BUSH FIRES ACT 1954-1981.

Suspension of Section 25.

Bush Fires Board,
Perth, 23 December 1983.

Corres. No. 124.

IT is hereby notified that the Hon. Minister administering the Bush Fires Act 1954-1981, has approved, pursuant to the powers contained in section 25B of the said Act, the suspension of the operations of section 25 that related to a fire to be lit, or which is lit, for the purpose of destroying garden refuse or rubbish or any like purpose during the declared Prohibited and Restricted Burning Times on land set aside for the purpose in the Municipal district of the Shire of Esperance. This notice shall have effect until revoked and is issued subject to the following specified conditions.

Specified Conditions.

1. This suspension applies only to fires lit and maintained by employees of the Esperance Shire Council. Fires may only be lit for the purpose of disposing of rubbish and refuse and may only be lit in the pit situated on the indicated lot being Reserve No. 3437.

2. All inflammable material, save live standing trees, to be cleared from inside the designated tip area.

3. The existing 2 metre high wire fence to be maintained in a sound condition.

4. Standing dry fuel for a minimum distance of 20 metres immediately outside the perimeter of the dump be slashed down or otherwise maintained in a low fuel condition, where an agreement has been reached with abutting private land holders.

5. A sign to be erected and maintained at the entrance to the tip, warning that the unauthorised lighting of fires is prohibited and offenders will be prosecuted.

6. A Shire fire fighting unit to be on site before any fire is lit and to remain during the entire period of burning.

7. Not less than two men to be constantly in attendance at the fire whilst burning is being carried out.

8. Fires are only to be lit between the hours of 07 00 and 12 00; Monday to Friday inclusive.

9. Rubbish burnt and unburnt to be pushed up regularly and covered with earth.

10. The Shire Engineer, the Fire Control Officer for the Urban Rural Brigade and adjoining land holders to be advised prior to any burning being lit.

11. No fires to be lit on the land subject to this suspension on a day for which the fire danger forecast, issued by the Bureau of Meteorology in Perth in respect to the locality is "extreme" or "very high".

J. A. W. ROBLEY,
Director.

CORRIGENDUM.

BUSH FIRES ACT 1954-1981.

Bush Fires Board,
Perth, 15 December 1983.

Corres. 170.

IN the notice published on page 4748 of the Government Gazette No. 93, dated 2 December 1983, under the heading "Suspension of section 25", Specified Conditions No. 6 in line 2 "TYPE" should read "TIP".

J. A. W. ROBLEY,
Director.

TOWN PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT ACT 1928 (AS AMENDED).

Resolution Deciding to Prepare a Town Planning Scheme.

Shire of Carnamah Town Planning Scheme No. 1.

Lands wholly within the District of the Shire of Carnamah.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Carnamah Shire Council, on 20 April 1983, passed the following Resolution:—

That the Council in pursuance of section 7 of the Town Planning and Development Act 1928 (as amended) prepare Town Planning Scheme No. 1 with reference to the whole of the Municipality of the Shire of Carnamah.

Dated this 15th day of December, 1983.

R. S. DUTCH,
Shire Clerk.

METROPOLITAN REGION TOWN PLANNING SCHEME ACT 1959-1982.

Metropolitan Region Scheme.

Notice of Amendment.

Cockburn Technical College.

Amendment No. 491/33A; File No. 833-2-23-16.

1. In accordance with the provisions of section 33A of the Metropolitan Region Town Planning Scheme Act, 1959-1982, The Metropolitan Region Planning Authority on 25 May 1983 resolved to amend the Metropolitan Region Scheme as referred to in the First Schedule hereto.

2. Copies of the map that forms part of the Metropolitan Region Scheme which is being amended are available for public inspection free of charge, during ordinary business hours except on public holidays, at the places mentioned in the Second Schedule hereto.

3. Please note that any person who feels aggrieved by the Amendment may appeal against the Amendment to the Minister for Planning in the prescribed manner. Forms of Notice of Appeal are available at the places of public inspection.

4. The Notice of Appeal together with full particulars, in the form of a written submission of the grounds upon which the appeal is made, shall be lodged with the Minister for Planning and a copy served on The Metropolitan Region Planning Authority, 22 St. George's Terrace, Perth, on or before Friday, 2 March 1984.

A. L. HENDRY,
Secretary,
Metropolitan Region Planning Authority.

First Schedule.

Metropolitan Region Scheme Map Sheet Number 23 is amended by substituting the zones and reservations shown on Amending Map Sheet Number 23/6m for those parts of Map Sheet Number 23.

The purpose of the Amendment is to delete the site of the proposed Cockburn Technical College in Rockingham Road, Spearwood, by transferring the land from the Public Purposes (Technical School) reservation to the Urban Zone.

The Amendment is depicted on Metropolitan Region Planning Authority Plan Number 4.0688.

Second Schedule.

The accounts of the Shire of Port Hedland have been audited for the financial year ended 30 June 1983. The accounts have been found to be in order and properly kept in accordance with the provisions of the Local Government Act 1960-1983 and have been allowed subject to the comments contained in this report.

Books valued at $22 200 recorded as on hand at 30 June 1983 had in fact been sold prior to that date. To this extent the Balance Sheet item Stock on Hand—Books and the Municipal Accumulation Surplus have been overstated.

In my opinion, in all other matters the Balance Sheet and the related financial statements for the year ended 30 June 1983 have been prepared on a basis consistent with the Local Government Act Accounting Directions and present a true and fair view of the affairs of the Shire.

The accounts of the Shire of Shark Bay have been audited for the financial year ended 30 June 1983. The accounts have been found to be in order and properly kept in accordance with the provisions of the Local Government Act 1960-1983 and have been allowed subject to the comment contained in this report.

During the year, the Council transferred amounts from the Municipal Fund to Reserve Funds as follows:

Long Service, Recreation and Sick Leave Reserve—$45 535.
Tourist Building and Recreation Reserve—$118 855.

The amounts transferred were in excess of those provided in the 1982-1983 budget $25 000 and $28 000 respectively. This is contrary to Local Government Act 1960-1983 Accounting Direction 31.

In my opinion, in all other matters, the Balance Sheet and related financial statements for the year ended 30 June 1983 have been prepared on a basis consistent with the Local Government Act 1960-1983 Accounting Directions and present a true and fair view of the affairs of the Shire.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT 1960-1983.

City of Perth.

By-law No. 73—Verandahs Over Streets.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon it by the abovementioned Act and of all other powers enabling it the Council of the abovementioned Municipality hereby records having resolved on 18 July 1983 to make and submit for confirmation by His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor and Administrator the following amendment to by-law No. 73:

1. That Clause 12 be deleted and the following substituted therefor:

" 12. (1) The owner and occupier for the time being of any building to which any verandah is attached:

(a) Shall keep and maintain the verandah:

(i) Clean, well painted and water-tight; and

(ii) In a sound and safe structural condition and in good and substantial repair.

(b) Shall replace and reinstate any part of the verandah which is damaged, defective, worn or rusted.

(2) Where the Council has reason to suspect that any verandah is not in a sound and safe structural condition or in good and substantial repair, the Council may by notice in writing require the owner or occupier of any building to which that verandah is attached to provide to the Council within 30 days of service of the notice, a report of a practising structural engineer or an architect which certifies that the verandah is in a safe structural condition or specifies the work necessary to render the verandah safe.

(3) Where the Council has reason to suspect, as a result of a report provided under sub-clause (2) of this clause or otherwise, that:

(a) Any verandah is not kept or maintained; or

(b) Any part of a verandah is not replaced or reinstated,

in accordance with this clause, the council may by notice in writing require the owner or occupier of the building to which the verandah is attached:

(i) To clean, paint or repair the verandah;

(ii) To replace or reinstate any part of the verandah; or

(iii) To take the verandah down,

as the case requires, in accordance with the requirements of the notice and within the time specified therein.

(4) A person who fails to comply with any provision of this clause or with any requirements of a notice given pursuant to this clause commits an offence. "

2. That a new clause 16 be inserted after clause 15 as follows:

" 16. Any person who commits an offence against this by-law shall be liable to:

(a) A maximum penalty of two hundred dollars ($200);

(b) A maximum daily penalty during the breach of twenty dollars ($20) per day. "

Dated this 21st day of September, 1983.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT 1960-1983.

City of South Perth.

By-law No. 1.

Public Reserves.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon it by the abovementioned Act and of all other powers enabling it the Council of the abovementioned Municipality, hereby records having resolved on 28 September 1983 to make and submit for confirmation to His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor and Administrator, the following by-law:

Previous by-law.

1. The by-law relating to Beaches, Reserves, Bathing and Camping, published in the Government Gazette on 22 January 1926 is hereby repealed.

Definitions.

2. In this by-law unless the context requires otherwise:

"building" means any permanent or temporary structure including tents, marquees and stalls;

"Council" means the Council of the City of South Perth;

"caravan" means any vehicle adapted or designed for camping or capable of being used for a dwelling or for sleeping purposes whether wheels are attached to the vehicle or not;

"function" means a carnival, show, fete, concert, exhibition, gymkhana, sporting event, a training or practice session in connection with a sport by a group or team of 15 or more persons, or a picnic for a gathering of more than 20 persons;

"public reserve" means any parkland, square, reserve, beach or other place within the City of South Perth and set apart for the use and enjoyment of the inhabitants of the municipal district of the City of South Perth and includes parks and other lands acquired for public purposes, and vested in or under the care, control or management of the City of South Perth but which expression does not include land:

(a) reserved for the purposes of a road under the Land Act 1933; or

(b) acquired for the purposes of a road;

"the Act" means the Local Government Act 1960, as amended from time to time;

3. In a public reserve a person shall not:—

(a) remove the bark from any tree;

(b) climb any tree;

(c) damage, destroy, interfere with or remove any water pipe, tap, hose, hose fitting, sprinkler, irrigator, watering device, valve, pump, motor, controller or switchboard;

(d) damage, destroy, interfere with, deface or remove any garden furniture, playground equipment, goal post, goal net, flood lighting equipment, tree guard or stake, building, fence, gate, fountain or rubbish receptacle;

(e) unlock or unfasten any gate or door unless authorised by the Town Clerk to do so;

(f) climb upon any wall, building or tree guard or over, under or through any fence or gate designed or installed for the purpose of prohibiting or restricting the entry of persons or vehicles;

(g) ride a horse over ground prepared for a playing field or over an established garden;

(h) throw or release any stone, arrow, or other missile, whether of the same kind or not, except in the course of a function being lawfully held on the reserve;

(i) behave in a disorderly manner or create or take part in any disturbance or use any foul or indecent language or commit any act of indecency;

(j) cause any nuisance to any person on or in the vicinity of the reserve;

(k) enter or remain in any portion of a building, dressing shed or dressing enclosure, shower room, toilet or public convenience set aside for use by persons of the opposite sex;

(l) interfere with the conduct of any function being held thereon and for which function a licence has been issued by the Council;

(m) bathe, swim or wade in any sump, drain, fountain, pond or lake;

(n) bet, gamble or call the odds or offer to bet or gamble;

(o) play or practise the game of golf except in areas set aside by the Council for that purpose;

(p) use or operate any siren, starting gun or other device which causes a loud noise in such a manner as to cause a nuisance or annoyance to any person on or in the vicinity of the reserve;

(q) use or operate any musical instrument, radio or loud speaker in such a manner as to create excessive noise or as to cause a nuisance or annoyance to any person on or in the vicinity of the reserve.

4. Unless the Council has given him permission to do so, in a public reserve a person shall not:

(a) disturb, dig up or remove any sand, soil, gravel or stone;

(b) pick, cut, damage, injure, or destroy any lawn, plant, turf, flower, seed, berry or fruit;

(c) prune or lop any tree;

(d) plant any tree or plant;

(e) catch, snare, take, injure or destroy any bird or animal;

(f) light a fire except in a fireplace provided for the purpose;

(g) erect, place, alter or relocate any building, fence, gate, garden furniture, playground equipment, goal post, goal net or flood lighting equipment;

(h) erect or place any sign, signboard, hoarding, notice or placard, or stamp, stencil, affix an advertisement or notice;

(i) use or install a loud speaker, amplifier or amplified musical instrument;

(j) train or exercise any horse or other animal;

(k) fly mechanically operated model aeroplanes;

(l) organise, conduct or address a gathering or meeting of persons;

(m) organise or take part in a procession or demonstration;

(n) carry a placard or notice;

(o) sell, dispense or consume alcoholic liquor;

(p) charge any person for entry thereto or charge any person for attendance at any function thereon;

(q) add any dye or chemical to the water of any sump, drain, fountain, pond or lake;

(r) park a caravan;

(s) camp, lodge or tarry overnight or frequent for the purpose of camping, lodging or tarrying overnight;

(t) use a building thereon as a dwelling or for sleeping purposes;

(u) carry onto, have, fire or set off any firearm, explosive device or fireworks.

5. (a) In a public reserve a person shall not:

(i) sell or expose for sale goods, wares, merchandise or things of any kind; or

(ii) hire or offer to hire any vehicle, bicycle, boat, canoe, yacht, kite or model aeroplane or other item of equipment for sports, entertainment or amusement unless he holds a current licence issued by the Council in the form contained in the First Schedule to this By-law.

(b) Every application for a licence under this clause shall be in writing and shall specify:

(i) the name, address and occupation of the applicant who seeks the issue of a licence;

(ii) the reserve and the place on the reserve at or from which the applicant proposes to conduct his activities;

(iii) details of the activities the applicant proposes to conduct;

(iv) the day or days on which and the times during which the applicant proposes to conduct his activities.

(c) The Council may at its discretion issue or refuse to issue a licence under this clause or issue a licence subject to such conditions as it thinks fit.

(d) Where a licence has been issued by the Council under this clause subject to conditions the person to whom the licence has been issued shall ensure that those conditions are observed at all times. If any such condition is not observed that person shall be guilty of an offence against this by-law and the Council may by written notice cancel the licence.

Functions.

6. (a) In a public reserve a person shall not conduct or assist in the conduct of or take part in any function unless a current licence for the conduct of that function has been issued by the Council in the form contained in the Second Schedule to this by-law.

(b) Every application for a licence under this clause shall be in writing and shall specify:

(i) the name, address and occupation of the person proposing to conduct the function;

(ii) the reserve and the place on the reserve at which the applicant proposes to conduct the function;

(iii) details of the function proposed to be conducted;

(iv) the day or days on which and the times during which the applicant proposes to conduct the function.

(c) The Council may, at its discretion, issue or refuse to issue a licence under this clause, or issue a licence subject to such conditions as it thinks fit.

(d) Where a licence has been issued by the Council under this clause subject to conditions, the person to whom the licence has been issued shall ensure that those conditions are observed at all times. If any such condition is not observed that person shall be guilty of an offence against this by-law and the Council may by written notice cancel the licence.

(e) A person to whom a licence has been issued under this clause shall ensure that persons under the influence of alcohol or acting in a disorderly manner are excluded from attendance at the function.

Vehicles.

7. (a) In any public reserve a person shall not drive or ride a motorised vehicle on any path or cycleway or area set aside for use by pedestrians or push cycles or otherwise than on those parts of the reserve set aside as roads, driveways, or vehicle parking areas.

(b) In any public reserve unless with the prior permission of the Council, a person shall not park or stand any vehicle except on those parts of the reserve set aside as roads, driveways or vehicle parking areas.

(c) The form of notice prescribed by this by-law for service under section 669C (2) of the Act in respect of an offence against this clause is Form 1 contained in the Third Schedule to this by-law.

(d) Subject to subclause (e) of this clause, the form of notice prescribed by this by-law for service under section 669D (1) of the Act in respect of an offence against this clause is Form 2 contained in the Third Schedule to this by-law.

(e) An infringement notice served under subsection (2) of section 669D of the Act in respect of an offence against this clause shall be in and to the effect of Form 3 in the Third Schedule to this by-law.

(f) The form of notice prescribed by this by-law for service under section 669D (5) of the Act withdrawing an infringement notice served under that Section in respect of an offence against this clause is Form 4 contained in the Third Schedule to this by-law.

Special Reserves.

8. The provisions of this by-law do not apply to Reserve No. 10250 (Royal Perth Golf Club).

Administration.

9. Nothing in this by-law shall be construed so as to inhibit or preclude an employee, contractor or agent of the Council carrying out his normal and lawful duties.

10. (a) The Council may in writing under the hand of the Town Clerk appoint an officer or officers to carry out the powers and duties conferred by this by-law, including authorisation to serve notices under sections 669C and 669D of the Act.

(b) Any officer appointed under this clause shall, on demand, show an identification card and his certificate of appointment.

11. A person shall not hinder or interfere with an officer appointed under clause 10 of this by-law in the course of that officer's duties.

12. (a) The Council may delegate to the Town Clerk authority to grant permission with respect to any of the matters mentioned in Clause 4 of this by-law.

(b) The Council may delegate to the Town Clerk authority to issue function licences in accordance with the provisions of Clause 6 of this by-law and such delegation may be either for a specific function or generally for a type or series of functions.

Penalties.

13. Any person who commits an offence against this by-law shall be liable to:

(a) a maximum penalty of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00);

(b) a maximum daily penalty during the breach of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) per day.

14. The modified penalty for an offence against Clause 7 of this by-law if dealt with under section 669D of the Act is Ten Dollars ($10.00).

PART VIII—Miscellaneous, Clauses 230 to 239.

PART II—Meetings of the Council.

4. Ordinary Meetings of the Council shall be held at such time as the Council may from time to time determine, provided that at least one ordinary meeting shall be held in each calendar month.

Meeting Day and Time.

5. The Council shall resolve the days and times each month when Council Meetings shall be held at the first meeting held after the annual election.

6. No alteration to the days or times of Council Meetings other than a temporary alteration to remain in force for not more than one month shall be made unless at least two months' notice of the motion to alter such days or times shall be given and such alteration shall be agreed to by an absolute majority of the Council.

Notice of Meetings.

7. Notice of all meetings of the Council shall be given to members of the Council as follows:—

7:1 Council Meetings other than those convened under section 172 (2) or section 172 (3) of the Act. The Notice shall be in writing and shall be signed by or on behalf of the Clerk and shall state the place, date and hour of holding the meeting and shall state the business to be transacted. The notice shall be served on each of the members of the Council at least forty-eight (48) hours before the time of commencement of the meeting.

7:2 Special Meetings convened under section 172 (2) of the Act. The provisions of the preceding subclause shall apply except that the notice shall be signed either by the President or the Clerk.

7:3 Special Meeting convened under section 172 (3) of the Act. The notice shall be in writing and shall be signed by three Councillors calling the meeting and shall state the place, date and hour of holding the meeting and shall state the business transacted. The notice shall be served on each of the other members of the Council at the times and in manner specified in section 172 (3) of the Act.

8. A notice of a meeting shall be served on each member of the Council—

8:1 by delivering it to him personally; or

8:2 by delivering it to his address as shown in the Rate Book of the Council; or

8:3 by sending it to him by post at his address as shown in the Rate Book and a notice sent by post shall be deemed to have been served at the time when in the ordinary course of post it would have reached the address to which it was sent.

9. Notwithstanding the requirement in any preceding clause that the notice convening a Special Meeting of Council be in writing, such notice may be given by telephone in the following circumstances:—

9:1 The notice under section 172 (2) of the Act convening a Special Meeting and specifying the time of the meeting and the object of the meeting may be given in a person-to-person telephone call to each of the Councillors before holding the meeting.

9:2 The notice under section 172 (3) of the Act convening a Special Meeting and specifying the time of the meeting and the object of the meeting may be given in a person-to-person telephone call to the President and each of the other Councillors at least 7 days before the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting provided that a notice in writing in the form prescribed by section 172 (3) signed by at least 3 Councillors shall first have been delivered to the Clerk.

Notice of Adjourned Meeting.

10. When a meeting of the Council is adjourned to a day and hour other than the next Odinary Meeting of the Council notice of the adjourned meeting shall, if time permits, be sent in the manner provided by clause 7 of this by-law, to each Member of the Council, specifying the nature of the business to be transacted.

Failure to Receive Notice not to Invalidate Proceedings.

11. Failure to receive a notice on the part of any member of the Council shall not affect the validity of any ordinary or special meeting of the Council so long as all reasonable steps have been taken to serve such notice.

President to Preside.

12. The President, if present, shall preside at all meetings of the Council and in his absence, or if after being present he retires, the Deputy President shall preside but if he is not present, or after being present reitres, then one of the Councillors chosen by the Councillors then present shall preside.

Quorum.

13. Except in cases where section 173 (4) of the Act applies the number of Members of the Council necessary to form a quorum—

13:1 where the total number of Members of the Council is an even number, is one half of that total; or

13:2 where the total number of Members of the Council is an odd number, is the integer nearest to but greater than one half of that total.

14. Subject to Clause 12, every meeting shall proceed to business so soon after the time stated in the summons as a quorum is constituted.

Quorum must be Present.

15. The Council shall not transact business at a meeting unless a quorum is present.

Absence of Quorum.

16. If at the expiration of half an hour from the time fixed for the commencement of a meeting of the Council a quorum is not present, the President, or in his absence the Deputy President, or in his absence the majority of Councillors present, or any Councillor present alone, or in the absence of the President and all Councillors, the Clerk, may adjourn the meeting to any date not later than seven days from the date of the adjournment; and business which could have been transacted had there been a quorum at the meeting may be transacted at the resumption of the adjourned meeting.

Meeting Counted Out.

17. If at any time during any meeting of the Council a quorum is not present the President shall thereupon suspend the proceedings of the meeting for a period of five minutes, and if a quorum be not present at the expiration of the period, the meeting shall be deemed to have been counted out, and the President shall adjourn it to some future date.

Debate may be Resumed on Motion.

18. Where the debate on any motion, moved and seconded, is interrupted by the Council being counted out, that debate may, on a motion without notice be resumed at the next meeting at the point where it was so interrupted.

Names Recorded.

19. At any meeting at which there is not a quorum of members present, or at which the Council is counted out for want of a quorum, the names of the members then present shall be recorded in the Minute Book.

Distinguished Visitors.

20. If a distinguished visitor is present at a meeting of the Council, the President may invite him to sit beside the President, or at the Council Table.

Reporters.

21. Accredited newspaper reporters shall be permitted to attend at meetings of the Council, in such part of the Council Chambers as may be appropriated for their accommodation, but they shall withdraw during any period when the Council is sitting behind closed doors.

Kinds of Meetings.

22. Meetings of the Council shall be of two kinds, "Ordinary" and "Special". Ordinary meetings are those called at such place and at such times as Council, from time to time, appoints for the transaction of the ordinary business of the Council. Special meetings are those called to consider special business, the nature of which shall be notified in the notice concerning the meeting. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting other than that for which the special meeting has been called.

Disturbance by Strangers.

23. A person not being a Member shall not at any meeting of the Council interrupt the proceedings of the Council.

24. Any person interrupting the proceedings of the Council shall, when so directed by the President, forthwith leave the Council Chambers.

25. Any person who being ordered to leave the Council Chambers fails to do so may, by order of the President, be removed from the Council Chambers.

PART III—Business at Meetings.

Division 1—Order of Business.

26. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Council other than that specified in the notice relating thereto except:—

26:1 Matters which the Act permits to be dealt with without notice.

26:2 Matters which these by-laws permit to be dealt with without notice.

27. The order of business at an Ordinary meeting of the Council shall, unless for the greater convenience of the Council is altered by resolution to that effect be as nearly as practicable as follows, that is to say:—

27:1 Attendances and Apologies.

27:2 Confirmation of Minutes of the last ordinary meeting and all meetings of the Council held since that meeting.

27:3 Report of discussions between the Council or a Committee of the Council and Government Departments, Public Bodies, Instrumentalities or Representatives of some other duly constituted organisation.

27:4 Announcements by the President without discussion.

27:5 Questions of which due notice has been given, without discussion.

27:6 Questions of which notice has not been given, without discussion.

27:7 Petitions, Memorials and Deputations.

27:8 Reports of Committees.

27:9 Reports of Officers.

27:10 Motions of which previous notice has been given.

27:11 Notice of Motions for consideration at the following meeting if given during the meeting.

27:12 Motions without Notice.

Order of Business at Special Meeting.

28. The order of business at any Special Meeting of the Council shall be the order in which that business stands in the notice of the meeting.

Business at Adjourned Meeting.

29. At an adjourned meeting of the Council no business shall be transacted other than such as shall have been specified on the notice of the meeting of which it is an adjournment, and which remains undisposed of, save and except in the case of an adjournment to the next Ordinary Meeting of the Council when the business undisposed of at the adjourned meeting shall have the precedence at such Ordinary Meeting of the Council.

Objectionable Business.

30. If the President at any meeting of the Council shall be of the opinion that any motion or business proposed to be made or transacted thereat is of an objectionable character, it shall be competent for him either before or after the same is brought forward to declare that the same shall not be entertained. Provided always that it shall be competent for any member of the Council to move dissent from the declaration made from the Chair, whereupon the motion to dissent shall be forthwith put without debate, and in the event of the same being carried by a majority of the members present the business referred to shall thereupon be entertained but not otherwise.

Urgent Business.

31. If any member has urgent business to place before the meeting he may move the suspension of Standing Orders, and if agreed to by the Council, such business shall take precedence over all other.

Division 2—Minutes.

Confirmation of Minutes.

32. The minutes of any preceding meeting, whether ordinary or special, not previously confirmed shall be submitted as the first business at all ordinary meetings of the Council and no discussion thereon shall be permitted except as to their accuracy as a record of the proceedings and the said minutes shall then if found to be correct be signed by the President and he shall sign and date each page.

Minute Book.

33. The pasting or otherwise permanently affixing the minutes to the leaves of a book shall be sufficient recording of the minutes in the Minute Book.

Reading of Minutes may be Dispensed with.

34. The reading at the next Ordinary Meeting of the Council of the minutes of a previous meeting may be dispensed with when Members have been supplied with copies of the minutes at least three days before the holding of the next Ordinary Meeting of the Council.

Division 3—Questions.

Definition "Questions".

35. In Clauses 36-40 inclusive hereon the expression "question" means a request for information or an enquiry.

Questions with Notice.

36. A Member desirous of putting a question as to the work or procedure of the Council shall give notice thereof in writing to the Clerk at least eight ordinary office hours before the hour fixed for the commencement of the meeting. If such question is in order, the answer shall, as far as practicable, be read at the next meeting of the Council.

Questions and Answers to be Brief.

37. Every question and answer shall be submitted as briefly and concisely as possible, and no discussion shall be allowed thereon.

Questions Without Notice.

38. A question requesting general information from an Officer present at the meeting may be asked without notice but the Officer shall have the right to ask that—

38:1 the question be placed on notice for the next meeting of the Council; or

38:2 the answer to the question be given to the Councillor who asked it prior to the next Ordinary Meeting of the Council. Provided that if the answer to the question without notice cannot be given at the meeting at which it is asked the Councillor asking the question may request that the answer be given to the appropriate Committee and the President may if he thinks fit so direct.

Questions not to Involve Argument or Opinion.

39. In submitting any question, no argument or expression of opinion shall be used or offered, nor any facts stated except so far as may be necessary to explain such question.

No Discussion on Questions.

40. No discussion or further questions shall be allowed on any question or the answer thereto, unless with the consent of the President.

Division 4—Reports of Committees.

Report to Council.

41. Each Standing Committee shall cause to be prepared—

41:1 A Report of recommendations with suitable explanatory preamble for submission to the next Ordinary Meeting of the Council.

41:2 Minutes of all its proceedings and transactions which shall be entered in a Minute Book. The minutes of each meeting shall be confirmed at the following meeting and signed by the Chairman thereof.

Items to be Numbered.

42. The reports of every Committee shall be divided into items which shall be numbered consecutively.

Reports to be Distributed.

43. All reports of Committees to be presented at any meeting of the Council shall be sent or otherwise delivered to each Member of the Council at least 48 hours before the scheduled commencement time of the meeting at which they will be presented.

Recommendations may be Questioned.

44. During the consideration by the Council of a recommendation of a Committee a Councillor may through the President question the Chairman or any member of the Committee upon any matter arising directly out of or having relevance to the recommendation.

Amendment of Recommendations.

45. A recommendaton made by or contained in a report of a Committee may be adopted by the Council without amendment or modification failing which it may be—

45:1 rejected by the Council in its entirety;

45:2 subject to Clause 46 hereof amended or modified and adopted with such amendments or modifications; or 45:3 referred back to the Committee for further consideration in accordance with Clause 182 hereof.

46. Where in the opinion of the President an amendment of modification of a recommendation alters the substance or effect of the recommendation the President shall require a new motion to be put forward prefaced by the words . . . "I move that the Committee Recommendation be rejected and that . . ." but such a motion shall require to be carried by an absolute majority of the Council.

Recommendations become Resolutions.

47. If the Council adopts a recommendation contained in the report of a Committee either with or without amendment or modification the recommendation so adopted shall be deemed to be a resolution of the Council.

Division 5—Motions Without Notice.

Actions on Motions Without Notice.

48. A motion moved without notice under Order of Business, Clause 27, Item 12, shall be worded so as to refer to a particular matter for investigation and report by a Committee to Council except—

48:1 where the President is satisfied that the urgency of the matter is such as to warrant immediate decision by Council; or 48:2 where the President is satisfied that in the circumstances it would be more appropriate to refer the matter for investigation and report.

Division 6—Notices of Motion.

Notices of Motion to be in Writing.

49. Unless the Act or these by-laws otherwise provide a Councillor may only bring forward business at an Ordinary Meeting in the form of a motion of which notice has been given in writing to the Clerk.

50. Notice of motion shall be given either—

50:1 at a Council meeting with the intention that it be brought forward at the next Ordinary Meeting, or 50:2 otherwise at least 7 clear days before the meeting at which it is to be brought forward.

Subject of Notice of Motion.

51. A notice of motion shall relate only to some question or issue affecting the constitution, administration, condition or interests of the Municipality or the Council within the scope of their statutory functions and powers, and the President shall rule out of order any motion which does not comply with this clause.

Exclusion or Amendment of Notices.

52. The Clerk, with the concurrence of the President, may exclude from the agenda of the meeting of the Council any notice of motion which he considers to be out of order, or in the case of defects in form only he may on his own initiative make such clerical or verbal alterations or amendments to the notice of motion as will bring it into due form. No notice of motion shall be invalid by reason only of the fact that it involves a policy which is considered objectionable, or by reason that it relates to a matter not within the scope of the ordinary work of the Council, so long as in the opinion of the President such matter is one of public interest, utility or importance and is within the scope of the statutory functions and powers of the Municipality or the Council.

Motion to Lapse.

53. Every such motion as is mentioned in Clause 51 shall lapse unless—

53:1 the Member who gave notice thereof, or some other member authorised by him in writing, is present to move the motion when called on; or 53:2 the Council on a motion agrees to defer consideration of the motion to a later stage or date.

Amendments to Notice of Motion.

54. Where notice of an amendment to a notice of motion shall be received by the Clerk at least four days before the meeting at which such motion is to be brought forward the notice of amendment shall be entered on the business paper immediately after such notice of motion.

Notices of Motion subject to Amendment.

55. A motion on notice shall be subject to amendment as provided in Part IV Division 7.

Division 7—Deputations and Petitions.

Detailed Memorial Required.

56. Deputations wishing to be received by the Council shall be requested in the first instance to send to the Clerk a memorial in writing and the Clerk shall bring the memorial to the President if the deputation wishes to wait upon the full Council or to the Chairman of the Committee concerned if the deputation wishes to wait upon a particular Committee of the Council. The President or the Chairman concerned shall have the sole discretion to decide whether or not the deputation shall be received.

57. Notwithstanding the provisions of Clause 56, the Chairman of a Committee may invite or allow a person or persons to attend a meeting of the Committee without requiring that a memorial be submitted.

Restrictions on Numbers and Speakers.

58. A deputation shall not exceed five in number and only two members thereof shall be at liberty to address the Council or a Committee of the Council except in reply to questions from Members of the Council or the Committee and the matter shall not be further considered in the case of the Council until the deputation has completed its address to the Council and in the case of the Committee until the deputation has withdrawn from the Committee room.

Form of Petition.

59. A petition may only be presented to the Council by a Member, or the Clerk and the Member, or the Clerk, whichever is the case, who shall first acquaint himself with the contents thereof and ascertain that it is in proper form as prescribed by the next succeeding clause provided always that in the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this clause and any of the provisions of the Act, the latter prevail.

60. A petition to the Council shall be in or substantially in the form contained in the Schedule to this by-law and without limiting the generality of the foregoing a petition shall—

60:1 contain no language which is disrespectful to the Council;

60:2 contain a concise statement of the relief sought by the petitioners or of the acts matters or things the petitioners pray the Council to do or refrain from doing;

60:3 contain the full names and addresses of all the petitioners in typewriting, characters or printing; and

60:4 be signed by each and every one of the petitioners in his or her own handwriting.

61. The Council shall not be bound to receive or consider any petition that does not comply with the preceding clause.

Motions of Presentation of Petition.

62. On the presentation of a petition, the Member presenting the same shall confine himself to the reading of the prayer therein only, and the only motions that shall be in order shall be that such petition be received and if necessary that it be referred to a Committee or, if the subject matter thereof is considered by the President as urgent it shall be introduced by the Member presenting in Motions without Notice.

Division 8—Privilege.

If Member feels himself Aggrieved.

63. Notwithstanding anything contained in this by-law, any Member feeling himself aggrieved by anything which has transpired between the termination of one meeting of the Council and the commencement of another, may raise the question of privilege; provided that before raising a question of privilege the Member shall first obtain the consent and approval of the Council thereto.

Procedure on Privilege.

64. In the event of a question of privilege being raised by a Member such question shall thereupon take precedence over all other business before the Council and be raised immediately after the confirmation of the minutes of the preceding meeting or meetings.

PART IV—Conduct of Meetings.

Division 1—Respect to the Chair.

65. After a meeting of the Council has been formally constituted and the business thereof commenced, a Member shall not enter, leave or withdraw from such meeting, without first paying due respect to the Chair by referring to the President.

Division 2—Rules of Debate.

66. Any Councillor moving a motion or amendment, or taking part in the discussion thereon, shall rise and address the President.

Titles to be Used.

67. A speaker in referring to any other member present shall designate him by the title of President or Councillor, as the case may be.

Priority of Speaking.

68. Where two or more Councillors stand at the same time the President shall decide which of them is entitled to priority.

President to be Heard.

69. Whenever the President rises during a debate any Councillor then speaking or offering to speak shall cease speaking and the Council shall be silent so that the President may be heard without interruption.

The President to Take Part in Debates.

70. Subject to the provisions of this by-law it shall be competent for the President to take part in a discussion upon any question before the Council. Provided that he shall address the Council before the right of reply is exercised.

Speaking Twice.

71. Except where the operation of this clause is suspended under clause 73 a Member shall not speak twice on the same question except—

71:1 in reply, upon an original motion of which he was the mover;

71:2 in reply, upon an amendment last debated of which he was the mover; or 71:3 by way of personal explanation.

Calling of Order for Speaking Twice.

72. The President shall, without waiting for the intervention of the Council, call to order any member proceeding to speak a second time on the same question.

Suspension.

73. The Council may by resolution moved without notice suspend the operation of clause 71 hereof and thereupon such clause shall be suspended until such time as the Council shall, by similar resolution, otherwise decide.

No Speech after Certain Events.

74. No Member shall speak on any motion or amendment—

74:1 after the mover has replied; or

74:2 after the question has been put.

Mover and Seconder have Spoken.

75. A Member moving or seconding a motion or amendment having addressed the Council upon the motion or amendment shall be deemed for the purpose of Clause 71 to have spoken on the question.

Division 3—Right of Reply.

76. The mover of an original motion shall have the right of reply and in exercising that reply shall strictly confine himself to answering previous speakers and not introduce any new matter.

Right of Reply by Mover of Original Motion.

77. If no amendment shall be moved after the proposal of an original motion, the mover may reply at the conclusion of the discussion on his motion. If there be an amendment the mover of the original motion shall make his right of reply at the conclusion of all discussion on the substantive motion, notwithstanding that he would have a right to enter into debate on any amendments which are moved to his original motion.

Right of Reply by Mover of Amendment.

78. If there be an amendment the mover of such amendment shall have the right of reply to discussion on his amendment.

Division 4—Point of Order.

Point of Order to be Heard.

79. A Member who is addressing the President shall not be interrupted except upon a Point of Order in which event he shall cease speaking until the Member raising the Point of Order has been heard thereon and the question of order has been disposed of, whereupon the Member so interrupted may, if permitted, proceed.

Acceptable Points.

80. A Member expressing a difference of opinion with or contradicting a speaker shall not be recognised as raising a Point of Order. The following shall be recognised as breaches of order:—

80:1 Discussion of a question not before the Council;

80:2 The use of offensive or insulting language;

80:3 The violation of any by-law or Standing Order of the Council;

80:4 The presentation of false or misleading information;

80:5 An inquiry of a member in accordance with clause 114 hereof as to whether or not he has a prohibiting interest in the matter under discussion.

Precedence to Questions of Order.

81. Notwithstanding anything contained in this by-law to the contrary, all questions of order at any time arising shall, until decided, suspend the consideration and decision of every other question.

Rulings of President.

82. The President, when deciding a Point of Order or practice, shall give his decision and argument or comment shall not be permitted thereon and his decision shall be final in that particular case unless a majority of the Members then present shall, upon motion made forthwith, dissent therefrom.

Division 5—Personal Explanation.

Personal Explanation.

83. A Member making a personal explanation shall confine it to a succinct explanation of a material part of his former speech which may have been misunderstood and to the explanation itself and shall not advert to matters not strictly necessary for that purpose or seek to strengthen his former argument by new matters or by replying to other Members.

Personal Explanation—Member to be Heard.

84. A Member desirous of making a personal explanation of matters referred to by any Member then speaking shall be entitled to be heard forthwith if the Member then speaking consents at the time but if the Member who is speaking declines to give way the explanation must be offered at the conclusion of the speech.

Ruling on Questions of Personal Explanation.

85. The ruling of the President on the admissibility of a personal explanation shall be final and conclusive and shall not be open to discussion or dissent.

Division 6—Motions.

Substance of Motion to be Stated.

86. Any Member desirous of proposing an original motion or amendment shall state its substance before he addresses the Council thereon, and if so required by the President shall put the motion or amendment in writing.

Unopposed Business.

87. Upon a motion being moved, the President may ask the meeting if any Member opposes it. If no one signifies his opposition to the motion or his opposition to the motion being treated as unopposed business, the President may declare the motion carried without debate and without taking a vote thereon. Any motion declared carried under this by-law shall for all purposes be deemed a resolution of the Council. If any Member signifies his opposition to a motion or to a motion being treated as unopposed business, the motion shall be dealt with according to the following clauses.

Motions and Amendments to be Seconded.

88. Save for a motion dealt with as unopposed business under the preceding clause a motion or amendment shall not be discussed or put to the vote of the Council unless seconded. A point of order is not required to be seconded.

Motion for Position of President.

89. A nomination to the position of President or Deputy President is not required to be seconded.

Consent of Seconder Required to Accept Amendment.

90. It shall not be competent for the mover of an original motion to amend the same without the consent of his seconder.

Member May Require Question to be Read.

91. Any Member may require the question or matter under discussion to be read for his information at any time during a debate, but not so as to interrupt any other member whilst speaking.

Permissible Motions during Debate.

92. Subject to clause 182 when a motion is under debate no further motion shall be moved except a motion—

92:1 that the motion be amended;
92:2 that the Council do adjourn;
92:3 that the debate be adjourned;
92:4 that the question be now put;
92:5 that the Council do proceed with the next business;
92:6 that the Council do sit behind closed doors;
92:7 that the meeting be now closed; or
92:8 that a Committee Recommendation be referred back to the originating Committee, or any other Standing Committee.

Procedural Motions.

93. Permissible motions during debate shall be known as procedural motions.

Division of Motions.

94. The President may, at his discretion, or the Council may by motion without debate order a complicated motion to be divided and put in the form of two or more motions.

Negatived Motions.

95. A motion to the same effect as any motion which has been negatived by the Council shall not again be entertained within a period of three months, except with the consent of such of the Councillors present at the Meeting at which the motion was negatived to retain their status and position as a Councillor.

Withdrawal of Motions.

96. A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the mover with the consent of the Council which shall be signified without debate; and it shall not be competent for any member to speak upon the motion or amendment after the mover has asked permission for its withdrawal unless that permission is refused.

Limitation of Withdrawal.

97. An original or substantive motion shall not be withdrawn until any amendment proposed thereto has been withdrawn or negated except with the consent of the Council which shall be signified without debate.

Authority for Withdrawal.

98. A motion or an amendment to a motion shall not be withdrawn in the absence of the Member who proposed it, except with his written authority.

No digression.

99. A Member shall not speak otherwise than upon or digress from the question then before the Council except to make a personal explanation.

Division 7—Amendments.

Nature of Amendments.

100. An amendment to a motion shall take one or more of the following forms:—

100:1 that certain words be omitted therefrom;
100:2 that certain words be omitted therefrom and others substituted;
100:3 that words be added.

101. An amendment to a Motion shall not have the effect of negating the general intention of the original motion and the ruling of the President in this regard shall be final unless a majority of Members then present shall, upon a motion made forthwith, dissent therefrom.

Amendment to Relate to Motion.

102. Every amendment shall be relevant to the motion on which it is moved.

103. Every amendment shall be read before being moved.

One Amendment at a Time.

104. Only one amendment shall be discussed at a time, but as often as an amendment is lost, another amendment may be moved before the original motion is put to the vote, except that where an amendment is carried one further amendment to the original motion, as amended and no more, may be moved.

Notice of Further Amendments.

105. In speaking to an amendment a member may give notice of his intention to move a further amendment.

Amended Motion Treated as Original Motion.

106. Where an amendment is carried, the original motion as amended shall, for all purposes of subsequent debate and subject only to Clause 102, be treated as an original motion.

Division 8—Voting.

All Members to Vote.

107. The President, when present, shall exercise a deliberative vote and may not exercise a casting vote. At every meeting of the Council save where the Act otherwise provides every member present in the Council Chamber when the question is put shall vote and if any member who is entitled to vote fails to vote the President shall call upon him to vote.

Equality of Votes.

108. Where there is any equal division of votes upon any question the question shall be resolved in the negative.

Method of Taking the Vote.

109. Save as provided in Clause 87, the President shall in taking the vote on any motion or amendment put the question first in the affirmative and then in the negative and he may do so as often as is necessary to enable him to form and declare his opinion as to whether the affirmative or the negative has the majority by a show of hands.

Division May be Called.

110. The result of voting openly shall be determined on a count of raised hands but may be determined on the voices unless a member of Council calls for a show of hands.

Division Procedure.

111. Upon a division being called for the President may, if he thinks fit, order that the division bell be rung and after the lapse of one half of a minute from the bell ceasing to ring a member shall not be permitted to enter or leave the chamber until after the division has been taken.

Division—How Taken.

112. The division shall thereupon be taken by those voting in the affirmative passing to the right of the chair and those voting in the negative to the left of the chair.

Record of Voting.

113. The names of the Members who voted on the question on which there is the division shall be recorded by the Clerk in respect of every division together with details of whether they voted in the affirmative or the negative.

Members' Interests.

114. Where in the opinion of the President a Member may have an interest in the matter under discussion such as to prohibit him from taking part in the consideration or voting on the matter as provided under section 174 of the Act, the President shall inquire of the Member whether or not he has such a prohibiting interest. The Member shall answer and if such answer is in the affirmative the provisions of section 174 shall apply. The President shall make such an inquiry of the Member if requested so to do by any other Member present at the Meeting.

Division 9—General.

Rescission of Resolution.

115. The Council may at the same meeting at which it is passed, rescind or alter a resolution if all the Members who were present in the Council Chamber at the time the resolution was passed are also present in the Council Chamber at the time the rescission or alteration is proposed.

116. The Council may, at a meeting after that at which it was passed, rescind or alter a resolution—

116:1 where notice of the motion to rescind or alter is not given, if a motion to that effect was carried by an absolute majority of the Members; or

116:2 where the Member intending to propose the rescission or alteration has, through the Clerk given written notice of his intention to each of the other Members at least seven days before the meeting, if a motion to that effect is carried by the majority of the Members voting on the proposal at the meeting;

but not otherwise.

Suspension of Standing Orders.

117. In cases of urgent necessity any Standing Order of the Council may be suspended on motion duly made and seconded but that motion shall not be declared carried unless an absolute majority of the Council, or a two-thirds majority of those present and voting on the question, whichever is the lesser number, have voted in favour of the motion.

Motion for Suspension of Standing Orders.

118. Any Member moving the suspension of a Standing Order shall state the object of the motion, but discussion shall not otherwise take place thereon.

Motions Affecting Expenditure.

119. Where a motion or amendment would have the effect of incurring expenditure not provided for in the Budget, that motion or amendment shall not be moved other than in the form of a reference of the question to the Finance Committee.

Production of Documents.

120. A member may of right require the production of any of the documents of the Council relating to a question or matter under discussion.

121. On giving to the Clerk not less than four hours notice, a Member shall be entitled to have laid on the Council table for the duration of a meeting any document or record of the Council and the Clerk, on receiving that notice, shall lay the document on the Council table at the commencement of the meeting.

122. Save as provided in this clause no Member shall require an officer of the Municipality or any other person to produce or make available to him or any person nominated by him any document or record of the Council unless he has the written approval of the Clerk for the same and the document or record at the same time is made available to all other Members provided always that the provisions of this clause do not apply to the Council Valuation Register or Books of Account.

Tabling of Documents.

123. Where a member during debate tables any document, details thereof shall be recorded in the Minutes of the Meeting provided always that such a document becomes a part of the public record and a copy thereof shall be made available to any member of the Council upon request.

PART V—Debate on Permissible Motions.

Division 1—Laying the Question on the Table.

That the Question Lie on the Table.

124. A Member may, at the conclusion of the speech of any other Member move, without notice, that the question lie on the table.

That the Question Lie on the Table.

125. On a motion that the question lie on the table, the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak other than formally to second, and no other debate shall be allowed.

126. If a motion that the question lie on the table is carried debate on that question shall not be resumed until a motion has been passed to take the question from the table which may be moved at the same meeting.

Who May Move to Lay the Question on the Table.

127. The mover and the seconder of the question then under debate and a Member who has spoken on that question shall not move the laying of the question on the table.

128. A Member shall not, at the same sitting of the Council, move or second more than one motion for the laying of the question on the table.

Speaker on Resumption of Tabled Question.

129. The Member moving the taking of the question from the table shall be entitled to speak first upon the resumption of the debate thereon.

Names of Speakers Recorded.

130. On a motion for the laying of the question on the table being carried, a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under debate and they shall not be permitted to speak on any resumption of the debate on that subject, but this clause does not deprive a mover of the original motion of the right of reply.

Amendment and Election of Chairman Excluded.

131. A motion that the question lie on the table shall not be amended nor shall be moved in respect of the election of the President.

Division 2—That Debate be Adjourned.

Motion for Adjournment of Debate.

132. A Member may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Member move, without notice, that the debate be adjourned to a later hour of the same meeting or to a subsequent meeting of the Council.

133. On a motion that the debate be adjourned, the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak other than formally to second and no other debate shall be allowed; but if the question then before the Council is a recommendation from a Committee, the Chairman of the Committee concerned, or in his absence a member thereof, may speak for not more than five minutes.

Who May Move for Adjournment.

134. A Member who has spoken on the question then under debate shall not move the adjournment of the debate.

135. A Member shall not, at the same sitting of the Council move or second more than one motion for the adjournment of the same debate.

Speaker on Resumption of Adjourned Debate.

136. On resuming an adjourned debate the member who moved its adjournment shall be entitled to speak first.

Names of Speakers Recorded.

137 On a motion for the adjournment of a debate being carried, a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under debate and they shall not be permitted to speak on any resumption of the debate on that subject, but this clause does not deprive a mover of the original motion of the right of reply.

Election of President Excluded.

138. The adjournment of the debate shall not be moved in respect of the election of the President.

Division 3—That Council Adjourn.

That Council do Adjourn.

139. A Member may, at the conclusion of the speech of any other Member or on the conclusion of any business move without notice that the Council do now adjourn and that motion shall state the time and date to which the adjournment is to be made.

140. On a motion to adjourn the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak other than formally to second and the mover of the motion (if any) which was then under debate may speak for not more than five minutes, but no other debate shall be allowed.

Limit to Further Motion.

141. Where a motion of the adjournment of the Council is negatived, no similar motion shall be moved until after the question then under discussion or the next business of the Notice Paper have been disposed of. If for the greater convenience of the Council it is resolved that some other business be given precedence over the business appearing next on the Notice Paper then for the purpose of this clause that business shall stand in the place of the business next on the Notice Paper.

Who May Move Motion.

142. A Member who has spoken on the question then before the Council shall not move the adjournment of the Council.

143. A Member shall not, at the same sitting of the Council, move or second more than one motion for the adjournment of the Council.

Resumption of Adjourned Meeting.

144. On a motion for the adjournment of the Council being carried, the debate on the question (if any) under debate when the motion was moved shall be continued immediately upon the Council resuming after the adjournment.

Names of Speakers to be Recorded.

145. Upon a motion for the adjournment of the Council being carried, a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under consideration at the time of the adjournment and they shall not be permitted to speak on any subsequent consideration of the same subject, but this clause does not deprive a mover of the original motion of the right of reply.

146. Upon a motion to adjourn the Council being carried the President shall adjourn the meeting to such time and date as the motion specifies or where no time and date is specified to such time and date as the President shall then declare.

Division 4—That the Question be Not Now Put.

Motion of the Previous Question.

147. A Member may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Member move, without notice, in regard to the substantive motion that the question be not now put.

148. On a motion that the question be not now put, the mover and seconder may speak but no Member shall speak for more than five minutes.

Who May Move the Previous Question.

149. Neither the mover nor the seconder of nor a Member who has spoken on the substantive motion then under debate or any amendment thereto shall move or speak to the motion that the question be not now put nor shall the motion be moved while there is an amendment to the substantive motion before the meeting.

150. A Member shall not, at the same sitting of the Council, move or second more than one motion that the question be not now put.

Resuming the Motion.

151. Where a motion that the question be not now put is carried, debate on that question shall not be resumed at the same meeting or any adjournment thereof and shall not be resumed at any subsequent meeting unless moved again and seconded in which case for the purpose of determining the order and right of speaking, debate on the question shall proceed as if it had not previously been moved and debated.

152. Where a motion that the question be not now put is not carried, the substantive motion shall be put to the vote forthwith, without further discussion or amendment.

Election of President Excluded.

153. That the question be not now put shall not be moved in respect of the election of the President.

President May Refuse Motion.

154. The President may refuse to accept the motion that the question be not now put if in his opinion the question under debate is specially contentious or specially significant to the interests of the Council or the Municipality.

Division 5—That the Question be Put.

Motion Question be Put.

155. A Member may subject to clause 160 at any time move without notice and without comment that the question be now put and upon that motion being seconded that motion shall immediately be put, without debate.

Who May Move, Majority, etc.

156. A motion that the question be now put shall not be moved by the mover or seconder or a Member who has spoken on the substantive motion or any amendment of it.

Right of Reply.

157. When it is decided by the Council that the question under consideration be put the mover of the question under consideration shall, if debate has ensued and if otherwise entitled to do so, be permitted to speak in reply for not more than five minutes before the question is put but subject thereto the question shall be at once put.

Motion and Amendment Included.

158. A closure may be moved in regard to an amendment motion and if carried the amendment shall be put to the vote immediately without any further discussion but in that case the debate on the substantive motion shall not be affected.

Motion and Amendment Included.

159. When it is decided by the Council in regard to a substantive motion that the question be now put, the question to be so put includes the substantive motion as well as any amendment thereto already passed.

President May Refuse Motion.

160. The President may refuse to accept the motion that the question be now put and he shall so refuse if in his opinion the closure will have the effect of unfairly limiting debate before the principal arguments for and against the question have been presented.

Division 6.

That the Council Proceed to Next Business.

Motion that Council Proceed to Next Business.

161. A Member may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Member move, without notice and without comment, that the Council do proceed to the next business and upon that motion being seconded it shall immediately be put without debate.

162. Neither the mover nor the seconder nor a Member who has spoken on the substantive motion shall move that the Council proceed to the next business.

Question Considered Dropped.

163. Where the Council resolved to proceed to the next business, the question which was then under discussion shall be removed from consideration and if the question which was under discussion was another formal motion or an amendment of a substantive motion, it is the formal motion or the amendment as the case may be which is removed from consideration and not the substantive motion.

Limitation of Time between Motions.

164. During the same debate on any question a motion that the Council do proceed with the next business shall not be moved within one hour after a similar motion has been negatived.

Election of President Excluded.

165. That the Council proceed to the next business shall not be moved in respect of the election of the President.

Division 7—That the Meeting be Closed.

Motion that the Meeting be Closed.

166. A Member may, at the conclusion of the speech of any other member or on the conclusion of any business, move without notice that the meeting of Council be now closed.

167. On a motion that the Council be closed, the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak other than formally to second and the mover of the motion (if any) then under debate may speak for not more than five minutes; but no other debate shall be allowed.

When Motion Negatived.

168. If a motion that the meeting of the Council be closed is negatived a similar motion shall not be moved until after the question then under discussion or the next on the motion paper or any other which may be allowed precedence has been disposed of.

Who May Move Motion.

169. A Member who has spoken on the question then before the Council shall not move that the meeting be closed.

170. A Member shall not at the same meeting of the Council move or second more than one motion that the meeting be closed.

Procedure Question Under Debate when Motion Carried.

171. On a motion that the meeting be closed being carried, the debate on the question (if any) under debate when the motion was moved shall stand adjourned to its place on the notice paper for the next meeting of the Council.

Record of Speakers.

172. On a motion that the meeting be closed being carried a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under consideration up to the closing of the meeting and they shall not be permitted to speak on any subsequent consideration of the same subject, but this clause does not deprive a mover of the original motion of the right of reply.

Division 8.

That Council do Sit Behind Closed Doors.

Council Meeting Not Open to Public.

173. Ordinary and Special Meetings of the Council shall be open to the public except on such occasions as the Council by resolution which may be moved without notice directs otherwise.

Business Behind Closed Doors.

174. After the carrying of a resolution under Clause 173 of this by-law the business at the meeting of the Council shall not be open to the public but shall proceed behind closed doors until the Council by resolution decides that the meeting shall be open to the public.

Speeches on Motions to Exclude Public.

175. The member of the Council moving a motion that the public be excluded from a meeting of the Council or part thereof or that a meeting be re-opened to the public may speak in support thereof for not more than five minutes but the seconder shall not be permitted to speak beyond formally seconding the motion.

Right of Reply Governed.

176. Upon a motion being made that a meeting of the Council or part thereof be not open to the public the mover of the question then under debate, if any, may without prejudice to his right of reply be heard in reply on the motion (that the meeting or part thereof be not open to the public) for five minutes after which the question shall be at once put without debate.

Unqualified Persons to Leave Meeting.

177. Upon the carrying of such resolution under Clause 173 the President shall direct all persons other than Councillors and officers of the Council to leave the meeting and all such persons shall forthwith comply with such direction.

President May Order Removal.

178. Any person failing to comply with such direction shall commit a breach of these Standing Orders and in addition to any penalty to which he may be liable in respect of such breach may by order of the President be removed from the Council Chamber.

Removal of Limit to Speeches.

179. While a resolution under Clause 173 of this by-law is in force the operation of Clause 71 hereof shall be suspended unless the Council shall by resolution otherwise decide. The last mentioned resolution may be moved without notice.

Confidential Matters.

180. All matters and questions considered or discussed by the Council other than in meetings open to the public shall be treated as strictly confidential and shall not, without the authority of the Council be disclosed to any person other than the President, Councillors or Officers of the Council (and in the case of the officers, only so far as may be necessary for the performance of their duties) prior to the discussion of that matter at a meeting of the Council.

Reading of Resolutions Passed.

181. Upon the public again being admitted to the meeting in accordance with Clause 174 the Clerk shall unless the Council by resolution otherwise decides read out the resolutions passed by the Council whilst it was proceediing behind closed doors and details of any division taken or interests declared.

Division 9.

Question may be Referred Back to Committee.

182. Where the question before the Council is a recommendation from a Committee of the Council a member may at the conclusion of the speech of any other member move without notice that the question be referred back to the Committee; and on any such motion the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak other than to formally second, and the Chairman of the Committee concerned or in his absence a member thereof may speak for not more than five minutes but no other debate shall be allowed.

PART VI—Disturbance and Breach of Order.

No Adverse Reflection on Council.

183. A Member shall not reflect adversely upon a resolution of the Council except on a motion, that the resolution be rescinded or amended.

No Adverse Reflection on Member.

184. A Member shall not reflect adversely upon the character or actions of another Member nor impute any motive to a Member unless the Council resolves without debate that the question then before the Council cannot otherwise be adequately considered.

Record of Words Spoken.

185. A Member may require the Clerk to take down any particular words used by another Member immediately upon their being used if such words are considered by the Member to be in contravention of Clause 184.

Demands for Withdrawal.

186. If a Member commits a breach of Clause 183 or 184 the President may require him unreservedly to withdraw any offending comment and to make a satisfactory apology; and if the Councillor declines or neglects to do so the President may direct such Member to cease speaking and may call on the next speaker.

Disturbance by Members.

187. A Member shall not make any noise or disturbance or converse aloud while any other person is addressing the Council, excepting—

187:1 to raise a point of order; or

187:2 to call attention to want of a quorum.

188. The President may call the attention of the Council to continued irrelevance, tedious repetition, unbecoming language, or any breach of order or decorum on the part of a Member and may direct that Member, if speaking, to discontinue his speech and thereupon the Member shall cease speaking.

Respect for Speaker.

189. When the President is putting any question a member shall not walk out of or across the Chamber and shall not, whilst any other Member is speaking, pass between the speaker and the Chair.

Definition of Order.

190. Any Member who shall do anything or behave in a manner which is forbidden by any section of these Standing Orders shall be deeemd to be out of order.

President to Preserve Order.

191. The President shall preserve order and may call any Member to order whenever, in his opinion, there is cause for so doing.

Members may Direct Attention to Breaches of Order.

192. Every Member shall be entitled to direct the attention of the President to any infraction of the Standing Orders by any other member; or to draw the attention of the President to any matter of which he may take notice under clause 185.

Retraction or Apology on any Matter.

193. Whenever the President has decided that any motion, amendment or other matter before the Council is out of order he shall reject it; and whenever anything said or done in the Council by any Councillor is similarly decided to be out of order that Councillor may be called upon by the President to make such explanation retraction or apology as the case may require.

194. Where a Member persists in any conduct which the President decides is out of order, or refuses to make a withdrawal or satisfactory apology required by the President under Clause 186, or refuses to make an explanation, retraction or apology required by the President under Clause 193, the President may direct that Member to refrain from taking any further part in the then meeting of the Council other than by recording his vote.

195. Any Member failing to comply with such a direction shall commit a breach of these Standing Orders and shall be subject to the penalty prescribed by the penalty clause herein.

Serious Disorder.

196. If at a meeting of the Council the President is of the opinion that by reason of disorder or otherwise the business of the Council cannot effectually be continued, he may adjourn the meeting for a period of fifteen minutes, whereafter the Council shall reassemble and decide whether business is to be proceeded with; and that question shall be decided forthwith and without debate.

197. Where after any proceeding under Clause 196 the President is again of the opinion that the business of the Council cannot effectually be continued, he may close the meeting.

Rulings by President.

198. The President, when deciding a point of order or practice, shall give his decision, and argument or comment shall not be permitted thereon, and his decision shall be final in that particular case unless a majority of the Councillors then present shall, upon motion made forthwith without discussion, dissent therefrom.

PART VII—Committees.

Division 1—Standing Committees.

Appointment of Standing Committees.

199. In addition to such Occasional Committees as may from time to time be appointed, there shall be a Finance Committee and such other Standing Committees as the Council shall resolve at the first meeting of the Council after the annual election each year.

Composition of Committees.

200. The members of each Standing Committee shall comprise of the Councillors. The number of members of a Committee shall be decided upon by the Council at the first meeting of Council held after the annual election each year provided that the number of members of a Committee shall be less than one half of the total number of members of Council.

201. The Council may appoint one of its Members to be a deputy to act on behalf of a member of an Occasional or Standing Committee whenever that member is unable to be present at a meeting thereof, and if the deputy is requested by the member for whom he is a deputy or the Council to attend any such meeting in place of the member;

201:1 he is entitled to so attend and act for the member thereat; and 201:2 while so acting has all the powers of that member.

202. A Councillor who is a member of an Occasional or Standing Committee is not eligible to be appointed a deputy for a member of that Occasional or Standing Committee.

Term of Office.

203. Subject to Clause 204 the members of each Standing Committee shall be appointed at the first meeting of the Council held after the annual election and shall hold office until the first Sunday after the first Saturday in May in any year.

Council May Change Membership.

204. The Council may, by resolution carried pursuant to a notice of motion, by a simple majority or on a motion moved without notice by an absolute majority, change the membership of any committee or appoint a substitute for a member absent pursuant to leave granted by the Council.

Duties of Committees.

205. The powers and duties of Standing Committees shall be such as the Council from time to time defines.

Election of Committees.

206. Members of a Standing Committee or Occasional Committee shall, in default of agreement, be elected by ballot. The President, when present and every Councillor present, shall have a deliberative vote.

Chairmen of Standing Committees.

207. The President subject to the provisions of section 182 of the Act is ex-officio a member and Chairman of every Committee.

Chairmen of Standing Committees.

208. The President may, but is not obliged to, preside as Chairman of the meetings of a Committee and if in accordance with the Act he intimates his intention not to do so, or does not intimate his intention at all, the members of the Committee may elect one of their number to preside in his stead.

209. The President shall intimate his intention to preside as Chairman of the Meetings of a Committee at the time of the Appointment of the Committee.

210. If the President intimates or is regarded as having intimated that his intention is not to preside, he shall not, unless under section 182 (6) of the Act he is authorised to do so, preside until the corresponding first meeting of the Committee in the following year.

Division 2—Occasional Committees.

Appointment of Occasional Committees.

211. The Council may appoint Occasional Committees to perform any duty which may be lawfully entrusted by it to a Committee.

Number of Members.

212. An Occasional Committee may comprise any number of members provided that the number of members shall be less than one-half of the total number of Council.

Standing Committee not to Interfere.

213. A Standing Committee shall not interfere in any matter which has for the time being been entrusted to an Occasional Committee.

Details of Appointment.

214. An Occasional Committee shall not be appointed except on a motion setting out—

214:1 the duties proposed to be entrusted to such Committee; and

214:2 either—

214:2:1 The names of the Councillors of whom it is intended to constitute the Committee; or 214:2:2 The number of members intended to constitute the Committee and a provision that they be elected by a separate motion.

Division 3—General.

Advisory and Managing Committees.

215. Whenever the Council thinks fit it may appoint persons, whether Members or not, as an Advisory Committee, or as a Managing Committee, in accordance with and for any of the purposes set out respectively in sections 180 and 181 of the Act.

Calling of Meetings.

216. The Clerk shall call a meeting of any Committee when requested so to do by the President or the Chairman or any two members of that Committee.

Standing Orders to Apply Mutatis Mutandis.

217. Except in so far as they limit the number of times a member may speak or require meetings to be conducted with open doors, these Standing Orders shall be observed at meetings of Committees; but the Chairman of a Committee may have and exercise both a deliberative and in the case of equality of votes a casting vote. For the purpose of this clause, reference to the President in Parts II to VI inclusive and Part IX shall, where the context permits, be read as a reference to the Chairman of a Committee.

Quorum of Committee.

218. At any meeting of a Committee the number of members necessary to form a quorum—

218:1 where the total number of the members of the Committee is an even number, is one-half of that total, plus one; or

218:2 where the total number of the members of the Committee is an odd number, is the integer nearest to but greater than one-half of that total.

Adjournment of Committees.

219. Any Committee of the Council may adjourn from time to time.

Unfinished Business of Former Committees.

220. It shall be competent for every Committee of the Council to take up matters referred by the Council to the preceding Committee which may not have entered upon or fully discharged at the time such Committee went out of office by effluxion of time.

Confidentiality.

221. Matters dealt with by Committees of Council shall remain confidential until they have been considered by Council at a meeting held with open doors.

222. The preceding clause shall not preclude a member of a Committee from making further enquiry and investigation of a matter dealt with by a Committee provided that the deliberation of and any recommendation made or proposed by the Committee shall remain confidential.

Meeting Lapses if No Quorum.

223. Every meeting shall proceed to business so soon after the time stated in the notice as a quorum is constituted; but if a quorum is lacking one half-hour after the appointed time of the meeting the Chairman, or if he is not present a Councillor elected from those present, or if no Councillor is present, the Clerk may adjourn the meeting to a later time on the same day if in his opinion a quorum will be present at that time. If a quorum is lacking one half-hour after the time to which the meeting was adjourned the meeting shall lapse.

Appointment of Sub-Committees.

224. A Committee may appoint a Sub-Committee of its members and delegate to the Sub-Committee the exercise of such of the powers and the performance of such of the duties of the Committee as the Committee thinks fit; but the Sub-Committee shall not exercise a power or perform a duty without the approval of the Committee by which the Sub-Committee is appointed.

Minutes of Committees.

225. Each Committee shall cause to be kept a Minute Book in which shall be entered minutes of all its proceedings and transactions.

226. The minutes of each meeting shall be confirmed at the next meeting of the Committee and shall be signed and dated by the Chairman thereof.

Committees to Report.

227. Committees are answerable to the Council and shall report regularly to Ordinary Meetings of the Council and in addition shall report to the Council fully on its activities when required by the Council to do so.

Communications by Committee.

228. No Committee shall communicate with any outside person or authority except through the Clerk, as the Officer of the Council duly authorised for the purpose.

Resignation of Seat on Committee.

229. Any member of a Committee may resign his seat on the Committee by notice in writing signed by him and addressed to the Clerk and when delivered to the Clerk, his seat on the Committee shall become vacant. Council may from time to time fill a vacancy in a Committee in the manner provided for the election or appointment of the members thereof.

PART VIII—Miscellaneous.

Representation on Public Bodies.

230. Whenever it becomes necessary to appoint a member of the Council to represent the Council on a public body or a State instrumentality notice of the necessity to make that appointment shall, if time permits, be given at the meeting of the Council immediately preceding the meeting at which it is intended to make the appointment.

Meeting of Electors.

231. The Standing Orders apply, so far as is practicable, to any meeting of electors, but where there is any inconsistency between the provisions of this by-law and the provisions of s. 171 of the Act, the latter prevails.

Non-Electors Not to Speak or Vote.

232. A person who is not an elector is not entitled to vote at a meeting of electors and he may not take any part in any discussion at that meeting unless the meeting by a motion, requests him to do so.

Meeting of Ratepayers.

233. The Standing Orders apply so far as is practicable to any meeting of ratepayers but where there is inconsistency between the provisions of this by-law and the provisions of s. 171 of the Act the latter prevails.

Non-Ratepayers Not to Speak or Vote.

234. A person who is not a ratepayer is not entitled to vote at a meeting of ratepayers and he may not take any part in any discussion at that meeting unless the meeting, by a motion, requests him to do so.

Cases Not Provided for in Standing Orders.

235. The President shall decide all questions of order, procedure, debate, or otherwise in respect of which no provisions or insufficient provision is made in this by-law, taking as a guide firstly any relevant provisions of the Act and secondly the procedure of the Western Australian Parliament in that behalf. The decision of the President in all such cases shall be final in that particular case unless a majority of the Members then present shall, on motion made forthwith, without discussion dissent therefrom.

236. If there is inconsistency between any provision in this by-law and any provision in the Act then the provision of the Act shall prevail.

Penalty.

237. Any person committing a breach of these Standing Orders is liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200).

Enforcement.

238. The President is authorised and required to enforce the Standing Orders and to prosecute for any breach thereof.

Revocation of Previous By-laws.

239. All previous by-laws of the Shire of Denmark referred to as "Standing Orders" or being in the nature of Standing Orders or otherwise relating to the conduct of the proceedings and business of the Council are hereby revoked.
