1. In the interpretation of the by-laws, the following words shall have the meanings assigned to them hereunder:—

- (b) "Continuous service" means service in the employment of the Council during which an employee has not been absent from the service of the Council for a continuous period of more than two days or an aggregate period of more than 10 days without leave of absence being granted by the Council.

2. All present and future employees of the Council shall after each period of 10 years' continuous service as permanent full time employees thereof, commencing from the 1st day of January, 1960, be entitled to three months' long service leave, and no long service leave shall be granted to an employee without a qualifying period of 10 years being first completed.

Provided however that where an employee of the Council has become entitled to long service leave under the provisions of the Long Service Leave Act, 1958, he shall not be entitled to any further long service leave until after the expiration of 10 years' continuous service from the date he became entitled to long service leave under the provisions of the Long Service Leave Act, 1958.

Provided that no such grant shall be made to an employee of the Council who prior to completing a further period of 10 years' continuous service resigns his employment with the Council.

(b) The long service leave which may be granted under this by-law shall be for a period not exceeding one and three-tenths weeks for every completed year of service since the conclusion of the period which qualified the employee for his previous long service leave, and shall be on full pay.

4. An employee dismissed by the Council for neglect of duty or for irregular practices shall not be paid any sum in pursuance of the preceding by-law.

5. Absence on account of sickness shall not be deemed to be a break in continuity of service, providing the period of absence shall not exceed three months in any year, unless otherwise decided by the Council.

6. (a) Long service leave shall be taken at the convenience of the Council, who will, as far as possible, meet with the wishes of the employee, but the Council may require the employee to take leave by giving not less than three month notice.
