PARLIAMENTARY SALARIES AND
ALLOWANCES ACT, 1967-1972.

PARLIAMENTARY SALARIES TRIBUNAL.
INTERIM REPORT, 1974

1. On the 19th March, 1974 the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly advised the Under Secretary, the Premier's Department, of an impending problem relating to the electorate allowances fixed by the Tribunal's Determination dated the 29th June, 1971. He pointed out that pursuant to the Electoral Districts Act, 1947-65 changes had been made in certain of the electorates set out in the Schedule to Part I (ii) of the abovementioned Determination, which would become effective for the purposes of the General Election to be held on the 30th March, 1974. The relevant changes were as set out in the Western Australian Government Gazette No. 45 of the 14th June, 1972.

2. The effect of the changes was that in Group C of the electorates set out in the Schedule, the Blackwood electorate was abolished and the area thereof amalgamated with surrounding electorates. From Group D the Darling Range and Northam electorates have disappeared, and in a general readjustment of boundaries three new electorates Kalamunda, Mundaring and Rockingham, have been created; and in Group E Balcatta has become Balga, Belmont has become Welshpool, Mirrabooka has become Morley, and Wembley has become Scarborough, with some realignment of the respective boundaries thereof.

In addition, the general readjustment of boundaries resulted in several changes of Electoral Districts from one Electoral Province to another. These variations have created some anomalies in that there are now instances where the allowance for a District is different from the allowance for the Province within which it is now included. The changes which have occurred are as follows:—

District	Province within which now located
(i) Albany (Group B)	South (Group B)
(ii) Geraldton (Group C)	Upper West (Group B)
(iii) Kalgoorlie (Group C)	South-East (Group B)
(iv) Katanning (Group C)	Lower Central (Group D)
(v) Moore (Group C)	Upper West (Group B)
(vi) Stirling (Group C)	South (Group B)
(vii) Warren (Group C)	Lower Central (Group D)
(viii) Bunbury (Group D)	South-West (Group C)
(ix) Narrogin (Group D)	Central (Group C)
(x) Wellington (Group D)	South-West (Group C)

3. The Clerk of the Legislative Assembly sought the authority of the Tribunal to make temporary adjustments so as to bring the electorate allowance payments into line with the amendments above described.

4. It is obvious that in order to make the system of electorate allowances workable in respect of the new Parliament, the allowances ought to be paid in respect of the new electorates where this is relevant. There is no change in Group A. In Group D the three new seats are classified within the Agricultural, Mining and Pastoral Area and, in our opinion, are properly classified as coming within Group D. It is, therefore, merely a matter of deleting reference to the Blackwood electorate in Group C and of substituting for the Darling Range and Northam electorates in Group

D the new electorates of Kalamunda, Mundaring and Rockingham, and in Group E of substituting for the four electorates abovementioned the new electorates of Balga, Welshpool, Morley and Scarborough.

The readjustment of boundaries requires the addition of Albany, Geraldton, Kalgoorlie, Moore and Stirling to Group B; Bunbury, Narrogin and Wellington to Group C; and Katanning and Warren to Group D. In Group B the same allowance, $3,400, is appropriate for the additions to that Group and the same allowance of $3,100 is appropriate for the additions to Group C. In Group D the same allowance, $2,700, is appropriate for the three new electorates in that Group and the additions thereto. The same allowance of $2,000 is appropriate for the four new electorates in Group E.

5. We have felt some doubt in view of the peculiarly restrictive provisions of Section 7 (4), (5) and (6) of the Parliamentary Salaries and Allowances Act, 1967-72 whether an adjustment of our 1971 Determination in order to adapt it to the present situation involves any "revocation" which is technically prohibited until the 16th September, 1974. But we have come to the conclusion that while no doubt it would be desirable that the question should for audit purposes be placed beyond doubt by a short piece of amending legislation, we should act immediately by way of an Interim Determination to provide that the reference in Part I, Section (ii) of our 1971 Determination to the old electorates now no longer relevant should be read as if the seven new relevant electorates were referred to in Groups D and E respectively, the alterations resulting in deletions from Groups C and D and additions to Groups B, C and D, were made and the reference to the Blackwood electorate in Group C were deleted.

6. Accordingly we have made an Interim Determination which is appended hereto as Appendix I.

Dated this 30th day of April, 1974.

WHEREAS by its Determination dated the 29th day of June, 1971 the Parliamentary Salaries Tribunal for Western Australia, appointed pursuant to the Parliamentary Salaries and Allowances Act, 1967-1972, in Part I, Section (ii) of its Determination, determined the electorate allowances payable to (inter alia) the Members of the House of Assembly as set out in the columns scheduled thereto in respect of the electorates therein named and divided into Groups A, B, C, D and E respectively; and whereas, pursuant to the Electoral Districts Act, 1947-1965, the boundaries of certain of the said electorates have been changed, one of the said electorates has disappeared, certain of the said electorates have been renamed, and certain of the said Electoral Districts have been included within the boundaries of different Electoral Provinces, all as set out in the Western Australian Government Gazette No. 45 of the 14th June, 1972, with the result that—

- Group B includes the electorates of Albany, Geraldton, Kalgoorlie, Moore and Stirling which, as a result of the readjustment of boundaries, are now within the boundaries of Electoral Provinces in Group B.
- In Group C of the said electorates the Blackwood electorate has been abolished and the area thereof amalgamated with surrounding electorates. The electorates of Bunbury, Narrogin and Wellington have been included within the boundaries of Electoral Provinces in Group C.

(c) From Group D, the Darling Range and Northam electorates have disappeared and in the general readjustment of boundaries three new electorates, Kalamunda, Mundaring and Rockingham have been created and the electorates of Katanning and Warren have been included within the boundaries of Electoral Provinces in Group D.

(d) In Group E, Balcatta has become Balga, Belmont has become Welshpool, Mirrabooka has become Morley and Wembley has become Scarborough with some realignment of the boundaries thereof:

Now, therefore, the said Tribunal doth hereby make the following Determination, viz.,

THAT, pending the next triennial Determination of the Tribunal, to come into force in September, 1974, the aforesaid Determination dated the 29th day of June, 1971, shall, as from the 31st day of March, 1974, be read as if, in the aforesaid schedules to Part I, Section (ii) of the said Determination—

- (a) the reference to the Blackwood electorate and the allowance relating thereto were deleted;
- (b) the Darling Range and Northam electorates and the allowance relating thereto were deleted and in lieu thereof there were substituted the electorates of Kalamunda, Mundaring and Rockingham, with the same allowance, viz., $2 700, provided for each; and
- (c) the electorates of Balcatta, Belmont, Mirrabooka and Wembley were deleted and in lieu thereof were substituted the electorates of Balga, Welshpool, Morley, Scarborough, with the same allowance, viz., $2 000, provided for each;
- (d) the electorates of Albany, Geraldton, Kalgoorlie, Moore and Stirling were deleted from Group C and included in Group B with the allowance of $3 400 provided for each;
- (e) the electorates of Katanning and Warren were deleted from Group C and included in Group D with an allowance of $2 700 provided for each; and
- (f) the electorates of Bunbury, Narrogin and Wellington were deleted from Group D and included in Group C with the allowance of $3 100 provided for each.

This Determination shall be deemed to have come into force and to have taken effect as from the 31st day of March, 1974, being the day following the date of the general election of Members of the House of Assembly.
