CRIMINAL PRACTICE RULES

RULES OF COURT.

The Criminal Practice Rules of 1902 are hereby repealed.

The following Rules may be cited as "The Criminal Practice Rules." They shall come into operation on the publication thereof in the Gazette.¹

[See amendment No. 1 to Criminal Practice Rules, 1914: G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1214.]
Order I.
Interpretation.
Amended by G.G. No. 40, 11/8/22, p. 1462.
G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1215.

ORDER I.

INTERPRETATION: TITLE OF PROCEEDINGS.

1. (a) In these Rules (subject to the context)—

The expression "Code" means the Criminal Code;

The expression "Court" means the Supreme Court, including the Court of Criminal Appeal, and Courts of Session;

The expression "Court of Trial" means the Court by or in which a person has been tried for an offence;

The expression "Judge of the Court of Trial" means the presiding Judge, President or Chairman of the Court of Trial;

The expression "Clerk of Arraigns" means the Associate or other person charged with or performing the duty of arraigning the accused person;

The expression "Chapter sixty-nine of the Code" includes any rules made with reference to or for the purposes of that chapter;

The expression "Registrar" means the Registrar of the Court or any person acting in the capacity or in lieu of such Registrar;

The expression "Shorthand Writer" means any person or persons appointed from time to time as such for the purposes of Order X;

The expression "Respondent" includes all persons entitled to appear other than the appellant;

The expression "Exhibits" includes all books, papers, and documents, and all other property, matters and things whatsoever connected with the proceedings against any person for any offence, if the same have been forwarded to the Court of Trial on the person accused of being committed for trial or have been produced and used in evidence during the trial of, or other proceedings in relation to any person accused of an offence, and any written statement handed in to the Judge of the Court of Trial by such person, shall not include the original depositions of witnesses examined before the Committing Justice or Coroner nor any indictment or inquisition against any such person nor any plea filed in the Court of Trial;

The expression "Prison" includes gaol.

¹ The Rules were published in Government Gazette on the 29th April, 1914.

(b) Any reference to a superintendent of a prison shall be deemed to include a gaoler or keeper of a gaol.

(c) The Interpretation Act, 1918-1948,¹ and its amendments shall apply for the interpretation of these Rules as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Title of proceedings. Amended by G.G. No. 40, 11/8/22, 9/7/54, p. 1462.

2. Every proceeding in the Supreme Court in its Criminal Jurisdiction shall be entitled "In the Supreme Court of Western Australia."

When the proceeding is in the Court of Criminal Appeal the words "Court of Criminal Appeal" shall be added.

Every proceeding in a Court of Session shall be instituted in the name of that Court of Session.

Order II.

ORDER II.

COMPLAINTS AND INDICTMENTS.

Title of indictments. Amended by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1215.

1. Every indictment shall be entitled "In the Supreme Court of Western Australia." or, in the case of an indictment presented in a Circuit Court, "Western Australia: In the Circuit Court at B." or in the case of an indictment presented in a Court of Session, "Western Australia: In the Court of Session holden at B."

Form of statement of offences in indictments.

2. The statement of the offence in an indictment presented in any Court may be in such of the Forms in the Schedule as is applicable to the case.

In the case of any offence in respect of which no form is given in the Schedule, the statement may be in accordance with the analogous Form in the Schedule; and, if there is no such Form, it shall be sufficient to state the offence in the words of the Code or other Statute under which the indictment is presented.

Complaints.

3. Similar Forms may be used in complaints before Justices.

Order III.

ORDER III.

PROCEEDINGS AT TRIAL ON INDICTMENT

Subsequent pleadings to be oral.

1. At the trial of a person charged upon an indictment, all pleadings subsequent to the indictment may be made orally; but the pleadings shall be reduced into writing so far as may be necessary for the purpose of recording the proceedings at the trial.

Challenges.

2. Challenges, and pleas and demurrers to challenges, may be made orally in the first instance, but the Court may require them to be reduced into writing and handed to the proper officer by the party making the same.

Order IV.

ORDER IV.

INFORMATION BY PRIVATE PERSONS

Application for leave.

1. Applications for leave to present an information against any person for an indictable offence shall be made by motion to the Court or a Judge for an order calling on the accused person to show cause why the leave should not be granted.

Charges against judicial officers.

2. An order nisi shall not be granted upon an application for leave to present an information against a judicial officer for anything done in his capacity as such officer unless it is proved upon affidavit that the applicant has, six days before making the application, given to the person intended to be accused written notice of his intention to make the application, setting forth a distinct statement of the alleged offence. Such notice must be served on the person intended to be accused, either personally or by leaving it at his usual or last known place of residence with some member of the household.

3. The copy information for service shall have indorsed thereon a statement of a proper place, to be called the prosecutor's address for service, which shall be not more than one mile from the Central Office of the Supreme Court, where any proceedings in the cause may be left for him.

Prosecutor's address for service.

4. An appearance to an information shall be in the like form, and shall be entered in the same manner, as an appearance to a writ of summons in an action; and notice of appearance shall be given as in that case. In this Rule the word "appearance," subject to the context, includes "defence."

Appearance.
Amended by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1215.

5. The defendant may plead by counsel or solicitor. The copy of the plea shall be delivered to the prosecutor at his address for service.

Plea.
Amended by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1215.

6. All notices and other documents required to be served on the accused person may be served on him at his address for service stated in his memorandum of appearance. In this Rule, the expression "memorandum of appearance" includes "defence."

Service of notices, etc., on defendant.
Amended by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1215.
Order V.

ORDER V.

BENCH WARRANTS.

1. An application for a warrant to arrest a person against whom an indictment has been presented may be made upon production to the Judge of the original indictment, or an office copy thereof, without other evidence.

Application for Bench warrant.

2. In the case of an information presented by leave, such warrant shall not be granted, except by order of the Court or a Judge made at the time of giving leave, without evidence on oath showing that the accused person is likely to abscond, or that for other reasons his arrest is necessary in the interests of justice.

On information by leave.

ORDER VI.

BAIL AND RECOGNISANCES.

1. Applications for bail shall be made upon notice of motion or summons served on the Crown Prosecutor. A copy of the depositions or other documents showing the cause of the custody of the applicant shall be produced to the Court or Judge on the hearing of the application.

Order VI.

Application for bail.

2. When an order is made for the admission to bail of a person committed for trial or in custody, or pending the determination of any appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeal, a notice, specifying the names, places of abode, and descriptions of the proposed sureties and the time and place at which it is proposed that the recognisance shall be taken, shall, unless the Judge or Court otherwise orders, be given to the Crown Prosecutor, and to the principal officer of police at the place where the person in question is in custody, twenty-four hours at least before the recognisance is taken.

Notice of proposed sureties.

3. Recognisances may be entered into before a Judge or the Registrar or any Judge's Associate or any Justice or any clerk of petty sessions, court of session, or before an inspector or sub-inspector of police or other police officer who is of equal or superior rank or who is in charge of a Police Station, or where one of the parties is in gaol before the keeper of such gaol.

Before whom recognisances to be taken.
Amended by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1215.

4. Every recognisance to appear and answer an indictment or information or to attend and give evidence at a trial shall contain a condition that the party bound shall personally attend from day to day at the trial, and not depart until he is discharged by the Court before which the trial is held.

Form of recognisance.

5. An Appellant who has been admitted to bail shall, by the order of the Court of Criminal Appeal or a Judge thereof under which he was so admitted to bail, be ordered to be and shall be personally present at each and every hearing of his appeal, and at the Presence of Appellant on bail at hearing of his appeal.

- Order VI. final determination thereof. The Court of Criminal Appeal may, in the event of such Appellant not being present at any hearing of his appeal, if they think right so to do, decline to consider the appeal, and may proceed to summarily dismiss the same, and may issue a Warrant for the apprehension of the Appellant in the Form 20 in Part III. of the Schedule hereto. Provided that the Court of Criminal Appeal may consider the appeal in his absence, or make such other order as they think right.
- Recognisances to be forwarded to Registrar. Release of prisoner. 6. The person before whom any recognisances are taken shall forward them to the Registrar and the Registrar on being satisfied that the recognisances of any person in custody on the charge or under the conviction in respect of which the recognisances have been entered into and his surety or sureties (if any) are in due form and in compliance with the order of the Court or Judge admitting the Appellant to bail, shall send in the Form 17 in Part III. of the Schedule to these Rules a notice to the Superintendent of the Prison in which the person in custody shall then be confined. This notice, when received by the said Superintendent, shall be a sufficient authority to him to release such person from such custody in accordance with the tenor of such notice.
- Estreat of recognisance to attend. 7. When a person bound by recognisance to attend at any Court fails in the conditions of the recognisance, the Court, on production of the recognisance, and on the application of counsel for the Crown, or other prosecutor, may order that the recognisance be estreated forthwith.
- Other cases. 8. In other cases, applications to estreat recognisances shall be made in the same manner in which applications to enforce a security given in an action are required to be made.
- Varying order for bail by Court of Criminal Appeal. 9. When an accused person or appellant is present before any Court, such Court may, on an application made by any person or, if they think right so to do without any application, make any order admitting him to bail, or revoke or vary any such order previously made, or enlarge from time to time the recognisance of such accused person or appellant or of his sureties or substitute any other surety for a surety previously bound as may be thought right.
- Revocation of order for bail. 10. At any time after any person in custody has been released on bail, the Court or any Judge thereof may, if satisfied that it is in the interest of justice so to do, revoke the order admitting him to bail and order him to be committed to prison, and a warrant shall thereupon be issued according to the Form 20 in Part III. of the Schedule.
- Power of sureties to surrender principal. 11. Sureties or any one or more of them may apprehend their principal and may, before or after apprehension, obtain from a Judge on ex parte application an order for the issue of a warrant according to the Form 21 in Part III. of the Schedule, and such warrant shall, on production of the Judge's fiat, be signed and issued by the Registrar accordingly.
- Superintendent of prison to notify Registrar of arrest. 12. When any person has been released on bail and has, under a warrant under these Rules or by his surety or sureties, been apprehended and is in prison, the Superintendent thereof shall forthwith notify the Registrar who shall take steps to inform the Court or a Judge thereof, and the Court or Judge may give to the Registrar such directions as they or he shall think right.
- Saving of other rights of sureties. 13. Nothing in these Rules shall take away any other lawful right of a surety to apprehend and surrender into custody the person for whose appearance he has become bound, and thereby to discharge himself of his suretyship.
- Person on bail to surrender. 14. An accused person or appellant who is not in custody shall, whenever his case is called on before the Court, surrender himself to such persons as the Court shall from time to time direct, and thereupon shall be searched by them, and shall be deemed to be in their lawful custody until further released on bail or otherwise dealt with as the Court shall direct.

15. In the case of a private prosecution, any notice or document required under this order to be given to or served on the Crown Prosecutor shall be given to or served on the private prosecutor or his solicitor. Private prosecutions.

16. When any warrant has been issued by the Registrar or a Justice under Section 690 or 691 of the Code and the Court of Criminal Appeal or a Judge thereof shall have granted bail, the recognisance or recognisances shall be in such form as the Court or Judge may order, and in the absence of any such order may be according to such of the forms numbered 15 and 16 in Part III. of the Schedule as shall be applicable. Recognisance when warrant issued under Sec. 690 or 691 of the Code.

ORDER VII.

Order VII.

TRIAL AT BAR.

1. A trial at bar shall not be had except by order of the Full Court. The order may be made at any time after plea. To be by order of Full Court.
2. An application for a trial at bar shall be by motion for an order nisi, except when made by the Attorney General on behalf of the Crown, when the order shall be absolute in the first instance, as of course. Application, how made.
3. On making the order absolute for a trial at bar the Court may impose such terms on the applicant, as to payment of costs or otherwise, as the Court may think fit. Terms may be imposed.
4. Four days at least before the day appointed for the trial a copy of the pleadings shall be left by the party prosecuting, at the Chambers of each of the Judges who are to sit at the trial. Copy pleadings for Judges.
5. A trial at bar may be continued from day to day, or adjourned to a subsequent day at any time, in the discretion of the Court, without any reference to the sittings of the Supreme Court; and no formal order shall be drawn up for any such continued sitting or adjournment, nor shall any such order be entered on the record. Trial.

ORDER VIII.

Order VIII.

JUDGMENTS.

1. At every trial at which the officer by whom judgment ought to be entered is not present the Clerk of Arraigns shall enter, in a book to be kept for that purpose, the plea, the verdict, and such other findings of fact as the Court may direct to be entered, and the directions, if any, of the Court as to judgment. Entry of findings of fact.
2. The certificate of the Clerk of Arraigns to the effect that any judgment has been directed by the Court to be entered shall be sufficient authority to the proper officer to enter judgment accordingly. The certificate shall be in the Form 9 of Section VI. of Part I. of the Schedule, with such variations as circumstances may require. Certificate for entry of judgment.
3. A list or calendar of all persons to be tried at any sittings of the Supreme Court, or a Circuit Court, or a Court of Session, shall be made out in duplicate according to Form 10 in Section VI., Part I., of the Schedule hereto for the use of the Court, and shall be signed by the Judge or Chairman and the Clerk of Arraigns. One of such lists shall, in case the Court is the Supreme Court, be sent to the Central Office of such Court. In case the Court is a Circuit Court or a Court of Session one of such lists shall be filed in the Office of such Court and a copy thereof duly attested by the Clerk of such Court shall be sent to the said Central Office. The other of such lists shall be sent to the Comptroller General of Prisons. Calendar. Amended by G.G. No. 11, 3/3/22; G.G. No. 40, 11/8/22, p.1462.

Such list or calendar shall be sufficient warrant for the execution of the judgments thereby appearing to have been pronounced.

Certificate of result of trial. Added by G.G. No. 11 3/3/22, and amended by G.G. No. 40, 11/8/22, p. 1462.

Order IX.

4. After the conclusion of any trial a certificate of the findings of the Jury and of the judgment directed by the Judge may be drawn up according to Form 9 in Section VI. of Part I. of the Schedule hereto and signed by the Clerk of Arraignment and by him delivered to the Comptroller General of Prisons or handed to the Gaoler in attendance at the Court.

ORDER IX.

INSTITUTION AND ABANDONMENT OF APPEALS.

Obligation on Appellants to fill up forms of appeal notices and answer questions thereon.

1. Subject to the Code and these Rules, a person (not being the prosecutor) desiring to appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeal against his conviction or sentence, or against any order which he is entitled to appeal against, shall commence his appeal by sending to the Registrar a Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for leave to appeal, or Notice of Application for extension of time within which such notice shall be given, as the case may be, in the form of such notices respectively set forth in the Schedule to these Rules, and in the notice or notices so sent shall answer the questions and comply with the requirements set forth thereon.

Notices of appeal to be signed by Appellant and addressed to Registrar.

2. Every Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for leave to appeal or Notice of Application for extension of time within which such notice shall be given under Chapter sixty-nine of the Code shall be signed by the Appellant himself, except under the provisions of Rules 4 and 5 of this Order.

Where Appellant unable to write.

3. When an Appellant or any other person authorised or required to give or send any notice of appeal or notice of any application for the purposes of Chapter sixty-nine of the Code, is unable to write he may affix his mark thereto in the presence of a witness who shall attest the same and thereupon such notice shall be deemed to be duly signed by such Appellant.

Appellant's representative may act for him where question of insanity involved.

4. Where, on the trial of a person entitled to appeal under the Act, it has been contended or found that he was not responsible according to law for his actions, or was not guilty of the offence charged, on the ground that he was insane at the time the act was done or the omission made by him, any notice required by these Rules to be given and signed by the Appellant himself may be given and signed by his solicitor or other person authorised to act on his behalf.

Notice, etc., on behalf of corporations.

5. In the case of a body corporate where any notice or other document is required to be signed by the Appellant himself for the purposes of Chapter sixty-nine of the Code, it shall be sufficient compliance therewith if such notice or other document is signed by the Secretary, Clerk, Manager, or Solicitor of such body corporate.

Time for appealing against conviction to run from verdict.

6. The time within which a person convicted shall give Notice of Appeal or Notice of his Application for leave to appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeal against his conviction shall commence to run from the day on which the verdict of the jury was returned, whether the Judge of the Court of Trial shall have passed sentence or pronounced final judgment upon him on that day or not.

Time for appealing against sentence to run from pronouncement of sentence.

7. The time within which a person convicted and sentenced shall give Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for leave to appeal against such sentence to the Court of Criminal Appeal shall commence to run from the day on which such sentence shall have been passed upon him by the Judge of the Court of Trial.

Time for appealing against order for restitution.

8. The time within which a person (not being the person convicted) may appeal against an order for restitution shall commence to run from the day on which the order was made.

9. When the Registrar has received a Notice of Appeal, or a Notice of Application for leave to appeal, or a Notice of Application for extension of time within which such notices shall be given, or where the Attorney General shall exercise his powers under Section 21 of the Code, he shall forthwith apply to the Clerk of Arraigns of the Court of Trial for the particulars of the trial and conviction according to the Form No. 6 in Part IV. of the Schedule hereto, and for the Calendar supplied to the Judge of the Court of Trial or a copy thereof so far as the same refers to the Appellant, and such officer shall forthwith furnish the same to the Registrar.

Order IX.
Registrar
to require proper officer of Court of Trial to furnish him with particulars,
etc., of trial.

10. The Registrar, if directed by the Court of Criminal Appeal so to do, shall require the Clerk of the Court of Trial to furnish him with the original depositions of witnesses examined before the committing Justice or Coroner, or with any exhibit retained by such officer, and with the indictment or indictments or inquisition against the Appellant, or with an abstract or copy thereof or any part thereof or with any plea filed in the Court of Trial, and such officer shall forthwith furnish the same to the Registrar.

Registrar
proper officer of Court of Trial to furnish him with depositions,
indictments,
pleas, etc.,
for use of Court of Appeal.
Amended by
G.G. No. 34,
9/7/54,
p. 1215.

11. The Registrar or Clerk of the Court of Trial shall ascertain and record in every case the name and address of the person, whether a private prosecutor or not, who is responsible for and is carrying on a prosecution in such Court, and the name and address of the solicitor, if any, for the prosecution.

Prosecutor
at trial to be ascertained.

12. Where the Court of Criminal Appeal has, on a Notice of Application for leave to appeal duly served, and in the form provided under these Rules, given an Appellant leave to appeal, it shall not be necessary for such Appellant to give any Notice of Appeal, but the Notice of Application for leave to appeal shall in such case be deemed to be a Notice of Appeal.

Notice of application
to appeal.

13. An Appellant at any time after he has duly served notice of Appeal or of Application for leave to Appeal, or of application for extension of time within which such notices shall be given, may abandon his appeal by giving notice of abandonment thereof in the Form No. 7 in Part IV. of the Schedule to these Rules to the Registrar, and upon such notice being given the appeal shall be deemed to have been dismissed by the Court of Criminal Appeal.

Abandon-
appeal.

14. An application to the Court of Criminal Appeal for an extension of time within which notices may be given shall be in the Form No. 5 in Part IV. of the Schedule hereto. Every person making an application for such extension of time shall send to the Registrar, together with the proper form of such application, a form, duly filled up, of Notice of Appeal, or of Notice of Application for leave to appeal, appropriate to the ground or grounds upon which he desires to question his conviction or sentence, as the case may be.

Notice of
for extension of time for appealing.

15. The foregoing Rules of this Order do not apply to an appeal on the part of the prosecution.

Appeals by prosecution.

16. (1) Every notice of appeal on the part of the prosecution shall be by notice of motion filed in triplicate in the registry and may be according to the Form 8 in Part IV. of the Schedule.

Notice of appeal by prosecution.
Substituted
by G.G.
No. 34,
9/7/54,
p. 1215.

(2) The Registrar shall ascertain the date of the sitting of the Court of Criminal Appeal at which the appeal may be heard, being a date not less than ten clear days after the day of such filing.

(3) The Registrar shall endorse such date on two copies of the notice of appeal and shall return such copies to the appellant.

(4) The Appellant shall, not less than seven clear days before such date, serve one of the copies on the accused or his solicitor.

- Application for extension of time by prosecution. 17. Every application for an extension of time for appealing on the part of the prosecution shall be made by summons served on the accused or his solicitor and returnable before a Judge not less than one clear day after the day of the service thereof or by notice of motion served on the accused or his solicitor and returnable before the Court of Criminal Appeal not less than two clear days after the day of the service thereof.
- Application to Full Court when extension refused by Judge. 18. If a Judge refuses to grant any extension requested the matter may be referred to the Court of Criminal Appeal by notice of motion returnable not less than two clear days after the day of the service thereof.
- Signature and filing of notices. 19. Every notice on the part of the prosecution shall be signed by or on behalf of the Appellant or proposed Appellant or his Solicitor, and a copy thereof shall be filed in the registry.
- Registrar to set down notices of motion. 20. The Registrar shall set down every notice of motion on the part of the prosecution for hearing at the next available sitting of the Court after the filing of the notice thereof in the registry.
- Prosecutor to supply documents, etc., necessary for decision of appeal. 21. On an appeal by the prosecution it shall be the duty of the Appellant to supply the Court with all necessary evidence, records, and documents or duly authenticated copies thereof to enable the appeal to be decided, and to furnish each Judge and also the Respondent with a copy of all such evidence, records, and documents.

Order X.

ORDER X.

SHORTHAND WRITERS AND TRANSCRIPT OF NOTES

- Shorthand writers, how appointed. Amended by G.G. 1/8/62, p. 2071. 1. Shorthand Writers may be appointed from time to time as required for the purposes of chapter sixty-nine of the Code by the Attorney General, on the recommendation of the Chief Justice, for such period and on such conditions as they shall think right.
- Shorthand note to be certified by the writer. 2. A Shorthand Writer shall sign the shorthand note taken by him of any trial or proceeding, or of any part of such trial or proceeding, and certify the same to be a complete and correct shorthand note thereof, and shall retain the same unless and until he is directed by the Registrar to forward such shorthand note to him.
- Transcript to be furnished on application of Registrar. 3. A Shorthand Writer shall, on being directed by the Registrar, furnish to him, for the use of the Court of Criminal Appeal, a transcript of the whole or of any part of the shorthand note taken by him of any trial or proceeding in reference to which an Appellant has appealed.
- Party interested may obtain transcript from shorthand writer. 4. A Shorthand Writer shall furnish to a party interested in a trial or other proceeding in relation to which a person may appeal under chapter sixty-nine of the Code, and to no other person, a transcript of the whole or of any part of the shorthand note of any such trial or other proceedings, on payment by such party interested to such Shorthand Writer of his charges on such scale as the Attorney General may fix.
- Party interested may obtain transcript from Registrar. 5. A party interested in an appeal under the said chapter sixty-nine may obtain from the Registrar a copy of the transcript of the whole or of any part of such shorthand note as relates to the appeal.
- Definition of "Party interested." 6. For the purposes of Rules 4 and 5, "a party interested" shall mean the prosecutor, or the person convicted, or any other person named in, or immediately affected by, any order made by the Judge of the Court of Trial, or other person authorised to act on behalf of a party interested, as herein defined.

7. Whenever a transcript of the whole or of any part of such shorthand note is required for the use of the Court of Criminal Appeal such transcript may be made by the Shorthand Writer who took and certified the shorthand note, or by such other competent person as the Registrar may direct.

Transcript to be made by writer thereof or some other person on Registrar's directions.

8. A transcript of the whole or of any part of the shorthand note relating to the case of any Appellant which may be required for the use of the Court of Criminal Appeal shall be typewritten and verified by the person making the same by a Statutory Declaration in the Form No. 9 of Part IV. of the Schedule to these Rules that the same is a correct and complete transcript of the whole or of such part, as the case may be, of the shorthand note purporting to have been taken, signed, and certified by the Shorthand Writer who took the same.

Verification of transcript for use of Court of Criminal Appeal.

Order XA.

MECHANICAL RECORDING OF PROCEEDINGS AND TRANSCRIPTS OF RECORDINGS.

Added by G.G. 1/8/62, pp. 2072-5.

1. (1) The Attorney General may, on the recommendation of the Chief Justice, approve of any system of mechanical recording, for the purpose of recording and transcribing the proceedings of the Criminal Court and of Courts of Session.

System of mechanical recording.

(2) A system of mechanical recording established pursuant to this Order may be operated by officers in the employ of the Crown or by some person under contract with the Crown or partly by one and partly by the other of those means.

2. (1) The Attorney General may, on the recommendation of the Chief Justice, from time to time, appoint officers to control any system of recording and transcribing, established pursuant to this Order.

Control of system.

(2) A system of recording and transcribing shall not be approved under this Order, until a person has been appointed to be responsible for the controlling and overseeing of the operation of all recording machines and the transcribing, by every person concerned, of the matter recorded.

(3) A sufficient number of monitors and typists shall be appointed to be responsible for the recording of proceedings and for the transcribing of matter recorded.

(4) Every person appointed pursuant to this Rule shall, before commencing his duties, and whether in the employ of the Crown or of some person under contract to the Crown, make a declaration in the form of Form 1 of Part IIIA of the Schedule of Forms to these Rules.

3. Upon the establishment, under this Order, of a system of mechanical recording for any Court, the whole of every proceeding in that Court shall be recorded and the recording shall be supervised and transcribed by the respective persons employed for that purpose.

Reproduction of record.

4. (1) Every monitor supervising a recording shall note in a register—

Duties of monitors.

- (a) in respect of each section of the recording, the time of commencement and the time of completion of that section;
- (b) in respect of each section of the recording, the number on the recording machine corresponding with the position on the recording medium of the commencement and the completion of that section;
- (c) the respective times of the commencement and the completion of addresses and submissions of counsel, with the corresponding numbers on the recording machine;

Order XA.

- (d) in respect of each witness, the time and corresponding number on the recording machine, of—
- (i) the commencement of his evidence-in-chief;
 - (ii) the commencement of his cross-examination (if any);
 - (iii) the commencement of his re-examination (if any); and
 - (iv) the completion of his evidence; and
- (e) the respective times of the commencement and the completion, with the corresponding numbers on the recording machine, of the reasons for judgment (if delivered immediately following the close of the case) or, where the trial is had before a jury, the directions and summing-up of the trial judge.

(2) Every monitor supervising a recording shall give a distinctive number to the reel or other device holding the recording medium, so that the number affixed affords a ready indication of the order in the sequence of the proceedings in which the medium is to be played back; and reels shall be numbered consecutively in the order in which the recording is made on them.

(3) Where a recording medium is used, the monitor supervising the recording is responsible for ensuring that all other material has been erased from the medium and that the record commences at the commencement of the tape, wire or recording medium used.

(4) The commencement of a tape, wire or other recording medium shall be marked by a green introductory tape or string and the end by a red tape or string.

Duties of persons transcribing recordings.

5. Every person transcribing any matter recorded shall—
- (a) record his initials on every page transcribed by him;
 - (b) record on the transcript such of those particulars noted in the register by the monitor, pursuant to subrule (1) of Rule 4 of this Order, as relate to the matter transcribed by him;
 - (c) record on the transcript the time of commencement and the time of completion of that section of the transcript; and
 - (d) forthwith after the completion of the transcript, complete and subscribe a certificate in respect of the pages transcribed by him, in the form of Form 2 of Part IIIA of the Schedule of Forms to these Rules.

Transcript to constitute notes of evidence.

6. Where recorded matter has been transcribed and certified in accordance with Rule 5 of this Order, the transcript so made shall, subject to Rule 8 of this Order, constitute the notes of evidence and record of the proceeding.

Progress copies of transcript to be made available to Judge and parties.

7. The officer controlling that part of the system whereby a record and transcript is made shall deliver, free of charge, to the trial judge, to the prisoner or his counsel or solicitor and to counsel for the Crown, a progress copy of each section of the transcript, as soon as it becomes available.

Copies of transcript to be again certified for purposes of appeal. Amended by G.G. 12/10/67, p. 2864.

8. Whenever a transcript or part of a transcript is required for the purposes of an appeal or of a proceeding other than that in which it was transcribed, the transcript or part of the transcript so required shall be checked by the officer controlling that part of the system whereby the record and transcript was made and when correct shall be so certified by that officer.

Presumption of accuracy of transcript. Added by G.G. 12/10/67, p. 2864.

8A. Where a transcript or part of a transcript is certified in accordance with Rules 5 and 8 of this Order, it is, for the purpose of any other proceeding,—

- (a) presumed to be a true and accurate account of the proceeding or part of the proceeding to which it relates; and
- (b) prima facie evidence that a statement therein attributed to a person was, in fact, made by that person.

9. (1) An officer, appointed pursuant to Rule 2 of this Order, shall be appointed to keep a register of all recordings made under this Order and the register shall be in the form of Form 3 of Part IIIA of the Schedule of Forms to these Rules. Register and keeping of records.

2. The officer keeping the register of recordings shall be responsible for the orderly filing, and safe custody, of all recordings which shall be stored in a fire-proof safe or strongroom.

(3) A person other than the officer responsible for the safe custody of recordings shall not be permitted or suffered to have access to the safe or strongroom wherein recordings are stored.

10. (1) A recording shall not be erased until three months after the expiration of the time limited for giving notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal, in respect of the proceeding of which the recording is a record or, where notice of appeal is given or leave to appeal is granted, until the appeal has been disposed of, whichever is the later; and may then be erased on the written authority of the judge who presided at that proceeding or, in case of his death, retirement or absence, on the written authority of the Chief Justice. Erasure of recordings.

(2) A recording of a proceeding in a Court of Session at which a Chairman presided may be erased, subject to subrule (1) of this Rule, on the authority of the Chief Justice.

(3) Before a recording is erased under this Rule, the certified copy of the whole of the transcript shall be checked as provided by Rule 8 of this Order.

(4) The fact and date of erasure and the authority therefor shall be entered in the register of recordings by the proper officer.

11. Whenever any mechanical failure occurs in a recording system, that event shall immediately be reported to the trial judge or chairman, by the officer then having control of the recording and that officer shall, as soon as practicable after the cause of failure becomes known, furnish the judge or chairman with a written report of that cause. Failure of recorder to be reported forthwith.

ORDER XI.

Order XI.

CERTIFICATE OF JUDGE OF TRIAL.

1. The certificate of the Judge of the Court of Trial under Section 688 (b) of the Code may be in the Form No. 10 of Part IV. in the Schedule to these Rules. Judge's certificate under s. 688 (1) (b).

2. The Judge of the Court of Trial may, in any case in which he considers it desirable so to do, inform the person convicted before or sentenced by him that the case is in his opinion one fit for an appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeal under Section 688 (1) (b), and may give to such person a certificate to that effect in the Form in the Schedule to these Rules. Judge's certificate may be given at trial without application.

ORDER XII.

Order XII.

APPLICATIONS WHICH MAY BE DEALT WITH UNDER SECTION 702.

1. Any answers to the questions on Forms 1, 2, 3, or 4 of Part IV. of the Schedule by which an appellant signifies his desire to have legal aid assigned to him or to have leave granted to him to be present at the hearing of his appeal, shall be deemed to be applications to the Court of Criminal Appeal in such matters respectively. Answers to questions to be deemed applications to Court in certain cases.

Certain matter to be referred to Judge.

2. The Registrar shall refer to a judge of the Court any applications which such Judge has power to deal with under Section 702 of the Code, and the Judge may deal with the applications (except applications for bail) ex parte, or may cause notice thereof to be given to the prosecutor or his solicitor (in cases of private prosecutions) or to the Crown Prosecutor in other cases.

Procedure where Judge refuses application.

3. When any application has been dealt with by a Judge under Section 702 of the Code the Registrar shall notify the applicant of the Judge's decision. In the event of such Judge refusing all or any of such applications the Registrar on notifying such refusal to the Appellant shall forward to him Form No. 12 in Part IV. of the Schedule hereto, which form the Appellant is hereby required to fill up and forthwith return to the Registrar. If the Appellant does not desire to have his said application or applications determined by the Court of Criminal Appeal as duly constituted for the hearing of appeals under the Act, or does not return within five days to the Registrar the said Form No. 12 duly filled up by him, the refusal of his application or applications by such Judge shall be final. If the Appellant desires that his said application or applications shall be determined by the Court of Criminal Appeal as duly constituted for the hearing of appeals under the Code and is not legally represented he may, if the Court of Criminal Appeal give him leave, be present at the hearing and determination by the Court of Criminal Appeal of his said application: Provided that an Appellant who is legally represented shall not be entitled to be present without special leave of the Court of Criminal Appeal.

When an Appellant duly fills up and returns within the prescribed time to the Registrar Form No. 12 expressing a desire to be present at the hearing and determination by the Court of Criminal Appeal of the applications mentioned in this Rule, such form shall be deemed to be an application by the Appellant for leave to be so present. And the Registrar, on receiving the said form, shall take the necessary steps for placing the said application before the Court of Criminal Appeal. If the said application to be present is refused by the Court of Criminal Appeal, the Registrar shall notify the Appellant; and if the said application is granted the Registrar shall notify the Appellant and the Superintendent of any Prison wherein the Appellant is in custody, as provided by these Rules. For the purpose of constituting a Court of Criminal Appeal the Judge who has refused any such application may sit as a member of such Court, and take part in determining such application.

Sittings of a Judge under s. 702.

4. A Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeal sitting under the provisions of Section 702 of the Code may sit and act wherever convenient.

Order XIII.

ORDER XIII.

APPEALS WHERE FINE ONLY IS INFLICTED.

Where fine imposed on conviction to be retained pending appeal.

1. Where a person has, on his conviction, been sentenced to payment of a fine, and in default of payment to imprisonment, the person lawfully authorised to receive such fine shall, on receiving the same, retain it until the determination of any appeal in relation thereto.

Person in custody in default of payment of fine, deemed to be person sentenced to imprisonment.

2. If such person remains in custody in default of payment of the fine, he shall be deemed, for all purposes of Chapter sixty-nine of the Code, to be a person sentenced to imprisonment.

3. Where any person has been convicted and is thereupon sentenced to the payment of a fine, and, in default of such payment, to imprisonment and he intimates to the Judge of the Court of Trial that he is desirous of appealing against his conviction to the Court of Criminal Appeal, either upon grounds of law alone, or, with the Certificate of the Judge of the Court of Trial, upon any grounds mentioned in Section 688 (1) (b) of the Code, such Judge may, if he thinks right so to do, order such person forthwith to enter into recognisances in such amount, and with and without sureties in such amount as the Judge may think right, to prosecute his appeal. And, subject thereto, may order that payment of the said fine shall be made at the final determination of his said appeal, if the same be dismissed, to the Registrar, or as such Court may then order. The recognisance under this Rule shall be in the Forms Nos. 13 and 14 in Part III. of the Schedule hereto. A surety becoming duly bound by recognisance under this Rule shall be deemed to be, for all purposes, and shall have all the powers of a surety under the provisions of Order VI.

Person fined may in certain cases intimate appeal, and not pay fine. Power of Court of Trial in such cases to impose recognisances.

The Clerk of Arraigns or Clerk of the Court of Trial shall forward the recognisances of the Appellant and his surety or sureties to the Registrar.

4. An Appellant who had been sentenced to the payment of a fine, and has paid the same in accordance with such sentence shall, in the event of his appeal being successful, be entitled, subject to any order of the Court of Criminal Appeal, to the return of the sum or any part thereof so paid by him.

Fine to be repaid on success of appeal.

5. If an Appellant to whom Rule 3 applies does not serve, in accordance with these rules, a Notice of Appeal together with the Certificate of the Judge of the Court of Trial (if such certificate is required by law), within 10 days from the date of his conviction and sentence, the Registrar shall report such omission to the Court of Criminal Appeal who may, after notice in the Forms Nos. 18 and 19 of Part III. of the Schedule hereto has been given to the Appellant and his sureties, if any, order an estreat of the recognisances of the Appellant and his sureties in manner provided by Order VI. hereof, and may issue a warrant for the apprehension of the Appellant and may commit him to prison in default of payment of his fine, or may make such other order as they think right.

How Appellant committing breach of recognisance under this Rule may be dealt with.

ORDER XIV.

Order XIV.

CUSTODY OF EXHIBITS USED AT TRIAL.

1. [Repealed by amendment 11 in G.G. No. 34, of 9/7/54, P. 1215.]

Judge's directions as to custody of exhibits.

2. Whenever a person is committed for trial it shall be the duty of the Coroner or of the Clerk to the Justice committing such person for trial to make and forward, with the depositions taken in relation to such person, a complete list of such exhibits as have been produced and used in evidence for or against him during any proceedings before such Coroner or Justice, to the Court before which such person is to be tried. Such lists shall be in the Form No. 13 of Part IV. of the Schedule to these Rules, subject to the necessary modifications, and shall be signed by such Coroner or Clerk. The exhibits appearing on such list shall be marked for the purpose of readily identifying the same. Any exhibits put in for the first time at the trial shall be added to such list by the Clerk of Arraigns and marked as herein provided.

List of exhibits produced before committal to be made by Coroner or Clerk to Justices. Amended by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1215.

Exhibits to be retained pending appeal and to be returned to persons producing the same subject to order of Court.

Amended by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1215.

3. Exhibits shall be retained in the custody of an officer of the Court of Trial during the time limited for any appeal, and, where an appeal is lodged, then pending that appeal. Subject as aforesaid, exhibits other than such documents as are usually kept by an officer of the Court of Trial shall, subject to any order which the Court of Trial or the Court of Criminal Appeal may make, be returned to the person who originally produced the same, provided that any such exhibit to which the provisions of Section 694 of the Code relate shall not be so returned except under the direction of the Court of Trial or the Court of Criminal Appeal.

Order XV.

ORDER XV.

SUSPENSION OF CONSEQUENTIAL ORDERS PENDING APPEAL.

Annulling or varying order of restitution of property. Persons affected may appear on appeal.

1. Where, upon the trial of a person entitled to appeal under the Act against his conviction, an order of restitution of any property to any person or awarding compensation to any person has been made by the Judge of the Court of Trial, the person in whose favour or against whom the order of restitution or compensation has been made, any person in whose favour or against whom an order to which Rule 2 relates has been made, and, with the leave of the Court of Criminal Appeal any other person, shall, on the final hearing by the Court of Criminal Appeal of an appeal against the conviction on which such order was made, be entitled to be heard by the Court of Criminal Appeal before any order annulling or varying such order is made.

Non-suspension of orders for restitution, etc., to be subject to property or a sample, etc., being necessary for purposes of appeal.

2. Where the Judge of the Court of Trial is of opinion that the title to any property the subject of an order of restitution made on a conviction of a person before him, or any property to which provisions of subsection (1) of Section 24 of the Sale of Goods Act, 1895, apply, is not in dispute, he, if he shall be of opinion that such property or a sample or portion or facsimile representation thereof is reasonably necessary to be produced for use at the hearing of any appeal, shall give such directions to or impose such terms upon the person in whose favour the order of restitution is made, or in whom such property reverts under such subsection, as he shall think right in order to secure the production of such sample, portion or facsimile representation for use at the hearing of any such appeal.

Temporary suspension or orders made on conviction, as to money, costs, etc.

3. Where, on the conviction of a person, the Judge of the Court of Trial makes an order condemning such person to the payment of the whole or of any part of the costs and expenses of the prosecution for the offence of which he shall be convicted, or where such Judge makes any order under Section 718 or 719 of the Code, or where such Judge lawfully makes on the conviction of any person before him any order for the payment of money by such convicted person or by any other person, or any order affecting the rights or property of such convicted person, the operation of such orders shall in any of such cases be suspended until the expiration of 10 days after the day on which any of such orders were made. And in any case where Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for leave to appeal is lawfully given either against the conviction or against the order within 10 days from and after the date of the verdict against such person, such order shall be further suspended until the determination of the appeal. The Court of Criminal Appeal may by order annul any order to which this Rule refers on the determination of any appeal, or may vary such order, and such order, if annulled, shall not take effect, and, if varied, shall take effect as so varied.

4. Where the Judge of the Court of Trial makes any such order on a person convicted before him, as in this Order mentioned, he shall give such directions as he thinks right as to the retention by any person of any money or valuable securities belonging to the person so convicted or taken from such person on his apprehension or of any money or valuable securities at the date of his conviction in the possession of the prosecution for the period of 10 days, or in the event of an appeal, until the determination thereof by the Court of Criminal Appeal.
5. Where upon conviction of any person of any offence any disqualification, forfeiture or disability attaches to such person by reason of such conviction, such disqualification, forfeiture, or disability shall not attach for the period of 10 days from the date of the verdict against such person, nor in the event of an appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeal, until the determination thereof.
6. When the Judge of the Court of Trial on the conviction of a person before him makes any order for the payment of money by such person or by any other person upon such conviction, and, by reason of this Order, such order would otherwise be suspended, such Judge may, if he thinks right so to do, direct that the operation of such order shall not be suspended unless the person on whom such order has been made shall, in such manner and within such time as the said Judge shall direct, give security by way of undertaking or otherwise for the payment to the person in whose favour such order shall have been made of the amount therein named. Such security may be to the satisfaction of the person in whose favour the order for payment shall have been made or of any other person as such Judge shall direct.
7. Where on a conviction any property, matters or things the subject of the prosecution or connected therewith are to be or may be ordered to be destroyed or forfeited under the provisions of any Statute, the destruction or forfeiture or order for destruction or forfeiture thereof shall be suspended for the period of 10 days from and after the date on which the verdict on such indictment was returned, and in the event of an appeal shall be further suspended until the determination thereof by the Court of Criminal Appeal.
8. Where, upon conviction of any person of any offence, any claim may be made or any proceedings may be taken under any Statute against such person or any other person in consequence of such conviction, such proceedings shall not be taken until after the period of 10 days from the date on which the verdict against such person was returned, nor in the event of an appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeal until the determination thereof.
9. Any person affected by any orders which are suspended under this Order may, with the leave of the Court of Criminal Appeal, be heard on the final determination of any appeal, before any such orders are varied or annulled by the Court of Criminal Appeal.
10. The time during which an Order of Restitution or the operation of subsection (1) of Section 24 of the Sale of Goods Act, 1895, is suspended under Section 694 of the Code, shall commence to run from the day on which the verdict of the jury was returned, and, in cases where Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for leave to appeal is duly given within 10 days after such day, the period of suspension of such order or of the operation of the subsection shall continue until the determination of the appeal.
11. The Registrar or Clerk of the Court of Trial or other officer thereof having the custody of the Records of such Court, or the deputy of such Clerk or other officer, shall not issue, under any Statute authorising him so to do, a certificate of conviction of any person convicted on indictment in the Court to which he is such Clerk, officer, or deputy, for the period of 10 days after the actual day on which such conviction took place, nor in the event of such Clerk, officer, or deputy receiving information from the Registrar of the Court of Criminal Appeal within such 10 days that a Notice of Appeal or if Application for leave to appeal to that Court has been given, until the determination thereof.

After 10 days from conviction, Clerk to be satisfied no appeal pending before issuing certificate of conviction.

12. Where an application is made to such Registrar, Clerk, officer, or deputy to issue such certificate of conviction as in this rule mentioned after the expiration of the said period of 10 days, he shall require, before issuing the same, to be satisfied that there is no appeal then pending in the Court of Criminal Appeal against such conviction. A person desirous of obtaining a certificate of conviction from such Registrar, Clerk, officer, or deputy shall be entitled to obtain from the Registrar of the Court of Criminal Appeal a certificate in such form as the said Registrar may think right for the purpose of satisfying, by the production thereof, such Clerk, officer, or deputy that no appeal against such conviction is then pending. After the expiration of two months from the date of the conviction a certificate thereof may be issued by such Registrar, Clerk, officer or deputy as heretofore, except in cases in which he has had notice of an appeal still undetermined.

For the purposes of this Rule the expression "conviction" shall mean the verdict or plea of guilty and any final judgment passed thereon.

Appeal by person convicted against order of restitution or compensation to be made on appeal against conviction.

13. No person convicted of any offence shall be allowed to appeal against any order consequential on such conviction made under Section 717 or 719 of the Code, except on an appeal against the conviction.

Conditions may be imposed on appeal against order of restitution.

14. The Judge of the Court of Trial may, at any time, order that any person other than the person convicted who desires to appeal against an order made under Section 717 of the Code shall not be allowed to appeal unless he complies with such conditions as to security or otherwise as shall be specified in the order, but such order may be set aside or varied by the Court of Criminal Appeal.

ORDER XVI.

NOTES AND REPORT OF JUDGE OF TRIAL.

Judge's note to be furnished to the Registrar on request.

1. The Registrar when he has received a Notice of Appeal, or a Notice of Application for leave to appeal under Chapter LXIX. of the Code or a Notice of Application for extension of the time within which such notices shall be given, or when the Attorney General shall exercise his powers under Section 21 of the Code, shall request the Judge of the Court of Trial to furnish him with the whole of or any part of his note of the trial or with a copy of such note or any part thereof, and such Judge of the Court of Trial shall thereupon furnish the same to the Registrar in accordance with such request.

Report of Judge of Court of Trial.
Amended by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1215.

2. The Registrar when he has received a Notice of Appeal, or a Notice of Application for leave to appeal or a Notice of Application for extension of time within which such notices shall be given (not being notices to which in his opinion Section 701, Subsection (2) of the Code applies) or when the Attorney General shall exercise his powers under Section 21 of the Code, and whenever in relation to any appeal the Court of Criminal Appeal or any Judge thereof directs him so to do shall, request the Judge of the Court of Trial to furnish him with a report in writing, giving his opinion upon the case generally or upon any point arising upon the case of the Appellant, and the Judge of the Court of Trial shall furnish the same to the Registrar in accordance with such request.

3. The report of the Judge shall be made to the Court of Criminal Appeal, and except by leave of the Court or a Judge of the Supreme Court specifying what is to be furnished the Registrar shall not furnish to any person any part thereof.

Judge's report to be furnished to Court of Appeal.

Amended by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1215.

4. When the Registrar shall request the Judge of the Court of Trial to furnish a report under these Rules, he shall send to such Judge of the Court of Trial a copy of the Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for leave to appeal or Notice of Application for extension of time within which under the Act such notice shall be given or any other document or information which he shall consider material, or which the Court of Criminal Appeal at any time shall direct him to send, or with which such Judge may request to be furnished by the Registrar, to enable such Judge to deal in his report with the Appellant's case generally or with any point arising thereon.

Registrar to furnish Judge of Court of Trial with materials for report.

ORDER XVII.

Order XVII.

DEFENCE OF APPEALS.

1. When the Registrar has received a Notice of Appeal, or a Notice of Appeal on grounds of law alone, which does not, in his opinion, fall within the provisions of Section 701, subsection (2), of the Code, or where leave to appeal is granted to any Appellant, he shall, in the case of a private prosecution, forthwith ascertain from the person specified in Form No. 6 of Part IV. of the Schedule as the Prosecutor, or from the solicitor of such person, whether the Prosecutor intends to undertake the defence of the appeal. And in the event of the Prosecutor declining to undertake the defence of the appeal, notice to that effect shall be sent by the Registrar to the Crown Prosecutor.

Registrar's duties as to ascertaining Respondent.

In the case of other than private prosecutions the Registrar shall notify the Crown Prosecutor of the appeal.

2. It shall be the duty of a Prosecutor who declines to undertake the defence of an appeal, and of his solicitor, to furnish to the Registrar and the Crown Prosecutor, or either of them, any information, documents, matters, and things in his possession or under his control connected with the proceedings against the Appellant, which the Registrar or Crown Prosecutor may require for the purposes of their duties under the Act.

Prosecutor to afford all information, documents, etc., to Registrar and Crown Prosecutor.

3. Where the defence of an appeal is undertaken by a private prosecutor the Court of Criminal Appeal may, at any stage of the proceedings in such appeal, if it shall think right so to do, order that the Crown Prosecutor shall take over the defence of the appeal and be responsible on behalf of the Crown for the further proceedings in the same.

Court may at any stage substitute Crown Prosecutor for a private prosecutor.

4. (i) The foregoing Rules of this Order do not apply in any case where the Crown or the Prosecutor is the appellant. In any such case the Registrar shall—

ORDER XVIII.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED FOR PURPOSES OF APPEAL.

Registrar on application of Appellant or Respondent, or where he thinks necessary, to obtain documents, exhibits, etc., for purposes of appeal, and same, to be open for inspection.

Judge may allow affidavits to be filed re grounds etc. added by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1215.

Court of Appeal may order production of any document or exhibits etc.

How Appellant or Respondent may obtain from Registrar copies of documents or exhibits. Amended by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1215.

Counsel and Solicitor assigned to Appellant may receive copies of documents and exhibits free on his request.

Transcript of shorthand notes not to be supplied free except on order of Judge of Court.

Appellant not legally represented may obtain copy of documents or exhibits free.

1. The Registrar may, on an application made to him by the Appellant or Respondent in any appeal, or where he considers the same to be necessary for the proper determination of any appeal or application, or shall where directed by the Court of Criminal Appeal so to do, obtain and keep available for use by the Court of Criminal Appeal any documents, exhibits, or other things relating to the proceedings before the Court, and pending the determination of the appeal, such documents, exhibits, or other things shall be open as and when the Registrar may arrange, for the inspection of any party interested.

1A. If it appears necessary or expedient for the proper determination of an appeal or application to the Court of Criminal Appeal, a Judge of the Supreme Court on application by any Appellant or Respondent prior to the hearing and after notice of such application to other parties concerned, may, by special order, grant leave to all or any parties to file affidavits relating to any ground of the appeal or application, and may direct what persons shall be competent to make any such affidavit or affidavits and within what time or times any such affidavit shall be filed.

2. The Court of Criminal Appeal may, at any stage of an appeal, whenever they think it necessary or expedient in the interest of justice so to do, on the application of an Appellant or Respondent, order any document, exhibit, or other thing connected with the proceedings, to be produced to the Registrar or before them, by any person having the custody or control thereof.

3. At any time after Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for leave to appeal has been given under chapter sixty-nine of the Code, an Appellant or Respondent or the Solicitor or other person representing either of them, may obtain from the Registrar copies of any documents or exhibits in his possession under the Code or these Rules for the purposes of such appeals. Such copies shall be supplied by the Registrar at such charges as may be provided in rules made under the Supreme Court Act, 1935-1950.¹

4. Where Solicitor and Counsel, or Counsel only, are assigned to an Appellant under chapter sixty-nine of the Code, copies of any documents or exhibits which they or he may request the Registrar to supply shall without charge be supplied unless the Registrar thinks that they are not necessary for the purpose of the appeal.

5. A transcript of the shorthand notes (if any) taken of the proceedings at the trial of any Appellant shall not be supplied free of charge, except by an order of the Court of Criminal Appeal or of a Judge thereof, upon an application made by an Appellant or by his Counsel or Solicitor assigned to him under the Act.

6. Where an Appellant, who is not legally represented, requires from the Registrar a copy of any document or exhibit in his custody for the purposes of his appeal, he may obtain it free of charge if the Registrar thinks, under all the circumstances, it is desirable or necessary to supply the same to him.

Order XIX.

PROCEDURE AS TO WITNESSES BEFORE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEAL, AND THEIR EXAMINATION BEFORE EXAMINER.

1. Where the Court of Criminal Appeal have ordered any witness to attend and be examined before the Court under Section 697 (b) of the Code, an order in the Form No. 15 in Part IV. of the Schedule hereto shall be served upon such witness specifying the time and place at which to attend for such purpose. Attendance of witness before Court of Appeal.
2. Such order may be made on the application at any time of the Appellant or Respondent, but if the Appellant is in custody and not legally represented the application shall be made by him in the Form No. 14 in Part IV. of the Schedule hereto. Application to Court to hear witnesses.
3. Where the Court of Criminal Appeal order the examination of any witness to be conducted otherwise than before the Court itself, such order shall specify the person appointed as examiner to take and the place of taking such examination and the witness or witnesses to be examined thereat. Order appointing Examiner.
4. The Registrar shall furnish to the person appointed to take such examination any documents or exhibits and any other material relating to the said appeal as and when requested so to do. Such documents and exhibits and other material shall after the examination has been concluded be returned by the examiner together with any depositions taken by him to the Registrar. Registrar to furnish Examiner with exhibits, etc., necessary for examination.
5. When the examiner has appointed the day and time for the examination he shall request the Registrar to notify the Appellant or Respondent and their legal representatives, if any, and when the Appellant is in prison, the Superintendent of that prison, thereof. The Registrar shall cause to be served on every witness to be so examined a notice in the Form No. 16 in Part IV. of the Schedule hereto. Notification of date of examination.
6. Every witness examined before an examiner under this Order shall give his evidence upon oath to be administered by such examiner, except where any such witness if giving evidence as a witness on a trial on indictment need not be sworn. Evidence to be given on oath.
7. The examination of every such witness shall be taken in the form of a deposition and shall be read over to and signed by the witness and shall also be signed by the examiner. The caption in the Form No. 17 in Part IV. of the Schedule hereto shall be attached to any such deposition. Deposition of witness, how to be taken.
8. Where any witness shall receive an order or notice to attend before the Court of Criminal Appeal or an examiner, the person serving the same may, if it appears to him necessary so to do, pay to him a reasonable sum not exceeding the amount of the scale sanctioned by the Attorney General for the travelling expenses of such witness from his place of residence to the place named in such notice or order, and the sum so paid shall be certified by such person to the Registrar. Any expenses certified by the Registrar under this rule shall be paid as part of the expenses of a prosecution. Travelling expenses of witnesses before Examiner.
9. Any order or notice required by this Order to be given to any witness may be served as a writ of subpoena in the Supreme Court may be served, and any such notice shall be deemed to be an order of the Court of Criminal Appeal on such witness to attend at the time and place specified therein. Service of notices and orders, under Rule.

Presence of parties at examination of witnesses.

Proceedings under Section 697, subsection (d), on reference.

Amended by G.C. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1215.

10. The Appellant and Respondent, or Counsel or Solicitor on their behalf, shall be entitled to be present at and take part in any examination of any witness to which this Rule relates.

11. When an order of Reference is made by the Court of Criminal Appeal under Section 697 (d) of the Code, the question to be referred and the person to whom as Special Commissioner the same shall be referred shall be specified in such order. The Court of Criminal Appeal may in such order or by giving directions as and when they, from time to time, shall think right, specify whether the Appellant or Respondent or any person on his behalf may be present at any examination or investigation ordered under Section 697 (d) of the Code or at any stage thereof, and specify any and what powers of the Court of Criminal Appeal under Chapter LXIX. of the Code may be delegated to such Special Commissioner, and may require him from time to time to make interim reports to the Court of Criminal Appeal upon the question referred to him under Section 697 (d) of the Code, and may, if the Appellant is in custody, give leave to him to be present at any stage of such examination or investigation and give the necessary directions to the Superintendent of the prison in which such Appellant is, accordingly, and may give directions to the Registrar that copies of any report made by such Special Commissioner shall be furnished to the Appellant and Respondent or to Counsel or Solicitor on their behalf.

Order XX.

ORDER XX.

NOTIFYING RESULT OF APPEALS

On final determination of appeals, etc., Registrar to notify Appellant, Prison Superintendent, and Attorney General.

1. On the final determination of any appeal under Chapter LXIX. of the Code or of any matter under Section 702 of the Code, the Registrar shall give to the Appellant, if he is in custody and has not been present at such final determination, and to the Attorney General, and to the Superintendent of the prison in which the Appellant then is, or from which he has been released on bail or to which under such determination he is committed, notice of such determination in the Forms 18, 19, 20, and 21 respectively provided for such cases in Part IV. of the Schedule hereto.

In cases of death sentence, notice of appeal and final determination to be given.

2. In any case of an appeal in relation to a conviction involving sentence of death, the Registrar shall on receiving the Notice of Appeal or of Application for leave to appeal, send a copy thereof to the Attorney General, and on the final determination of any such appeal by the Court of Criminal Appeal shall forthwith notify the Appellant, the Attorney General, and the Superintendent of the prison in which the Appellant then is or to which he is committed under such determination.

Registrar to notify Officer of Court of Trial, result of appeal.

3. The Registrar at the final determination of an appeal (when the Supreme Court was not the Court of trial) shall notify in such manner as he thinks most convenient to the Clerk of the Court of Trial the decision of the Court of Criminal Appeal in relation thereto, and also any orders or directions made or given by the Court in relation to such appeal or any matter connected therewith.

Officer of Court of Trial to enter decision of Court on records.

The proper officer of the Court of Trial shall, on receiving the notification referred to in this Rule, enter the particulars thereof on the Records of the Court of which he is such officer.

Registrar after appeal to return original depositions, exhibits, indictments, etc., to Officer of Court of Trial when received from him.

4. Upon the final determination of an appeal for the purposes of which the Registrar has obtained from the proper officer of the Court of Trial any original depositions, exhibits, indictment, inquisition, plea, or other documents usually kept by the said officer, or forming part of the Record of the Court of Trial, the Registrar shall cause the same to be returned to such officer.

ORDER XXI.

Order XXI.

PASSING OF ACCOUNTS BY CURATOR OF PRISONER'S ESTATE.

1. A curator of a prisoner's estate liable to pass his accounts shall, as soon as practicable, file in the Registry of the Supreme Court his accounts relating to the estate of the prisoner, and shall, at the time of filing the said accounts, take out an appointment for passing the same. If the curator intends to claim commission or other remuneration which has not already been allowed by the Court or a Judge he shall state that fact in the notice.

Accounts to be filed.

2. Notice of the filing of the accounts and of the time fixed for passing the same shall be served on the prisoner or his trustee in bankruptcy or legal personal representative as the case may require.

Notice to parties.

3. Any person wishing to object to the passing of the accounts of any curator shall file with the Registrar, on or before the day fixed for the passing of the accounts, a notice of his intention to object and also an affidavit stating his interest and the nature and grounds of his objection.

Notice of objections.

4. Upon the taking of such accounts the Registrar may make such order as to service upon any of the parties interested as he may think fit.

Service on persons interested.

5. Any person interested may attend before the Registrar upon the taking of such accounts.

Attendance of persons interested.

6. The Registrar shall state the result of the taking of the accounts in the form of a certificate and in the certificate shall state the amount of commission or other remuneration allowed by the Court or a Judge, or if no such allowance has been made he shall state what he recommends should be allowed in respect of the claim (if any) for commission or other remuneration.

Registrar's certificate.

7. Every certificate of the Registrar shall be binding on all persons concerned unless discharged or varied by the Court or a Judge upon application by motion or summons made before the expiration of eight clear days from the signing of the certificate; provided that no recommendation for commission or other remuneration shall be binding until approved by the Court or a Judge.

Certificate when binding.

ORDER XXII.

Order XXII.

CERTIORARI TO INFERIOR COURTS.

1. Affidavits intended to be used on an application for a writ of certiorari to remove an indictment from a Court of Session or other Inferior Court into the Supreme Court shall be entitled "In the Supreme Court of Western Australia, and in the matter of an indictment presented in the Court of Session at B. (or other Court, naming it) against C.D."

Title of Affidavits. Amended by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1216.

2. A writ of certiorari for the removal of an indictment from a Court of Session or other Inferior Court into the Supreme Court shall not be granted, except on the application of the Attorney General acting on behalf of the Crown, either at the instance of the prosecutor or of the accused person, unless it is made to appear to the Court or Judge by the party applying that a fair and impartial trial of the case cannot be had in the Court below, or that some question of law of more than usual difficulty and importance is likely to arise upon the trial.

Grounds for removal. Amended by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1216.

3. A writ of certiorari for the removal of an indictment from a Court of Session or other Inferior Court into the Supreme Court shall not be issued except on the application of the Attorney General acting on behalf of the Crown, until the accused person at whose instance it has been directed to issue has given security, Security for costs of prosecution.

by recognisance, or in such other manner as the Court or Judge may direct, with or without sureties, and in such sum as the Court or Judge may think fit, conditioned that he will appear and plead in open Court to the indictment, and proceed to trial at the next Criminal Sittings of the Supreme Court at Perth forthwith, or at the sittings of such other Court, and at such time and place as the Supreme Court or a Judge may direct, and will personally attend from day to day at the trial of the indictment, and not depart till he shall be discharged by the Court, and that he will pay the cost of the prosecution subsequent to the removal of the indictment, if he is convicted.

Time and notice.
Amended by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1216.

4. An order nisi for a writ of certiorari to remove a judgment, conviction, order, or other proceeding, of a Court of Session other than an indictment presented therein, or a judgment, conviction, order, or other proceeding of any other Inferior Court or Tribunal, or of Justices, in a criminal cause, shall not be granted unless it is made within six months after the date of such judgment, conviction, order, or other proceeding, nor unless it is proved upon affidavit that the applicant has given six days' notice of the intended application to the Court of Session, Justice, or other person or persons by or before whom the judgment, conviction, order, or other proceeding was made or taken, or to two of them if more than one.

Objections to be stated in order.

5. Any mistake or omission in any judgment, conviction, order, or other proceeding which is intended to be relied upon as a ground for quashing such judgment, conviction, order, or proceeding shall be stated in the order nisi; otherwise an objection on account of such omission or mistake shall not be allowed.

Service.

6. In the case of orders to show cause why a writ of certiorari should not be issued addressed to Justices in petty sessions, service of the order on the clerk of the petty sessions shall be sufficient.

Security for costs on certiorari to bring up convictions or orders of Justices.
Amended by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1216.

7. A writ of certiorari to remove a judgment, conviction, or order of a Court of Session, or of any other Inferior Court or Tribunal, or of Justices shall not be issued, except upon the application of the Attorney General, until the applicant has given security in the sum of one hundred dollars, conditioned to prosecute the writ with effect at his own cost without delay, and to pay, within ten days, to the party in whose favour the judgment, conviction, or order was given or made, in the event of the same being confirmed, such costs, if any, as the Court shall order.

Quashing order in first instance.

8. When cause is shown against an order nisi for a writ of certiorari to remove a conviction or order of justices, the Court, if it directs the writ to issue, may by the same order direct that the conviction or order shall be quashed on return without further order; and in such case no security need be given as required by the last preceding rule, and a memorandum to that effect shall be indorsed upon the writ by the officer by whom it is issued.

In any such case the conviction or order shall be quashed, upon being returned to the Court, without further order.

When no cause shown.

9. When cause is not shown against an order nisi for a writ of certiorari to bring up a conviction or order of justices, or when the order is absolute in the first instance, the applicant may apply to the Court or a Judge for an order to quash the conviction or order. Such application shall be made upon notice to the parties interested in supporting the conviction or order.

Order XXIII.

ORDER XXIII.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Application not specially provided for, how made.

1. Except where otherwise provided in these Rules, any application to the Court of Criminal Appeal may be made by the Appellant or Respondent, or by Counsel on their behalf, orally or in writing, but in regard to such applications if the Appellant is unrepresented and is in custody and is not entitled or has not obtained leave to be present before the Court, he shall make any such application by forwarding the same in writing to the Registrar, who shall take the proper steps to obtain the decision of the Court thereon.

Order XXIII.

2. When the Court of Criminal Appeal has heard and dealt with any application under the Act or these Rules, the Registrar shall (unless it appears to him unnecessary so to do) give to the Appellant (if he is in custody and has not been present at the hearing of such application) notice of the decision of the Court of Criminal Appeal in relation to the said application.

Notice by Registrar to Appellant of results of all applications.

3. When legal aid is assigned to an Appellant, the Court of Criminal Appeal may give such directions as to the stage of the appeal at which such legal aid shall commence and whether Counsel only, or Counsel and Solicitor, shall be assigned or otherwise as they think right.

Legal aid. Amended by G.G. No. 34, 9/7/54, p. 1216.

The Registrar shall thereupon, subject to any special order of the Court of Criminal Appeal select a Counsel and Solicitor or Counsel only for the purpose of affording legal aid to an Appellant under the directions of the Court of Criminal Appeal, having regard in so doing to the place at which the Appellant was tried and the Counsel or Solicitor, if any, who represented the Appellant at his trial and the nature of the appeal.

4. The performance of any duty imposed upon any person under Chapter LXIX of the Code may be enforced by order of the Court of Appeal.

Enforcing duties under Rules.

5. When the Attorney General exercises his powers under Section 21 (a) and refers the whole case to the Court of Appeal, the petitioner whose case is so dealt with shall be deemed to be for all the purposes of Chapter LXIX of the Code a person who has obtained from the Court of Appeal leave to appeal, and the Court of Appeal may proceed to deal with his case accordingly.

A petitioner under Section 21, subsection (a) to be deemed an Appellant for all purposes.

6. The Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeal shall make arrangements for any sittings that may be necessary during vacation.

Sittings during long vacation.

7. Where the Attorney General refers a point to the Court of Criminal Appeal under Section 21 (b) of the Code, such Court shall, unless they otherwise determine, consider such point in private.

Reference to Court under s. 21 (b).

8. (1) Warrants issued by the Registrar under these rules or Chapter LXIX of the Criminal Code shall be impressed with the seal of the Supreme Court; but the absence of such impression shall not affect the validity of the warrant.

Warrants.

(2) Warrants issued by a Justice under Chapter LXIX of the Criminal Code require no seal.

(3) Subject to these rules and to any order of the Court or a Judge, whenever it is necessary to name a prison in any warrant the person issuing the warrant shall select the prison; provided that, where a person has been released from any prison on bail and it is afterwards necessary to issue a warrant for his detention on revocation of the order for bail or at the instance of any surety, the prison named in the warrant shall be that from which he was released unless the Court or a Judge otherwise orders.

(4) Warrants shall have effect and shall be executed and observed according to their tenor.

9. All notices required or authorised to be given to the Court of Criminal Appeal shall be addressed to "The Registrar of the Court of Criminal Appeal, Supreme Court, Perth."

Given under [my] hand at _____, in the said State, this day of _____, 19 _____.

J.P.

No. 3.—Bail.

(See Part III., Form No. 6.)

SECTION IV.—FORMS OF PROCEEDINGS AT TRIAL.

No. 1.—Form of Arraignment.

The Clerk of Arraignment is required to address the accused person as follows:—

A.B. [and C.D.]: You stand charged by that name [or those names] that you on etc. at etc. (the Clerk of Arraignment is to state the charge in the indictment to the accused person, using the second person plural instead of the third person, and repeating the names of each accused person as to anything alleged of him to the exclusion of the other persons accused):

How say you, A.B., are you guilty or not guilty?

[How say you, C.D., are you guilty or not guilty?]

Note.—If the charges of committing an offence after a previous conviction or convictions, the accused person is to be arraigned in the first instance upon so much only of the indictment as charges the subsequent offence (see Code, Section 627).

No. 2.—Statement to Prisoner of his Right of Challenge on Plea of Not Guilty.

If the accused person says that he is not guilty, the Clerk of Arraignment is required to address him as follows:—

A.B. [and C.D.]: These good men whom you will now hear called are the jurors who are to decide between Our Lord the King and you upon your trial [or (in a capital case) upon your life or death]: If, therefore, you wish to challenge them or any of them you must do so as they come to be sworn, and before they are sworn, and you shall be heard.

No. 3.—Direction to Jurors to take the Box.

(By the Clerk of Arraignment.)

Gentlemen of the jury, answer to your names and take the box as you are called.

No. 4.—Form of giving the Accused Person in Charge to the Jury.

After the names of the jury who have been sworn and called and they have answered, the Clerk of Arraignment is required to address them as follows:—

Gentlemen, A.B. [and C.D.] stands [or stand] charged by that name [or those names] that on etc. at etc. he [or they] (state the offence charged in the words of the indictment): To this charge he says [or they say] that he is [or they are] not guilty: You are the jurors appointed according to law to say whether he is [or they are] guilty or not guilty of the charge: It is your duty, therefore, to hearken to the evidence, and to say whether he is [or they are] guilty or not guilty: Gentlemen, choose your foreman.

Part I,
Sections IV
and V.

No. 5.—Form of Addressing Convicted Person before Sentence.

If the plea or verdict is "guilty," the Clerk of Arraigns is required to address the convicted person as follows:—

A.B., you have been convicted (in the case of a plea of guilty say on your own confession) of murder [or stealing or piracy or forgery (or as the case may be, describing the offence by the name by which it is commonly known, or otherwise so as to sufficiently designate it)]: Have you anything to say why judgment (in a capital case say of death) should not be pronounced upon you according to law?

SECTION V.—FORM OF ENTRIES OF PLEAS, ETC.

No. 1.—Demurrer to Indictment.

And the said A.B. says that the said indictment [or information] is bad in substance on the ground that (state a ground of demurrer), and on other grounds sufficient in law to sustain this demurrer.

No. 2.—Plea of Guilty.

And the said A.B. says that he is guilty of the said offence.

No. 3.—Plea of Not Guilty.

And the said A.B. says that he is not guilty of the said alleged offence.

No. 4.—Plea of Autrefois Acquit.

And the said A.B. says that he has already, namely, on etc., at the Circuit Court at Coolgardie (or as the case may be), been lawfully acquitted of the said offence [or of (state the offence of which he has already been acquitted, so as to show that the acquittal is a bar to a prosecution on the present charge)].

No. 5.—Plea of Autrefois Convict.

And the said A.B. says that he has already, namely, on etc., at the Circuit Court at Coolgardie (or as the case may be) been convicted of the said offence [or of (etc. as in preceding Form)].

No. 6.—Plea of Pardon.

And the said A.B. says that on etc. our Lord the King [or the Governor of Western Australia, on behalf of our Lord the King] granted him a free pardon for the said offence.

No. 7.—Plea of Truth and Public Benefit on Charge of Defamation.

And the said A.B. [further] says that the said alleged defamatory matter is true in substance and in fact, and that it was for the public benefit that the publication thereof now complained of should be made

No. 8.—Challenge to Array.

The said A.B. challenges the array of the jury panel, and says (state cause of challenge): And wherefore he prays that the said panel may be quashed.

No. 9.—Challenge of Juror.

The said Attorney General [or J.J.K. or A.B.] challenges O.P., a juror called to try the said charge, and says that he is not fair and indifferent between Our Lord the King and the said A.B. [and C.D.] [or has no qualification (or is disqualified) to act as a juror] (or as the case may be).

No. 10.—Demurrer to Challenge.

And the said Attorney General [or J.J.K. or A.B.] says that the said challenge is bad in substance [wherefore he prays that the panel may be affirmed].

Part I,
Sections V
and VI.

No. 11.—Plea to Challenge.

And the said Attorney General [or J.J.K. or A.B.] denies the truth of the matters alleged as cause of challenge [or says that (set out matters relied on in answer to the challenge)].

No. 12.—Award of Jury for Trial of Charge.

Therefore let a jury immediately come to say upon their oaths whether the said A.B. [and C.D.] is [or are] guilty or not guilty of the offence so charged against him [or them].

No. 13.—Award of Jury to say whether an Accused Person is Insane.

Code Section 610.

And thereupon it is suggested to the Court that the said A.B. is incapable of understanding the proceedings at the trial of the said indictment [or information] so as to be able to make a proper defence: Therefore let a jury immediately come to say upon their oaths whether the said A.B. is so incapable or not.

No. 14.—Entry of Nolle Prosequi.

And the said Attorney General [or J.J.K.] says that he will not further proceed against the said A.B. upon the said indictment [or information].

SECTION VI.—FORMS OF ENTRIES OF VERDICT, JUDGMENT, ETC.

No. 1.—Entry of Verdict.

And a jury being called came, and upon their oath say that the said A.B. is guilty of the said offence so charged against him [or is guilty of (state the lesser offence, if any, of which the accused is convicted)] or is not guilty of the offence so charged against him [or is not guilty of the offence so charged against him, because they say that he was of unsound mind at the time when he did the acts (or made the omission) alleged to constitute the said alleged offence] [or has been already acquitted (or convicted) of the said offence] [or of an offence of which he might be convicted upon the said indictment (or information)] [or is not of sound mind].

No. 2.—Judgment or Verdict of Not Guilty or Autrefois Acquit or Autrefois Convict or on Demurrer allowed.

Therefore it is adjudged that the said A.B. do go free from the said charge.

No. 3.—Order on Verdict of Not Guilty on Account of Insanity.

Therefore it is ordered that the said A.B. be kept in strict custody in His Majesty's prison at Fremantle (or as the case may be) until His Majesty's pleasure shall be known concerning him.

No. 4.—Judgment on Plea or Verdict of Guilty.

And thereupon the said A.B., being asked if he has anything to say why judgment should not be passed upon him, says nothing unless as he had before said: Therefore it is adjudged that the said A.B. shall for his said offence be hanged by the neck until

Part I,
Section VI.

he be dead [or be imprisoned (and kept to hard labour) in His Majesty's prison at Fremantle for the space of twelve calendar months or do pay to His Majesty a fine of $200 (or as the case maybe)].

No. 5.—Judgment when Demurrer Overruled.

And upon argument and consideration of the matter the Court is of opinion and doth adjudge that the said indictment [or information] is good in substance: Whereupon the said A.B. says that (etc., as in the Forms in preceding Section).

No. 6.—Judgment on Motion in Arrest of Judgment.

After entry of verdict proceed as follows:— And thereupon the said A.B., being asked if he has anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced upon him, moved [or motion was made on his behalf] that judgment might be arrested: And thereupon it is adjudged by the Court that judgment upon the said confession [or verdict] be arrested, and that the said A.B. do go free from the said charge [or that the judgment of the Court shall be pronounced upon the said confession (or verdict): Therefore it is adjudged (etc., as in Form No. 4)].

No. 7.—Order on Finding that the Accused Person is Insane.
Code, Section 643.

Therefore it is ordered that the said A.B. be kept in strict custody in His Majesty's prison at Fremantle (or as the case may be) until he can be dealt with under the laws relating to insane persons.

No. 8.—Entry of Stay on Nolle Prosequi.

Therefore it is ordered that all further proceedings against the said A.B. upon the said indictment [or information] be stayed.
