6.—Definitions.

- (1) "Sheet Metal" means sheets of metal ten (10) gauge or lighter.
- (2) "Sheet Metal Worker—First Class" shall mean a worker required—
  - (a) to work from blue prints, drawings, or measurements (whichever is required of him) for completed articles, and to make the articles throughout; or
  - (b) to do work, the ability to do which involves the ability to do the work specified in (a).

The expression "blue prints" drawings or measurements mean blue prints, drawings or measurements furnished by the customer to the employer for the purpose of specifying the nature and/or dimensions of the articles ordered, or part thereof, or blue prints, drawings, or measurements of a similar nature; but the expression does not include drawings, sketches, or measurements supplied to the individual workman for the purpose of assisting such workman to understand the nature of and to carry out the work required of him.

(3) "Sheet Metal Worker—2nd Class" shall mean a tinsmith or sheet metal worker employed, except as above, in manufacturing or partly manufacturing articles out of any class of sheet metal of ten (10) gauge or lighter, and including wire work in connection with such articles.

(4) "Sheet Metal Welder—1st Class" means a worker using electric arc or acetylene, petrol or coal gas blow pipe on any work other than—

- (a) cutting scrap metal; or
- (b) welding with the aid of jigs; or
- (c) operations specifically mentioned as being the work of a second and third class welder in the definitions of those terms hereunder.

(5) "Sheet Metal Welder—Second class" means a worker who—

- (a) welds with the aid of jigs; or
- (b) operates automatic welding machines for the setting up of which he is not responsible (other than machines mentioned in the definition of "Sheet Metal Welder—3rd Class"); or
- (c) operates a profile cutting or a straight line cutting machine.

(6) "Sheet Metal Welder—3rd class" means a worker who uses any of the foregoing types of welding apparatus in tacking preparatory to the completion of work by any other worker.

(7) "Process Worker" means a worker engaged on repetition work on any automatic, semi-automatic, or single-purpose machine, or any machine fitted with jigs, gauges, or other tools rendering operations mechanical or in the assembling of parts of mechanical appliances or other metallic articles so made, or any repetitive hand processes.

(8) "Casual Worker" means a worker engaged to work for less than five (5) consecutive days.

7.—Higher Duties.

(1) A worker engaged for more than one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of one (1) day or shift on duties carrying a higher rate than his ordinary classification shall be paid the higher rate for such day or shift; if employed for one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) or less than half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of one (1) day or shift, he shall be paid the higher rate for the time actually worked. Provided, however, that acting time of less than twenty (20) minutes in any one day or shift shall not be counted.

(2) Should any worker be required to perform work in a lower grade, his wage shall not be reduced whilst employed in such capacity.

8.—Contract of Service.

(1) The contract of service shall be by the week and shall be terminable by one (1) week's notice on either side or by the payment or forfeiture, as the case may be, of a week's wages in lieu of such notice.

(2) The employer shall be under no obligation to pay for any day not worked on which the worker is required to present himself for duty, except such absence from work is due to illness and comes within the provisions of clause 22, or such absence is on account of holidays to which the worker is entitled under the provisions of this agreement.

(3) This clause does not affect the right to dismiss for misconduct and in such case wages shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only.

(4) When a worker is discharged before the usual pay day, he shall be paid his wages when he ceases work, or it shall be forwarded to his address the day after by registered post, at the employer's risk, unless the worker desires to collect at the office.

(5) The employer shall be entitled to deduct payment for any day or portion of a day on which the worker cannot be usefully employed because of a strike by the Union, or by any other association or union associated with it, or through the breakdown of the employer's machinery or any stoppage of work by any cause which the employer cannot reasonably prevent.

9.—Annual Leave.

(1) Except as hereinafter provided, a period of two (2) consecutive weeks leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with that employer, but where a worker completes that twelve months continuous service on or after the 30th November, 1963, he shall be allowed three (3) consecutive weeks leave instead of the two (2) consecutive weeks leave prescribed herein.

(2) After one (1) month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve monthly period a worker whose employment terminates shall be paid, in respect of each completed month of continuous service in that qualifying period—

- (i) one-sixth ( $\frac{1}{6}$ ) of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage if he leaves his employment before the 30th November, 1963, and one-quarter ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage if he leaves his employment on or after that date;
- (ii) One-quarter ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage if his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker after 29th August, 1963, and one-sixth ( $\frac{1}{6}$ ) of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage if his employment is so terminated on or before that date.

(3) Any worker who may resign or be dismissed from the service for any cause, other than for peculation or theft, shall be entitled to receive payment for any annual leave which may have been due up to the time of leaving the service: Provided always that if the worker has been dismissed for peculation or theft, no claim for annual leave shall be recognised. Misconduct herein referred to shall not affect accumulated annual leave or payment therefor.

(4) If any Award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(5) "Ordinary wages" for the purpose of subclause (1) hereof shall mean the rate of wage the worker has received for the greatest proportion of the calendar month prior to his taking the leave.

(6) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), when computing the annual leave due under this clause, no deduction shall be made from such leave in respect of the period that a worker is on annual leave and/or holidays: Provided that no deductions shall be made for any approved period a worker is absent from duty through sickness with or without pay, unless the absence exceeds three (3) calendar months, in which case deduction may be made for such excess only.

(b) Approved periods of absence from work caused through accident sustained in the course of employment shall not be considered breaks in continuity of service, but the first six (6) months only of any such period shall count as service for the purpose of computing annual leave.

(7) When work is closed down for the purpose of allowing annual leave to be taken, workers with less than a full year's service shall only be entitled to payments during such period for the number of days leave due to them: Provided that nothing herein contained shall deprive the employer of his right to retain such workers at work during the close-down period as may be essential.

(8) A worker may be rostered off and granted annual leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed prior to his having completed a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service, in which case should the services of such worker terminate or be terminated prior to the completion of twelve (12) months' continuous service, the said worker shall refund to the employer the difference between the amount received by him for wages in respect of the period of his annual leave and the amount which would have accrued to him by reason of the length of his service up to the date of the termination of his services.

(9) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

10.—Public Holidays.

(1) (a) The following days or the days observed in lieu shall, subject to subclause (2) hereof, be allowed as holidays without deduction of pay, namely: New Year's Day, Australia Day (26th January), Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, Foundation Day, Sovereign's Birthday, Christmas Day and Boxing Day. Provided that another day may be taken as a holiday by arrangement between the parties in lieu of any of the days named in the subclause.

(b) Where Christmas Day or New Year's Day falls on a Saturday or a Sunday, such holiday shall be observed on the next succeeding Monday and where Boxing Day falls on a Sunday or a Monday such holiday shall be observed on the next succeeding Tuesday; in each such case the substituted day shall be deemed a holiday without deduction of pay in lieu of the day for which it is substituted.

(2) Whenever any holiday falls on an employee's ordinary working day and the employee is not required to work on such day, he shall be paid for the ordinary hours he would have worked on such day if it had not been a holiday. If he is required to work on a holiday he shall be paid for the time worked as if it was an ordinary working day and shall, in addition, be allowed a day's leave with pay to be added to the annual leave or to be taken at some subsequent date if the worker so agrees.

(3) When a worker is off duty owing to leave without pay or sickness, including accidents on or off duty, except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay, any holiday falling during such absence shall not be treated as a paid holiday. Where the worker is on duty or is available on the working day immediately preceding a holiday, or resumes duty or is available on the working day following a holiday, as prescribed in this clause, the worker shall be entitled to a paid holiday on all such holidays.

(4) A casual worker shall not be entitled to payment for any holiday referred to in this subclause.

(b) The hours specified in paragraph (a) of this subclause shall be worked between 7 a.m. and 5.30 p.m.

(2) A meal interval shall not exceed one (1) hour.

(3) (a) Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, a rest period of seven (7) minutes from the time of ceasing to the time of resumption of work shall be allowed each morning.

(b) This interval shall be counted as time off duty without deduction of pay and shall be arranged at a time and in a manner to suit the convenience of the employer. Morning tea may be taken by employees during this interval, but the period of seven (7) minutes shall not be exceeded under any circumstances. Upon proof of breach by any employee of any provision hereinbefore expressed or implied, the Court may grant the employer concerned exemption from liability to allow the rest period aforesaid.

(4) (a) The employer may require any worker to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates, and such worker shall work overtime in accordance with such requirements.

(b) The Union or worker, or workers covered by this Agreement shall not in any way, whether directly or indirectly, be party to or concerned in any ban, limitation or restriction upon the working of overtime in accordance with the requirements of this subclause.

(c) This subclause shall remain in operation until otherwise determined by the Court.

14.—Overtime and Sunday Time.

(1) (a) All time worked in excess of or outside of the usual working hours shall be paid at the rate of time and a half for the first four (4) hours after the usual stopping time and double time thereafter: Provided that all work after 10 p.m. on Monday to Friday inclusive shall be paid at the rate of double time up to the usual starting time: Provided also that workers called upon to start work within an hour and a half of the usual starting time shall be paid at the rate of time and a half until the usual starting time.

(b) Where work is done on Saturdays the worker shall be paid at the rate of time and a half for the first four (4) hours and double time thereafter, but all work done after 5 p.m. on Saturdays shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(2) When an employee is required for overtime duty in excess of one hour after the usual ceasing time without being notified the previous day, he shall be supplied with any meal required or be paid five shillings (5s.) for such meal. This subclause shall not apply to workers residing within a radius of one-half mile of the works.

Workers required to start work at 12 midnight until 6.30 a.m., and ordered back to work at 8 a.m. the same day, shall be paid three shillings and sixpence (3s. 6d.) for breakfast.

(3) All time worked during the usual meal time by any worker shall be paid at overtime rates, and such rates shall continue until the worker knocks off for his meal.

(4) A worker called back after completing a day's work, or called out on a Saturday or Sunday, shall be paid a minimum of two (2) hours at overtime rates, but if he is called out more than once within any period of two (2) hours of a call, he shall not be entitled to any further payment for time worked within the period of two (2) hours from the time when he commenced work in response to his first call.

Sunday travelling time shall be paid for at the same rates and on the same conditions as on week days.

(c) In respect of a worker who is provided with a sleeping berth in a passenger train, travelling time shall not count between 10 p.m. and 7 a.m.: Provided that this shall not operate to reduce the wages earned and travelling time when paid for below eight (8) hours in any one (1) day.

(2) Other than country work:—

A worker residing in the suburban area who is required to start work at some place other than his usual workshop or place of employment shall, if the time taken in travelling from his place of residence to the job and return exceeds the time normally taken in travelling from his usual place or residence to his usual workshop or place of employment and return, be paid for such excess travelling time at ordinary rates; and if the fares actually and reasonably incurred in such travelling exceed the fares normally paid by the worker in travelling from his place of residence and return, the employer shall pay the amount by which such fares exceed those usually paid for travelling to and from his usual workshop or place of employment.
