If the required notice is not given, one (1) week's (or one (1) hour's, in the case of a casual worker) pay shall be paid or forfeited as the case may be.

7.—Casual Workers.

A worker engaged for less than one (1) week (except a worker who is dismissed for inefficiency or misconduct or who leaves the service of the employer of his own volition) shall be deemed a casual hand and whilst engaged as such shall be entitled to receive ten per cent. (e) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(f) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Award shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(g) In the event of a worker being employed by any employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled, subject to subclause (f) of this clause, to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

(d) A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through any accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment or for any accident wherever sustained arising out of his own wilful default or sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

(e) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

(f) Sick leave shall accumulate from year to year so that any balance of the period specified in subclause (a) of this clause which has in any year not been allowed to any worker by his employer as paid sick leave may be claimed by the worker and, subject to the conditions hereinbefore prescribed, shall be allowed by his employer in any subsequent year without diminution of the sick leave prescribed in respect of that year. Provided that sick leave which accumulates pursuant to this subclause shall be available to the worker for a period of two (2) years but no longer from the end of the year in which it accrues.

(g) Where a worker is suffering from illness or injury sustained on the job he shall not be permitted to leave the job unless accompanied or assisted by a sufficient number of workers, except in the case of his removal by ambulance, to his home or the nearest hospital. All expenses incurred in such worker's removal shall be paid by the employer.

16.—Shift Work.

(a) The ordinary working hours of workers on shift work shall not exceed an average of forty per week spread over a period of two, three or four weeks to be worked in shifts of eight hours inclusive of a crib time of twenty minutes which shall be counted as time worked.

Definitions.

(b) For the purposes of this clause—

- (i) "day shift" means any shift starting at or after 6 a.m. and before 10 a.m.;
- (ii) "afternoon shift" means any shift starting at or after 10 a.m. and before 8 p.m.;
- (iii) "night shift" means any shift starting at or after 8 p.m. and before 6 a.m.;
- (iv) "rostered shift" means a shift of which the worker concerned has had at least forty-eight hours notice;
- (v) where two shifts are required to be worked wholly within daylight hours, day shift shall be from 5 a.m. to 12 noon and afternoon shift shall be from 12 noon to 7 p.m. and in both cases workers engaged on such shifts shall be paid as for a full shift.

(c) There shall be a roster of shifts which shall—

- (i) provide for rotation unless all the workers concerned desire otherwise;
- (ii) provide for not more than eight shifts to be worked in any nine consecutive days.

So far as workers present themselves for work in accordance therewith shifts shall be worked according to the roster.

Overtime.

(d) Work done by shift workers in excess of or outside the ordinary working hours of their shift or on a shift other than a rostered shift shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

But this shall not apply to arrangements between the workers themselves or in cases due to rotation of shift or when the relief does not come on duty at the proper time; for all time of duty after he has finished his ordinary shift such unrelieved worker shall be paid at the rate of time and a half for the first eight hours and double time thereafter.

(f) Workers working shifts shall be paid for ordinary hours of work performed between midnight on Friday and midnight on Saturday at the minimum rate of time and a quarter. This extra rate shall be in substitution for and not cumulative upon the shift premiums prescribed in subclause (e) hereof, but the provisions of this subclause shall not prejudice any right of the worker to obtain, alternatively, any higher rate in respect of that work by virtue of any provision of this Award.

Sundays and Holidays.

(g) Subject to this clause the provisions of clause 10 (a) (i) and Clause 12 (a) (i) of this Award shall apply to shift workers. Where shifts commence between 11 p.m. and midnight on a Sunday or holiday, the time so worked before midnight shall not entitle the worker to the Sunday or holiday rate; provided that the time worked by a worker on a shift commencing before midnight on the day preceding a Sunday or holiday and extending into a Sunday or holiday shall be regarded as time worked on such Sunday or holiday. Where shifts fall partly on a Sunday or a holiday, that shift the major portion of which falls on a Sunday or a holiday shall be regarded as the Sunday or holiday shift.

(h) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to cookhouse personnel or camp orderlies.

(c) (i) A worker who is obliged under (a) hereof to camp at or reasonably close to the site of the work and not provided free with the food and accommodation referred to in (a) hereof shall be paid an allowance of £3 5s. per week or ten shillings (10s.) per day for any period of employment less than one week. This allowance shall be reduced by £1 5s. per week, or three shillings and sixpence (3s. 6d.) per day where the aforesaid daily rate applies, in all cases where the employer at his own cost provides the worker with both a proper mess room and the cooking of the worker's food.

(ii) The weekly rate of £3 5s. and the aforementioned deduction of £1 5s. shall apply notwithstanding that a worker may return to his home at a weekend, provided that such worker does not absent himself without just cause from the job for any of the ordinary working hours or reasonable overtime required in such week otherwise a deduction of ten shillings (10s.) per day may be made for each non-working day and ordinary working day not fully worked in that week up to the maximum allowance prescribed.

(f) When satisfactory accommodation, other than tents or huts, is made available by the employer, the foregoing allowances may be reduced in the case of any worker, however short his occupation, when the camp location is fixed for a period of six months or longer; the amount of such reduction to be agreed upon by a representative of the respondent concerned and the Union, and in the event of a dispute or difference, to be referred to a Board of Reference for determination.

(d) Whether a worker is entitled to the benefits of this or the next clause shall be determined by the employer.

23.—Travelling Allowance.

(a) Where a worker is sent from one place to another and cannot reasonably return to his home each night, he shall be paid an allowance of 20s. per day or part thereof for the first six days and 65s. per week of seven days thereafter except where camping facilities are provided by the employer or the worker.

Provided that the foregoing rates of allowances shall be increased if the worker satisfies the employer that he reasonably incurred an expenditure greater than the amount specified.

- (ii) by the employer for any reason other than serious misconduct; or

- (iii) in any other way agreed between the employer and the worker.

(f) No worker shall, during any period when he is on leave engage in any employment for hire or reward in substitution for the employment from which he is on leave, and if a worker breaches this provision he shall thereupon forfeit his right to leave hereunder in respect of the unexpired period of leave upon which he has entered, and the employer shall be entitled to withhold any further payment in respect of the period and to reclaim any payments already made on account of such period of leave.

(2) Where leave has been granted to a worker pursuant to the preceding paragraph before the right thereto has accrued due, and the employment subsequently is terminated, the employer may deduct from whatever remuneration is payable upon the termination of the employment a proportionate amount on the basis of 13 weeks for 20 years' service in respect of any period for which the worker has been granted long service leave to which he was not at the date of termination of his employment or prior thereto entitled.

(2) The entitlement of any such worker to leave in respect of a period of service with the employer completed after the period in respect of which the long service leave referred to in paragraph (1) hereof accrued due shall be in accordance herewith.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (1) and (2) hereof, the entitlement to leave hereunder shall be in substitution for and satisfaction of any long service leave to which the worker may be entitled in respect of employment of the worker by the employer.

(j) Exemptions.

The Special Board of Reference may subject to such conditions as it thinks fit exempt any employer from the provisions hereof in respect of its employees where there is an existing or prospective long service leave scheme which, in its opinion is, viewed as a whole, more favourable for the whole of the employees of that employer than the provisions hereof.
