MARRIED PERSONS (SUMMARY RELIEF) ACT, 1960-1964.

Crown Law Department,
Perth, 16th December, 1964.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, acting pursuant to the provisions of the Married Persons (Summary Relief) Act, 1960-1964, has been pleased to make the Rules of Court set out in the Schedule hereunder.

R. C. GREEN,
Under Secretary for Law.

Schedule.

Rules.

1. In these rules, the Married Persons (Summary Relief) Rules, 1961, published in the Government Gazette on the 25th January, 1961, and amended by rules published in the Government Gazette on the 22nd June, 1961, the 27th December, 1962, and 11th June, 1963, are referred to as the principal rules.

2. Rule 13 of the principal rules is amended by inserting, after the passage, "15," in line one of subrule (2), the passage, "15A,".

3. Rule 14 of the principal rules is amended—

- (a) by inserting, after the numerals, "15", in line one of subrule (1), the passage, ", 15A"; and
- (b) by substituting for the words, "committed to the care of that department", in line three of subrule (2), the words, "in his custody".

4. Rule 20 of the principal rules is amended by substituting for the word, "Court", where first occurring in line one, the word, "Clerk".

5. Rule 22 of the principal rules is amended by inserting, after the numerals, "15", in line one of subrule (1), the passage, ", 15A".

6. Rule 33 of the principal rules is amended by inserting after the word, "direct", in the last line, the passage, "; and an application under this rule shall be supported by affidavit and be made ex parte, in chambers, in the Court at the place in which the order is then operating".

7. Rule 34 of the principal rules is revoked and the following rule is substituted:—

34. A person entitled to receive payment under a provision of an order or the grantee of a power of attorney for that purpose, when seeking to enforce payment under the order as provided by subsection (1) of section 22 of the Act (Justices Act procedure), shall file in the Court a praecipe for that purpose, together with an affidavit deposing—

- (a) to the amount whereof payment is alleged to be in default;
- (b) that no part of the amount whereof payment is alleged to be in default has been paid to the deponent or to any other person for the deponent's benefit, in money, money's worth or by any benefit given in lieu of money;
- (c) that maintenance is not sought to be enforced in respect of any period during which the defaulting party may already have been imprisoned, under the subsection in this rule mentioned;
- (d) to the deponent's means of knowledge of the amount whereof payment is in default, where payments are not made direct to the deponent;
- (e) that any child in respect of whom the order is made has not ceased to be a dependant and is not the subject of any other order for maintenance; and

(f) that the order sought to be enforced has not ceased to have effect, by reason of any process or decree, taken or made, under the Matrimonial Causes Act, 1959, of the Commonwealth, or for any other reason.

8. Rule 35 of the principal rules is amended by deleting the words, "having jurisdiction within the district where the defaulting party is residing", in lines three and four.

9. The principal rules are amended by adding, after rule 43, the following rules:—

44. An application under subsection (2a) of section 23 of the Act, for leave of the Court to issue a summons against a person, to show cause why he should not be committed for contempt of court shall be supported by affidavit and be made ex parte, in chambers; and on leave being granted, the Clerk shall issue a summons in the form of Form 13 of the First Schedule to these rules.

45. (1) Where a warrant has, or warrants have, been issued to enforce the making of periodical payments under an order and the person obliged to make those payments, or some person acting on his behalf, pays any amount to the officer of the Court specified in the order, prior to the execution of the warrant or, if more than one warrant, prior to the execution of any of them, the amount so paid shall be applied, firstly, for or towards any periodical payments that have become due, since the issue of the warrant or warrants, and, thereafter, the remaining amount or, if no periodical payments have become due, the full amount shall, subject to subrule (2) of this rule, be applied in satisfaction of the amount or amounts of which payment is sought to be enforced by the warrant or warrants, in the order in which the warrants were issued.

(2) An amount or part of an amount paid shall not be applied, and an amount tendered shall not be accepted, in part satisfaction, only, of the amount sought to be recovered by a warrant that is unexecuted; and any amount or part of an amount paid that cannot, by reason of this subrule, be applied in satisfaction of an amount sought to be recovered by warrant shall be paid to a suspense account and there held, pending its application for or towards any periodical payments subsequently becoming due.

46. Where a person is obliged to make payments under a suspended warrant, in accordance with an order made under section 26 of the Act, and is, at the same time, obliged to make periodical payments, in accordance with the order under which the warrant was issued, unless that person makes a specific appropriation, to either purpose, of any moneys paid by him, the Clerk shall apply those moneys, firstly, for or towards the periodical payments that have become due, since the making of the order under section 26 and, secondly, to instalments due on the warrant; but in special circumstances, the Clerk may appropriate the moneys received as he thinks those circumstances may, in the interest of the person making the payments, require.

47. (1) Where, at any time, it becomes apparent to the Clerk that any provision of an order has been duplicated or that an anomaly with respect to orders exists, then, he is empowered, of his own motion, to issue such process as may be necessary to call the parties, or any of them, together so that the matter may be reviewed for the purpose of eliminating the duplication or anomaly, as the case may be.

(2) For the purpose of calling the parties or any of them together under this rule, the Clerk may take out an interlocutory application and may issue any necessary witness summons.

48. (1) The Clerk of the Court sitting at Perth shall maintain a central registry of all proceedings (other than interlocutory proceedings) commenced and current, under the Act or under any Act repealed by this Act.

(2) When a complaint under section 9 of the Act is lodged in the Court at any place other than at Perth, the Clerk of the Court at that place shall send forward a duplicate of the complaint to the Clerk at Perth who shall cause it to be registered in the central registry; and where any prior order or proceeding relating to the parties to that complaint is current, the Clerk at Perth shall notify the Clerk who sent forward the copy of the complaint.

(3) The Clerk of the Court at any place, other than at Perth, shall advise the Clerk at Perth of the outcome of any proceeding and, where an order is made, shall send forward to the Clerk at Perth a copy of the order.

(4) The provisions of subrule (3) of this rule apply to any application or order made for the variation or discharge of an order.

49. (1) A ledger in accordance with Form 15 in the First Schedule to these rules shall be maintained in the Court at every place, except a place where a ledger posting machine is installed.

(2) Where moneys are paid to an officer of the Court pursuant to an order made under paragraph (b) or (e) of subsection (1) of section 10 of the Act, the officer shall disburse those moneys to the person named in the order as being entitled to receive payment in accordance with the terms of the order or to the attorney of that person.

10. The First Schedule the principal rules is amended—

(a) by adding, after the numerals, "15", in the heading of Form 3, the expression "15A";

(b) by substituting for Form 7 the following form:—

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, acting pursuant to the provisions of the Fisheries Act, 1905-1964, has been pleased to make the regulations set forth in the schedule hereunder.

A. J. FRASER,
Director of Fisheries.

Schedule.
Regulations.

Principal Regulations. 1. In these regulations the Fisheries Act Regulations made under the Fisheries Act, 1905 (as amended), published in the Government Gazette on the 6th May, 1938, and amended from time to time thereafter by notices published in the Government Gazette, are referred to as the principal regulations.

Reg. 14A substituted. 2. The principal regulations are amended by substituting for regulation 14A the following regulation:—

14A. (1) No person shall remove the crayfish tail from any crayfish, or cut up or otherwise process any crayfish, except in an export establishment registered in pursuance of the Exports (Fish) Regulations (Statutory Rules, 1949, No. 54 and amendments thereto) made under the provisions of the Customs Act, 1901, and its amendments and the Commerce (Trade Descriptions) Act, 1905, and its amendments, of the Parliament of the Commonwealth.

(2) No person shall bring ashore from any boat any crayfish tail or any severed portion of any crayfish unless that boat is an export establishment registered as mentioned in subregulation (1) of this regulation and such tail was removed from the carapace of the crayfish, or the crayfish was cut up or otherwise processed in that boat.

(3) (a) No person shall bring into Western Australian waters, or on to land, any portion of any crayfish that has been taken in the Abrolhos Islands area.

(b) For the purposes of this subregulation the term, "Abrolhos Islands area" means all that area bounded by lines starting at the intersection of 27 degrees 30 minutes south latitude and 113 degrees 37 minutes east longitude and extending south-easterly to the intersection of 29 degrees 30 minutes south latitude and 114 degrees 30 minutes east longitude; thence west to 113 degrees east longitude; thence north to 27 degrees 30 minutes south latitude aforesaid; and thence east to the starting point.

(4) No person in charge of an export establishment registered as mentioned in subregulation (1) of this regulation shall receive any crayfish tail or any severed portion of any crayfish.

(5) No person shall in any vehicle or boat or otherwise carry any crayfish tail or any severed portion of any crayfish unless such tail was removed from the carapace of the crayfish, or the crayfish was cut up or otherwise processed, in an export establishment registered as mentioned in subregulation (1) of this regulation.

(6) Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of this regulation commits an offence against these regulations and is liable upon conviction to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds, and all crayfish tails or severed portions of crayfish received or carried in breach of this regulation shall be forfeited to the use of Her Majesty and any inspector may seize the same.

(7) For the purposes of section 24A of the Act, the weight of a crayfish tail shall be not less than five ounces.
