ERRATUM.

LOCAL COURTS ACT, 1904-1973.

Crown Law Department,
Perth, 24th January, 1974.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, acting pursuant to section 158 of the Local Courts Act, 1904-1973 has been pleased to make the Rules of Court set out in the Schedule hereunder. Pursuant to that section the Rules will have and take effect at the expiration of one month from the publication thereof in the Government Gazette.

R. M. CHRISTIE,
Under Secretary for Law.

Schedule.

RULES OF COURT.

1. In these Rules the Local Court Rules, 1961, made under the ^{Principal} provisions of the Local Courts Act, 1904-1972, and published in the ^{Rules.} Government Gazette on the 6th June, 1961, as amended from time to time by notices so published are referred to as the principal Rules.

2. Order 37 of the principal rules is amended:— ^{Order 37}
(a) by revoking Rule 6 and substituting a new Rule as ^{amended.} follows:—

6. (1) Subject to the provisions of Rule 7 of this Order, a magistrate may order that the costs in any action or matter are to be taxed.

(2) Costs shall be taxed on the basis of the items set out in Part III of the Appendix to these Rules in accordance with the column of that scale appropriate to the value of the sum recovered in, or the subject matter of, the action or matter, but the court has a discretion to order that a different column of the scale shall apply.

(3) In relation to any item not specifically provided for in the scale the court may allow costs by analogy to the item most nearly applicable, or if there is no such analogous item at such sum as is adequate. ;

(b) as to Rule 13, by deleting the item designation "31", in line two, and substituting the designation "30";

(c) as to Rule 18:—

(i) by inserting after the designation "18." a subrule designation "(1)";

(ii) by deleting the words "on the scale", in line two, and substituting the passage "in accordance with the column of the scale contained in Part III of the Appendix to these Rules";

(iii) by adding after subrule (1) a new subrule as follows:—

(2) The costs in an action for the recovery of possession of land in which no notice of defence is given shall be limited to Item 17 in Part III of the Appendix to these Rules. ;

(d) by revoking Rule 25 and the heading thereto and substituting the following—

Fees for Counsel.

25. (1) For the purposes of this Order the term "counsel" means a practitioner in practice on his own account or in partnership who is not the solicitor on record and who has been briefed on behalf of a party.

(2) No fee or costs of or incidental to the attendance of counsel shall be allowed unless the magistrate shall certify that the case was a fit one for counsel to attend.

(3) No fee or costs of or incidental to the attendance of counsel shall be allowed on taxation unless unconditional payment is vouched by the signature of counsel, or otherwise proved to the satisfaction of the clerk.

SHIRE OF MUNDARING.

TOWN PLANNING SCHEME No.4—
DALWOOD SCHEME.

RESOLVED that the Council of the Shire of Mundaring, in pursuance of section 7 of the Town Planning and Development Act, 1928 (as amended), amend the above Town Planning Scheme by the addition after clause 27 of the text of the said Scheme of the following new clause:—

27A. Additional Scheme Costs.

If an owner (the developer) shall in order to subdivide and develop his land incur costs for works not included in the Scheme costs, and if the works are of benefit to other owners, the developer may make application to the Council to have a portion of the cost of such works certified as "Additional Scheme Costs". The Council shall consider the application and may certify what it considers a fair and just portion of the said costs which should be paid by the owners of lots specified by the Council. The Council shall notify the owners involved of its decision and may reconsider its decision if it shall receive representations from an owner or owners within one month of the notification. An owner, when he shall subdivide his land, shall pay to the Council the amount finally certified by the Council as that owner's portion of the Additional Scheme Costs. All amounts received by the Council pursuant to this clause shall be paid by the Council to the owner (the developer) who as certified by the Council made payment for the said works.

Claims for compensation by reason of this amendment may be made within six months from the publication of this amendment in the Government Gazette.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1960-1973.

The Municipality of the Shire of Exmouth.

Adoption of By-laws of the abovementioned Municipality, relating to "Long Service Leave" for all employees under the control of the Council.

L.G. 444/64.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon it, by the above act and all other powers enabling it, the Council of the abovementioned Municipality hereby records having resolved on the 18th day of October, 1973 to make and submit for Confirmation by the Governor the following By-law.

1. In the interpretation of these By-laws the following words shall have the meaning assigned to them hereunder:—

- (a) "Council" means the Exmouth Shire Council.
- (b) "Continuous Service" means service in the employment of the Council during which an employee has not been absent from the service of the Council for a continuous period of more than two days or an aggregate period of more than ten days without leave of absence being granted by the Council.

2. All employees of the Council shall after a period of 7 years continuous service as permanent full-time employees thereof commencing from 1st January, 1970, be entitled to three months' long service leave. Long service leave is to be taken at the convenience of the Council, which will, as far as possible, meet the wishes of the employee, but the Council may require the employee to take his leave by giving him not less than three months' notice.

3. Absence on account of sickness shall not be deemed to be a break in the continuity of service, providing the period of absence shall not be longer than three months in any year, unless otherwise decided by the Council.

4. (a) Employees due to take long service leave shall be paid their salary or wage for the period thereof at the rate equivalent to the salary or wage paid in the week immediately preceding to the taking of long service leave.

- (i) pay to the employee his salary or wages periodically during long service leave; or
- (ii) pay to the employee in advance a sum representing the amount of his salary or wages for the period of his long service leave.

5. Employees shall not be entitled to long service leave until the completion of the first 7 years of service. After the completion of the first 7 years, employees will be entitled to a pro rata payment if they leave the service of the Council before the next period is completed.

6. In the event of the resignation, retirement, or death of an employee the Council may pay to such employee (or in the case of death, to his personal representative or if there be none, to his dependants), a sum of money equal to his salary or wages for the period of long service leave which the council was empowered under these By-laws to grant such employee at the date of his retirement, resignation, or death, or if the Council, after consideration of all circumstances, direct that the death of the employee be presumed, the Council may authorise the payment to the dependants of the employee a sum equivalent to the amount of salary or wages which would under this By-law have been granted to the employee immediately prior to the date of his death, such date to be determined by the Council.

7. An employee dismissed by the Council, except in the matter of retrenchment, shall not be paid any sum in pursuance of the preceding By-law.

8. Long Service Leave shall be considered as a special period of recuperation after a lengthy term of service, with a view to fitting the employee for a further term and during such leave, no employee shall undertake any form of employment for hire or reward, unless by special permission of the Council. A contravention of this By-law shall entitle the Council to dismiss the employee from its service and to cease paying or recover any amounts paid in advance on account of long service leave.

 - (b) make the regulations set out in the schedule hereunder,
- so that both the revocation and the regulations have effect on and after the same date.

B. R. COLCUTT,
Under Secretary for Labour.

Schedule.

Regulations.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Footwear Regulations, 1974.

2. In these regulations unless the contrary intention appears—"sole" does not include insole; "upper" does not include "quarter lining"; "quarter lining" means that lining which is attached by stitching or cementing to the back of the boot; and "the Act" means the Factories and Shops Act, 1963.

3. (1) The uppers of all boots of whatever kind shall be exempt from the provisions of section 68 unless the uppers consist—

- (a) entirely of leather; or
- (b) of material resembling leather.

(2) Where the uppers of boots consist entirely of leather the words "All Leather Upper" shall be conspicuously and legibly marked on each boot in accordance with these regulations.

(3) Where the uppers of boots consist of material resembling leather—

- (a) if the upper is not made entirely of synthetic material the words "Non-Leather Upper"; and
- (b) if the upper is made entirely of synthetic material the words "Non-Leather Upper" or the words "Synthetic Upper", shall be conspicuously and legibly marked on each boot in accordance with these regulations.

4. (1) The quarter lining of boots shall be exempt from the provisions of section 68 unless the quarter linings consist—

- (a) entirely of leather; or
- (b) of material resembling leather.

(2) Where the quarter lining of boots consist entirely of leather the words "All Leather Quarter Lining" shall be conspicuously and legibly marked on each boot in accordance with these regulations.

(3) Where the quarter lining of boots consist of material resembling leather—

- (a) if the quarter lining is not made entirely of synthetic material the words "Non-Leather Quarter Lining"; and
- (b) if the quarter lining is made entirely of synthetic material the words "Non-Leather Quarter Lining" or the words "Synthetic Quarter Lining", shall be conspicuously and legibly marked on each boot in accordance with these regulations.

5. The insoles of boots shall be exempt from the provisions of section 68.

6. The soles of boots shall be exempt from the provisions of section 68—

(a) where the materials in the soles of boots consist only of leather and one or more of the following—

- (i) ordinary fillers or cork or waterproof felt;
- (ii) canvas used to reinforce the insole;
- (iii) shanks made of plastic, leather-board, fibreboard, metal or wood or combinations of those materials, used only for the purpose of strengthening those parts of the boots known as the waist;
- (iv) plastic, wood or metal used in the heels of boots;
- (v) stiffening of metal, plastic, leatherboard, fibreboard, papier mache, canvas or similar substances, glue or any other preparation of any of those materials with any other or others of them used only for the purpose of supporting those parts of the boots known as the heel and toe, and the words "All Leather Sole" are conspicuously and legibly marked on each boot in accordance with these regulations;

(b) where the soles of boots include materials other than those referred to in paragraph (a) of this regulation and the words "Non-Leather Sole" are conspicuously and legibly marked on each boot in accordance with these regulations; or

(c) where the soles of boots consist entirely of synthetic material and the words "Synthetic Sole" are conspicuously and legibly marked on each boot in accordance with these regulations.

7. Where a person carries on business as a manufacturer of boots under a business name which is registered under the Business Names Act, 1962, or under corresponding legislation of any other State or Territory of the Commonwealth, and the business name is the sole property of the manufacturer and no other person has been granted the right to use that name, boots manufactured by him are exempt from the requirement in subsection (1) of section 69 of specifying the name of the manufacturer on them, if they bear on each boot in conspicuous and legible characters a mark in accordance with these regulations specifying the business name.

8. Where boots are manufactured elsewhere than within the Commonwealth they shall be exempted from the requirement of subsection (1) of section 69 of specifying the name of the manufacturer.

9. For the purpose of sections 68 and 69 and these regulations markings shall be in the English Language and shall, on each boot, be marked—

(a) in the case of boots with heels not less than 1.5 mm in height, on the waist of the lower surface of the sole close to the heel in clear imprinted lettering of not less than ten point measurement;

(b) on all boots of whatever kind, on the inside of the upper above the waist or on the heel seat or waist area of the upper surface of the sock lining or, where there is no sock lining, on the heel seat or waist area of the upper surface of the insole, in clearly legible letters of not less than ten points face measurement imprinted or embossed upon the material of the boot, or if that material is such that it is not reasonably practicable for the letters to be imprinted or embossed thereon, marked thereon with indelible permanent ink; or

(c) where it is not practicable owing to the properties of the material to apply a legible and permanent mark by the methods set out in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this regulation, the marking may be applied to the boot by stamping or impressing on a label of rubber, plastic or durable cloth and affixed by means of vulcanisation or adhesive on the waist of the outsole of the boot, or the heel seat or waist area of the sock lining, or where there is no sock lining, the insole.
