The President, if present, shall preside at all meetings of the Council, and, in his absence, or if, after being present, he retires, the Deputy President shall preside, but if he is not present or after being present, retires, then one of the Councillors chosen by the Councillors then present shall preside.

Absence of Quorum.

5. If at any meeting a quorum be not present within half an hour after the time appointed for that meeting, the President, or in his absence the majority of the Councillors present, or any one Councillor, if only one be present, or the Clerk if no Councillor be present, may adjourn the meeting to any date not later than seven days from the date of adjournment.

6. If at any time during any meeting of the Council a quorum is not present the President shall thereupon suspend the proceedings of the meeting for a period of two minutes, and if a quorum be not present at the expiration of that period, the meeting shall be deemed to have been counted out, and the President shall adjourn it to some future date.

26. The Council may, by resolution moved without notice, suspend the operation of clause 25 thereof and thereupon such clause shall be suspended until such time as the Council shall, by similar resolution, otherwise decide.

Personal Explanation.

27. A Councillor making a personal explanation shall confine it to a succinct explanation of a material part of his former speech which may have been misunderstood, and to the explanation itself, and shall not advert to matters not strictly necessary for that purpose nor seek to strengthen his former argument by new matter or by replying to other Councillors.

28. The President shall forthwith call to order any Councillor committing a breach of clause 25.

No Speech After Certain Events.

29. No Councillor shall speak on any motion or amendment:—

32. A Councillor speaking in reply shall not introduce any new matter but shall strictly confine himself to answering previous speakers.

Divisions of Motions.

33. The President may, at his discretion, or the Council may, by motion without debate, order a complicated motion to be divided and put in the form of two or more motions.

Withdrawal of Motions.

34. A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the mover and it shall not be competent for any Councillor to speak upon the motion or amendment after the mover has withdrawn the motion or amendment.

Production of Documents.

35. (1) Any member may of right require the production of any of the documents of the Council relating to the question or matter under discussion.

(2) On giving to the Clerk not less than four hours' notice, a member of the Council shall be entitled to have laid on the Council table, for the duration of a meeting, any document or record of the Council, and the Clerk, on receiving that notice, shall lay the document on the Council table at the commencement of the meeting.

No Digression.

36. A Councillor shall not speak otherwise than upon, or digress from the question then before the Council, except to make a personal explanation.

No Adverse Reflection on Council.

37. A Councillor shall not reflect adversely upon a resolution of the Council, except on a motion that the resolution be rescinded.

No Adverse Reflection on Councillor.

38. A Councillor shall not reflect adversely upon the character or actions of another member nor impute any motive to a member, unless the Council resolves, without debate, that the question then before the Council cannot otherwise be adequately considered.

39. Any member may require the Clerk to take down any particular words used by a member immediately upon their being used.

Demand for Withdrawal.

40. If any Councillor commits a breach of clause 37 or 38, the President may require him unreservedly to withdraw any offending comment and to make a satisfactory apology; and, if the Councillor declines or neglects to do so, the President may direct such Councillor to cease speaking and may call on the next speaker.

Disturbance by Councillors.

41. A Councillor shall not make any noise or disturbance or, except to raise a point of order, converse aloud, while any other person is addressing the Council.

42. The President may call the attention of the Council to continued irrelevance, tedious repetition, unbecoming language, or any breach of order or decorum on the part of a Councillor and may direct that Councillor, if speaking, to discontinue his speech, and thereupon the Councillor shall cease speaking.

43. When the President is putting any question, a Councillor shall not walk out of or across the Chamber; and shall not, whilst any other Councillor is speaking, pass between the speaker and the chair.

44. The President shall preserve order, and may call any Councillor to order, whenever, in his opinion, there is cause for so doing.

45. Every Councillor shall be entitled to direct the attention of the President to any infraction of the Standing Orders by any other Councillor; or to draw the attention of the President to any matter of which the latter may take notice under clause 42.

Rulings by President.

46. The President, when deciding a point of order or practice, shall give his decision and argument or comment shall not be permitted thereon and his decision shall be final, in that particular case, unless a majority of the Councillors then present shall, upon motion made forthwith, without discussion, dissent therefrom.

47. Whenever the President has decided that any motion, amendment or other matter before the Council is out of order, it shall be rejected; and whenever anything said or done in the Council, by any Councillor, is similarly decided to be out of order, that Councillor shall be called upon by the President to make such explanation, retraction or apology, as the case may require.

48. Where a Councillor persists in any conduct which the President decides is out of order, or refuses to make any explanation, retraction or apology required by the President under clause 47, the President may direct that Councillor to refrain from taking any further part in the then meeting of the Council, other than by recording his vote; and the Councillor shall comply with such direction.

Serious Disorder.

49. (1) If at a meeting of the Council the President is of opinion that by reason of disorder or otherwise the business of the Council cannot effectually be continued, he may adjourn the meeting for a period of fifteen minutes, whereafter the Council shall re-assemble and decide whether business is to be proceeded with; and that question shall be decided forthwith and without debate.

(2) Where after any proceeding under subclause (1) of this clause, the President is again of opinion that the business of the Council cannot effectually be continued, he may close the meeting.

All Councillors to Vote.

50. At every meeting of the Council, save where the Act otherwise provides, every Councillor present shall vote, and if any Councillor who is entitled to vote fails to vote, the President shall call upon him to vote.

52. Every amendment shall be relevant to the motion on which it is moved.

53. Every amendment shall be read before being moved.

One Amendment at a Time.

54. (1) Only one amendment shall be discussed at a time, but as often as an amendment is lost, another amendment may be moved before the original motion is put to the vote, except that where an amendment is carried, one further amendment to the original motion, as amended, and no more, may be moved.

(2) In speaking to an amendment a Councillor may give notice of his intention to move a further amendment.

55. Where an amendment is carried, the original motion as amended shall for all purposes of subsequent debate and subject only to clause 54, be treated as an original motion.

(2) On a motion to adjourn, the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak other than formally to second, and the mover of the motion (if any) which was then under debate may speak for not more than five minutes, but no other debate shall be allowed.

57. Where a motion for the adjournment of the Council is negatived, no similar motion shall be moved until after the question then under discussion or the next on the notice paper or any other which may be allowed precedence shall have been disposed of.

58. (1) A Councillor who has spoken on the question then before the Council shall not move the adjournment of the Council.

(2) A Councillor shall not, at the same sitting of the Council, move or second more than one motion for the adjournment of the Council.

59. On a motion for the adjournment of the Council being carried, the debate on the question (if any) under debate when that motion was moved shall be continued immediately upon the Council resuming after the adjournment.

60. On a motion for the adjournment of the Council being carried, a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under consideration at the time of the adjournment and they shall not be permitted to speak on any subsequent consideration of the same subject, but this clause does not deprive a mover of the right to reply.

61. The President may at any time adjourn the Council to such time and date as the motion specifies, or where no time and date is specified to such time and date as he shall then declare.

“That Debate be Adjourned”.

62. (1) A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor move, without notice, that the debate be adjourned to a later hour of the same meeting or to a subsequent meeting of the Council.

(2) On a motion that the debate be adjourned, the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak other than formally to second, and no other debate shall be allowed; but if the question then before the Council is a recommendation from a Committee, the Chairman of the Committee concerned, or, in his absence, a member thereof may speak for not more than five minutes.

63. (1) A Councillor who has spoken on the question then under debate shall not move the adjournment of the debate.

(2) A Councillor shall not, at the same sitting of the Council, move or second more than one motion for the adjournment of the same debate.

64. On resuming an adjourned debate the Councillor who moved its adjournment shall be entitled to speak first.

65. On a motion for the adjournment of a debate being carried, a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under debate and they shall not be permitted to speak on any resumption of the debate on that subject, but this clause does not deprive a mover of the right to reply.

66. Where the debate on any motion, moved and seconded, is interrupted by the Council being counted out, that debate may, on motion with notice, be resumed at the next meeting, at the point where it was so interrupted.

“That Question be Put”.

67. A Councillor may, at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor, move, without notice and without comment, that the question under consideration be now put, and upon that motion being formally seconded, the same shall immediately be put, without debate.

68. A motion that the question under consideration be put shall not be moved by a Councillor who has already spoken on the question, and that motion shall not be carried without the consent of a two-thirds majority of the Councillors then present.

69. When it is decided by the Council that the question under consideration be put, the mover of the question under consideration shall, if debate has ensued and if otherwise entitled to do so, be permitted to speak in reply for not more than five minutes before the question is put, but subject thereto, the question shall at once be put.

70. Whenever it is decided by the Council that the question be put, the question to be so put includes the main question as well as any amendment thereto.

“That Council Proceed with Next Business”.

71. A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor move, without notice and without comment, that the Council do proceed with the next business and, upon that motion being formally seconded, it shall be immediately put, without debate.

72. Where the Council decides to proceed with the next business, the question which was then under discussion shall be considered as dropped.

73. During the same debate on any question, a motion that the Council do proceed with the next business shall not be moved within one hour after a similar motion has been negatived.

(2) On a motion that the Council be closed, the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak other than formally to second and the mover of the motion (if any) then under debate may speak for not more than five minutes; but no other debate shall be allowed.

75. If a motion that the meeting of the Council be closed is negatived, a similar motion shall not be moved until after the question then under discussion or the next on the motion paper or any other which may be allowed precedence has been disposed of.

76. (1) A Councillor who has spoken on the question then before the Council shall not move that the meeting be closed.

(2) A Councillor shall not at the same meeting of the Council move or second more than one motion that the meeting be closed.

77. On a motion that the meeting be closed being carried, the debate on the question (if any) under debate when that motion was moved shall stand adjourned to its place on the notice paper for the next meeting of the Council.

78. On a motion that the meeting be closed being carried, a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under consideration up to the closing of the meeting and they shall not be permitted to speak on any subsequent consideration of the same subject; but this clause does not deprive a mover of the right to reply.

Suspension of Standing Orders.

83. In cases of urgent necessity, any Standing Order of the Council may be suspended on motion duly made and seconded, but that motion shall not be declared carried, unless an absolute majority of the Council, or a two thirds majority of those present and voting on the question, whichever is the lesser number, have voted in favour of the motion.

84. Any Councillor moving the suspension of a Standing Order shall state the object of the motion, but discussion shall not otherwise take place thereon.

Method of Taking Vote.

85. The President shall, in taking the vote on any motion or amendment, put the question, first in the affirmative and then in the negative, and he may do so as often as is necessary to enable him to form and declare his opinion as to whether the affirmative or the negative has the majority on the votes or by a show of hands.

86. (1) The Council shall vote on the voices, or by a show of hands as may, in each case, be directed by the President, but any Councillor may call for a division on any question.

(2) Upon a division being called for, the President may, if he thinks fit, order that the division bell be rung, and after the lapse of one half of a minute from the bell ceasing to ring a Councillor shall not be permitted to enter or leave the chamber, until after the division has been taken.

Director.

Schedule.

STATUTE No. 13—ELECTION OF STAFF AND STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES
TO THE BOARD OF A BRANCH OF THE INSTITUTE.

1. This Statute applies to elections of members of staff and students to the Board of a Branch of the Institute pursuant to paragraphs (e), (f) and (g) of section 21C of the Western Australian Institute of Technology Act.

2. In this Statute unless the contrary intention appears—

“Board” means the Board of a branch of the Institute;

“Branch” means a branch of the Institute established pursuant to section 21A of the Act;

“academic staff” means those members of the staff of the Institute who have been appointed to the full time academic staff of a Branch of the Institute;

“other staff” means those members of the full time salaried staff of a Branch of the Institute other than the academic staff;

“enrolled student” means an enrolled student of a Branch of the Institute;

“candidate” means a member of the academic staff or a member of the other staff or an enrolled student, nominated for election to the Board in the manner prescribed for that purpose;

“elector” means a member of the academic staff or the other staff or the enrolled students as appropriate.

3. Separate rolls shall be kept of the names and mailing addresses of—

(1) the academic staff;

(2) the other staff;

(3) the enrolled students.

For each election the certified roll of persons eligible to vote at that election shall be the roll as at 4.00 p.m. on the day on which nominations for that election close, provided that up to 5.00 p.m. on the day prior to the day appointed for the election, the Returning Officer may add to the roll the name of any person otherwise qualified to vote whose name has been inadvertently omitted from the roll.

4. Any member of the academic staff, the other staff and the enrolled students of the Branch is eligible to—

(a) nominate a candidate;

(b) be nominated as a candidate;

(c) vote;

in respect of elections to the appropriate category of Board membership.

5. The Returning Officer for elections is the Secretary to the Board.

6. The Returning Officer shall send to each elector notice of an election not more than ten (10) weeks and not less than six (6) weeks before the expiry of the term of office of an elected member and shall include in the notice the conditions of nomination pursuant to section 7.

7. (1) Nominations shall be in writing, signed by the proposer and the nominee and dated and lodged with the Returning Officer by the date specified for the close of nominations.

(2) A proposer shall not nominate a number of nominees greater than the number of vacancies to be filled.

(3) Nominations shall remain open for a period of at least seven (7) days.

8. If the number of candidates does not exceed the number of vacancies the Returning Officer shall declare each candidate elected in the manner provided in section 18.

9. If the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies the election shall be by ballot.

10. Elections shall be held not less than seven (7) days and not more than twenty-one (21) days after the closing date for nominations.

11. Where a ballot is required, the Returning Officer shall not later than seven (7) days after the last day for receiving nominations, send to each elector—

(1) A voting paper, containing the names of the candidates in an order determined by lot and an envelope marked "Voting Paper".

(2) Notice of the day appointed for the election.

(3) An identification declaration.

(4) Notice of the place where voting papers may be lodged and a return envelope.

12. Envelopes containing the declaration and envelope marked "Voting Paper" shall be opened from time to time as decided by the Returning Officer, and if there is any doubt as to the correctness of the declaration, the decision of the Returning Officer as to the acceptability of it and the voting paper shall be final.

13. The voter's name appearing on the declaration shall be checked against the certified roll of persons eligible to vote at the election and, if in order, its receipt shall be indicated against the name on the roll and the envelope which is marked "Voting Paper" removed from the envelope and placed unopened in the Ballot Box set aside for this purpose.

14. The ballot closes at 2.00 p.m. on the day appointed for the election.

15. Each candidate may appoint one scrutineer from the electors by notification in writing addressed to the Returning Officer.

16. An election shall not be invalidated by inadvertent failure to give any person qualified to vote any notice required by this Statute.

17. The system of voting to be used shall be the optional preferential system and shall be conducted as follows—

(1) Ballot papers shall be marked by placing the numeral 1 beside the name of the candidate for whom the voter wishes to vote. If a voter wishes to express a second or any subsequent preference he shall place the numeral 1 beside the candidate of his first preference and the numerals 2, 3, 4 and so on in numerical order beside the name or names of any candidate or candidates for whom he wishes to express a second or any subsequent preference. In an election to fill two or more vacancies, a voter shall express a preference for at least the same number of candidates as there are vacancies to be filled, but subject thereto, a ballot paper shall not be invalid merely because the voter has not expressed a preference for all of the candidates.

(2) As soon as practicable after the close of the ballot the Returning Officer shall, with the assistance of such other officers as he may appoint, scrutinise the ballot papers and eliminate any invalid votes. He shall then count and record the number of votes (other than second or subsequent preferences) expressed for each candidate.

(3) In the case of an election at which only one vacancy is to be filled, the Returning Officer shall declare elected the candidate (if any) who has an absolute majority of votes. If no candidate has an absolute majority on the first count, the Returning Officer shall eliminate the candidate with the lowest number of votes and shall distribute these votes amongst the remaining candidates according to the next preferences (if any) expressed on the ballot paper.

This procedure shall be repeated until one candidate has an absolute majority whereupon that candidate shall be declared elected.

(4) In the case of an election at which two or more vacancies are to be filled, the candidates receiving the lowest number of votes shall be progressively eliminated and their next available preference distributed until there remain only such number of candidates as there are vacancies to be filled.

18. Within the period of two days after the result of an election is known, the Returning Officer shall declare each successful candidate elected by giving notice to that effect in writing to the Chairman of the Board and the Secretary to the Council and posting a copy of the notice on the notice board outside the main entrance to the Board Administration building.

The Common Seal of the Western Australian Institute of Technology was hereto affixed on the 22nd day of November, 1982 by the authority of the Council—
