REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS, DEATHS AND MARRIAGES ACT, 1961.

Chief Secretary's Department,
Perth, 7th August, 1963.

R.G.O. 311/61.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor and Administrator in Executive Council, acting pursuant to section 73 of the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act, 1961, and section 11 of the Interpretation Act, 1918-1962, has been pleased to make the regulations contained in the schedule hereunder.

J. DEVEREUX,
Under Secretary.

Schedule.

Regulations.

- Citation. 1. These regulations may be cited as the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act, Regulations, 1963.
- Revocation. 2. The regulations made under the Registration of Births, Deaths, and Marriages Act, 1894-1956, are revoked.
- Interpretation. 3. (1) In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—
- "legitimated child" or "legitimated person" means a child or person legitimated by virtue of Part VI of the Marriage Act, 1961, of the Parliament of the Commonwealth;
  - "registration" used in relation to a birth, death, marriage, or any document means registration of the birth, death, marriage or document under the Act;
  - "regulation" means one of the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act, Regulations, 1963;
  - "schedule" means a schedule to the regulations;
  - "the Act" means the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act, 1961.

(2) Unless the contrary intention appears, expressions used in these regulations have the same respective meanings as in the Act.

- (3) In these regulations a reference to a schedule by number shall be read as a reference to the schedule so numbered in these regulations, and a reference to a form by number shall be read as a reference to the form as so numbered in the Second Schedule.
- Directions in forms. 4. A form prescribed by these regulations shall be completed in accordance with such directions as are specified in the form as so prescribed.
- Fees. 5. The fees set out in the second column of the First Schedule are the fees prescribed in respect of the matters in the first column opposite to which they are set out.
- Information papers. 6. An information paper required to be given pursuant to the Act relating—
 (a) to a birth, shall be completed and furnished in accordance with Form No. 1;
 (b) to a death, shall be completed and furnished in accordance with Form No. 2.
- Register to be kept. 7. (1) An assistant district registrar shall keep a register in accordance with Form No. 3 and he shall record therein particulars of each birth and each death in respect of which he has received an information paper in the prescribed form.
 (2) The assistant district registrar shall—
 (a) insert in the appropriate place provided in each such information paper the date the paper was first received by him;
 (b) endorse the paper with his signature; and
 (c) forthwith thereafter forward the paper and supporting documents, if any, to the district registrar for the registry district in which the birth or the death, to which the paper relates, occurred.
 (3) The assistant district registrar shall, as soon as possible after the end of each month, complete and forward to the district registrar of the relevant registry district, a summary of all births and deaths recorded in the register kept by him during that month, as having occurred in that registry district.
- Fees to be paid to certain district registrars and assistant district registrars. 8. (1) This regulation applies to any person who is not a salaried officer under the Public Service Act, 1904, and who acts in the capacity of a district registrar or an assistant district registrar.
 (2) Where the person acts as district registrar—
 (a) all fees received by him from members of the public in accordance with these regulations, except as provided in this regulation, shall be paid to the Treasurer of the State for the State;
 (b) he shall be paid the sum of four shillings for the registration of each birth, death or marriage made by him during each quarter of the year or the sum of two pounds for each quarter, whichever is the greater amount;
 (c) he is entitled to retain for his own use all fees paid under Part IV of the First Schedule received by him from members of the public, except fees so paid for—
 (i) correction of an entry in a register;
 (ii) a document incorporating the result of a search;
 (iii) the entry of a change of name on a registration; and
 (iv) the entry conferring, adding to, or changing the first name of a child on a registration; and
 (d) he is entitled to retain for his own use the marriage fee prescribed by the Marriage Regulations made under the Marriage Act, 1961, of the Parliament of the Commonwealth.

(3) Where the Registrar General waives a fee that would otherwise have been paid under these regulations and retained by a district registrar in accordance with this regulation, the district registrar shall be paid by the Registrar General the amount of the fee so waived.

(4) Where the person referred to in subregulation (1) of this regulation acts as assistant district registrar—

- (a) he shall transmit to the relevant district registrar all fees received by him under the First Schedule; and
- (b) he shall be paid by the Registrar General the sum of two shillings for the first information paper in respect of a birth or of a death transmitted by him to a district registrar.

Discretion as to completing form.

9. A person completing a form prescribed by these regulations or by the Act shall, where it is hand written, complete it by writing clearly in black or blue-black iron-gall ink of good permanence and shall not blot the writing before the permanency of the writing is ensured.

Requirements relating to registration of births.

10. (1) Where the birth of a child who is—

- (a) born in the State;
- (b) born out of the State but arrives in the State before attaining the age of eighteen months, has not previously been registered, and more than twelve months but less than seven years have elapsed since the date of the birth of the child in the State or its arrival in the State, the Registrar General or a district registrar may require a parent of the child to furnish to him a statutory declaration as to the reasons the birth of the child had not previously been registered.

(2) If the mother of the child was attended at the time of the birth of the child by a medical practitioner or by a nurse or the child was born in a hospital, the Registrar General may require that practitioner or that nurse or the person in charge of the hospital to state in writing to him, the date and place of the birth, the sex of the child, and such other particulars as may be required by the Act and regulations for the purpose of registering the birth.

(3) The Registrar General may require a statutory declaration to be made by a person having knowledge of the birth, as to the correctness of the particulars given to the Registrar General in respect of the birth and may require the parents to furnish such other evidence of the birth as is necessary for the purpose of registering the birth in accordance with the Act and regulations.

(4) If the Registrar General is satisfied that the evidence of the birth and the particulars furnished in relation thereto are correct and adequate for the purpose of registration, and that the birth has not previously been registered either in the State or elsewhere, he may authorise the district registrar in writing, to register the birth.

(5) The district registrar shall enter on the register form the words, "This Registration is made under the written authority of the Registrar General, and in accordance with the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act, Regulations, 1963" and shall enter also the date that authority was given.

Requirements relating to registration of deaths.

11. (1) Where a death that occurs in the State has not been registered and more than twelve months but less than seven years have elapsed since the date of the death, the person who disposed of the body or the occupier of the building or place where the death occurred or a person having knowledge of the facts, shall complete and give to the Registrar General or any district registrar a prescribed death information paper in respect of that death.

(2) The Registrar General or a district registrar may require the person completing and giving the prescribed information paper to make a statutory declaration as to the reasons the death had not previously been registered.

(3) If the Registrar General is satisfied that the evidence of the death and the particulars furnished in relation thereto and to the disposal of the body are correct and adequate for the purpose of registration, and that the death has not previously been registered, he may authorise the district registrar in writing, to register the death.

(4) The district registrar shall enter on the register form the words, "This Registration is made under the written authority of the Registrar General, and in accordance with the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act, Regulations, 1963" and shall enter also the date that authority was given.

Registrations
by authority of a Judge.

12. (1) Where a Judge of the Supreme Court has authorised the registration of a birth or of a death, the Registrar General on receipt of the authority of the Judge shall authorise the district registrar in writing to register that birth or that death, and may require the applicant for the authority or his agent to complete and furnish a prescribed information paper in respect of the birth or death.

(2) The district registrar shall enter on the register form the words, "This Registration is made by the written authority of the Registrar General under the authority of a Judge of the Supreme Court and in accordance with the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act, Regulations, 1963" and shall enter also the date the authority was given.

Registrations
under Adoption of Children
Act, 1896.

13. (1) Where, in pursuance of section 13 of the Adoption of Children Act, 1896, an application is made to the Registrar General for the re-registration of the birth of a child, the applicant shall furnish particulars in accordance with Form No. 4.

(2) A re-registration of birth made under that section shall be in accordance with Form No. 5.

Application to confer, change or add name.

14. (1) Where an application is made under subsection (1) of section 29 of the Act to have the first or christian name of a child conferred, changed or added to, the application shall be made to the Registrar General in writing.

(2) Where such an application purports to be made by any of the persons referred to in subsection (2) of section 29 of the Act, the Registrar General may require the person to produce to him evidence establishing that the person is qualified to make the application under that subsection.

Application
relating to lawful change of name or lawful assumption of name.

15. Where an application is made pursuant to section 30 of the Act, to have an entry made in a registration with respect to the lawful change of a name or the lawful assumption of a name, the application shall be in accordance with Form No. 6.

Entry in
name of father of illegitimate
child.

16. (1) An entry in a register of the name of, or any other particulars relating to the father of a child, authorised pursuant to subsection (3) of section 21 of the Act, shall be made in the margin of the registration and shall be signed by the Registrar General or by the appropriate district registrar.

(2) A statutory declaration required to be furnished pursuant to subsection (2) of section 29 of the Act shall be in accordance with Form No. 7.

Entry of disposal of body previously delivered to school
of anatomy.

17. When, after the delivery to a school of anatomy of the body of a person whose death has been registered, the body is buried, cremated or otherwise disposed of, and a certificate in accordance with the form of the Fifth Schedule to the Act in respect of the body is given to the district registrar for the registry district in which the death occurred, an entry referring to the burial, cremation or other disposal shall be made in the margin of the registration, and that entry shall be signed by the Registrar General or that district registrar.

Marriage Certificate to be transmitted to district registrar.

18. The copy of a marriage certificate required for the registration of a marriage pursuant to section 47 of the Act, shall be transmitted by the minister who celebrated the marriage to the district registrar appointed for the district wherein the marriage was celebrated within fourteen days of the date of the marriage to which the certificate relates.

Information concerning the legitimation of a child.

19. Information of the legitimation by virtue of Part VI of the Marriage Act, 1961, of the Parliament of the Commonwealth, of a child born in the State shall be given to the Registrar General pursuant to section 51 of the Act in accordance with the form of the prescribed birth information paper, namely Form No. 1, which shall be signed by both parents of the child as informants, or if one of those parents is dead, by the surviving parent.

Time for giving information of legitimation of child.

20. (1) The information referred to in regulation 19 shall be given to the Registrar General—

- (a) within three months of the date of the marriage of the parents of the legitimated child, if they were married after the date of the coming into operation of the Marriage Act, 1961, of the Parliament of the Commonwealth; or
- (b) within six months after that date, if the marriage of the parents of the legitimated child took place before that date.

(2) Notwithstanding that the information is not given in accordance with subregulation (1) of this regulation the Registrar General may in his discretion accept the information for the purposes of Part VI of the Act.

Information paper as to birth of legitimated child signed by one parent only.

21. (1) Where the prescribed birth information paper relating to the birth of a legitimated child is signed by one parent of the child only, the birth of the legitimated child shall not be registered unless—

- (a) particulars of the father have already been entered in the register in accordance with section 21 of the Act or the father has acknowledged paternity by signing the register at the time the birth of the child was first registered; or
- (b) evidence is produced to the Registrar General that an affiliation order against the father has been made by a court of competent jurisdiction in respect of the child; or
- (c) there is produced to the Registrar General an order declaring the child to be legitimate, made by the Supreme Court of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth, or a certified copy of the order.

(2) The parent furnishing the information paper shall furnish to the Registrar General, if he so requires, a certified copy of the registration of the marriage of the parents of the child, or such other evidence of that marriage as the Registrar General requires.

(3) The parent furnishing the information paper shall furnish such other evidence as to the legitimation of the child as the Registrar General requires.

Registration of birth of legitimated child born out of the State.

22. (1) Application to the Registrar General for registration of the birth of a legitimated child not born in the State but domiciled therein, pursuant to section 52 of the Act, shall be made in accordance with Form No. 8 by the parents of the child or if one of those parents is dead, by the surviving parent, or by a person who has obtained an Order of a Court under section 92 of the Marriage Act, 1961, of the Parliament of the Commonwealth declaring the child to be a legitimated child.

(2) The applicant shall complete and furnish to the Registrar General a prescribed birth information paper in accordance with Form No. 1 in respect of the child.

(3) The applicant shall furnish to the Registrar General such evidence as he may require as to the birth and the legitimacy of the child and to the marriage of the parents.

- Form of statutory declaration. 23. Where the Registrar General requests that a statutory declaration be made under section 53 of the Act, the statutory declaration shall be made in accordance with Form No. 9.
- Application for registration of birth of legitimated child under s. 55 of the Act. 24. (1) Application for the registration of the birth of a legitimated person born in the State, pursuant to section 55 of the Act, shall be made to the Registrar General in accordance with Form No. 10.
(2) The applicant shall furnish such evidence as the Registrar General may require as to the birth and legitimacy of the person whose birth is required to be registered and to the marriage of the parents of that person.
- Form of particulars of orders or decrees of dissolution or nullity of marriage. 25. The particulars of an order or decree of dissolution of a marriage or of nullity of a marriage shall, pursuant to section 49 of the Act, be furnished in accordance with Form No. 11.
- Penalty for offences. 26. A person who commits an offence against these regulations is liable to a penalty of twenty pounds.

HEALTH ACT, 1911-1960.

Shire of Perth.

Amendment to Consolidated Health By-laws.

P.H.D. 1156/62, Pt. 3.

THE Shire of Perth, being a local authority under the provisions of the Health Act, 1911-1960, doth hereby, under and by virtue of the powers conferred upon it in that behalf by the said Act and all other powers enabling it, make and publish the following by-laws:—

The by-laws of the Shire of Perth published in the Government Gazette of the 30th May, 1961, are hereby amended in the following manner:—

By-law 77 is repealed and the following new by-law is inserted in its place:—

(1) No person shall erect or commence to erect or do any work preparatory to the erection of any building without providing a temporary sanitary convenience for the use of the persons engaged on the work in accordance with this by-law.

(2) The temporary sanitary convenience shall be provided on the land upon which the building is being or is to be erected.

(3) Subject to clause (4) of this by-law, the temporary sanitary convenience shall comply with the conditions of by-laws 1, 1AA and 1B of Part I of the Model By-laws.

(4) If permission be granted by the Council, the temporary sanitary convenience may be a borehole type sanitary convenience. The term "borehole type sanitary convenience" shall include the pedestal type pan, the slab into which the pan fits and the enclosure.

(5) The following conditions shall apply to borehole type sanitary conveniences and any person to whom permission has been granted to instal a borehole type sanitary convenience shall comply with the following conditions:—

(a) Only a type of borehole sanitary convenience which has been approved by the Commissioner of Public Health shall be installed.

(b) The borehole type sanitary convenience shall be installed in a position determined by an Inspector.

- (c) The hole bored for the purpose of the sanitary convenience shall be not less than four feet nor more than eight feet deep and not less than six inches or more than eight inches diameter.
- (d) The provisions of clauses (b) to (d) inclusive of by-law 1B of the Model By-laws shall apply to the borehole type sanitary convenience.
- (e) The construction of a borehole type sanitary convenience shall not be deemed to comply with these conditions until it has been approved for use by a Health Inspector.
- (f) The borehole type sanitary convenience shall be maintained in a clean and fly-proof condition.

(6) In pursuance of section 110 of the Act the whole of the District is prescribed as being the area within which provision may be made for the reception of night soil below ground by means of a borehole type sanitary convenience.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1960.

Municipality of the Shire of Wiluna.

By-law Governing Long Service Leave to be Granted to Employees of the Wiluna Shire Council.

L.G. 368/63.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon it by the abovementioned Act and of all other powers enabling it, the Council of the abovementioned Municipality hereby records having resolved on the 8th day of June, 1963, to make and submit for confirmation by the Governor the following by-laws.

1. In the interpretation of the by-laws, the following words shall have the meanings assigned to them hereunder:—

- (a) "Council" means the Wiluna Shire Council; "employee" means and includes all persons employed in any capacity by the Council, and who are in the regular and full time employment of the Council.

- (b) "Continuous service" means service in the employment of the Council during which an employee has not been absent from the service of the Council for a continuous period of more than two days or an aggregate period of more than 10 days without leave of absence being granted by the Council.

2. All present and future employees of the Council shall after each period of 10 years' continuous service as permanent full time employees thereof, commencing from the 1st day of July, 1953, be entitled to three (3) months' long service leave, and no long service leave shall be granted to an employee without a qualifying period of 10 years being first completed.

Except that the Council may grant pro rata long service leave to an employee who has served a minimum of five years' continuous service with the Council and has reached the retiring age of 65 years, or is retired on the grounds of ill-health, or is dismissed through staff retrenchments.

3. (a) The Council may grant long service leave to an employee of the Council who has been granted long service leave for 10 years' continuous service if, before a further period of 10 years' continuous service is reached, such employee retires from the Council's service owing to having reached the retiring age of 65 years, or is retired on the grounds of ill-health, or dismissed through staff retrenchments, in which case the long service leave may be adjusted pro rata.

Provided that no such grant shall be made to an employee of the Council who prior to completing a further period of 10 years' continuous service resigns his employment with the Council.

(b) The long service leave which may be granted under this by-law shall be for a period not exceeding one and three-tenths weeks for every completed year of service since the conclusion of the period which qualified the employee for his previous long service leave, and shall be on full pay.

4. An employee dismissed by the Council for neglect of duty or for irregular practices shall not be paid any sum in pursuance of the preceding by-law.

5. Absence on account of sickness shall not be deemed to be a break in continuity of service, providing the period of absence shall not exceed three months in any year, unless otherwise decided by the Council.

6. (a) Long service leave shall be taken at the convenience of the Council, who will, as far as possible, meet with the wishes of the employee, but the Council may require the employee to take leave by giving not less than three months' notice.

(b) Long service leave shall be taken by every employee within 12 months of its becoming due, and if not so taken, the employee shall not begin to qualify for further long service leave until resumption of duty after taking the long service leave already due to him. Provided that with the express approval of the Council, an employee be allowed to accumulate long service leave up to, but not exceeding six months.

7. In the event of retirement or death of an employee, the Council may pay to such an employee (or in case of death to his personal representatives, or if there be none, to his dependants) a sum of money equal to his wages or salary for the period of long service leave which the Council is empowered under these by-laws to grant to such employee under these by-laws at the date of his retirement or death, or if the Council after consideration of all the circumstances, direct that the death of an employee be presumed the Council may authorise the payment to the dependants a sum equivalent to the amount of wages or salary which would under this by-law have been granted the employee immediately prior to the date of his death, such date to be determined by the Council.

8. (a) Employees due to take long service leave shall be paid their salary or wages for the period thereof at the rate equivalent to the salary paid in the week immediately preceding the taking of long service leave.

(b) The Council may at its discretion either (1) pay to an employee his wages or salary periodically during long service leave, or (2) pay to the employee in advance a sum representing the amount of his wages or salary for the period of his long service leave.

9. All annual leave to which an employee is entitled or will become entitled before the expiration of his long service leave shall be taken by the employee in conjunction with his long service leave, but any public holidays which may occur during the taking of his long service leave, are not to be paid for over and above the long service leave, but are to form part of such long service leave.

10. Long service leave shall be considered as a special period of recuperation after a lengthy term of service, with a view to fitting the employee for a further term and during such leave no employee shall undertake any form of employment for hire or reward. Any contravention of this by-law shall entitle the Council to dismiss the employee from its service and to cease paying or to recover any amounts paid in advance on account of long service leave.
