding two (2) months from the date of such termination;
- (ii) absence during any standing down of a worker in accordance with the provisions of the relevant clause of this Award;
- (iii) absence following any termination of the employment by the employer on the ground of slackness of trade if the worker is re-employed by the same employer within a period not exceeding six (6) months from the date of such termination;

- (iv) absence of the worker authorised by the employer at any time;
- (v) absence arising directly or indirectly from an industrial dispute but only if the worker returns to work in accordance with the terms of settlement of the dispute; and
- (vi) any reasonable absence of the worker on legitimate Union business in respect of which he has requested and been refused leave.

(3) After the coming into operation of this clause, absence from work by reason of any cause, not being a cause specified in this subclause, shall not be deemed to break the continuity of service for the purpose of this clause unless the employer during the absence or within fourteen (14) days of the termination of the absence notifies the worker in writing that such absence will be regarded as having broken the continuity of service. Such notice may be given by delivering it to the worker personally or by posting it by registered mail to his last recorded address, in which case it shall be deemed to have reached him in due course of post.

(e) Service Before Commencement of Clause.

For the purpose of computing entitlement to leave, continuous service of a worker with one and the same employer immediately prior to the coming into operation of this clause shall be taken into account but only to the extent of the last twenty (20) completed years of such service.

(f) Time of Taking Leave.

Long service leave shall be granted and taken as soon as reasonably practicable after the right thereto accrues due or at such time or times as may be agreed between the employer and the worker or, in the absence of such agreement, at such time or times as may be determined by the Special Board of Reference, having regard to the needs of the employer's establishment and the worker's circumstances.

(g) Notice to Take Leave.

Except where the time for taking leave is agreed to, the employer shall give to a worker three (3) months' notice (where practicable) or in any case at least one (1) month's notice of the date from which his leave is to be taken.

(h) Broken Leave.

Long service leave shall be granted and taken in one continuous period or, if the worker and employer so agree, in not more than three (3) separate periods in respect of the first thirteen (13) weeks' entitlement and in not more than two separate periods in respect of any subsequent period of entitlement.

(i) Granting of Leave Before Due Date.

(i) Any employer may by agreement with a worker allow long service leave to such worker before the right thereto has accrued due, but where leave is taken in such a case, the worker shall not become entitled to any further long service leave in respect of any period until after the expiration of the period in respect of which such long service leave had been taken before it accrued due.

(ii) Where long service leave has been granted to a worker pursuant to this subclause before the right thereto has accrued due, and the worker subsequently leaves or dies or is discharged from the service of the employer, the employer may deduct from whatever remuneration is payable upon the termination of the employment, a proportionate amount on the basis of thirteen (13) weeks for twenty (20) years' service in respect of any period for which the worker has been granted long service leave to which he is not at the date of the termination of his employment or prior thereto, entitled.

(j) Payment for Period of Leave.

(i) Each worker shall be paid for each week of leave his ordinary time rate of pay applicable at the date he enters upon the period of leave. Such ordinary time rate shall be for the standard hours prescribed by this Award but in the case of casuals and part-time workers for the number of hours usually worked up to but not exceeding the prescribed standard.

(ii) Provided that, where by agreement between the employer and the worker, the taking of the leave due to the worker or any portion of it is postponed to meet the convenience of the worker, the rate of payment for such leave shall be at the ordinary time rate of pay applicable at the date of accrual or, if so agreed, at the ordinary time rate of pay applicable at the date he enters upon the period of leave.

(iii) Ordinary time rate of pay—

- (a) shall not include shift premiums, over-time, penalty rates, commissions, bonuses, allowances or the like except District Allowance when the worker or his family or dependants remain in the Award area and Industry Allowance;
- (b) shall include any deductions from wages for board and/or lodging or the like which is not provided and taken during the period of leave.

(iv) Payment in the case of workers employed on piece or bonus work or any other system of payment by result shall be at ordinary time rates.

Liberty is reserved to the parties to apply to amend this subclause.

(k) Method of Payment.

Payment shall be made in one of the following ways:—

- (i) In full before the worker goes on leave; or
- (ii) at the same times as his wages would have been paid to him if the worker had remained at work, in which case payment shall, if the worker in writing so requires, be made by cheque posted to an address specified by the worker; or
- (iii) in any other way agreed between the employer and the worker.

(l) Payment on Termination for Leave not Taken.

Where the employment of a worker is terminated and he has an entitlement to long service leave, the employer shall thereupon pay to the worker a sum equivalent to the amount which would have been payable in respect of the period of long service leave to which the worker would have been entitled if he had taken the same at the time of such termination.

(m) Payment on Death.

Where a worker dies during his employment and any long service leave to which he is entitled under this clause has not been taken or received in full by the worker, the employer shall, upon request by the personal representative of the deceased worker, pay to that representative the amount due in respect of such leave. The obligation of the employer to such worker in respect of long service leave shall be and shall be deemed to have been satisfied by such payment.

(n) Public Holidays and Annual Leave During Period of Leave.

Any long service leave shall be inclusive of any public holidays specified in this Award occurring during the period when the leave is taken, but shall not be inclusive of any annual leave.

(o) Transmission of Business.

For the purpose of this clause, where a business has, whether before or after the coming into operation of this clause, been transmitted from an employer (in this subclause called the transmitter) to another employer (in this subclause called the transmittee) and a worker who at the time of such transmission was a worker employed by the transmitter in that business becomes a worker employed by the transmittee—

- (i) the continuity of the service of such worker shall be deemed not to have been broken by reason only of the transmission; and

- (ii) the period of the continuous service which the worker has had with the transmittor (or any prior transmittor) shall be deemed to be continuous service of the worker with the transmittor.

In this subclause "transmission" includes transfer conveyance assignment or succession whether by agreement or by operation of law and "transmitted" has a corresponding meaning.

(p) Transfer of Workers to Associated Companies.

Where a worker, either at the request or with the consent of the employer being a company, transfers his employment to that of another company associated with that of the original employer, the continuity of the worker's service shall not be deemed to have been broken by reason only of such transfer and the period of the continuous service the worker has had with the original employer shall be deemed to be continuous service with the company to which the worker transfers. For the purpose of this subclause, companies shall be deemed to be associated companies when one company is a subsidiary of the other or where two companies are each a subsidiary of a third company.

(q) Records to be Kept.

(i) Each employer shall during the employment and for a period of twelve (12) months (three (3) years in case of death) thereafter keep a record from which can be readily ascertained the name of each worker and his occupation, the date of the commencement of his employment and his entitlement to long service leave and any leave which may have been granted to him or in respect of which payment may have been made in accordance with this clause.

(ii) Such record shall be open for inspection in the manner and circumstances prescribed by this Award with respect to the Time and Wages Record.

(r) Special Board of Reference.

(i) There shall be constituted a Special Board of Reference for the purpose of this clause to which all disputes and matters arising under this clause shall be referred and the Board shall determine all such disputes and matters.

(ii) There shall be assigned to such Board the functions of:—

(a) the settlement of disputes on any matters arising out of this clause;

(b) the determination of such matters as are specifically assigned to it by this clause.

(iii) The Special Board of Reference shall consist of the Registrar of the Court or his deputy if he be unable to act as Chairman and one (1) representative nominated by the Chamber of Mines of W.A. (Incorporated) and one by the Union.

(s) Prohibition of Working During Period of Leave.

(i) Subject to paragraph (ii) of this subclause, no worker shall, without the consent of the employer, during any period when he is on long service leave, engage in any employment for hire or reward. If a worker breaches this provision he shall, at the discretion of the employer, thereupon forfeit all his current leave rights under this clause and the employer shall be entitled to cancel any further payment in respect of those rights and to reclaim at law any payments already made on account of such period during which the worker was so engaged in employment.

(ii) This subclause shall not apply in the case of former workers who have received payment in lieu of leave on termination of their employment in accordance with subclause (c) of this clause.

(t) Exemptions.

Any employer who provides or proposes to provide a scheme for long service leave which, viewed as a whole, is more favourable to the worker than the provisions herein prescribed, may apply to the Court for exemption from the provisions of this clause and the Court may at its discretion refuse or grant such exemption, subject to such conditions (if any) as to the modification of the scheme or otherwise as the Court thinks desirable.

Liberty is reserved to any party to the Award to apply to amend:—
